Happenings About Centre County Briefly told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—is Your Section Represented?

Woodward.

John Hosterman and family, from George's valley, spent several days visiting her parents, John Orndorf's.

Emma Eisenhauer is at present making her home with her brother, Frank Guisewite, at Fiedler.

Edwin Stover, of Rebersburg, spent Saturday and Sunday among his many friends at this place. Of course, there was some attraction at the hotel.

Miss Sadie Orndorf is staying with her sister, Mrs. Daniel Benner.

Luther Weaver, who is employed by the United Telephone company, at Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with his parents, James Weaver.

Ed. Ketner and family are moving to Yagertown, where he has secured employment in an ax factory. Mr. Ketner is the fourth one of our residents who has secured work at the above mentioned place and some others contemplate going to the same place in the near future.

Calvin Eby spent Sunday with his parents. He is employed at the depot at Glenn Iron.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Motz, of Coburn, were the guests of Samuel Motz, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Williams spent Sunday with Charley Stover's near this place.

Miss Amanda Haines was the guest of Mrs. Amanda Motz.

Game seems to be very plenty about this place and the hunters have been doing their share toward capturing the same. George Vonada takes the lead in shooting gray squirrels, having shot ten the first day of the season; L. D. Orndorf succeeded in getting six quail in one day. Other hunters have succeeded in doing nearly as the above mentioned; some coming in with three squirrels and the same number of pheasants; some with six gray squirrels and a number of red ones.

Aley Haines, who has been working on a telephone line at Jersey Shore, is at home at present.

Mrs. Oscar Meyer visited her parents, James Weaver's.

Frank Guisewite's, of Fiedler, were visiting his mother, Mrs. Glantz.

Snow Shoe.

Snow Shoe has a high standing morally, as well as with regard to altitude, but not too high for an occasional prosperity wave to touch the shore and give the black diamond hustler a chance to take a bath.

Constable G. W. Lucas has been on the sick list. It is hoped he will be recovered sufficiently, in time to preserve a reasonable degree of order during thanksgiving festivities with its usual manifestations of would-be pugilism and keg disturbances.

The P. R. R. Co. has increased the efficiency of the operating department by the addition of a baker and clothier.

Cooler weather is predicted for next six months. The farmers have accordingly laid by a supply of the good things of life including a little hard cider and applejack.

Miss Gerty Lucas, trained nurse, of Lock Haven, was visiting at Snow Shoe the past few weeks.

Geo. B. Uzzle is remodeling his hotel at Clarence, and it will be quite a complete hotel when finished.

The schools have again got in motion. Mr. Lucas, of Jersey Shore, spent some weeks at his home, in Snow Shoe, on account of sickness.

Snow Shoe seems to have a lasting attraction for that thrifty industrious class of the human race, the Jew. Of course the clothing business here is limited, but Snow Shoe has other fields of industry.

Every business has its drawbacks, but there is nothing that has much more of a discouraging aspect as when the hired man on the farm takes to his bed with some disorder during potato and popcorn harvesting. Such a condition of affairs should have the sympathy of the community. Therefore, be it resolved, that those who have a good citizen and potatoes are destined to be a considerable luxury this year, he be extended a helping hand. This, however, does not include that class of individuals that lift potatoes by moonlight.

Hannah.

The sound of the hunter is in the land and some of our farmers are so very industrious they don't take time on a week day but take their hunt on Sunday; no doubt they think "the better the day the better the deed."

Mrs. Margaret Sharer paid a recent visit to her son A. L. Sharer who now resides at Sandy Ridge for the purpose of bringing her daughter, Miss Dora home who was seriously ill at that place but was unable to come, but has come since and we are glad to say is recovering, but very slowly. A. L. wears a broad smile and if you ask him why, he will say, "rib. boy at our house."

Saturday evening the 19th, a happy event occurred at the home of Mrs. Susan Kelly near this place, in the shape of a surprise party planned by her children and her many friends. She was ignorant of the large gathering near by the house until they put in their appearance at the kitchen door. She received many useful and ornamental presents. All enjoyed themselves until a late hour and returned home well pleased.

Isiah Woodie and family, of Sandy Ridge, also Ralph Adams, of Phillipsburg, were recent visitors at the home of their aunt Mrs. Margaret Sharer near this place.

Railroading isn't the thing for women, not even the management of switches.

Milesburg.

Sheridan Gray and sister, of Pittsburg, Triam Shirey and wife, of Jersey Shore, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Mollie Shirk, of Tyrone, are guests of Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of Hazel street.

Mr. Thomas, of Water street and Mr. Confer with false mustache's, had a gay time on Friday night with two of our young ladies stepped; into Wm. B. Miles' & Son's store, had the cigars set up to them, started puffing the smoke like a freight locomotive; be careful or the joke may be turned.

Joseph Baird and wife are visiting their son Frank, of Phillipsburg.

Miss Burley, of Tyrone, returned home after a pleasant visit with the Thomas sisters on Water street.

Wm. Johnson, of Tyrone, arrived home for a visit with his family.

John Johnson, of Pittsburg, is at home visiting his parents.

James Miller, of Bellefonte, took charge of Prof. James Gregg's school on Monday the 21st; will have charge of it until Mr. Gregg is able to resume his work; has been laid up for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism.

Mr. Franks has returned from Colorado and is now a guest of his brother, Adolphus Franks.

Two young sports with their lady friends went to Snow Shoe Intersection to attend the festival at that place; when there two other chaps began to converse with the ladies. Jealousy arose with the sports, jumped into their buggies left the festival to play a joke on the girls, but the girls proved to be too much for the boys; the girls in the mean time jumped into another buggy, left for home, leaving the boys behind. Jealousy will play you out every time with the girls.

Mrs. Wm. Gray left on Wednesday for a visit with her brother, Joseph Gray, of Pittsburg.

Brushvalley.

Jack Frost has made his appearance, reminding us that cold winter is fast approaching.

The potato crop in this section apparently will prove a total failure. Many of the potatoes raised and stored appeared to be in a sound and healthy condition, but in a short time became black and rapidly decayed.

Clair, son of Samuel Rachau, and Robert Hauch are on the sick list.

Last week, John Orndorf, our expert painter, painted the new United Evangelical church, which presents a handsome appearance.

The Penn Cave scribe wants to know what the New York Storage Company is? The Co. is composed of two young gentlemen who have mercy on the poor horses that have to stand at the post all night, while their owner is visiting his lady friend. They see to it that his horse is stable. For more information apply to Kerman Lambert and Wm. Weaver.

Thomas Scholl will move on a Durst farm near Farmers Mills, next spring. We are sorry to see him leave our neighborhood.

Last Sunday evening, two young gentlemen (babies) tried to make a disturbance at the society. Boys be a little careful before you get into trouble.

John Grenoble, of Millheim, was seen in this section last Sunday evening.

The story of a trolley line has no reliable foundation. No confirmation can be obtained in regard to the rumors recently in circulation. So we came to the conclusion that the reports have been seemingly idle gossip.

West Brushvalley.

Wm. Royer, who is employed on the Orwig & Kryder sawmill near Mill Hill was seen in Madisonburg last Saturday evening.

E. B. Shaffer, a student of Keller's business college at Lewisburg, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Wm. Glantz will move to Woodward this fall. Success to you, "Bill."

The shot guns and "muziebloozers" were booming last Tuesday.

The St. Paul church, of this place received a good painting last week.

Most of our farmers are busily engaged in husking corn and good crops are expected.

A shot gun and fishing pole are bad tools for farming.

Miles Barger bought a hammerless shot gun. He says he will bring the squirrels down.

Wonder where N—H— got to last Saturday night.

John Rossman and John Ream, from Penn Cave, were in Nittany valley last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Rossman, of Penn Cave, returned home from the Pan-American last Monday.

Potters Mills.

Our nimrods had ordinary luck, some not that.

Clark W. Bible was appointed postmaster at Potters Mills, and established the office in the store F. A. Carson. The fixtures of the office where held in McCoy's store were burned by last week's fire.

Miss Lizzie Poust has returned home; her sister Laura is not improving.

Dr. H. S. Alexander and wife made a trip to Millheim last week on business.

Mrs. Nettie Smith and son Boyd, left for Ohio, where they will spend a month with her mother and other relatives.

First day's game score: Frank Carson and Thomas Palmer, each three pheasants.

G. L. Goodhart, of Centre Hill, will, in the near future, make sale of his farm stock.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grinett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Boalsburg.

Mrs. Maud Bailey and Jessie Harter, two prominent society belles of State College, were seen in our town the beginning of the week.

Two of our young ladies were badly disappointed on Sunday evening.

Ephriam Keller and wife of Pleasant Gap, visited among friends in this place on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Kuhn, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday at the home of Alex Kuhn. Mr. Kuhn is at present employed on the farm of Alex McCoy, of that place.

Geo. Keller and wife, of Houserville, called at the home of Mr. Keller's father, David Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyon, of Pa. Furnace, accompanied by Mrs. Lydia Leech of the same place, spent several days recently among friends in this place.

A crowd of lawless students, from State College, made a raid on one of our farmer's milk houses on Saturday evening. After they were through with the milk they went even so far as to burn the milk can.

John Shaffer, one of Philadelphia's leading tailors, was in town last week. Mr. Shaffer together with his brother Frank and his father have one of the finest merchant tailoring establishments on Arch street. This is his first visit here since he left, a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Bailey, of State College, visited at the home of John Jacobs, on Saturday.

John Stuart, wife of postmaster Stuart, of State College, called on her sister, Mrs. E. A. Fisher, last week.

Daniel Keller, of Warren, Ill., who has been visiting among friends in this place, left for home on Thursday.

Howard.

Ira Leathers, an old and respected citizen, died at his home on last Friday evening, from a complication of diseases incident to old age. He was aged about 65 years. Mr. Leathers was a kind and loving husband and a dear father, an excellent citizen, a man who belonged to the Disciple church for years. He was a member of Howard Bor. council at one time. Mr. Leathers was laid to rest on Monday at 10 o'clock, in the Sand Hill cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. Burger.

Howard Boro. can boast of what no other town of its size can in the county: First, we have had erected some nine or ten new buildings in the past year, our public crossing, our good walks and clean streets.

Oscar Yeager was very seriously burnt, on last Friday, while assisting at the rolls, in Jenkins Iron Tool Co. shops. He almost had his left foot taken off, but is getting along as well as can be expected under the skillful care of Dr. O. W. McEntire.

Mrs. John Lauth and her mother have moved from the DeHass Weber house to the Henry Thompson house.

Johnathan Shenck, an old and respected citizen, departed this life on Oct. 15th. Mr. Shenck died from a complication of diseases incident to old age. He was 83 years old. He was born and raised on the farm where he died, in Howard twp.

Benore.

Mrs. Meshach Williams spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week with her sister Mrs. Lowry, at Bellefonte.

Prof. C. L. Gramley paid our schools a visit on Thursday of last week.

Mr. Piper and wife of Pittsburg have returned home after spending a few days with Rev. D. F. Kapt of this place.

Quite a number of our people attended the chicken and waffle supper at Stormstown on Saturday evening.

The Harvest Home service will be held in the M. E. church Sabbath evening, Oct. 27th.

If you want to know what is going on in Centre county, read the Centre Democrat.

Charles Ghaener is quite ill at this writing. He is suffering with catarrh of the stomach.

Thursday evening of last week at 8 o'clock Harry Lykens and Miss Roxanna Dick, both of this place, were united in marriage. The ceremony took place at the home of G. C. Lykens in the presence of only a few friends. The services were performed by Rev. D. F. Kapt, of this place. The bride is a daughter of Sam'l Dick. She is an amiable young lady and well qualified to become mistress of her own home. The groom is a son of Mark Lykens, dec'd. He is a bright and intelligent young man. After the nuptial knot was tied a wedding supper was served which was enjoyed by all.

Spring Mills.

The Howard Creamery Station located here, was closed last week, and will not resume operations until next spring.

Corn husking in this neighborhood is about over. The crop has proven to be an unusually large one.

On Saturday last Miss Lizzie Stover had her opening day for the display and inspection of her fall and winter millinery goods. The rooms were thronged from "early morn 'til dewey eve." Miss Stover made an elegant selection of hats and caps for ladies, wives and children. Some of the hats are marvels of taste and beauty.

Mrs. Mary Grenoble, who has been very ill for the last ten days is convalescing.

Election matters here just now are very quiet. Formerly the headquarters for gossip and political controversy was in the shoe emporium of C. A. Krape. But since the P. O. is located there the lively discussions have been prohibited.

Kentucky's Voice.

has often been heard in our nation's affairs and her sons are ever ready to lend their voices and influence for the aid of mankind. From her beautiful mountain country, where, as a noted writer has said "the hills are so straight up, they lean back," writes A. M. Hughes, a druggist of Louisiana: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that can be desired. My customers call for it more and more and physicians, who as a rule are not quick to endorse patent medicines frequently prescribe it." 25 cents a bottle at Green's Pharmacy.

Golyer.

Kornia Spicher, of Philadelphia, is the guest at the home of P. B. Jardans and also numbered among the hunting party.

Mrs. Henry Shadow returned Friday after spending some time with her daughter near Pleasant Gap.

Reiber and two daughters, Clara and Blanche, Misses Katie Boal, Carrie Bottorf, and sisters Sadie and Helen, Bessie Cooney and sister Mary, all report a gay old time.

Ralph Rickert left on Saturday for State College—"how about it Miss Maud?"

How about that fellow that went to see his best girl "eight nights" in a week, we think there must be a mistake, or did he go twice on Sunday?

Mrs. Wm. Mitterling and son, Clem, from near Tusseyville, were guests of J. H. Moyer on Sunday.

John Fraizer, of Linden Hall, accompanied his daughter Miss Carrie to P. C. city on Sunday to spend the day with her friend Carrie Bottorf. Mr. Fraizer sports a fine two-horse buggy and comes out in grand style, why shouldn't he? being one of Linden Hall's most industrious farmers.

Mrs. Amos Bedelyo and son George, of the Stone Mill, spent Friday at J. H. Moyer's; George, of course thought it best to come and see Henry, whether the gate was fixed and finished, and his mother came along for witness, and see that no more misfortune befell her son, which is her duty.

On Monday morning quite a number of our young men went to Yeagerstown to work in the Axe factory; of course Charley, our expert carpenter, was among them, and said he could easily throw away both hatchet and nail-pouch; but, oh, dear—Minnie, he could never leave, he would be back by Saturday evening sure.

Wm. Cooney intends to move to Yeagerstown Thursday and also work in the Axe factory.

Mrs. Conrad Lingle has been in very feeble health during the past few weeks.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Millheim.

J. J. Gentzel the scientific and progressive farmer of Penn township, transacted business in town Saturday. By industry and frugality he has accumulated considerable worldly goods and expects to retire from farming next spring.
