ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—Miss Stella Zerby, of Millheim, is visiting in Bellefonte.

—Robert Hood, of Bellefonte, is visiting his old home in Lewisburg.

—Hugh Crider was unanimously elected manager of the Academy foot ball team.

—Miss Virginia Bunous, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Louisa Armor on Linn street.

—Miss Annie Pearl left Monday for New York City, where she will study the fall fashions.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds and Randolph Hoy returned Monday from their trip to the Pacific coast.

—A rare treat will be in store for all who attend the organ recital in the Methodist church this evening.

—John Bower, Esq., spent Tuesday at Harrisburg, attending the special meeting of the Democratic State Committee.

—Frank Shaughnessy left on Monday for Pittsburg; he is one of the shipping clerks for the Westinghouse Electrical Company.

—Will Keichline employed in the machine shops at Tyrone, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keichline at this place.

—Harvey Benner, after an extended visit at this place, left Monday for Atlantic City and New York, where he will spend the winter.

—The contract for printing the ballots this year was awarded to the Keystone Gazette on Tuesday. It includes 15,245 official and 3,053 samples.

—R. M. McGee, of Philadelphia, was transacting business in Bellefonte the past week. He is looking quite well again after his severe illness.

—Mrs. Margaret Campbell, of Johnstown, is spending a week with relatives in Bellefonte and vicinity. This is her first visit to her old home for ten years.

—Jay Woodcock, a student at the Drew Theological Seminary, applied to the quarterly conference of the Methodist church, on Saturday morning for license to preach.

—One of Krumrine's improved heaters was put in by F. E. Naginay, the furniture dealer, this week. This system seems to be giving splendid satisfaction wherever introduced.

—Joel Tressler, of Nittany, sent a fine sample of a pound apple to this office. It measured 14 inches in circumference and weighed 20 ounces. He had some larger ones this season.

—The laying of the corner stone of Petriken hall will be one of special significance. Impressive ceremonies will be observed. The stone will be laid on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 27.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Malin, Ex-Governor and Mrs. D. H. Hastings and Colonel and Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder went to Williamsport, Tuesday evening to attend the Cochran-McCormick wedding.

—Friday evening a large crowd greeted Vogel's Minstrels in the opera house. They gave one of the finest entertainments in that line that has been to this town in years. Everybody was delighted.

—On Friday we had a call from Hon. Henry Meyer, of Rebersburg, Prof. H. E. Bierly, of Tallahassee, Fla., and Elmer S. Bierly, of Rebersburg, who were in town on business relative to the estate of Joseph Bierly, who died in Miles township last week.

—The first snow of the season is said to have fallen on Friday morning of last week. We cannot vouch for this, but those who were up early in the morning say the white flakes were flying and that in some places there was enough to cover the ground and make it white.

—The State Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution met in Harrisburg Thursday. The Bellefonte Chapter is represented by Mrs. Isaac Mitchell, regent; Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder and Miss Mary Thomas. The convention will continue through Thursday and Friday.

—Among the portraits of handsome Pennsylvania bells that appeared in the illustrated supplement of the Philad. Inquire on Sunday, a prominent position was given to that of Miss Lera Donachy, of our town. Bellefonte could supply that paper with good material for many months.

—This week Samuel Lewins and family are shipping their household goods to Philadelphia where they will reside. For over twenty years Mr. Lewins was actively engaged in the mercantile trade at this place. And in that time his Philad. Branch was always known as a strictly reliable place of business. Mr. Lewins, owing to poor health, retires from business for the present. He was a good citizen, a clever man and one who had won many warm friends over the county.

—Chestnuts are a failure, in reality. —Are you saving those organ coupons? —Our Public Sale register is quite large for this season of the year. —Fine days since Saturday, with frosts thrown in some mornings. —Al. Landis, of Penn street, is entertaining his sister, Miss Bessie, of Berwyn. —Chas. Wynn is now passenger brakeman on the Lewisburg and Tyrone division. —Pork will be scarce in this county—what will one do for the luscious sausage that ripens this time o' year? —Mrs. Evelyn Rogers left last week for Norristown and Philadelphia, where she will spend a few weeks visiting friends. —Miss Rebecca Cole left Saturday to visit her brother Amos, who is employed at the Westinghouse Electrical Works at Pittsburg. —Mr. and Mrs. Pettit, of Columbus, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Hannah Hamilton and Mrs. Sarah Saterfield, on Willowbank St. —Miss Millie Wagner is seriously ill with consumption at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. John Wagner, on Spring street. —Save your organ coupons, there are about a half dozen churches anxious for them. The coupon will be found on the lower corner of page 8. —Mrs. W. Reamer accidentally tripped and fell over a tub sustaining a sprained arm, and a gash on the head that had to be stitched. —Our Historical Review, crowded out last week, is again unavoidably crowded out of this issue. We think we will be able to resume it in our next issue. —Another delightful musical will be given in the Methodist church this Thursday night, Oct. 24th. Home talent will not be conspicuous on the program. —The services in the Lutheran church, of this place next Sabbath forenoon, will be of the nature of a congregational Sabbath School. All are invited to attend. —Lee Runkle, while on his way to Lock Haven, Saturday morning, stepped from the train at Mackeyville, and slipped, sustaining a dislocation of the shoulder. —An oyster supper, with accompanying delicacies, will be served by the ladies of the Lutheran church, in the W. C. T. U. rooms, Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 1 and 2. —J. W. Kreamer, C. C. Reeder, of this place, are at Harrisburg as delegates to the congress of the Daughters of the Revolution, representing the Bellefonte Chapter. —The Commercial telephone people are making extensive improvements about town placing larger and stronger poles in order to carry some new cables they expect to run over the town. —R. F. Hunter left on Tuesday for Granby, Mo., to look after the zinc mining operation at that place in which a number of Bellefonte capitalists are interested. He expects to be gone about two weeks. —Election, Tuesday, Nov. 5. Voters, there never was one of more immediate importance to you individually, as well as to the state in general, as this election. Every true citizen will feel it is his duty to be at the polls. —Mr. and Mrs. W. Harrison Walker arrived here on Wednesday afternoon from their wedding trip and are "at home" on East Linn street where they had an elegantly furnished residence awaiting them. —Samuel Taylor returned from Pittsburg on Monday very ill with typhoid fever and is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Taylor, of this place. As his health had not been good for some time, his condition is considered alarming. —A vein of coal has been found on the farm of Joseph W. Kyle, west of Milroy, Mifflin county, and there is said to be much excitement in that vicinity in consequence of the discovery. If this proves correct people over there will begin to wear diamonds. —The Union Party at this place have the following inscription on their banner: "For Supreme Court Judge, Harmon Yerkes; For State Treasurer, E. A. Coray, Jr.; Honest government by honest officials." That explains what the Union Party is for. —Rev. Woodson, of the African M. E. church, preached his farewell sermon on last Sabbath evening. Rev. Woodson served that pulpit five years and conference now in session will likely assign him elsewhere. The Reverend has won the esteem of all his members whilst stationed in Bellefonte, and has the respect of our citizens generally for his gentlemanly and Christian deportment. —On Saturday Joe Rightour, the famous wing-shot, was out hunting birds and was unfortunately. For this trip he had purchased a new doublebarreled shot gun and was giving it a trial. In crossing a wire fence his foot caught, he fell forward dropping the gun on the rocks and broke the stock. There were not enough words at his command after an hour's work to fully express his opinion of wire fences.

—As a special inducement we will send the Centre Democrat to any new subscriber from this date to Jan. 1903 for $1.00. That means that you get the paper free to the end of the year. —Last week several of our advertisers came in too late with their copy and the result was they got left. We must have time to prepare advertisements, and when they come in the day of publication they are almost certain to be omitted. As much as we like to cater to our patrons, there are such things as being impossible, and this is one of them. —James Conly, of Freeport, arrived in town the past week and spent several days visiting his brother, Wm. J. Conly. James is a Centre Hall boy who left there years ago and located in one of Illinois' best towns and is getting along nicely. He expects to remain about a month and will spend most of his time visiting at the home of his parents near Centre Hall. —Monday evening Haste Lyman, of Boggs twp., came into our office and handed over a bag of fine luscious pears. When asked for an explanation said that he had an immense crop and could not eat them all himself and thought the editor had a good appetite. We believe he was generous enough to pick out the finest of the crop for our exclusive benefit. Mr. Lyman is noted for doing just such things—he always thinks of his friends. —In the absence of other intelligent means of determining the flight of time, nature very wisely instilled it into the little squirrel to keep a close watch on the trees, and when the leaves begin to fall to commence laying in his winter supply. Will you be less provident and let all the leaves drop before you lay in the proper fall and winter clothing? Now, just when you should do your buying, we have reduction in all our departments—Sim The Clothier.

—Mrs. James Bathurst—of Mt. Eagle, died Monday, Oct. 14th, after suffering with typhoid fever for the past six weeks. She was aged about 70 years and is survived by a number of children. —Mrs. Joseph Gilliland—died last Thursday afternoon, of cancer of the stomach, at the residence in Lock Haven. Her husband survives. She was aged 64 years, 5 months and 3 days. Monday interment was made at Snow Shoe. —Ira C. Leathers—died at Howard last Friday evening, aged 66 years. He is survived by his wife and the following named children: Mrs. Frank Lingle, of Beech Creek; Mrs. William Gardner and Edward, of Renovo; Mrs. Charles Laning, of Youngville, Pa., and Carrie and LeRoy at home. —David Henney—died at the home of his son Thomas Henney, in Latrobe, Pa., at the age of 72 years. The deceased formerly lived at Potters Mills, where he carried on blacksmithing. He was the father of J. W. Henney, of Centre Hall. Two sons, Thomas, of Latrobe, and George, of Mercer county, survive. —Mrs. J. R. Bible—died Tuesday night, the 15th, at the Williamsport hospital, having suffered some years from an affection of the spleen. The deceased was a daughter of Robert McCormick, deceased, of Potters Mills. Her age was 35 years. She is survived by her husband and five children. Interment at Potters Mills. —Jonathan Schenck—one of Howard township's leading citizens, died Tuesday evening, the 15th, at the old homestead, one mile east of that place. He was aged about 82 years and was a man well known and loved by all. He had been a sufferer for about two months with a complication of diseases. Interment in the Schenck cemetery. —Mrs. George Bartholomew—aged 73 years and 13 days, died Sunday, Oct. 13th, at her home in Howard after an illness of one week. The surviving children are: Rebecca, wife of Rev. M. S. Romig, pastor of the Lutheran church at Shanksville, Somerset county; Kate, wife of Elmer Erie, of Howard; Jennie, at home; and W. H. Bartholomew, of Centre Hall. Her husband survives. —Joseph C. Bierly—died at his residence in Rebersburg, Miles township on Sunday, October 13, aged 68 years, after an illness of several months. Mr. Bierly was an industrious farmer, and his death will be greatly mourned. He is survived by a widow and two sons, E. S., at home and Prof. H. E., of Tallahassee, Florida. Interment in the Evangelical cemetery at Rebersburg. Mr. Bierly was a prominent and respected citizen of that community.

—Robert Bierly—a prominent citizen, of Milesburg died at his home in that place Monday morning of kidney trouble. He was 63 years of age. He is survived by his wife and three sons. Deceased was a life long member of the Presbyterian church. He was one of the early settlers of Central City and has resided there for the past thirty years. The funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Union cemetery at this place. —William Stump—died in Roxton, Virginia from the effects of an injury received while shoeing a horse. Mr. Stump was a former Potter township citizen, where he owned a large farm east of Old Fort, and at one time kept hotel in Centre Hall. He went to Virginia twenty-six years ago and has since been engaged in farming. He leaves four children to his first wife, namely, Jerry Stump, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Levi Stump, of Tusseyville; Mrs. Calvin Rossman, of Siggerville, Mifflin county; Mrs. D. C. Keller, Centre Hall. The widow who is a sister of Samuel Strong, of Potters Mills, also survives. —Henry Brungart—undertaker at Rebersburg, died suddenly at his home Tuesday evening, of heart disease. He was aged 54 years and is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Carrie Wood, of Scottdale. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the Lutheran church at Rebersburg. The services will be conducted by Rev. Harmon, assisted by Rev. Wetzel and Rev. Dubbs. Interment in Rebersburg cemetery. Deceased was the brother of Sheriff Cyrus Brungart, of Centre county. The surviving brothers and sisters are: Newton and Clayton, at Rebersburg; Jeremiah and Ira, at Wolfs Store; three sisters, Mrs. John Hoy, of Hubbersburg;

Hewes-McCormick.

Hon. J. T. McCormick, of State College, and Miss Kate Hewes, were married at the Methodist parsonage on Monday evening by Rev. Shriver, of this place. The contracting parties are well known in this county. Mr. McCormick has been the successful manager of the Commercial telephone system of Central Pennsylvania, and for two terms represented this county in the Legislature. He hails from an old respected, and influential family in this county, the McCormicks, and is an industrious and public spirited citizen, of whole soul qualities, genial and generous. This is Mr. McCormick's second matrimonial venture. Mr. McCormick's bride is Miss Kate Hewes, long a resident of this place, and for many years a prominent instructor in the Bellefonte public schools. She is a lady of refinement and accomplishments, and a sister of Charles Hewes a former prominent member of the Bellefonte bar. It is a match well made, and the Centre Democrat extends its heartiest congratulations. They departed on the evening train. It is their intention to make their future residence in State College borough. In this event the contracting parties sprung a neat surprise on their many friends.

Improved Service.

The Union Telephone and Telegraph exchange at this place is undergoing extensive improvements. Owing to the large number of phones on this exchange the service was not up to what they desired. In order to overcome this difficulty an improved and enlarged switch board is being installed. Additional cables will be extended over the town and new poles are being placed to carry the extra lines. This means that they have outgrown their expectations, but are gradually catching up.

New Town Will be Built.

The Westinghouse interests have decided to concentrate their foundries at Stewart station, in the Turtle Creek Valley, Pa., on the main line of the Pennsylvania road. Ten thousand men will find employment at this plant and for them the new city of homes will arise. The Westinghouse company will start work at once, and propose to expend about $5,000,000.

Mallory-Murphy.

On Thursday evening, Oct. 17th, at the home of the bride at 2825, Oxford street, Philadelphia, Ralph Mallory, senior member of the firm of Mallory & Taylor photographers, of Bellefonte, and Miss Mayrve A. Murphy were united in marriage. The father of the groom, George Mallory, and his sister, Miss Edna, were present at the ceremony. The young people have our heartiest congratulations.

Aunt Betsy Stover, of Sugar valley, who is nearly 84 years of age, was husking corn last week.

Mr. Samuel Russel, of Lewistown, who recently was injured in a foot ball game at State College, has returned to his studies. At the time it was feared that his injuries would prove serious.

The Lock Haven Democrat the strong drill on the Gummo farm struck a strong flow of salt water Tuesday night, and shortly thereafter pierced the second sand at a depth of 720 feet. These indications are as favorable as can be unearthed.
