—On Saturday afternoon at the Nittany Rod & Gun Club reception for the farmers in this section about thirty additional farmers assigned to the club the exclusive privilege to hunt on their premises. That means that when the average person wants to go a gunning he has to be well informed as to his territory or be in danger of a severe penalty for trespassing. Our advice to these sports is not to be so bold as to when and where they have their outings. But they may learn later that gambling in public will not be tolerated, in this community.
