

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT Happenings About Centre County Briefly told by A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Nittany.

Perry McCaleb's sale was largely attended, and all articles sold brought good prices, especially the horses. George S. Fisher has bought a new buggy and now you can see him hauling the girls around quite frequently.

Ed. Zerby, of Loganton, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Joe Emerick, of this place. George Tolbert visited friends at Clintondale, one day last week.

The rain on Monday was very welcome and makes the wheat look much better. Mr. and Mrs. James Gonsauls visited friends in Beech Creek on Sunday.

James Gonsauls was to Bellefonte on Monday on business. We noticed Mr. and Mrs. John Woomer, of Bellefonte, passed through our town on Sunday.

It is rumored that we are to have a new store in the near future. Lutherday was observed in the Lutheran church Sunday forenoon with a pretty program and choice singing.

Quite a number of our people are butchering, these days, and, of course, the sausage goes like hot cakes. Mr. and Mrs. John Messimer, of Penn Hall, were the guests of John Minnick and family at this place.

R. F. Emerick transacting special business in Bellefonte on Monday. J. H. Winkelman, who is working at Jersey Shore spent Sunday with his family at this place.

Irvin Robb, formerly of this place, but for the past several years located in Johnstown, spent several days with his parents, at this place. He had been employed by the Bell telephone company and resigned to accept a similar position at Williamsport with a different company.

Once upon a time two railroad men of Bellefonte came to our town and paid one of our farm ladies $2.00 a piece for letting them shoot two of her tame turkeys. Then they flung them across their shoulders and returned to Bellefonte with two wild turkeys—so they said. Weren't they brave?

Will Snavely shot another wild turkey on Saturday; this is Will's second one this season already and he didn't have them tied when he shot them, either, like some town sports did.

Mrs. Hettie Tate is visiting friends in Tyrone at present.

Milesburg.

William Baird, of Windber, returned to that place after a week's visit with his parents, Joseph Baird and wife. Myrtle do not keep Billy so late the next time; poor fellow ran into the wire fence and became bewildered on his way home; it was so dark—lost his way home.

Ed. Brown is getting better; was confined to the house for four weeks with rheumatism. Mrs. Dan'l Shope died on Thursday evening of consumption; buried on Sunday in the Messiah church yard.

Mrs. Dixon and son, of Tyrone, are visiting her brother, Wesley Crain. William you must be certain of your game after this when you see two wild turkeys, do not be so easily excited and do not shoot a poor innocent crow for a turkey; eat crow, William.

Claude W. Fulton is again papa; a son put in an appearance at his place recently. Mrs. William Stacy, son and two daughters, of White Hall, are visiting her parents, Wm. B. Graffmire and wife.

Mr. Irvin Armstrong, of Salona, was a guest of Mrs. W. B. Graffmire. Miss Mary M. Green arrived home from Buffalo where she was employed during the Pan-American season.

Miss Kate Heverly arrived home from Uniontown recently. Mrs. Mary Jane Armstrong after a visit of four months with her children and friends, returned home to Mill Hall lately.

Miss Mary Bavarr left for Williamsport to enter the home of the friendless, as we have learned. George Taylor, our postmaster for the past four years, has been reappointed postmaster and has entered on his second term of four years; his bonds have been sent to headquarters and accepted by the department.

Wolfs Store.

H. E. Beck will move to Clearfield. The Wert hunting party returned home Saturday from a week's hunt in Bear Meadows. They report four deer killed.

Everybody from our section attended Henry Brubart's sale last Saturday. J. Y. Stover will open the butchering season today (Thursday). A. Douty, of Madisonburg, attended prayer services in the U. Ev. church Sunday evening.

J. W. Blets, of Tylersville, spent a few days last week with Ezra Overdorf. Our supervisor put our roads in better condition last week. Many of the wells and cisterns have gone dry. Elk creek is also very low, and unless we have a good soaking rain before winter sets in, there will be a water famine.

WANTED—Several persons of character and good reputation in each state (one in this county required) to represent and advertise old established wealthy business house of solid financial standing. Salary $10.00 weekly with expenses additional, all payable in cash each Wednesday direct from head office. Horse and carriage furnished, when necessary. References. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Manager, 316 Easton Building, Chicago.

Boalsburg.

There will be no preaching services in the Presbyterian church for three weeks, as the pastor, Rev. D. E. Hepler, expects to be absent from the charge the two next Sundays.

Geo. Meyer left on Saturday for Altoona where he has secured a good position with the P. R. R. Co. Mrs. Moore, of Alexandria is visiting at the home of her nephew, Rev. A. A. Black, pastor of the Reformed church of this place.

Misses Maggie Lyle and Dora Meyer circulated among friends in Bellefonte, on Saturday. Among those who paid the county seat a visit on Saturday were, Thomas Weber, Ed. Meyers, Geo. Fortney and Will Fortney.

Our worthy townsman T. D. Boal, is still making extensive improvements to his property. He is having a cellar dug over which he is going to build an annex to his house which shall contain a large dance hall, it is to be 40x14. He is also having a fine stable put up with a part of it fixed up for the hostler.

Miss Rose Woods, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Anna Glenn, of Rixford, for the last few months, returned home last week much to the joy of her friends, also to a young man by the name of "Sammy." Do not think it is "Sammy" from the Branch.

Dr. Samuel Woods, of Warren, this state, returned home last week to spend a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Woods. $500 reward:—A valuable slip of paper was lost between Weber's store and the Lutheran church, for the return of which the owner would gladly reward the finder. The likeness of the owner will be seen on the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Rottorf, of Lemont, were seen passing through our burg, on Thursday last. Mrs. David Keller accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. L. Mothersbaugh, spent last Thursday at the home of A. W. Dale, of Oak Hall.

Harry Ishler accompanied by Miss Ida Williams paid the dentist at Pine Grove a visit, on Friday. As the scribe from this place has received numerous letters asking for the whereabouts of the Linden Hall scribe, he will take the permission to appoint a committee composed of the Oak Hall scribe and the Lemont scribe to investigate into the matter and I think they may "Get(z)" him wandering near some "Dale."

Did you see the smile on a certain young lady's face? Why Scott was at home on election day. Scott Weiland, who is at present clerking in his brother's store, who lives near Williamsport, was at home on Tuesday to cast his first vote.

Harry Lonbarger, of Oak Hall, entered our High School, on Monday. Harry is a bright young man and the signs are that he will be one of our great men of the future.

We want to correct a mistake we made several weeks ago; that a young man that we said was lost turned up and informed us that only one of his legs was bowed.

Highvalley.

Dry and high wind in the valley. Frank and John Derr, from Millburg, paid their grandparents a visit last week and stocked the wood pile; call again, boys, before wood is all.

John Galer lost a fine horse last week; this is now the sixth one inside of two years—bad luck. George Rider had a cow killed on last Thursday by the up freight; the railroad company should pay Rider immediately as he is in need of a cow.

The election is past and Highvalley is well pleased with the result, but it could be better; but Highvalley is true to their promises, not like the democrat at Ingley—how like a lion before the election and when the day comes, like the bugs at East End, sneek in a hole, back out backward and holler we have carried the county; no honest democrat should do them a favor.

Lots of wild geese crossed the valley last week, I think they are mighty slow. Slow as Thomas Keen's sawmill, make one cut a day.

The Highvalley and Georgetown scribes met on election day and had quite a talk about their bad luck. Georgetown claimed since the major is riding on wheat it was an advantage to his business.

Dr. Snyder is adding a shine to his house, the Dr. means business. The lumberman is getting ready to stock timber to the road for snow; well it would be a fine thing if snow would come then the Ingleybs could haul on sleds.

The real estate agent got off the afternoon train last Friday with his pocket full of what is called I can pay as I go.

William Sheeley, one of our Modoc rabbit hunters, was in the valley and bagged five of the stump tails.

Jess Snyder layed in his winter supply on Saturday; Jess is a good democrat.

Centre Hall.

Postmaster Boal and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foreman were to Bellefonte on business the other day. Very little sickness in town at present. The Lutherans will gather at the parsonage Nov. 21, to assist in making needed repairs.

Wm. Colyer will build a large barn on his land east of Centre Hall, purchased from the Wilson heirs. Dr. Lee will erect a new house on the lot adjoining Mrs. Becky Murray.

Aber Alexander spent several days this week visiting at Bellefonte. Jim Sando arrived home from Pittsburg on Tuesday to visit his parents. Jim has a position on a railroad engine.

The water is low from the new town works, and causes some inconvenience. Hope the rain may be great enough to help us out.

The new house on the James Alexander farm near Earlstown is up and near completion, and Abner may soon fill the case.

N. B. Shaffer, of near this place, transacted business at Bellefonte Tuesday.

Georges Valley.

Adam Finkel has bought some timber of Bitner and Rishel at Farmers Mills. We have some moving going on in our neighborhood this week. Calvin Finkel is moving to Spring Mills where he intends to keep an implement and hardware store; Robert Finkle is moving from Spring Mills on Adam Finkel's farm at this place where Calvin is leaving.

Our hunters went to the Seven Mountains for deer last week; they are camping near Garrity's; they were very successful last week having killed two bear and one nine pronged deer. The party are the Georges valley sports, Emery and David Sweetwood, George Breon, Kenley and Harry Confer; they expect to remain there this week.

Harry Igen and Worde Emerick, who went to Botting, Iowa, several weeks ago, are getting along fine; they are employed by the street car company. Our good neighbors, Honian and sons, will move to Brush Valley in the spring.

Miss Jennie Decker and Ray Houtz went to Potters Mills on Sunday. Adam Heckman, our early rider, has been hauling lumber from Penn Cave for the Decker Bros.

James Hanna was a caller in our section on Friday. Adam Heckman greased his hogs with coal oil one evening last week and next morning he found them very sick, with danger of losing them.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Auman and his mother, of Johnstown, were visiting in this section last week. A large bear visited Green Decker's orchard Sunday evening and caused quite an excitement, some went with guns and did not have any loads; one put the shot in one barrel and the powder in the other and lost his load before he got very far; some ran themselves out of wind and could not get any further, so the bear felt good after his lunch on apples.

James Foust began to work on the road through this valley last week. Charles Turner, our accommodating dealer in country produce, met with a painful accident a few days since while riding in a road cart, the axle of which broke, throwing him out, his head striking on some railroad iron causing him to suspend business for awhile.

Port Matilda.

H. F. Chaney for a fair price offered him for the fire brick material on his lands; it is quite likely to be accepted. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McMonigal, of Blandburg, have returned to their home after a pleasant visit among friends near Flat Rock.

P. W. Young has accepted a situation as clerk in a large general merchandise store in Barnesboro, Pa. Philip is an accommodating clerk and highly deserves promotion.

Both old and young people, of, at and near this place, enjoyed an oyster supper at Jesse Woodring's a few nights since; a good time reported.

George Woodring has shown great mechanical skill in roofing his livery stable. The children and grand children of Mrs. Sarah Frantz, of Bell Hollow, on Thursday last surprised the old lady by gathering together, having in their company Mrs. McCune and Mrs. Kripps, of Unionville, going to her home to give her a surprise; notwithstanding her age, 76 years, she enjoyed herself as if young again. All had a good time.

Yarnell.

Emma, James has gone home. You need not expect to see him at any more apple-cuttings. Some young people report having had a very fine time at the Water Rocks. How about it Edggar?

Martin Fetzer was home over Sunday. We were all glad to see him. Eddie Walker spent Sunday with his aged mother at this city.

Another bear has been seen feeding in Alfred Shanker's corn field. Edgar Stover teacher at this place, spent Sunday with his friend, Merrell Butler.

Mrs. Thomas Yeager, of Lock Haven, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Robert Walker, of this city. Protracted meeting broke up at Pleasant Valley Friday night.

Miss Frances Confer was the guest of Miss May Walker, Sunday. Girls, I wouldn't have a beau unless he could furnish his own lantern to see me home. Would you Treatise?

Rev. Sparks will preach at the U. B. church next Sunday at 2:30. W. E. Brown's sale was well attended. There will be a spelling school held at this place Nov. 12, 1901; all are invited to attend. C. W.

Buffala Run.

Little Ethel Grove, who had been very poorly with rheumatism, is again able to be around. We see that W. M. bought a new cross-cut saw—that means business. Now Sarah you and Clayton will have to make the wood git, wont you?

We see that Mr. Stinkecher, one of Clearfield's successful butchers, is around making the farmers look happy. Piggie that is a new style wearing your buggy wheels on trees.

Our farmers are all about done husking corn except Nathaniel, and he will not get done till New Year if he has to make many more trips across the mountain; will you Sam?

Samuel Wait, who lives on one of the Reynolds farms, is moving from there to Pleasant Gap; Sammy we are sorry to lose you. Notice, the old maid sale will be on Saturday, sale to commence at 1 p. m., sharp. All the bachelors are invited.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life. "I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in 6 short time he was all right." For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. James Weaver and Mrs. Foster Bower were summoned to the sick bed of their sister, Mrs. Annie Alters, at Centre Hall, they returned again on Saturday.

Edward Bressler spent a few days with his family on N. 2nd street; he left again for Clearfield where he has secured a good job. Mr. and Mrs. Noah Leitzell are reported to be both on the sick list.

Clyde Boob is spending the week with his son Will, at Centre Hall. Miss Nellie Weaver has gone to spend a few months with Geo. Dunkle's at Spring Mills.

The news of the sudden death of Clyde Houser, of Brisbin, was indeed a shock to his many friends of this place; he was a grandson of Mrs. D. H. Lenker. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weaver spent a few hours on Sunday with their son, at Coburn.

William Stover a much respected old citizen has gone to visit his son at Altoona. Mrs. Geo. Glenn, of Axemann, was the guest of her mother, one day last week.

Noah Cronmiller has been housed in for the last week with a severe cold. A very able sermon was delivered on Monday evening, by Rev. Lohr in the United Evangelical church of this place.

SCHOOL REPORT:—following is a report of the Aaronsburg Intermediate school, for the second month, ending Nov. 8, 1901. Whole number enrolled, male 20, female 22, total 42. Average attendance during month, male 18 female 20. Per cent. of attendance during month, male 90, female 91.57. The following present every day during the term: Grove Beaver, Dora Guisewitz, Lola Stover, Mary J. Fehl, Willie, Clarence Eisenbauer, Earl H. Wert, Fred Lambert, Grove Beaver, Harry Bower, John Stover, Paul Stover, Willie Weaver, Willie Oyster, Willie Haffler, Eva Stover, Dora Guisewitz, Flossie Stover, Lola Stover, Mary Fehl, Mary Jane Stover, Mary Stover, Mildred Acker, Mary Eisenbauer and Sarah Guisewitz were present every day during the month. E. R. Wolf, teacher.

PICKED UP.

Hundreds of People Volunteer Evidence that Dismiss Doubt. The columns of this newspaper are day-by-day publishing fresh evidence from people which establishes more fully the great reputation of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. The manner in which they take hold of the run down and debilitated is so prompt, strength and energy is so quickly picked up by their use, evidence is so plentiful.

C. L. Scheid of 118 E. Church St., Lock Haven, Pa., says:—"I was feeling run down and poorly last fall as the result of a rather hard summer's work. I did not rest well and bothered a good deal with dull headaches. I got a box of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Krumrine's drug store and though I used less than one box I felt they did me a great deal of good looking up and invigorating me. I can recommend them."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50c. a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.—4

Penn Cave.

Corn husking is almost over in this part, and the next thing on the program will be the monstrous porkers, which are certainly despised by few. Em'l Gentzel moved into John Ream's tenant house last Monday.

A complaint for the Brush Valley sports: When first they went to see her They had a timid heart, And when the lights were low They sat this far apart. But as their love grew warmer, And they learned the joy of kisses; When the lights were low, They knocked out all the spaces And sat snuggled like this.

Cridler, Orwig & Co left for Virginia where they have purchased a tract of timber. They shipped the mill several weeks ago. Wallace White expects to go to Axemann to attend school.

Quite a few attended the communion services held at the Union church last Sunday. The Brush Valley hunting club returned from the Seven Mountains where they had camped for about a week. The report of their success is not exactly known, but they were successful in killing at least one deer and probably more.

Harry Ream and Wallace White were the guests of Benj. Lambert, on Sunday.

Zion.

They say that J. B. S. is going to learn the blacksmith trade. Zion and Forest schools are going to exchange bats Saturday, November 16. Decker and Rocky are getting a well drilled at present.

Newton Shaffer was shaking hands with his many friends, one day last week. Our thrasher, Austin Johnson, is about through thrashing; the next thing will be sawing wood.

Tom Homan's were out hunting, one day last week, and succeeded in killing 13 rabbits and 2 grays, this is a hunting story. Zion is again visited by those unpleasant thieves—they are stealing turkeys, husking corn on the shock; it seems those cowards are afraid to come to the barn or to the corn crib, they even stoop so low as to steal apples; they had better stop, because they have tracked one very closely.

They say Harry wont go to school, he is going to learn the trade. Boys you would better stay away when the old folks isn't at home.

There was quite an excitement in our town last Sunday night; the chandelier in the Evangelical church fell down on the floor, the lights were all burning.

A VISION She promanaded the busy street, Past hotel, store and flat. Her new style coat was very neat, And oh, her stunning hat. And then her gait was kangaroo, Her corset the latest cut, She wore the latest kind of shoes, And drew her skirts across her feet— The electric lights went out.

"Evert Jack has a Jill," they say; but some Jacks want a pint or more.

Lemont.

Donald Williams, of State College, is visiting with his grandmother, of this place. Linn Christian, '04 of State, was seen in our town, on Saturday.

Our community was shocked to hear of the sad death of the young boy, Clyde Houser, of Brisbin, Clearfield Co. He was a son of William Houser, who was formerly a merchant in our town, but is now a clerk in Mr. Gould's store at Brisbin. The remains were brought to Mr. Lenker's an uncle of the deceased, on Saturday, and laid away on Sunday afternoon at the Shiloh cemetery, Rev. Leshor, of Boalsburg, officiating. His age was eleven years.

Andrew Gregg returned to Clearfield, on Sunday, to resume his work with the telephone company. Mrs. Wean, of Oak Hall, and Mr. George Baker, of the west, are visiting old acquaintances in our vicinity. Mr. Baker has not been in this section of the county for quite a while.

Miss Markel, of State College, called on Nan Herman, on Sunday. Misses Edmiston and Ewing, of Pleasant Hill, were among the visitors the past week.

Bruce Struble and Timothy Bowersox, of Axe Mann, accompanied by Mattie Ray and Cordilia Fishella were in our town, on Sabbath. Roy Bell, Pleasant Gap, extended his hearty welcome in our town, on Sunday.

Kentucky's Voice.

has often been heard in our nation's affairs and her sons are ever ready to lend their voices and influence for the aid of mankind. From her beautiful mountain country, where, as a noted writer has said "the hills are so straight up, they lean back," writes A. M. Hughes, a druggist of Louisiana: "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is all that can be desired. My customers call for it more and more and physicians, who as a rule are not quick to endorse patent medicines frequently prescribe it." 25 cents a bottle at Green's Pharmacy.

Potter.

Hunters are having fair luck. Mrs. George Goodhart and Mrs. Daniel Daup, both of near Centre Hill, came down to Lewisburg on Saturday to spend several days visiting their aunt, Mrs. Jones, on North Third Street.—Journal.

Mrs. Jos. Grossman, by upsetting of a load of cornfodder, was thrown with such force that she sustained a fracture of the left arm, and was otherwise bruised; the patient is doing well.

Mr. Rossman, wife and daughter, from Centre county, spent last week at his brother's Calvin Rossman's, at Zieglerville.

Itching Scalp.

Bald Head and the Most Violent Forms of Eczema and Salt Rheum Promptly and Thoroughly Cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Among small children, scald head and similar itching skin diseases are most prevalent and the worst feature is that these ailments, which are apparently trivial at first, almost invariably develop into chronic eczema if neglected.

There is but one treatment that physicians are unanimous in recommending for scald heads and eczema, and that is Dr. Chase's Ointment, the great antiseptic healer. It promptly stops the distressing itching which accompanies these diseases and positively produces a thorough and complete cure.

Scores of thousands of men and women stand ready to vouch for the merits of Dr. Chase's Ointment. It has brought about some of the most marvelous cures ever recorded. In justice to yourself and family, you cannot do without it in your home.

Mr. J. H. Grant, 716 Joseph Campan avenue, Detroit, Mich., writes: "For three years I have been troubled by an intense itching on my body. So terrible was it at times that I could get no rest night or day. I tried all kinds of ointments and blood purifiers, but could get no relief. Mr. H. A. Nicolai of 379 Division street recommended Dr. Chase's Ointment. A few applications stopped the itching and I have felt nothing since."

Baby Eczema. Mr. F. S. Rose of 133 Sixteenth street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Our baby boy suffered for some time with that wretched eczema, and we were unable to find anything to cure or even relieve his pain. A few applications of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment stopped the itching and healed the sores, and a bright, natural skin now takes their place."

Dr. Chase's Ointment does not cause pain when applied, but soothes the raw or inflamed surface, 50 cents at all dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

MANY A NICE FRAME

is spoiled by bad uneven joining. Come and select the moulding to suit your picture, and we guarantee our workmen will put it together in strong, perfect joints. Let us do some work for you and know the superiority of our frames. A beautiful line of framed pictures suitable for Holiday Gifts. Remember us. The same with Photographs; many a good "wood" is spoiled by bad finishing and mounting on dark lines. "Healey" cards. Ours have all the qualities that go together to make pleasing, artistic and lasting pictures. Photos make pleasing presents.

Pennsylvania Railroad's Winter Excursion Route Book. In pursuance of its annual custom, the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Company has just issued an attractive and comprehensive book descriptive of the leading winter resorts of the East and South, and giving the rates and various routes and combinations of routes of travel. Like all the publications of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, this "Winter Excursion Book" is a model of typographical and clerical work. It is bound in a handsome and artistic cover in colors, and contains much valuable information for winter tourists and travelers in general. It can be had free of charge at the principal ticket offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, or will be sent postpaid upon application to Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

The Youth's Companion in 1902. To condense in a paragraph the announcement of the Youth's Companion for 1902 is not easy. Not only will nearly two hundred story writers contribute to the magazine, but many of the most eminent of living statesmen, jurists, men of science and of letters, scholars, sailors, soldiers and travelers, including three members of the President's Cabinet. In a delightful series of articles on military and naval topics the Secretary of the Navy will tell "How Jack Lynch, the famous war correspondent, will describe "How Men Feel in Battle," and Winston Spencer Churchill, M. P., whose daring escape from a Boer prison pen is well remembered, will describe some experiences "On the Flank of the Army."

And this is but a beginning of the long list. A complete announcement will be sent to any address free. The publishers also announce that every new subscriber who sends in the 1902 volume now will receive all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1901 free from the cost of subscription; also The Companion Calendar for 1902, all in addition to the fifty-two issues of The Companion for 1902.
