—Ex Gov. D. H. Hastings and wife and Col. J. L. Spangler and wife left Monday for Philadelphia.

—Mr. and Mrs. Newton Rearick, who visited friends in Bellefonte, returned to their home at Niagara Falls.

—Mrs. John Kelley left Monday afternoon for Punxsutawney where she will visit her mother, Mrs. McGinness.

—The streams are down to low water mark and rain to bring about a rise would be in order—if Providence thinks thus.

—Torrence Bell and his friend, Mr. Dayton, of East Hampton, L. I., are visiting at the Bell home on Thomas street.

—The Missouri Girl comes to the Bellefonte Opera House, Tuesday Oct. 22. This attraction should draw a packed house.

—Miss Lena Kepler, who spent the summer with friends in this place and Mill Hall, left Saturday for her home in Baltimore, Md.

—The game season opened beginning of this week. We did not learn of any big baggings, although the bragging may be big enough.

—Edward Hill went to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he will enter the Navy yard. He expects to be absent from Bellefonte for the next four years.

—Mrs. E. M. Blanchard and her daughter, Miss Mary M. Blanchard, left Monday to spend a few weeks with Mrs. Wistar Morris at Overbrook, Pa.

—Edward J. Lucas left Sunday morning for Philadelphia where he has accepted an excellent position with Berg Brothers large dry goods and clothing store.

—The mountains look beautiful, the foliage having put on the variegated hues of the autumnal season. Nature's tints are beyond the imitation of the most skilled artist's work.

—The Missouri Girl, with a wealth of beautiful scenery, will be presented by Sadie Raymond, assisted by a competent company at the Bellefonte opera house Tuesday, Oct. 22.

—County Chairman John J. Bower was to Harrisburg last week to attend the Democratic State Committee meeting and was one of the prominent personages, as he introduced the important resolutions of the day.

—Prof. C. E. Zeigler, of Penn Hall, has an advertisement in another part of this issue regarding his agency for the Bridgeport organs and pianos. Being a thorough musician he would not handle anything else but standard instruments.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon, of Pennsylvania Furnace, are visiting Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mittenell. Also Misses Mayde Smith and Helen Landis, both of Hollidaysburg, and Shaffer, of Philadelphia, are guests at the same place.

—A. S. Kauffman, of Glen Campbell, Pa., was in on Monday to have his paper set in the future to 14th South Broad street, Philadelphia, where he has accepted a position in the coal brokerage office of W. J. Fox. The young man is a former Nittany valley lad, raised near Zion and is advancing himself.

—Joseph J. Rhoads, of Tacony, has been awarded, as supervisor on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, line running between Philadelphia and New York, a prize of eight hundred dollars ($800) cash for the best lined track and surface road on that division. He is a son of the late Hon. Daniel Rhoads, of this place.

—Postmaster Hayes Schenk, of Howard, was a Bellefonte visitor, Tuesday evening.

—Mrs. John Nighthart left Wednesday afternoon for an extended visit with her mother at Jeanette.

—Had a slice of Indian summer last week, but it has left us and the fall breezes have taken its place.

—Some of the finest apples seen this year were brought to our office by Joel Tressler, of Walker twp. He has quite a lot of them this year.

—The Lord's Supper will be administered in the Lutheran church, by Rev. Dr. Holloway, pastor, next Sabbath morning and evening. Preparatory services Friday evening previous.

—Thursday evening, Oct. 24th a delightful musical feast will be given in the M. E. church, this place. A quartet of musicians from Harrisburg, will be here to assist in the exercises.

—Samuel Eldredge, Esq., of Cape May, N. J., and Miss Jessie Laurie, daughter of Rev. William Laurie, D. D., will be married at the Presbyterian parsonage, on North Spring street, this evening.

—Vogel's famous minstrels will be here on Friday evening and you can expect a rare musical treat. They have been here in the past and always gave the best of satisfaction. It will be an evening of rare entertainment.

—Nathan L. Atwood, of Girard, Erie county, Peoples' party candidate for supreme court judge, has filed in the state department notice of his withdrawal from the ticket. Mr. Atwood is the father of Origen Atwood, of this place.

—Taking distance and population into consideration, Centre county sent as many, if not more, visitors to the Buffalo Exposition, than any county in the state similarly situated. The travel in the past two weeks was especially brisk.

—Harter of the Gazette is in the Brush-valley wilds this week, with Sam. Strohecker, and they will bring down the game. We suppose that that section will be cleaned up now of all game in season, so there would be nothing left for Roosevelt if he went there.

—The Missouri Girl, which comes to the Bellefonte opera house Tuesday Oct. 22 has a hold on the theatre-going public. A car load of magnificent scenery to please those who enjoy the spectacular, lovely gowns and costumes to please the ladies and with all a production that is complete in every detail.

—On Saturday the Altoona Athletic Association foot ball team came to town and in the afternoon played the Academy team and won out by a score of 50 to 0. The visitors were much heavier and stronger and played a good game. That is the whole story. The Academy boys put up a very creditable game, but the visitors were too heavy.

—This Thursday evening the members of the Royal Arcanum expect a large attendance at their reception to be given in the hall of the Undine building. There will be some dignitaries of the order there to speak to you in an intelligent manner on questions that pertain to the order. You are welcome to call around and take in the exercises.

—Petriken Hall is under rapid headway with master mason John Noll in charge of the foundation and brick work and Isaac Miller in charge of the carpenter and other mechanical parts. The W. C. T. U. deserve great credit for their indefatigable push to bring Petriken Hall to a reality and as an edifice that will be an ornament to Bellefonte.

—On Friday we had a short call from R. F. Vonada, of Coburn, who is one of the successful commercial men of this county. Mr. Vonada now represents the C. A. Raine Tobacco Company, of Danville, Va., and travels over six counties in the central portion of the state. He reports business quite good in this territory and is placing large orders for this firm.

—On Monday the remaining stock of the Philad. Branch was sold to a New York firm and the room vacated. Sim Baum will occupy the place in the course of a few weeks. The Lewins family will remove to Philadelphia in a short time where they will reside. M. B. Garman, now living at Tyrone, has rented the Lewins residence on Linn street and will move here in November.

—Wm. C. Hipple and wife, of Baltimore, are spending a few weeks in the county visiting friends. Several years ago Mr. Hipple left his home, at Pine Glenn, this county, to accept a position in a large ice making plant in that city. At that time he was assigned to an ordinary position but in the course of a few years he gradually demonstrated his capacity and has risen to be superintendent of the establishment, which does a large business. Mrs. Hipple is a sister of District Attorney Spangler whom they visited a few days last week.

—The effects of the compulsory school law can easily be seen in this place. During the school hours it is a hard thing to catch a boy to run an errand or find one lounge about the streets. They are nearly all in school and the few that manage to play "hooky" are being traced down. The attendance officer will have these brought before the justice and their parents will have to stand the consequences. In the country districts the law is being rigidly enforced and is resulting in good attendance in the schools. Directors who do not insist on this law being enforced will have their appropriation reduced.

—A bright little boy came to the home of Joseph L. Montgomery, on Linn street, Tuesday.

—Mrs. Mary McMahon, and her son, George, left this afternoon for Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

—The Williamsport High School team and the Bellefonte Academy eleven will play a game of football here Saturday on the Fair grounds.

—The Bellefonte High School football team will go to Lock Haven Saturday and will play the Lock Haven High school eleven at Normal Park.

—Private Steward Hampton, of Company G 5th U. S., Artillery, stationed at Ft. Wadsworth, N. Y., visited his father at this place, on Wednesday.

—An oyster supper will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms by the ladies of the Lutheran church, Thursday, Oct. 31 and Friday November 1st, in the evenings.

—Box calf, patent leather, patent kid and Vicci kid, heavy and light shoes, in our line of Ladies $2.78 shoes—Yeager & Davis.

—Mrs. J. B. Corts and two little daughters, of Cleveland, O., were visitors at ex-sheriff Ishler's, having arrived last Saturday. Mrs. Corts is a niece of Mr. Ishler.

—Fred Raymond's famous comedy, The Missouri Girl, now in its eighth year will be presented at the Bellefonte opera house, Tuesday, Oct. 22. The scenery this season is said to be the finest ever turned out by any American artist. A grand scenic production is expected.

—Tuesday morning delegations of Bellefonte sports scattered in all directions in quest of game. Those who went up the Buffalo Run valley got strings of squirrels. Up the Bald Eagle about thirty wild turkeys were killed. Quail shooting did not pan out well. Few pheasants were killed. Among the lucky hunters who brought game home were: Harry Green, pheasant and 7 squirrels; George Meek, pheasant and 6 squirrels; Jacob Knisely, 7 squirrels; J. B. Gentzel and John Nighthart, 2 turkeys, 2 pheasants, 1 squirrel, 2 wild pigeons; Dr. Geissenger, 7 squirrels; Morris Verger, wild turkey; Abe Jackson, Bob Harris and Wm. Green, 11 squirrels; Jim Murray, 7 squirrels; A. B. Kimport and N. B. Spangler, 5 squirrels. By special request we make no mention of the records of John McGinley, Billy Cassidy, Bruce Garman, Chas. Heisler, Frank Graham, Al. Dale, John Trafford, and scores of others.

Dogs That Chased Deer Shot.
Reports from lumbermen working in the mountains at the White Deer creek say, that almost every day dogs are after deer, chasing them. Several have been driven into the valley close to Loganton. On Thursday a big five prong buck was driven up through the valley from Jacob Marks' farm to the Edgar Schwank farm, followed by two dogs. Mr. Schwank hearing the dogs after the deer grasped his Winchester rifle and went out in front of his house, and as the dogs came along shot both of them. The owner of the dogs is very indignant at Mr. Schwank for this act of justice, but it is according to law. Thus may all dogs suffer the penalty of the law for chasing deer out of season.

Buggy Used Up in a Runaway.
As Mrs. Mollie Reish was driving along the road near Krumrine Station in a buggy one day last week she was terrified to hear a runaway horse hitched to a big wagon coming down upon her. The next instant the crash came. The horse jumped into the back part of the buggy. One of the wheels was knocked off and the box of the buggy was crushed. Mrs. Reish escaped unhurt, but of course was badly scared. The runaway horse belonged to Fred W. Krumrine. He had driven to the woods to do some hauling. There the horse started to run home. Mr. Krumrine is having the buggy repaired for his neighbor.—Times.

Entertainment Course.
The Central Lyceum Bureau has completed arrangements to give eight high-class attractions in Garman's opera house, commencing with the end of November and running on to the middle of March. The course ticket will be sold for the small sum of $1.00; and these attractions are of such good quality that they should receive the hearty patronage of the people. The entertainments consist of jubilee singing, lectures, magic, ventriloquism, music, impersonation, comedy, etc. The canvassers are now waiting on the people for subscriptions.

Big Match Making.
The Bellefonte match factory every three days turns out matches sufficient to supply every man, woman and child in the country with a match—that means 75 million matches every three days, that number being the population of the United States. The Reynolds mill buildings are now turning out matches, all the mill machinery having been taken out, and the product of matches manufactured goes to the output of the Bellefonte Match factory, of which the mill buildings are now a part.

Trap-Shoot Tournament.
The Clarence Rod & Gun Club will give a two-day trap pigeon shoot, at that place on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 22nd and 23rd. They have a nice list of events and good prizes. The officers are W. R. Haynes, president; C. H. Watson, secretary; J. F. Uziele, Jr., treasurer.

—Heavy water-proof shoes, in our Ladies $2.78 shoes—Yeager & Davis.

RECENT DEATHS.

MISS DAISY BRERLY—of Rebersburg, died Tuesday night, 8, at the age of 26 years. The deceased was a victim of consumption. Funeral services were held Friday morning in the Reformed church.

ISAAC BUFFINGTON—died at his home in Penn township, on Friday, after a prolonged ailment of paralysis. He was aged 71 years. The interment took place on Sunday. He was a native of Dauphin county and leaves no relatives in this section.

MALCOLM SEIBERT—the little 8 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Seibert, died Monday evening, of diphtheria, at their home on Bishop street. Interment in the Union cemetery, Tuesday. The death was a great surprise as he was improving when heart troubles set in and terminated fatally. He was a bright child and this is a sore affliction to the parents.

DANIEL HOLLABAUGH—of Coleville, died at the home of his son, Daniel Hollabaugh, Jr., in that place Saturday morning. He had been ailing for some time and Friday night he fell down the cellar steps, injuring himself internally. He was aged 77 years and 25 days. Surviving him are three sons and one daughter, namely: Henry, of Spring township; George, Daniel and Sarah, of Coleville. Interment in Curtin cemetery Monday afternoon.

JOHN CAMPBELL—died at his home, in Julian, on Saturday morning. His age was 88 years, 1 month and 12 days. He is survived by the following children: Elizabeth White, Phillipsburg; Mrs. Edward Griffin, Stormstown; Clara Harbridge, Julian; G. E. Campbell, Julian; Josephine Murray, Richmond, Ind. The mother and five children preceded him to the grave. Interment on Tuesday at 9 a. m. He was a prominent citizen in that community. For three terms he was elected justice of the peace. He was sick for a few days; apparently sank away from the infirmities due to age.

Deaths in Adjoining Counties.
MRS. W. I. HARVEY—of Flemington, died in the Lock Haven hospital, Friday evening at 11 o'clock. She was the daughter of James Lucas and was born at Marsh Creek, Centre county. She was educated at the Soldiers' Orphan school at McAllisterville and later in life was united in marriage to W. I. Harvey, who survives her with two sons, Ives at home, and Ellis, a student at State College. She also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. W. J. Ull, of Williamsport; Mrs. Allie White, of Alpino; Clark, of Lock Haven, and John, of Lemont. Interment in Highland cemetery at Lock Haven.

A Soap Fraud.

A sleek-tongued stranger with a black moustache, about twenty-five years old, claiming to be a representative of the Larkin Soap company, and who promised some very fine premiums consisting of enameled bedsteads, clocks, rugs, etc., canvassed the outskirts of Milton last week and fleeced a number of women out of sums ranging from 50 cents to $2. It is estimated that he took about $30 with him when he left. Watch for him.

Good Shoes For Everybody...

and at every price that good shoes can be made for, without wasting your money either by extravagance or false "economy."

WOMEN'S SHOES, $1.50 to $5.00. We think $5 is too much for people who have to make money count. $3 and $3.50 buy beautiful shoes.

GIRLS' SHOES, $1.00 to $3.00. BOYS' SHOES, $1.00 to $3.00. A boy's shoe that isn't full of wear isn't a boy's shoe at all.

MEN'S SHOES, $1.50 to 5.00. More men wanted. Don't they like to save money, too? See our $3.00 and $3.50 shoes. If they are not the best you have seen, we don't know it. Don't forget, we are sole agents for Queen Quality, the famous shoe for women.

...MINGLE'S SHOE STORE.

Injured at Foot Ball.

Sam Russell, the well known full back on the State College foot ball team, had his spine injured while at practice on Beaver field, Wednesday evening. He was taken to his home at Lewistown on Thursday on a cot. When the lad was transferred from the trains at this place, by chance his parents on their way home from Buffalo noticed their boy in a cot helpless. The news was unexpected and dumbfounded them for the instant. They sorrowfully continued the journey home.

Still Living.

Charles Packer, the lad who was accidentally shot at Pleasant Gap last week, is still living, and the physicians has some slight hopes of his recovery. The ball entered the lower part of the abdomen and punctured the intestines.

Game Law of 1899 Unconstitutional.

Judge W. W. Schuyler, of Easton, handed down an opinion on Monday declaring unconstitutional the game law of 1899, under which many men have been arrested, fined and imprisoned in Northampton and presumably, every other county in the state.

George Walter was arrested on complaint of Fish Warden Flinn for having fished with a dip net in the Bushkill creek. Alderman Brunner, before whom the defendant was arraigned, directed Walter to pay $100 fine and the costs of prosecution. An appeal was taken from the alderman's finding, with the result that the act under which the prosecution was brought was declared void.
