

N. C. RATHBUN ARRESTED

Man Supposed to be Dead Found in Louisville, Ky.

TRIED TO COLLECT INSURANCE

He Shipped a Body to Little Rock, Ark., in An Effort to Collect $4,000 Insurance On His Life—is a Deserter From United States Army.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 12.—Newell C. Rathbun, who was supposed to have been dead in a Jeffersonville, Ind., hotel last Thursday, was arrested in Louisville yesterday. According to Rathbun, the corpse which was shipped to Little Rock for burial as the body of Rathbun was the body of W. L. Ten Eyke. The police say Rathbun has confessed to desertion from the United States army and to having formed a plan to fraudulently collect $4,000 insurance on his life, but that he denies having killed the man who died in the Jeffersonville hotel.

Rathbun was arrested at the United States recruiting station in Louisville. He is held as a fugitive from justice.

At the detective's office Rathbun was put through the sweating process, and under pressure made the following statement, according to his inquisitors:

"My name is Newell C. Rathbun, and my home is in Little Rock, Ark. Several months ago I deserted from the army post at Plattsburg, N. Y., in company with another recruit by the name of Ellis. I soon lost sight of him, and went to Little Rock. There I was married, and afterward took out the insurance policies.

"I came to Louisville about ten days ago and formed a plan to make the insurance company think I was dead, so that I could collect the insurance. I fell in with a man, who said his name was W. L. Ten Eyke, in front of the Salvation Army headquarters in Louisville, and told him of my plan, and he agreed to help me. Our plan was to obtain a corpse from some place, put it in a hotel in Jeffersonville and then set fire to the hotel."

Coroner Coats, of Jeffersonville, states that he examined the stomach of the dead man and found traces of enough laudanum to kill two men.

For a moment Rathbun looked at the group of faces before him, and then said:

"You are on the right track. Goodman is the name of the dead man. I met him in front of the Salvation Army Hotel and determined to keep him drunk for several days and then fix him."

When questioned further, Rathbun denied having given Goodman laudanum, and said he would have made use of chloroform. He then refused to go back to Indiana without requisition papers.

Just before he was taken back to jail Rathbun made the following statement to Chief of Detectives Sullivan: "I admit everything except that I killed Goodman. I meant to kill him, and kept him drunk for the purpose, but he died of alcoholism and I was not forced to make way with him. Mystery about the accomplice named Blanchard was fictitious. I acted alone and without a confederate."

It is said that Goodman, who was of a roving nature, came to this city on October 29 and put up at the Salvation Army Hotel. He repeatedly told the clerk, J. C. Pelton, that he did not have any money and did not know how he would get out of the city. Mr. Pelton says that about noon last Wednesday Goodman entered the hotel and remarked that he had "just met an easy mark," who had given him a quarter. "I have an engagement with him tonight, and he is going to show me how to make some money," continued Goodman.

Body Held For Autopsy.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 12.—The supposed body of Newell C. Rathbun was turned over to the coroner yesterday and placed in a vault to await an autopsy. It is claimed by the authorities that the description of Rathbun does not even agree with that of the corpse.

Chief of Police MacMahon received the following telegram from the chief of police of Louisville: "Have arrested N. C. Rathbun. Hold corpse you have until further orders."

Miners' Strike Averted.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 11.—The community is greatly relieved by the action of the Temple Iron company in reinstating the alleged black-listed men and thereby averting a strike of its 5,000 employes. What prompted the company to change its position cannot be ascertained, as none of the officials will discuss the matter. President Nicholls, of the Mine Workers, expressed the opinion yesterday that the Temple company made the concession at the instance of the other big companies, who feared the possibility of a general strike being precipitated.

Arm Cut to Pieces.

Lancaster, Pa., Nov. 11.—While Wenger Ranck, of Bird-in-Hand, was feeding a corn shredding machine on Saturday, it became choked, and in attempting to remove some of the fodder Ranck's left hand was caught by the knives and the arm and hand almost to the elbow were drawn into the machinery. The limb was literally cut to pieces. Ranck's condition is serious.

Killed By Powder Explosion.

Day, W. Va., Nov. 11.—John Isaacs and Homer Frowell, white, and Tom Toleman, colored, all miners, were killed near here by the accidental explosion of several kegs of powder in a shanty.

REWARDED FOR BRAVERY

Engineer On Penny Presented With $1,000 Watch and $500.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 12.—On May 22, 1901, railroad engineer John Reilly, who was descending the mountain west of this city with an empty engine, at great risk to his own life, stopped a runaway freight train following him. The freight train was beyond control and was running at such frightful speed that Conductor Jack Early, of Pittsburg, was thrown off and killed before his train was stopped. Yesterday afternoon General Manager J. B. Hutchinson, Pittsburg division; Superintendent Robert Pitcairn and many transportation officers came to this city and presented Engineer Reilly with a $1,000 gold watch and chain and a check for $500 in recognition of his valued services. The inscription on the watch says: "Given to Engineer John Reilly by the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad in recognition of his courage, judgment and sense of duty, May 22, 1901."

Engineer Reilly's courageous act saved the railroad company the loss of many thousands of dollars.

At the same time the presentation was made to Engineer Reilly, Conductor James T. Lundy and Engineer William Black were rewarded for heroic service by each being presented with a company voucher for $200.

TOWN NEARLY DESTROYED

Ninety Buildings Burned and Many People Are Homeless.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 13.—The mining town of Thomas, W. Va., on the West Virginia Central and Pittsburg railway, was almost wiped out by fire, which started yesterday under Gersberger's hotel. The town was without fire protection, and the frame houses fell an easy prey to the flames. Twenty business houses and 70 dwellings were consumed. The Catholic church, opera house, Gersberger and Reynolds hotels, the jail, the water station and several houses belonging to the Davis Coal and Coke company were destroyed.

The town was promoted mainly by the Davis Coal and Coke company and the West Virginia Central railroad. The latter has given the residents all the box cars at Thomas to shelter the homeless. The east end of the town was destroyed, including the four principal business blocks. Many traveling men lost their samples and money and scores of people were driven from home.

Horse Thief Publicly Whipped.

Dover, Del., Nov. 11.—William H. Decker was publicly whipped in the jail yard on Saturday by Sheriff Frank Reedy for horse stealing. The sentence was 20 lashes, which was the lightest that could be given under the statute which provides for the punishment of horse thieves. Decker is a middle-aged man and very frail, and it was feared that the flogging would cause an attack of heart failure, to which he is subject. Sheriff Reedy, however, applied the lash quickly and rapidly, and Decker was soon back in his cell. The prisoner, who appeared to lose his nerve entirely when taken to the post, became composed after the ordeal was over, and thanked the wardens for their care.

Storage Plant Burned.

New Castle, Pa., Nov. 11.—The plant of the Lawrence Ice and Storage company was completely gutted by fire last evening. The damage amounts to fully $150,000. The plant was only completed and operations begun this fall, and all the expensive machinery was destroyed, only the bare walls being left standing. More than 28,000 pounds of ammonia was stored in the plant, and the fears of explosion hindered the firemen. The fire started in the oil room, and the watchman tried to fight the blaze alone until too late.

Thrilling Escape From Death.

Uniontown, Pa., Nov. 11.—N. Deighley, master mechanic at the Continental Coke Works, had a thrilling escape from an awful death. He was standing on the cage at the top of the tippie, 380 feet from the bottom of the shaft, prying with a crowbar, when the cage suddenly dropped from under him. He clutched the crowbar and hung over the mouth of the shaft, but could not escape. The crowbar was slipping when he attracted help by his cries.

Miners Favor Chinese Exclusion.

Hazleton, Pa., Nov. 12.—Thomas Duffy, president of the United Mine Workers of this district, yesterday notified all the local unions under his supervision of the wish of National President Mitchell that resolutions be adopted favoring the re-enactment of the Chinese exclusion law, which expires next May. These resolutions will be forwarded to the congressmen representing the people of the anthracite coal fields.

Accident at Launching.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13.—The Chesapeake and Ohio railway steamboat Virginia was launched at the Tripp shipyard here yesterday. Just before the time appointed for the launching some of the timbers under the boat gave way, and the craft's plunge was impromptu. L. M. Seay, a yard employe, had his leg crushed in the accident, but no one else was hurt. The boat was not damaged.

Rural Delivery in Delaware.

Dover, Del., Nov. 11.—The establishment of the rural free delivery for Kent county will probably not be ordered until the last of December, but it is thought that the system will be in operation by Christmas. Congressman Ball is keeping in touch with the residents of this section and holding conferences, in order that the appointment of carriers may be made in a business-like way.

MUTINY OF CONVICTS

Twenty-six Desperate Men Break Jail at Leavenworth, Kan.

DESPERATE FIGHT FOR LIBERTY

After a Fierce Struggle, Twenty-six Prisoners Escape From Federal Jail, Trying to Evade Recapture, Several Are Killed—Posse in Pursuit.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 8.—One man was killed, five others dangerously wounded and 26 desperate convicts are at large, as a result of a mutiny late yesterday afternoon at the site of the new United States prison, two miles southeast of here, where 400 prisoners from the Federal prison, in charge of 30 armed guards, were at work.

When the trouble began the rebellious prisoners had only two revolvers. These had been secreted in one of the walls of the building by some unknown persons. Gus Parker, of Ardmore, I. T., one of the ringleaders of the mutiny, under pretense of a necessity, walked to the corner of the stockade, where the revolvers were concealed, under cover of some weeds secured by the said act and passed one of the revolvers to Frank Thompson, a negro from South McAlester, I. T., who secreted it about his person. The prisoners then attempted to rush through an opening in the stockade. On the outside was an armed guard, and the convicts were met at the opening by C. E. Burrows, a guard, who fought them back, but who received two shots in the neck. The convicts then rushed over to the south wall to another opening, and were met by Arthur Treelford, an armed guard, who is in charge of all the convicts. Treelford resisted the convicts, and was shot twice, but not dangerously wounded.

Defeated in their attempt to escape at this point, the men rushed to the guard house, a temporary frame structure, where the arms are kept. The guards from the outside rushed in at this point and drove the convicts away from the guard house.

A guard shot and killed Ford Quinn, from Ryan, I. T. The prisoners then made a grand rush for the main entrance, and 26 of them succeeded in escaping. Closely followed by the guard, the men ran to a nearby forest. Rounding Them Up. Five convicts were discovered in the barn of Fay Weishaar, near Nortonville, Kan., about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Weishaar went into the barn, and was ordered out at the point of guns. He rushed to Nortonville and gathered a posse of men, who, with revolvers, shotguns and a few Winchester hunters hastened to the scene. The convicts saw the men coming and rushed from the barn. They had two shotguns and revolvers. The posse pursued them, and a running duel resulted.

The convicts were at a disadvantage and their shots had no effect, while at every volley from the posse one of the convicts fell. After two of them had fallen, two of the others gave themselves up, one being wounded, the other unhurt. The fifth was fully 200 yards away, when a man with a Winchester drew a bead on him and fired. He evidently had been hit, but tried to go on; a volley was fired at him and he fell dead. None of the citizens were hurt.

Monday evening Frank Thompson, the leader of the convicts, was captured near Council Grove, Kan. He was wounded in the head before he surrendered. There are still 9 of the convicts at liberty, and posess are pursuing them.

"Doctored" Oysters.

Altoona, Pa., Nov. 12.—Pure Food Inspector James Foust, of this city, recently collected 62 samples of tub oysters in Blair and Cambria counties. He had reason to believe that formaldehyde was being used to preserve them. He got his clue from a letter from a New York oyster firm, offering to sell preservaline to keep oysters from sliming and souring in the hottest weather. Of the 18 samples lifted in Johnstown eight had been "doctored." The others showed traces of formaldehyde. Half of the six in Altoona had been preserved. Inspector Foust will proceed against the merchants.

Centenarians Dead.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 12.—Mrs. Joseph Leich, aged 109 years, died at her home near here. She was married in 1828 according to a peculiar custom which prevailed in those days. When a groom lived in Maryland and a bride in Virginia the marriage took place in a boat in the middle of the Potomac.

Unlucky Searling in Delaware.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13.—The Chesapeake and Ohio railway steamboat Virginia was launched at the Tripp shipyard here yesterday. Just before the time appointed for the launching some of the timbers under the boat gave way, and the craft's plunge was impromptu. L. M. Seay, a yard employe, had his leg crushed in the accident, but no one else was hurt. The boat was not damaged.

Congressman Ball is keeping in touch with the residents of this section and holding conferences, in order that the appointment of carriers may be made in a business-like way.

Killed While Wrestling.

Middletown, Pa., Nov. 11.—Josh Clouser, about 17 years old, was shot through the heart and instantly killed. He was wrestling with a companion, Clarence Hickernell, over the possession of the weapon, when it was accidentally discharged. No blame is attached to the latter.

New York Potato Farmers Jubilant.

Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Farmers in the neighborhood of this city are jubilant. Livingston and Steuben counties will reap a rich harvest as a result of the "potato rot" in Vermont and the shortage in the west. Many farmers have dug from 1,000 to 1,500 bushels per acre, for which they get 50 cents a bushel.
