

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—Some correspondence was cut down and others omitted for want of space.

—G. H. Hoy, of Pine Grove, was a caller, being a juror at special term, on Monday.

—Esq. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim, was in town beginning of the week on legal business.

—Emil Eisenhuth, governor of High-valley, was in town the other day on business.

—Mrs. John Noll went to Clearfield to visit her son Charles. From there she will go to Altoona.

—Miss Blanche Smith has returned home after a few days' pleasant visit to friends in Altoona.

—Mrs. Mary Schreyer, of Williamsport is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Harper, on Linn street.

—Mrs. Edward Cunningham is lying very ill at her home at Bush Addition. It is thought she has spinal meningitis.

—Miss Carrie Swartz, of Williamsport, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Klump, wife of Dr. George B. Klump, of this place.

—The attendance at the Y. M. C. A. is good these evenings. There is always a choice selection of literature on hand.

—The special term of court called for Monday was short lived; the jurors were all discharged by His Honor Judge Love before noon.

—The meeting of the Archdeaconry, of Williamsport, opened in St. John's Episcopal church Wednesday evening with a Choral Evensong.

—Rev. W. H. Brown, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Bellwood Evangelicals and preached for the pastor at the communion service last Sunday morning.

—See the electrical dragon and animated dancing skeleton, strong features with Hickman Bro's Down and Up. Will be at Garman's Opera House Friday, Nov. 22nd.

—The brick work on Petriken hall is now finished and the roofing will be completed in a few days. The front of the building presents a fine appearance and is much admired.

—Rev. Ambrose Schmidt, the new pastor of the Reformed church, preached his first sermons as pastor of the Reformed church last Sunday morning and evening, leaving a favorable impression.

—C. H. Hoffman, of Ridley Park, Pa., visited his friend J. Will Conley, during last week, and spent several days in the mountains. He is a crack shot and slaughtered game wherever he went.

—Hickman Bro's "Down and Up" Co. is the funniest of all farce comedies. It is a farce with a real plot, interspersed with specialties of a fine order, and mechanical effects. The play is one of the 8 Belts order. At Garman's Opera House Friday, Nov. 22nd.

—One of the most successful productions of the season is Hickman Bro's Down and Up Co. They are booking return dates everywhere, and are strongly endorsed by every manager with whom they play. Will be at Garman's Opera House, Friday, Nov. 22nd.

—Mr and Mrs. Burd Woods, of Scottsdale, who had been guests of Sheriff and Mrs. Brungart, in this place, left for their home Thursday morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brungart, widow of the late Henry Brungart, of Rebersburg, who will make her home with them.

—W. N. Kurtz and family are leaving Bellefonte this week and he will locate at Clearfield and assist his brother who has a printing and stationery store in that place. Mr. Kurtz was the proprietor of the bookstore here for several years which business is now conducted by Mr. Irwin.

—Saturday evening a package by express from Snow Shoe, with the compliments of John G. Uzzle, came to our door and was most acceptable, as it was a fine saddle of venison. How our good friend knew that we had a weakness for such a dish we know not, but he was right, and his kindness is more than appreciated.

—Attorney W. F. Cohick, of this place, has determined to leave Bellefonte soon for El Paso, New Mexico, hoping that the change of climate will benefit him, as his lungs have become weakened. Their household goods will be offered for sale on the 23rd. The family will go with him. They came here from Clinton county about two years ago.

—The regular November term of sheriff sales takes place on Saturday at the court house. In the list will be found the property of the Valentine Furnace, which has passed through numerous difficulties similar to this one. The bond holders will likely purchase the property to secure their interests. The other furnace at this place is running right along with a larger output than ever. For the same reason the Valentine plant should be in operation here.

—John Dugan, of Bellefonte, has pension increased to $14 per month.

—Yesterday morning was coldest, mercury down to 16, ice half an inch thick.

—Miss Ray Musser, of Hartleton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. H. Harter.

—Samuel Taylor, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is improving.

—Ex-Sheriff William Ishler, wife and son, Orrie, were visitors at Williamsport, on Saturday.

—We are informed many farmers are butchering their hogs lest the cholera overtake them.

—Our Colyer correspondent gives a graphic account of an unpleasantness in that part of the kingdom.

—Parties from Coburn are likely to have a lawsuit on account of water rights—Evert, Eisenhuth and others are parties interested.

—Mrs. Isaac Miller, Sr., of near town, left yesterday morning for Philadelphia to attend the funeral of her uncle, Wesley Pennington.

—The ladies of the Methodist church are going to give two excellent suppers, one on Thursday evening and one on Friday evening, of this week.

—Some farmers are compelled to come to town for water owing to the dry weather that prevails. Many cisterns and wells are now dry.

—James McNichols who is employed by John Anderson accidentally fell down the steps leading to the cellar Monday and broke his arm near the wrist.

—Mrs. Scott, who has had charge of the Alms House, has moved to the vacant rooms above Richards Jewelry store. The Home will be in charge of Mr. Spicer.

—Next week is regular court week, when many of the Democrat's patrons will have occasion to come to town, and we welcome them to our sanctum along with their friends.

—Father Benner Armor, who has been so ill, was taken to St. Francis Hospital at Pittsburg yesterday. He was accompanied by his sister Miss Louise and his physician, Dr. E. S. Dorworth.

—A fair will be held in the Presbyterian chapel Dec. 4 and 5 by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church. All kinds of fancy goods together with refreshments will be offered for sale.

—If you are not a subscriber to the Centre Democrat send us a dollar and your name will be put on the mailing list until January 1903. If you want the news of Centre county you get it right in this paper—more of it and for less money than elsewhere.

—Give Ed. Brown, Jr., your order for the best select oysters at 30 cents a quart and star lards at 25 cents a quart for Thanksgiving Day. He expects to have a full supply of vegetables, fruits, etc. for that day, but to avoid disappointments book your order at once.

—Charles Moore will take full charge of the photograph studio in Crider's Exchange so successfully conducted in the past by his sister, the late Miss Bernice Moore. Mr. Moore comes from one of the largest galleries in Allegheny City, and is perfectly capable of turning out the finest class of work.

—James Solt, the crippled shoe maker, sends us a note that he is in need of repair work to earn a living and maintain his family. Here is a deserving man who prefers to earn a living instead of becoming dependent on the boro. Persons needing repair work should keep Mr. Solt in mind.

—Register A. G. Archey is out in the woods this week carrying a gun in the hope of getting a shot at a deer. We don't know what his skill as a stinrod may be, but we don't believe he will kill all the game in the woods on this trip. J. A. B. Miller, Esq., is attending to the business of that office in his absence, and that means that it will be done "according to Hoyle."

—The officers and teachers of the Lutheran Sabbath school last evening completed their program for an exhibition on Christmas night, 25 Dec., by living characters representing the incidents connected with the birth of the Saviour, "The Birth of Christ in Song and Characters," as recorded by Matt. and Luke. Appropriate music will be one of the features in an elaborate program.

—Rev. Rhoads, former Un. Ev. pastor at Centre Hall, spent a half hour in the Democrat sanctum, to tell of trout fishing experiences we had in the Seven mountains and beating all knights of the hook, line and bait, for several years in that wilderness. The Rev. had just returned on Saturday from a hunting trip with the Potters Mills regulars, the party having killed three deer, and he goes to his home in Bradford county with a nice lot of venison. His friend, Em' Noll, accompanied him to our sanctum.

—The Salvation army squad that has been in Bellefonte several weeks thinks to remain for the winter, on account of the agreeable treatment they have met with from our citizens in general. The conduct of these persons, thus far, has been in strict accordance with Christian teaching, and that has gained for them the respect of the people in general. Their open air meetings as well as their indoor service have been strictly religious, although varied somewhat from the methods of churches in general. The open air meetings in the diamond, in the evening, always draw an orderly and attentive crowd.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. POLLY KEEN—widow of John Keen, of Millheim, who died many years ago, died on Thursday of consumption, aged 78 years. She leaves to survive her three brothers and one sister, viz: David, John and Daniel and Mrs. George Bright. She was a daughter of John Adam Bower, of near Aaronsburg.

MRS. ELLIS SHAFER—died at her home in Madisonburg on Sunday evening, aged 43 years. She was a daughter of George Frank, and was a model woman esteemed by all who knew her. Her father having died when she was young, she was brought up in the family of her uncle, Hon. Samuel Frank. A husband mourns her death, and leaves no children.

BARRY L. McCloskey, of Beech Creek, met with an accident while bringing a hunting party home over the "Scotac mountains. The wagon wheel struck a large rock and he was thrown from the seat to the ground, his feet becoming entangled in the robes. His head struck a stone and a deep gash was cut in his scalp. He was dazed for a time and the wound bled profusely. He was brought home in the wagon and is resting comfortably.

CHARLES B. QUICK—whose home is near Milesburg, was killed at Johnstown, Friday noon, while breaking in the yard of the Cambria Iron Company. He was the son of George R. Quick, and was 24 years old. He was at one time a member of Co. B, 5th Regiment, N. G. P. Besides his parents, the following brothers and one sister survive him, namely, Thomas and Harry, of Milesburg; James of Indianapolis; William, of Johnstown and Mrs. Grace Lucas, of Altoona.

HUNTING NOTES.

The hunting party that went to Slate Ridge from Centre Hall and vicinity, after remaining out seven days, returned home with six deer, one rabbit, and topped off the whole with a groundhog. The party was made up of Frank, George, Clyde, Philip and Alf. Bradford, John Kuhn, James Moyer, Wm. Kerstetter and son, Isaac Shawver, John Coble and Frank Smith. Of the deer young Kerstetter killed two out of a lot of three that were together, and he could have killed the third one had it not been a violation of the law. He was a law-abiding hunter, surely. The one Boalsburg hunting party that had camped two weeks in Slate Ridge returned last Saturday, having killed three deer and some smaller game. There were about a dozen in the party, and three tents comprised their home in camp, with stoves and all the comforts to make it pleasant with any quantity of first class hotel fare to keep up the inner man. In short the party lived right royally. Editor Harter was one of the party.

About thirty-seven deer, as the Democrat is informed by a hunter, have been killed in the Bear Meadow and Seven Mountain regions thus far this season. This is better than the score for several years past and shows that deer were fairly plenty. Bear were killed in all mountain sections in this and adjoining counties, all this season and bruin showed up quite numerous. There were some exciting experiences with the animal though no hunter has been reported as having been hugged to death, a pastime bruin is fond of indulging in.

At Monument on Saturday evening while the fire clay miners were on the clay train returning from their work in the mines, a deer came bounding over the side of the mountain and leaped over the moving train. The deer made the jump successfully, but one of the miners had his gun with him and as soon as the deer landed on the ground a bullet from the gun killed the frightened animal. The train was stopped and the deer, which weighed 125 pounds, was taken up to Monument and afterwards sent to Lock Haven. Monument is a station on the N. Y. Central above Beech Creek.

Mrs. John Bowers, along the single branch of Yonngwon's creek, Clinton county, while busy around the house Monday afternoon saw coming down the side of the mountain a large deer. She ran to where her husband kept his rifle, and securing the weapon ran out on the porch. A soon as the deer approached to within close range Mrs. Bowers fired, killing the animal at the first shot. It proved to be a buck weighing 200 pounds. Alfred, son of Levi Rupert, of Beech Creek, killed a fine young buck in the "Cranberry" swamp on Bakers run. He also killed a large doe this week. David Jones shot a fine large buck and the party killed many pheasants and rabbits but missed a bear.

The Sugar valley hunting party had a four days' hunt in the Bear Meadows. The party killed four deer. The hunters were made up of the following gentlemen, the first four did the killing: John Wirt, Wolf's Store; Henry Wingert and Frank Wingert, of Green Brier; Henry N. Wirt, Clyde Duck, Irvin Greenoble, Penn Hall; Ell Wirt and Pieck Duck, Wolf's Store; W. Wirt, Green Brier. They are good hunters, and enjoyed the outing greatly.

A party composed of 'Squire W. I. Harter, George Berryhill, Alex. Heverly, of Eagleville, and Bradley Herr, of Monument, who are camped at the "Soldier's Home," on Big run, killed three deer. Alexander Shoemaker and his brother William, who are camping at the Iron Spring, shot a five pronged buck and a large doe. A party of Mill Hall men, located at "Camp Hastings," are reported to have killed one good-sized deer. Reports coming from the woods are all to the effect that dogs are being run every day with no attempt at secrecy.

William Wagner, one of Juniata's nimrods, went on a hunting expedition into Centre county recently. When he arrived at the scene of action he discovered he had left his gun at home and had to telephone his friends to send it to him. (The trouble was, Will took his gun case minus the gun.—E.A.)

A party of hunters from George's valley, recently captured a deer and a bear. George Breen, of Spring Mills, and D. W. Sweetwood, Jr., killed the bear.

MATRIMONIAL EVENTS.

Samuel Bryant, leader of the Coleville band, was married Thursday evening to Miss Mary M. Breen, a daughter of Noah Breen, of Aze Mann.

Judge Adam V. Larimer, of Omaha, formerly of this county, and Miss Sarah J. Helps, of England, were married Tuesday evening, October 5th in Omaha, by the Rev. Davidson.

Thursday evening 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gould, of Lock Haven, their daughter Caroline was married Charles Longacre, formerly of this place, but now of Niagara Falls. The ushers were Clarence Longacre, of Bellefonte, and H. L. Gould, of Lock Haven, their future home will be at Niagara Falls where the groom is employed in a large department store.

Wednesday evening a pretty nuptial event occurred in the marriage of W. Winfield Rishel to Miss Mary E., daughter of Mr. and Wm. Kreamer, at their residence 233 Spring street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Shrier, pastor of the Methodist church. The event was attended by a number of relatives and friends. On Saturday they will leave for Braddock, Pa., where the groom has a good position with the street car company. Mr. Rishel is a former Bellefonte boy, having been employed in this office for several years. All join in hearty congratulations to Mr. Rishel for he has a most estimable bride. In the words of Old Rip: "May they live long and prosper!"
