

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worth of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—Oh dear!—pity the deer.
—Charles Bradford has moved from Bellefonte to Clearfield.
—M. B. Herring, Esq., of Gregg, was in town Tuesday on business.
—The woods are full of hunters this week—many preferred hunting to voting.
—When you buy an Estey organ from M. C. Gephart you know you are getting a good one. Estey organs never play out.

—As a special inducement to secure new names on our list we will send the Centre Democrat from this time to Jan. 1903 to any address for $1.00. That means the paper is free to the end of the year.

—M. C. Gephart, the music dealer appears to be putting out a great many musical instruments in this section. Pianos and organs are constantly on the move. He is enterprising and wide awake.

—Although there is a strong force of men at work on the Petriken Hall building, there always are more idle men standing about bossing the operation. That is about the rule, for every working man there is a corresponding loafer.

—Had the entire stay-at-home vote in this county been at the polls on Tuesday, as becomes good citizens, the democratic and union majority would have been one thousand larger; well as it did result, it would have been that much heavier.

—There was little excitement over the election this year in our town. The campaign was an unusually quiet one. There will be plenty of noise next year as a large county ticket will be named and candidates for the nominations are blooming already.

—For the coming year the Centre Democrat will be newer and better than ever. Where can you get more value out of a $1 bill than just to have this paper come every week in the year to your address. Send it to some distant friend or relative—it will be a handsome present.

—People frequently asked what a Rummage sale is like—we can't adequately describe it. Go to the store room recently vacated by Bauer & Co., Allegheny street, and you will see for yourself. It is a collection of antique curiosities that will interest you even if you should not buy.

—Rev. W. K. Diehl, of Nittany, was a pleasant caller at our sanctum on Saturday. He has been pastor of the Lutheran church in this vicinity for a number of years, but has accepted a call from the Lutheran church in Middleburg, Snyder county, Pa., and will move there in the course of a few weeks.

—For the information of inquirers as to the requirements necessary to become a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution: Membership is restricted to women who are lineal descendants of an ancestor who was a military or naval or marine officer, soldier, sailor, or marine in actual service under authority of any of the thirteen colonies or states, or descendants of one who signed the Declaration of Independence, or was a member of the Continental Congress, or of the congress of any of the colonies or states, or as a civil official assisted in the establishment of American independence.

—Remarkable to tell, the boy, Charles Packer, of Pleasant Gap, who was accidentally shot through the stomach by a comrade while out hunting a few weeks ago, the ball also wounding his intestines, is improving and there are hopes of his recovery. From all accounts the lad's injuries are more serious than were those of President McKinley. This case deserves the attention of eminent physicians. He walked a mile after being shot, and a physician, Dr. Fisher, could not be at his side until next day. If the eminent physicians that applied all their skill upon the assassinated president failed, it certainly redounds to the credit of the doctors at home if they save the Packer boy's life.

—Lieut. Colonel William F. Richardson, keeper of the state arsenal at Harrisburg, was the guest of Colonel Fred W. Reynolds on Saturday, and made a preliminary inspection of Rock View farms for the purpose of ascertaining whether they would be suitable as a place for holding the division encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania next year. It is the opinion of knowing ones that there is not a more suitable site in the state than the one offered by our townsman, Col. Reynolds, for a division encampment of the N. G. Water for horses and tenters, railroad along the edge of the grounds, and conveniences for transporting troops from any part of the state, healthiness of locality—all combine to make this an ideal spot for the above purpose, and the prospect is favorable for the Rock View farms being selected.

—Miss Jennie Fauble, of Harrisburg, spent Sunday in Bellefonte.

—Father Benner Armor has been ill at his father's home on East Linn street.

—Merchant Chas. Swartz, of Tusseyville, was a pleasant caller on Wednesday.

—Clayt. Brown, of Philadelphia, is visiting friends in Bellefonte. He is connected with Gimbel Bros. store.

—The latest from Samuel Taylor, who came home ill with typhoid fever, is that he is improving. He has been quite sick.

—The rabbit hunters are meeting with considerable success. Cotton tails are plenty and afford much sport for the hunters.

—Diphtheria and scarlet fever is prevailing in this community and some think the primary schools should be closed down temporarily.

—Mrs. William Cassidy returned home on Saturday evening from a most enjoyable visit with friends in Pittsburg, Pa., and Canton, Ohio.

—Miss Ida Haines, one of Snow Shoe's accomplished young ladies, was a guest over Sunday at the home of her friend Miss Grace Shreffler.

—Edward Hepburn, who is employed in a large wholesale grocery in New York city, is visiting his father, Robert Hepburn, of this place.

—The Centre Democrat will be sent to any new address until January 1903 for $1.00. That gives you the paper to the end of this year free.

—Mrs. F. W. Crider entertained the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at her West Linn street home last evening.

—Mrs. J. P. Stewart, of Webb City, Mo., was the guest of Mrs. J. A. Aikens, a few days last week, and will remain east sometime visiting friends.

—J. C. Marks, of Port Matilda, concluded to keep company with the Centre Democrat during the coming year. He is one of the staunch democrats of that section.

—Rev. W. W. Rhoads, formerly of Centre Hall Evangelical church but now of Grover, Bradford county, will spend a week hunting with the Penns valley boys in the seven mountains.

—Miss Jane Harris, who makes her home with her brother, James Harris, on North Spring street, was stricken with partial paralysis Monday afternoon from which a painful fall resulted.

—The Union Telephone Company are putting up a number of new cables this week in various parts of town. New switch boards are also being put in place so that better service will be rendered their patrons.

—When you are thinking about a good Thanksgiving dinner remember that good groceries are essential. Sechler & Co. for years have had the reputation of handling only the purest and best—and invariably the cheapest.

—From an advertisement in the sale register it will be noted that ex-commissioner G. L. Goodhart is selling his farm implements and live stock. He finds dairying, rather selling milk to the creameries, more profitable. The experiment will interest our farmers.

—After about a dozen announcements that we will not publish "Resolutions of Respect," persons do send them to the office, for that purpose. They invariably go to the waste basket—all are treated alike. The only condition upon which they will be published is at advertising rates.

—Ex Governor and Mrs. Hastings entertained the past week Dr. and Mrs. Kyle, of Philadelphia, Miss Lawson, of Williamsport and Miss Gridley, of Erie. Miss Gridley is the daughter of the late Captain Gridley who commanded the Olympia, Admiral Dewey's flagship at the battle of Manila Bay.

—Howard Spangler has opened a tobacco and confectionery stand in the rooms formerly occupied by Gillen Bros. on Allegheny street. Mr. Spangler has improved in condition so that he will be able to give attention to such an enterprise. He has many friends in this community whose patronage will assist him much.

—The Bellefonte School Board Monday, elected Miss Lizzie Faxon, daughter of Thomas Faxon, of this place, a teacher in the Bellefonte schools to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mrs. J. McCormick, formerly Miss Kate Hewes, to take effect December 6. The Board considered precautionary measures in relation to the prevalence of diphtheria and scarlet fever in Bellefonte and petitioned the Borough Council to order the flushing of all sewers and requested the Board of Health to make a sanitary investigation of the school buildings.

—The tendency of public taste towards romantic plays is shown by the fact that such actors as Spencer, O'Neill, Hackett and several others of much prominence on the English speaking stage have all chosen plays that are well defined as being long to this class of dramatic literature. The first named actor, who has been conspicuously identified with the leading Shakespearian roles in this country, is this season being featured in Shipman Brothers magnificent production of "A Cavalier of France," which will be presented in this city at the Garman Opera House, on Monday evening, Nov. 11, and it will be sure to draw a large and fashionable audience.

—See our line of children's school shoes—Yeager & Davis.

—A big vote was polled in the Estey organ contest this week. See page 8

—Typhoid and diphtheria cases in the town and vicinity, safeguarded by quarantine.

—The Estey Organ Coupon will be found on page 8 Cut it out; some one will want it.

—Chas. Lukenbach, of Phillipsburg telephone exchange, is visiting his parents in Bellefonte.

—Frank Derstine has about recovered from his recent serious illness and is about our streets again.

—Grocer W. H. Smith is the proud father of a pretty girl that arrived at his home Saturday morning.

—Mrs. Wilbur P. Reeder left Wednesday for Knoxville, Tenn., to visit her sister, Mrs. Joseph E. Borches.

—Thomas Boyd Huston, of Denver, Colorado, is a guest for the week at the home of Col. James P. Coburn, on North Allegheny street.

—The Gazette man, Harter, is out with the Boalsburg Modocs on a deer hunt, accompanied by his nephew, master Harry Mensh, of Aaronsburg.

—We have every reason to believe that the production of "A Cavalier of France," in the opera house next Monday evening will be excellent. It has been one of the best attractions of the season.

—Maurice Otto, who is employed on bridge work for the New York Central Railroad Company at Depew, N. Y., returned to that place Wednesday morning after spending several days at his home in this place.

—The Bellefonte High School boys are rejoicing over their second foot ball victory with the Lock Haven High school team. The game was played here on Saturday afternoon; score 16 to 0 in favor of the Bellefonte team.

—The Bellefonte Academy played the Lock Haven Normal school eleven at Lock Haven Saturday, and succeeded in rolling up a score of 35 to 0. The Bellefonte boys have been unusually successful this season with the pig skin.

—C. H. McLain has resigned his position with the Central Railroad at this place and on Monday will move his family to Linden, Lycoming county, where he will engage in the mercantile business. He has been appointed postmaster at Linden.

—Rev. C. N. Woodson, who for five years has been pastor of the St. Paul's A. M. E. church, of Bellefonte, has been assigned by the Pittsburg conference lately in session at Clarksburg, W. Va., to the Phillipsburg charge. He will be succeeded here by Rev. T. J. Askew, of Pittsburg.

—The usual Thanksgiving proclamation has been issued by Governor Stone, fixing Thursday, November 25, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving. Some pervert this holiday to other purposes, worldly pleasure, carousing and the like, which is unbecoming a true American—of course, no Christian does that.

—Streams are low again. October only had a quarter of an inch rain, and cisterns are beginning to play out of water among farmers and others. The grain fields are in great need of rain. The seeding had been looking fine but want of rain has checked the growth and with a continuation of the dry spell the fly will be bred to injure the wheat fields.

—Manager Garman has secured "A Cavalier of France," for Monday evening, Nov. 11. This is one of the biggest metropolitan successes of the season, and as this season is one in which the school of romantic plays seem to have the first call there is no room to question the success of the play. In equipping "A Cavalier of France," Shipman Brothers, one of the leading managerial firms of New York, have spared no expense to make it the real leader of the class. From a scenic and costume viewpoint "A Cavalier of France," is one of the most lavishly and elaborately presented plays of the period.

Bellefonte Children Missing.

Carrie and Lucy McAllister, the adopted daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baney, of Bellefonte, have disappeared. On Sunday morning Mrs. Baney sent the girls to Sunday school, but they did not go there. The girls are 17 and 15 years of age, respectively, and are the children of Toner McAllister, a brother of Mrs. Baney, who is a dependent from Rush township but lives here with his sister. If the reports are true, these children left because they did not like the treatment they received—had too much hard work. It is supposed that they went towards Ridgeway.—Ex.

UNION MEETING OF THE Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. Union meeting held in the Lutheran church on last Sunday evening was attended by an audience that filled the audience and Sunday school rooms to overflowing. The music by the Presbyterian Sunday school orchestra and the Lutheran choir was especially fine, and the immense audience joined in those selections that were familiar with a volume that was soul inspiring. Miss Showers presiding at the organ with her accustomed skill. Rev. Dr. Hollicway conducted the opening services, and the opening prayer was made by Rev. Perks, of the U. B. church. Prof. Jas. R. Hughes had charge of the program of exercises that followed. Gen Beaver was announced for a five minutes address which was given in his usual earnest and vigorous style. The speaker for the evening, Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, of Altoona, was then introduced, and held the large audience in closest attention for nigh an hour, by an address of power and eloquence. The new secretary of the association Mr. Scammel gave the audience a cheering account of the prospects ahead for the Y. M. C. A. of Bellefonte, in their remodeled and improved home, and the many new features added to make it an ideal meeting place for the young men of Bellefonte, for pleasure, christian profit and as an educational association. The Benediction was pronounced by Dr. Laurie, and the great audience went to their respected homes feeling that it was well for them to have been there.

Value of Advertising.

The man who advertises is the man who gets the dough.
A business that isn't worth advertising isn't worth wasting time over.
You never know how much your business can amount to until you advertise and find out.
The public has a short memory; that's the reason that a business to continue profitable must be advertised continuously.
No big business has ever been built up without the publicity given it by judicious advertising, and in this era of advertising it is more than ever important that a business expecting success should be liberally advertised.
After advertising has built up a flourishing business the work of the ad. writer is by no means at an end. It remains for him to keep the business in a prosperous condition with the co-operation of the other departments.—Ad. Writes, St. Louis.
File them up in great big heap, Apply the match, it's like a joke As upward climbs the curling smoke. Each morn shows up a bed of leaves, Leaves that are down to leave, And then it's sweep and sweep, In rows and heap.
