BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

Station agent J. C. Rumberger is at DuBois. Mrs. A. O. Furst is visiting in Williamsport. Ira Snyder, of near Inglesby, was in town Tuesday. Ellis Orvis, Esq., is in Philadelphia on legal business. J. P. Breon, of Spring Mills, has moved to Altoona. Legal business has taken Col. Reeder to Philadelphia. Wesell the Harris $3 50 shoes at $2.78—Yeager & Davis. Cast your vote for honest government next Tuesday. "Bambo of Bombay" at the opera house on Tuesday evening. Dr. Edward H. Harris, of Philadelphia, is visiting his home in this place. The formal opening of the Y. M. C. A. takes place on Friday, November 1st. Do not fail to see our Harris $3 50 shoes for ladies at $2.78—Yeager & Davis. Unionville has more wild turkey roasts than any other villa—hunters keep bringing 'em in. The Salvation Army squad have rented a home in this place and will run a campaign here this winter. Charles Harris, who is now located at Wellsville, Ohio, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Rachel Harris, of North Spring st. "Bambo of Bombay" will be at the opera house on Tuesday evening next. There will be fun for all who can attend. Nancy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Hunter, is ill with diphtheria, and their home on Curtin street is quarantined. Malcom, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ballock, fell off a porch at their home and broke his upper jaw bone. Thomas J. Sexton, Esq., one of our prominent attorneys, left for California on a business trip. He expects to be gone about one month. The College Reserves foot ball team was defeated by the Bellefonte Academy by the score of 6 to 5 on the Beaver Field at State College, on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fauble, the clothing merchant, had a hot air plant put in his cellar, to heat all the rooms in his residence. It is the system that Mr. Krumrine is introducing. Appeals from this section of the State were heard by the Superior Court the past week in Philadelphia. The following Bellefonte attorneys were in attendance: John Blanchard, District Attorney N. B. Spangler, Ellis L. Orvis, W. P. Reeder, and A. O. Furst. Insurance agent Grant Hoover has a new feather in his cap, having been selected by the Springfield Fire & Marine Ins. Co., as their representative in Centre county. This company is one of the heaviest in the country, with a surplus as regards policy holders, of $3,185,092. Mr. Hoover has gained quite a prominence in insurance circles. Owing to a miscount by our pressman we found that we were short about forty copies of this paper last week to complete our mail list and in some cases had to send out damaged copies, something we never permit ordinarily. We are still short about a dozen copies of that issue which we need to complete our office files and if any persons in Bellefonte have any copies that are not mutilated they will do us a favor by supplying us with them, will call for same if notified. Temple Court, opposite the Brockerhoff house, came near having a fire early yesterday morning. Heavy volumes of smoke were seen issuing from the basement, which led to a timely discovery and before an alarm was sounded a hose carriage was on the spot, and the basement got a soaking. The vacant room lately occupied by Lewins' clothing store, on the first floor, was filled with smoke. In the basement the smoke was so dense that it was not possible to get at the actual location of the fire. A random deluge of water over the basement, however, quenched it before any damage was done. Upon examination it was found that the fire came from a large storage of rubbish in the basement. The day previous a dray was engaged removing some of the rubbish, paper, etc., and likely some smoker dropped a spark. Getting under headway a serious conflagration would have resulted. The borough authorities, as well as the insurance agencies, should forbid using cellars and basements for the storage of such rubbish, as fires are often found to originate thereby. LOVE FOR SUPERIOR COURT. Under the provisions of the Judge retirement bill, passed by the Legislature, Superior Court Judge John I. Mitchell will retire shortly after the election next month. He has been in failing health for a year. When the vacancy occurs it is understood Judge John Gray Love, this county, will be appointed by Governor Stone. The Judge has had his hook and line in for some time, anchored to a Stone, and may get a "bite" at last. He has been a patient fisherman with "fisherman's luck" and is likely to catch something from a chub up. Well, just as well honor Love and Bellefonte with a nice snap as any other machine servant elsewhere. Just as soon as the cork dodges, pull, Judge.

Some Turnip.
In these times of big things H. E. Grove, of Houserville, brings in a turnip which would make a two-horse load—if you had enough of 'em. The turnip he had to turn-up in the Democrat office, measures twenty-five and a half inches in circumference and weighs seven pounds—enough to run a church festival for a short time.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Last Sabbath was a red-letter day in Bellefonte in its religious field, and altogether was quite edifying to the attending people from town and country. The important feature of the day was the dedication of Petriken Memorial Hall by the W. C. T. U., of Bellefonte, an honored association of this town and kept up with zeal by as devoted a membership of ladies as can be found anywhere. A large choir, composed of about fifty voices, rendered the hymns selected in an inspiring manner. The opening hymns were "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord," "We Praise Thee, We Bless Thee," "Stand Up for Jesus," and "Faith is the Victory." There was quite a large audience and the services were of an exceptionally appropriate order. After the close of preliminary services in their old home the members of the W. C. T. U. proceeded in a body to the site of their new home, Marion Petriken Memorial Hall, headed by the president, Mrs. John P. Harris, Sr., and the secretary and treasurer, Mrs. James Harris, where the ceremony of laying the corner stone took place. A very large assembly of people had gathered in front of the new edifice, (now in progress of erection) blocking the street and walks on the front. The lady members of the Union took their position on a platform inside the foundation walls, and backed by a large choir of excellent male and female voices, fine vocal pieces were rendered. Opening prayer by Dr. Laurie, invoking a blessing on the W. C. T. U. and their wonderful work. Reading of scripture lesson by Rev. W. H. Brown of the Evangelical church. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Shriner, of the Methodist church, and Rev. Dr. Holloway, of the Lutheran church, both speaking eloquent words in praise of the noble and devoted women for what they accomplished and the angelic work they were wedded to. After the addresses the very efficient president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. John P. Harris, stepped forward to the corner stone and deposited the dedication documents into the copper box announcing to the audience, in a clear voice, the title of each, as follows:
Sketch of Miss Petriken, photograph of the house she occupied so many years, list of scholars who attended Miss Petriken's school, collected by Mrs. H. C. Valentine; a list of contributors thus far toward the erection of the building, a letter from Neal Dow, father of prohibition in Maine; a list of members of Temperance Light Bearers, Miss Annie V. Lyon, leader; a letter from Francis E. Willard, the inspiration and leader of women; resolutions of Bellefonte Temperance Union, organized by Col. Woodford, on the death of their youngest and most interested member, Harold Richardson Harris; souvenirs of the Centre County Centennial; a copy of each weekly paper in the town, also of the Daily News. Whereupon the box was put into the chamber chiseled in the corner stone, when Rev. George Israel Brown, of the Episcopal church, with taps of mason's hammer, performed the beautiful dedication ceremony. The choir then sang "Praise Him, Praise Him," and the services were ended by a prayer by Rev. Perks. of the U. B. church, and the benediction by Rev. Dr. Laurie. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, and witnessed by a large concourse of people.
In the forenoon an exchange of pulpits was arranged for, very excellent sermons being preached, in the Presbyterian church by Rev. Dr. Shriner, of the M. E. church, and in the Methodist church by Rev. Dr. Laurie of the Presbyterian church.
In the Lutheran church there was a special Sabbath School service in the forenoon, consisting of excellent music by the choir and addresses by Clement Dale, Esq., Fred Kurtz, Cyrus Brungart and the pastor, Dr. Holloway.
The Reformed church held an election on Sunday forenoon to fill the vacancy in their pulpit existing for several months. All the votes cast were for Rev. Schmidt, of Lancaster. In the afternoon an election was held in the Zion congregation, belonging to the same charge, and the result was also in favor of Rev. Schmidt. The elected pastor preached trial sermons in these two churches two weeks previous.
A squad of Salvation Army devotees were here and held services, two male preachers and three female companions to assist in the music and other Salvation Army exercises. Preaching was held in the diamond Saturday night and on Sunday in the court house. They have rented a house on Logan street and intend to stay all winter.
Mountain Fires Again.
Mountain fires started north of Bellefonte last week, and filled the country around with smoke. These fires were the handwork of bad men. Both east and west of town, at half dozen different places, these fires were raging and doing harm. Unless a rain sets in they will spread and do great damage to the new timber growth and may endanger houses and barns. There are some fellows now in the county jail for this kind of dastardly mischief, and there seem to be more electioneering to get to Fort Brungart.

The Skill of the Cook

Is demonstrated to the family through the medium of the food she serves. Those cooks show the greatest skill in making delicious and wholesome hot-breads, cake and biscuit who use the Royal Baking Powder.

The Official Ballot. The certified official ballot, which will be used at the coming election, is a big one for an off year, containing ten columns in the following order: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist Labor, Peoples, Union, Municipal League, Public Opinion, Public Ownership and the usual blank column. The names of Coray and Yerkes, for state treasurer and supreme court judge respectively, appear in three columns—Democratic, Union and Municipal League. The names of the republican candidates appear also in the column headed Public Opinion. At the bottom of the ballot is a place provided for voting for or against the proposed amendments to the Constitution.
