CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings About Centre County Briefly told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities-What is Transpiring-Is Your Section Represented?

Rebersburg.

After a few weeks silence we will again jot down a few happenings.

Rev. Ritter, of Kansas, preached in St. Peter's Lutheran church, on Sunday

John Wolf has improved his premises by putting a new pavement in the place of the old boardwalk leading from the street to the house.

The corn crop, as reported by our farmers, averages over a hundred bushels to the acre.

On Sunday evening the infant child of Rev. Harmon was baptized by Rev.

By what we have learned the Reformed charge of this valley have increased the salary of their pastor one hundred dollars. That speaks well for pastor and people.

Corn husking and hauling is all the go

Samuel Bierly and Chas. Miller are our chief poultrymen.

D. D. Royer sold two of his best teams of horses last week.

Quite an excitement at the Kreamer mansion last week, till all the faces were ready for photographer Smith to take a

The funeral services for Daisy Bierly, who died of consumption, were conduct ed by Rev. Wetzel. Rob. O. Diehl has been called to wait on Rev. Doerstler and wife, who are sick with typhoid fever.

Our schools, by all appearance, are well attended. The people are opening their eyes to a good education. R. D. Bierly and crew were to the lower end of Penns valley last week putting up Harter Bros'. saw mill. By what we understand the Lutheran Sunday School contemplates buying an instrument, either a piano or organ, in the near future. Joseph Bierly, one of our old farmers, died at his home on Saturday evening after an illness of many months Mr. Bowersox's home is being rapidly finished under the efficient management of his son-in-law, W. E. Bair.

Ferguson.

Barn burning in this township is causing uneasiness.

George McWilliams, of Fairbrook, went to Philadelphia last week to enter the University hospital for treatment of to be recovered by action of debt, in the He was operated upon several years ago at the University hospital for the same to get him out. The horse was none the Wilson Gates was transferred to the Baileyville grammar school in the new building, making in all sixteen schools in our township. Luke Hay, of Meyersdale, has purchased the J. A. Decker farm which is known as the Judge McWilliams homestead near Pennsylvania Furnace.

Emanuel Peters purchased the Samuel McWilliams farm in the Glades.

Some of our "let-me-off-at-Buffalo" crowd have returned home, and speak highly of the Expo.

George Baker, of Downs, Kan., is visiting his former home at Oak Hall. Mrs. Baker is here with him.

The double school house at Baileyville is completed and is a fine edifice. Emory Johnson, of Pine Hall, goes to Altoona to take a place firing a locomotive on the Pennsplvania railroad. G. E. Corl's cider press is in full blast. D. I. Johnson lost another good horse

Mr. Suyder will not erect a new barn this fall, on account of the lateness of the season, but will rebuild in the spring to replace the one burned.

Milesburg.

John Conner, of Altoona, arrived in the burg, his boyhood residence, to have a chat with his acquaintances and rela-

The corpse of Howard Austin, of Altoona, was brought here on Sunday morning for burial at Roland; he died of typhoid fever; interment on Monday at Roland cemetery.

The Epworth sub-district convention, on 10 and 11th, brought a number of strangers to our burg; some very good talkers were among them, gave some very good points for thought, when put in practice and follow the teachings, would accomplish much in the interest of church work.

Merrit Adams, of Watsontown, is visiting his sisters of this place.

Misses Burley, of Tyrone, are visiting the Thomas's sisters, of Water street. Misses Tibbens and Howison, of Houtzdale, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Henry Comer.

The ladies aid society of M. E. church, of Milesburg, will hold an ice cream and pie social next Saturday, Oct. 19, in their room—a piece of pie and a cup of coffee for 5 cents, and a piece of cake with each dish of cream. All are invit-

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by Green's Pharamacy.

Colyer.

Miss Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Moyer, left last week for Spring Mills to assist her aunt in caring for her grandmother, Mrs. Adam Grenoble who | the past week. is very sick, but improving.

Miss Effic Ishler, of Tusseyville, spent Tuesday last with her aged and feeble grandmother, Mrs. Julia Ishler. Charles Weiser, a graduate of Gettysburg College, who now holds a promi-nent position in Altoona, was a welcome caller in our community on Saturday. Mrs. John Hanna, of Georges valley, and Miss Minnie Florey, of near Spring Mills, were guests at the home of Mrs.

Reiber over Sunday and also attended the festival on Saturday evening. The band festival on Saturday evening was a swell affair. Ed. Royer, of Altoona, visited at Wm. F. Rockey's last week.

Miss Cora Houtz, after spending some time with her mother at Pleasant Gap, returned to the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shadow. Ed. Bubb and son Ammon have moved their saw and shingle mill from near this place to about two miles east of Centre Hill, along Sinking creek on the land of Wm. A. Lucas, where all kinds of first class lumber can be had and also first class shingles of all kind from 18 to 24 inches. People in need of lumber or shingles are invited to call and see Mr.

Bubb. Harry Fleisher, who had charge of Wm. Colyer's saw mills at Colyer and in the mountains, quit work last week and R. H. Solt, a former employee of Wm. Colyer, has now charge of both mills.

Mrs. Sparr is improving her farm, recently bought from the Daniel Fleisher heirs, by laying new water pipes to conduct the water to both house and barn. Foster Fraizer, who is tenant of said farm, is doing an immense improving by cleaning fence rows and cutting brush and otherwise.

Charley Commings, who passes through here every Friday taking orders and delivering goods and all kinds of groceries and hardware for H. C. Robison at Spring Mills, handles and deals only in first class goods and sells same low. Give your order to Mr. Commings. He is as gay and spry as a youth in his teens, always pleasant and cheerful, and as a salesman he is unequaled.

I see the supervisors of the several townships are neglecting to remove the loose stones from the public roads. They had better get a move on or said act will be put in force. The following is the act in our community for over a week and is as amended: Pamphlet Laws 1901, Page not near done. Keller was around part 612, viz: "Sec. 1: That from and after the passage of this act the township supervisors and road commissioners of the several townships within this commonwealth shall, by contract or otherwise, remove and take away the loose stones from the traveled roads or highways in such townships at least once each month during the months of May, June, August and October in each year. Sec. 2: In case of neglect or refusal of the supervisors or road commissioners to carry out the provision of the first section of this act, shall forfeit and pay for every such offense, neglect or refusal a fine or penalty not exceeding ten dollars, his throat accompanied by his mother. name of the commonwealth, before any justice of the peace or alderman of the county, with cost of suit, one-half of such trouble.

One of E, V. Kocher's horses, who farms in the Glades plunged into a deep sink and was so imbedded in the mud that it required a score of his neighbors

The to go to the informer or prosecutor, and the other one half to be applied to repairing the roads or highways of the township. Approved—The 2nd day of July A. D. 1901."

Woodward.

Corn husking and thrashing is first on the program; corn is about one half crop. Oats thrashing one-fourth crop. C. W. Hosterman received a wagon load of water meions, they are nearly out of season, and everybody took advantage of this opportunity.

There was a certain contractor or manager from Hagerstown, at this place trying to hire men. Having been here once before there seems to be a boom over there; there are a number of our young men already working there and three or four more are talking of starting over in a few days.

There is another street to be opened in the near future at this place; every in-dication shows it to be one of the liveliest parts of town; it is between Benner ave. and Main street; what a wonderful world of changes, like the Irishman said, where nobody lives and dogs bark at strangers."

Lemont.

Hall Bottorf is wearing a broad smile over the arrival of a baby boy the latter part of last week.

The Presbyterian church is undergoing repairs which will make it more comfortable for the winter. More extensive improvements will be made next sum-

The repairs of Jno. I. Thompson's house are about completed. Miss Sue Lenker, of Aaronsburg, is enjoying a stay with her brother, James Lenker, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn have moved into Samuel Weaver's house. Mrs. Andy Hassinger is reported no

Shingletown.

Michael Hess, of Bellefonte, spent part of last week at the old homestead, helping put away the winter apples, being able to pick more apples in a day than many younger men

Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas and daughter, Mrs. Martz started last week for Illine to visit Mrs. Thomas's son John.

John Osman expects soon to take a job at Jersey Shore with the New York Cen-

Jas. Reed is preparing to build a new Reduced Rates via the Pennsylvania Railroad.

On account of the National Encampment, Union Veteran Legion, at Gettys-burg, Pa., October 9 to 11, the Pennsyl-vania Railroad Company will sell excur-sion tickets at the rate of one fare for the round trip from all points on its line to Gettysburg. Tickets to be sold and good going October 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, returning, to October 15, inclusive.

Nittany.

Mrs. H. Y. Stover and son Russel, of near Hublersburg, spent several days with her mother and sister, Mrs. Tate, Mrs. G. E. McCauley, of Hublersburg, spent last week at this place helping her mother clean house. Miss Maggie Tweede, of near Lamar, was the guest of her friend, Miss Orpha Pletcher, over Sunday. George Kerns has come home for a week's hunting.

Miss Williams, of Howard, has returned to that place, after spending a week very pleasantly with her friend, Mary Guusalus.

Mrs. Charley Gunsalus and children were visiting friends in Beech Creek, last

Harry Kessinger and wife and mother were to Woodward over Sunday to visit

Quite a number of Lamar young folks and also some from Hublersburg were at the sociable, on Saturday evening. The Ladies' Aid Society wish to thank the people for their help and patronage.

P. Y. McCaleb was to Jersey Shore one day last week, on business W. E. Snavely was to Lock Haven, on Saturday.

Mabel Kessinger has just returned home from Hublersburg, and has gone to Lamar to live several weeks. girls are in great demand, and don't need to wait long for a place.

We were recently informed that I. W. Bressler, of Millheim, has purchased the A. A. Pletcher farm, formerly owned by J. B. Crawford. We are sure that Mr Bressler got a bargain and will like the place for it is a great fruit farm, the only orchard far and near that had any apples this year to amount to anything; besides lots of good water, and a good site for a mill where the old one burned down. We will be glad to welcome Mr. Bressler and family in our midst.

Charley Emerick has moved in with his mother, Mrs. Fannie Emerick.

Herb Neighart is all smiles since that little girl came to his home to keep company with the two little boys.

J. S. Rossman and family have returned to their home, in Massilon, Ohio, after spending part of a week at this place. James is head miller at that place, therefore he can't stay away long at a time. We are glad to say that his mother is much better.

Carner's thrashing machine has been Fiedler.

Michael Stover and wife, son Horace and family, Sundayed at Thomas Wolf's, who is manager of the stave mill.

Seymour Winklebleck is getting ready to have a hydraulic ram put into the creek to run the water into his barnyard. Wm. Homer, living on the Reed farm. will also have a ram put in next week, by Mr. Kline, of Snyder Co. Postmaster Wolf is having his store and dwelling warmed by steam heat. Wetzel, of Howard, will put the plant in running order. This is one of the best equipped stores in the valleyonly one thing lacking, a nice young housekeeper who could make herself useful in many ways.

Martin Gilbert purchased the widow Leitzel property at public sale for $250. Mr. Gilbert says the report that he purchased a home in Aaronsburg must have A few of our forenoon farmers are done husking corn. The yield is a good one and is selling at 50 cents per bushel. J. C. F. Motz, the turnpike manager, is having stone crushed between this place and Aaronsburg, a work that is very necessary, as the pike is in bad con-

A band of gypsies passed through here on their way to winter quarters; they seem to have fared well this summer.

Mrs. Royer, of Lewisburg, is staying with her son Samuel, and daughter Mrs. Hasten Arney.

Newton Boob, formerly of this place, but for the last five years of Ohio, is here visiting friends and relatives. I. D. Stover and wife spent a day last week visiting in Georges valley. Rev. Kreider preached a trial sermon for St. Paul's Lutheran congregation; as far as we could learn all were pleased.

Chestnuts and pumpkins seem to be a fail crop this year, at least in this lo-Aaronsburg.

Will Catherman, of Hartleton, was the welcome guest of Miss Jennie Rupp, on Harry Burd has returned home after spending the summer in Akron, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Philips spent a few days visiting friends in Jacksonville. The Misses Mazie Mingle and Sara Guisewite spent a few days with some girl friends at Penn Hall. Mrs. Lizzie Meyer and daughter Eva returned to their home in Philadelphia, J. C. Morris and son Bruce, of Rebersburg, made a business trip to our town on Saturday.

Miss Gertie Meyer, of Coburn, was seen at merchant Thos. Meyer's one day last week. Cornelius Musser and family, of Logan, were visiting Mrs. Stover's sister at the toll gate. Merchant Robt. Mensch has gone to the eastern cities to buy a big stock of eral weeks.

The Misses Elsie Weaver, Miriam Keister and Messrs. Cal Weaver, Harry Mensch and Walter Rupp are spending a few days at Klondike. Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grimett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and com-pletely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent phy-sician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. Mc-Donald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Port Matilda.

John M. Williams our accommodating miller has ground broken for a dwelling house to be built and ready for occupying this fall-a cage as it were for the song bird he lately captured.

Miss Merlie Crain has returned to Philipsburg to resume her duties as dressmaker.

Our farmers are busy husking corn, which is a good crop in this section of Alex Hoover and wife, of Fillmore, visited friends in this place this week. Billy Beckwith a huckster from this place, while coming down the Allegheny mountain on his return home Philipsburg, became entangled in the lock rigging on getting out of his wagon to fix something about the harness, failing under the horses, one of which tramped on his leg crushing and breaking it between the foot and knee joint. Dr.

Harshbarger reduced the fracture. W. T. Hoover, our implement man, has added a fine lot of breech-loading guns to his fall stock of implements and hardware.

WILLIAMS REESE.

A notable event took place on Thursday evening Oct. 10, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Reese in this place; it was the marriage of their accomplished daughter, Grace to J. M. Williams, our enterprising dealer in flour, feed etc. About 150 guests were present who were received by Misses Etta Parker, of Homer City, and Ola Reese, sister of the bride. The spacious home was filled with friends and relatives to witness the ceremony. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Miss Edith Williams and the bridal party entered the beautifully decorated parlor. First, Miss Katherine Reese, sister of the bride and Miss Anna Eastman. of Curwensville. bridesmaids, followed by the bride and the maid of honor Miss Florence Williams, sister of the groom. They were met by the groom and best man, Archie Woodring. Rev. Scott, of Bellefonte, assisted by Rev. Latshaw performed the ceremony; the ring service was used. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream basket cloth, trimmed in cream satin applique and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids wore pink and carried pink carnations, while Miss Williams wore white organdy and carried white carnations. After congratulations the company were invited to the dining room where all the delicacies of the season were served and enjoyed by all. The happy couple departed amid a shower of rice at 7:45 for Buffalo and other points of interest. Mr. Williams is the popular young miller, of Port Matilda, and a young man of excellent character, while his bride is a young lady in every way calculated to make home happy. The bride received many useful presents. Guests were present from Homer City, Bellefonte, Fillmore, Julian, Martha, Curwensville and many other places.

Centre Hall.

Runkle's hotel is now supplied with a hot air heater, which warms all rooms on first and second floors.

C. H. Murray, Esq , is still an invalid at the home of his parents, J. D. Murray's. Chas. Slack has his new house completed, on corner next to Grange Hall.

under roof and has the brick casing friends in this place. nearly completed. Mr. and Mrs. Luse have gone to Buffalo to take in the Exposition and are family, after an absence of several likely to extend their trip to parts of the months.

Miss Sarah J. Tate, of Allegheny, were at Buffalo. married yesterday evening at the home of the bride. Miss Grace Lee, sister of groom, acted as bridesmaid and a brother of the bride was the groomsman. Arney has been in the employ of the Westinghouse company for several years, and will make Pittsburg his future home. Mr. and Mrs. Rearick, of Snyder county, are visiting their son, Rev. J. M.

Rearick, of this place. W. O. Rearick, who recently moved to Milroy was in town last week. Miss Bessie Dashimer, of Centre Hill, is spending a week or more at the home of Frank Gfrerer. There will be a Union League meeting in the Reformed church on Oct. 27th to which all the societies are invited.

Frank Geary, of this place, is the posessor of a fine blooded pointer dog. Mr. Geary has a permit to hunt on the Nittany Rod and Gun Club reserve and will spend some of his time hunting there.

There will be a drama here on or about Thanksgiving. The play will be rendered by a few select actors and will doubtless prove a success. The proceeds are for an organ for the public schools.

Walker.

Mrs. Jas. Martin has gone to Pittsburg to visit her son and family.

M. S. Betz and family visited her brother, Harry Harter, of Nittany. Mrs. Grant Fetron, of near Mechanics-with a stroke of paralysis.

Calvin Kling moved from Eagleville to part of Sam'l Aley's tenant house, Mr. and Mrs. Jas, Martin, of Jacksonrille and her sister, Mrs. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, have returned home from the Pan-American, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. Harry Glossner is able to be out again after being confined to his bed for sev-

Woodward.

Samuel Ketner and Chas. Guiswite, from Yeagertown, were home over Sun-

Geo. Aumiller, from Downingtown, Pa., left for his home, where he is em-ployed at the P. R. R. office.

Mrs. Wm. Wise was called, last week, to the bedside of her neice, Mabel Bower, daughter of John Bower, formerly of this place, and for some time residing at Nor-Miss Celeste Weaver, from this erland, Pa. Miss Mabel was very has been visiting relatives in Glen Union. low with pneumonia; she is improving

Of course, that big Buffalo Pan contains some of the cream of society. A cheap horse is a bargain that's hard to drive when it balks.

The Want of Working People.

When the working man or woman feels sick - liver, stomach or kidneys are out of gear - then Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills do a world of good acting directly on these organs and the bowels.

Mr. L. H. Mans, 1891 Columbus Avenue, Bay Mr. Levi Elsey, 805 McDougal Avenue, Detroit, City, Mich., by overwork and too assiduous atten- lived for years expecting death from heart falltion to his business, brought on an attack of ure and Bright's disease, but was cured by a few kidney trouble, which made it necessary for him boxes of Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. He to leave off working at times. He states : writes: "For years I lived in constant fear that I "On the recommendation of Mr. Geo. Leyer, should meet death through kidney trouble. I was druggist, of this place, I purchased a box of Dr. troubled terribly by pains in my back and about A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for my kidney the heart. My troubles are now over, for Dr. A. W. trouble. They acted so well in relieving my pain Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have made me well and backache that I persisted in the use of them again. I will gladly answer any letters about this until perfectly cured of my wonderful medicine."

DR. trouble. I am a well man now, thanks to the use of Dr. A. W. A. W. CHASE'S or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

Boalsburg.

Rev. A. A. Black and wife are attending synod in Philadelphia this week. Charles Wagner, of Bellefonte, was seen in our town on Sunday. John From, who lives on the Foster farm atS tate College, transacted business in our town on Monday.

Ross Lowder, of Oak Hall, and Mis-Bessie Gramley, of Walnut Grove, called at the home of Dr. Kidder on Sunday. Mrs. Henry Gingerich and daughter Rosella, of Cedar creek, were seen in our town on Saturday. Prof. Gettig, principal of the Linden Hall schools, was seen passing thro our burg on Saturday.

Miss Beulah Fortney made a business trip to Centre Hall on Saturday. Some of our hustling farmers are through husking corn.

John Fortney is at present working at the plastering trade in Centre Hall. Messrs Frank MacFarlane and James Bryson spent Saturday among friends in Warren Bailey "04" State College was pleasant caller at the home of P. H. Meyer one day recently. Mr. Sunday, accompanied by Miss Minerva Beck, both of Penn'a Furnace, spent a few days recently among friends in this place. Rob. Mothersbaugh and friend, Mr. Francis, two State College students, called at the Hillside farm on Sunday. How through town. Wm. Goheen spent last Tuesday among friends at State College. Thomas Weber met with a painful accident last Monday. While in the act of the girls did smile when they went walking across the loft above his father's stable, a board broke throwing him down into the stable below and injuring his shoulder seriously. Daniel Keller, of Warren, Ill., is at resent visiting his brother, Daniel Keller, of this place. Mr. Keller just re-

Will Hunter and Charles Mothersbaugh, two of our bright young men made a business trip to State College on Mrs. Hannah Burchfield, of Altoona, is A. P. Luse has his new house up and turned from a trip to the Pan-American.

Theodore Boal has once more returned to his home to spend a few weeks with his

Arney A. Lee, son of J. T.-Lee, and on Tuesday for a visit to the exposition John Bailey, of Rock Spring, and Henry

Campbell, of State College, were seen in our town on Thursday. Came to life-the Linden Hall scribe after a few week's absence from his post of duty; some one said that he could not stand the smell of the ink any more, was one reason he ceased to write for awhile. Others say that he had wore the seat out of his pantaloons and was getting them fixed during his absence from editorial duty. But anyhow, we are glad to see him back again among those who are loved by all. The "Modoc" hunting party held their annual meeting at the home of Emanuel Peters on Saturday evening. The time and place for this year's hunt was decided upon.

I. Mothersbaugh made a business trip to Slab Cabin, on Monday. A party of horse drovers were through this part of county last week buying up ber at fair prices. John Stamm, one of our hustling farmers, made a flying trip to city of knowledge on Monday. Robt. Mcrea, of Pittsburg, accompanied by his wife and daughter are at present visiting at the home of his father-has often been heard in our nation's old borses of which they bought a num-in-law, S. H. Bailey. Kentucky's Voice.

affairs and her sons are ever ready to burg, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. lend their voices and influence for the aid of mankind. From her beautiful moun-Jacob Vearick, one of our aged citi-tain country, where, as a noted writer has said "the hills are so straight up, they lean back," writes A. M. Hughes, a druggist of Louisa: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that can be desired. My customers call for it more and more and physicians, who as a rule are not quick to endorse patent medicines frequently prescribe it." 25 cents a bottle at Green's Pharmacy.

Tylersville.

S. S. Glantz, from Ridgway, was in Miss Margarete Shreckengast has gone to Rebersburg, where she intends to learn the millinery trade. Miss Eva Swarm was a welcome visitor

Mrs. Andy Albright has returned home, after a visit to her daughter, and is proud to be called grandma again.

at the home of F. K. Miller's, last Sun-

Wm. Bletz and wife are at present visiting friends in Pottsville. Joel Kerstetter and little daughter Jennie, were visiting friends and rela-tives at this place.

Four of our fine little Misses, namely

Mina Mil'er, Elsie Griebb, Rosie Ruhl and Maude Weaver were seen going for peaches on Saturday, and they report having a fine time.

Fillmore.

Our farmers are busy putting away their corn, it is a good crop. Potatoes are rotting, some lose 3/3 of the crop, others not so bad; mine I think just rotted about half are small ones but are good. There will be no hard cider in the cellars this fall to make the boys happy, as the apple crop was a failure. Samuel Bowmaster has gone to housekeeping in the Julie Bell property. John Blair has started on a trip to Delaware to visit an uncle who has been very poorly for some time. Daniel Tressler and family, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of Joseph Tress-ler ann Danny has been trying his luck on the game the past week. Last Tuesday, the 8th, the death angel claimed the second twin babe of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rockey, of this place; three weeks previous the other one was taken to its home on high; the one 3 months and 9 days old at time of death, the other 4 months and 1 day. Interment in Myers' cemetery. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

Ex-Sheriff Cronister pass through our William Tressler is improving his new ome by weatherboarding and roofing his house and adding other modern improvements. Let others follow suit. You just ought to have seen him since Priday, if you ask him what ails him, all he says is, a big girl came to my house.

On Sunday we saw the smiling face of

Cyrus Huey and wife visited at Sidney orman's over Sunday, at the Loop. Game is scarce this season, but hunters are plenty; a few fellows may get hauled in for violating the game law; they are known and also what they shot. So now be good; last fall you did the same thing. The third time is the charm.

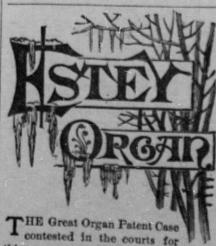

PA. R. R. EXCURSION.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Special Excursions to Pan-American Exposition. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will run special excursions to Buffalo on at present visiting among her many account of the Pan-American Exposition, from Philadelphia and adjoining territory, on September 26, October 2, 8,, 17, 23, and 29. Round-trip tickets, good going only on special train leaving Philadelphia at 8:44 A M., Harrisburg 11:50 Lee Segner and sister Phromie started | A. M., Sunbury 1:03 P. M., Williamsport 2:30 P. M., Lock Haven 3:06 P. M., and on local trains connecting therewith, and good to return on regular trains within seven days, including day of excursion, will be sold at rate of $8 40 from Harrisburg. $7.25 from Altoona (via Tyrone), $10.00 from Winchester, and proportionate rates from other points. These tickets will not be good in Pullman parlor or sleeping cars in either direction. Stop of 30 minutes will be made at Williamsport for luncheon. For specific time and rates, consult local ticket agents. x42 thirteen years has resulted in a final and complete overthrow for the opponents of the Estey Organ. The well earned leading position of the Esteys, after years of effort, is not easily set aside by the cheap imitators of a day. The intelligent musical public everywhere will help a decision as to the value of the Estey Organs, and an Illustrated Catalogue, sent free by the manufacturers to any address, will suggest many pleasing styles.

ESTEY ORGAN CO., BRATTLEBORO, VT.