ESTEY CHAPEL ORGAN.

To be Given to Some Church or Sunday School. Read the following conditions of awarding the Estey Chapel Organ. Note particularly two kinds of votes—coupons cut from the paper, and premium coupons issued at the office:

CONDITIONS OF AWARD.
NEWSPAPER COUPONS:—A blank ballot or coupon will be printed in each copy of the paper and the name can be filled in same for whatever church, Sunday School or religious organization you may want to vote. These votes should be sent in to this office at once, as they will not be counted after they are six weeks old, and the date and number of each will appear on them.

PREMIUM COUPONS:—Any person who pays his subscription in advance will receive a "Premium Coupon" that will entitle him to 2 votes for each month his paper is paid in advance, or 25 votes for a year in advance. No one can pay for more than 4 years in advance. Any person who sends in a New Cash subscriber to this paper can get a Premium Coupon, entitling him to 4 votes for each month in advance or 50 votes for a year. No subscriptions will be received for less than 6 months.

Substitutions:—In no case will substitutions be allowed during this contest. By that we mean where a subscriber discontinues his subscription and then has some other member of the family or household subscribe in order to get the benefit of the NEW subscription rate. This practice formerly caused us a great deal of annoyance in revising our list. In any case where a substitution or change in name has taken place, and it is discovered, such votes will not be counted.

A ballot box will be kept in this office, under lock and key, where the votes can be deposited and will be counted each week by two judges and the result will be published regularly.

You are invited to call and examine the instrument, now on exhibition at Gephart's Music Store, Bellefonte.

Colyer.

Wm. Alfred Reiber returned home last week, after completing his course of studies in the business college at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., being thoroughly qualified for any business position in life, as his course consisted of both type and shorthand writing. Albert and his beautiful young wife are now being royally entertained under the parental roof, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reiber's, of this place.

Fred Moyer, from Penn Hall, in company with Philip Moyer and Jacob Wilt, from Freeburg, visited at J. H. Moyers, one day last week.

Misses Mary Moyer and Katie Boal, two of our handsome young ladies visited over Sunday at the home of John Babb's, of Aaronsburg.

Squire J. S. Housman filled the appointment of Rev. J. Fenstermacher, on Sunday evening, the pastor having announced preaching services then failed to appear, the Squire taking his place, his discourse being, "What is Man, that thou art mindful of him?" or the mindfulness of God; which he handled very ably.

Rev. W. Leopold, P. E., from Philadelphia, will hold quarterly conference in the Zion Evangelical church, on Saturday afternoon; Sunday morning communion services; preaching in the afternoon and evening, also Monday and Tuesday evenings by the Elder.

Charles Fraizer, as misfortune had it, lost his best and most valuable horse, on Saturday; the horse having been pricked with a nail sometime ago, caused lock-jaw. Capt. W. H. Fry, V. S., from Pine Grove Mills, was called, but of no avail. Mr. Fraizer had to take his horse out and shoot him.

A. B. Lee and Wm. Stump attended lodge at Boalsburg on Saturday evening. Butchering the latest fad of the day—now for the big dinner.

WAR IN FRUIT-TOWN:—on Saturday evening the good people of Fruit-town, this place, witnessed a scene such as never before occurred. A few years ago John Long and his wife, of this place, separated, and now of late a man by the name of Wm. Mulbarger, from Lemont, became a frequent visitor at the residence of Mrs. Long. Mr. Long sometime ago becoming aware of the fact, notified Mr. Mulbarger to stay away; of course Mulbarger continued his visits, then on Saturday evening near eight o'clock, Mr. Long, who has his home at Millroy, came across and was stationed near the residence of Mrs. Long, awaiting the arrival of Mulbarger, who duly arrived, stabled his horse, went in and locked the door. Long, by this time was in a raging anger, besides being intoxicated which added greatly to his daring deed, broke in the door, with the intent to kill, and struck Mulbarger, knocking him down and held a pistol to his head intending to kill him; but it wouldn't discharge. Mulbarger escaping (being knocked down six times by Long with a large club and his fist) ran up to Steward Jordon, Long followed him knocking him over several times and by this time fired the revolver, in the house of Mr. Jordon, determined to kill Mulbarger, but Mr. Jordon persuaded him not to, Mulbarger being in a awful condition, eyes swelled shut, head bleeding, lost his hat and teeth, which Mrs. Long delivered to him on Sunday, at Henry Stovers where he remained all night. Mr. Long's intentions were, when he crossed the mountain on Saturday, to kill both his wife and her lover, but for his daughter's sake he would spare Mrs. but intended to kill Mulbarger, but as fire failed, saved his life.

The Kifer-Passamaquoddy hunting party, of this place, who left last Monday for a two week's camping, on Saturday returned with no game whatever. Not even the sight of a deer, Alas boys, "there's no place like home."

Hublerburg.

Mrs. Willougher has gone to Baltimore to spend the winter months with her daughter.

Geo. Rouse, of New Bloomfield, was the guest of his father-in-law, E. L. Bergstresser, last week.

Mrs. Celia Myers and son Charles, went to Pittsburg for the winter.

Mrs. Mower was visiting in Bellefonte over Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Knapp.

Tommy Evers is getting up in the world. He travels in a horseless carriage—the propelling power is one of those long-eared creatures known as a mule.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartley, of Flemington, were visiting relatives in this vicinity last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Kessinger returned from their trip to Pitcairn and report a very pleasant time.

Miss Clara Weaver, of Howard, was home on a visit to her parents, on Sunday.

The High school has organized a literary society which meets every Friday evening.

H. H. Noll and family were visiting at Clintondale on Sunday.

Boyd Carner is away on a hunting trip with the Sherr party, of Wayne, Pa.

There will be a union Thanksgiving service held in Evangelical church in the forenoon on Thanksgiving Day. Rev. Crow will preach the sermon.

The High school, of this place, has received a new organ from M. C. Gephart, the popular music dealer of Bellefonte.

Frederick Bartley opened the butchering season in this vicinity last Friday. Soon everybody will be feasting on sausage.

They say Tom has the contract for hauling the feed from the mill for those pigs that Sam got recently.

The school board of Walker twp., recently appointed J. T. Dankle to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jacob Dankle.

Roland Furnace Resumes.

The Bagle furnace at Roland, Centre county, was put to operation last week after being shut down for twenty-one years. The furnace is making charcoal blooms and will be operated permanently.

Millheim.

Mrs. Mary Miller returned from a trip to her son, Dr. Ed. Miller, of Adamsburg, Saturday.

The funeral of Mrs. Polly Keen, Monday morning, was largely attended.

J. H. Reifsnyder, Esq., is a witness in the Haugh-Kulp case, at Bellefonte, this week.

Rev. J. M. Rearick, of Centre Hall, preached to a large and attentive audience in the Lutheran church, Sunday evening. Rev. Shæder, of Mechanicsburg, will preach next Sunday evening.

A. P. Maize has his red front grocery opened ready for business. He is also running a cobbler shop in connection, where parties can get their soles mended.

Junie King has considerable pain of late where the bullet is lodged, and unless the same can be removed may prove fatal.

Geo. Sechrist, of Main street, has two monstrous hogs, some judge them to weigh 700 or 800 lbs. each. He has lots of callers to see the big porkers.

Adam Jordon is rebuilding his barn which was recently burned by some fire bug.

W. F. Hoy moved on the C. H. Pressler farm, south of town, Tuesday.

Hoffman and Lenker, of Millersburg, are here on their annual hunting trip.

The entertainment given by our literary society, Friday evening, was largely attended.

Frank Royer has built a house which he expects to put on wheels so he can move it from place to place to do trapping.

Jerome Gephart had W. G. Wolf's hay baler and shredder, baled 20 tons of hay for him. It is claimed that Wolf has the best baler at this end of the county.

One day last week the scholars were sent home on account of the rooms being too cold. What will they do when the temperature gets down to the zero point? Perhaps two janitors could keep up the fire, if one can't.

Mrs. Anna M. Weaver returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Hagan, at Unionville.

Mrs. Mary L. Warner and children, of Williamsburg, are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lase, on North street.

Charles Miller and several friends, of Jeannette, were here on a hunting expedition.

Mrs. Julia Brown, of Hublersburg, is sick at the residence of D. W. Zeigler.

W. F. Smith on last Friday shouldered his winchester and wended his way up Bald Eagle to ex-sheriff Cronister on a hunting expedition. He returned on Tuesday minus any game, and almost minus his hat. For particulars inquire of A. G. Archeby.

Mrs. W. S. Musser and Miss Jennie K. Reifsnyder spent Tuesday in Rebersburg.

Linden Hall.

Mary Coble, who spent the summer near Lemont, returned home and expects to spend the winter here.

Mrs. Capt. Geo. Boal, of Centre Hall, visited at this place during the week.

The little skiff of snow last week materially decreased the rabbits in this district.

Something that hurts sometimes—the truth.

Benjamin Bryan, of Wolfs Store, is at the home of Henry Zeigler, where he expects to spend the winter.

Mrs. Wilson, who is living at the home of her niece, Mrs. Elmer Campbell, is seriously ill, with small hopes of her recovery.

Still some corn to husk in this district, though the majority are ready for Christmas and in the meantime eating pumpkin pie and sausage.

Howard Zeigler, who was cared for at the home of Squire Potter a few days after the accident, was moved home on Saturday and withstood the trip remarkably well. The doctor has pronounced him over the critical period and has expressed his opinion that Mr. Zeigler will fully recover, which news will be gladly received by many.

George Potter is greatly improving his farm by erecting a neat wire fence along the south side of it, along the public road, which fence will also make the public road some wider at that place.

Mrs. John Williams, of Oak Hill, visited her sister, Mrs. J. W. Keller, on Tuesday.

We thank the Boalsburg scribe for the lively interest manifested in our career and safety for some time past, but we assure him that he is troubling himself needlessly as we are not apt to lose ourselves, but are fully capable of taking care of ourselves, something we have learned since our "literary career," as everybody is throwing stones in our garden, led by our friend from Boalsburg.

We are somewhat like the "bad shilling," although sometimes lost trace of, always turning up when least expected.

Revival services are in progress and deep interest is manifested.

Spring Mills.

A. B. Miller, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Wm. Stealy, of Sunbury, were here during the week visiting their mother, Mrs. Charles Miller, who still continues in a critical condition. Mrs. W. R. Donachy, of Lewisburg, is also here, she is a niece of Mrs. Miller, and daughter of magistrate M. B. Hering, of our village.

Mrs. Mary Grenoble who has been very seriously ill for the last two months, does not appear to improve very rapidly.

John Smith & Bro., furniture dealers, have commenced moving into their new and commodious store property.

T. M. Gramley, of the creamery Co., is still confined to his room, suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

The M. E. parsonage presents a decidedly better appearance since the removal of the old picket fence.

Butchering has commenced, as yet I have heard of no startling avoidpools—most too early.

Hiram Darst, of our village, has introduced hot water heating into his residence, and it proves highly satisfactory.

On Monday last, C. J. Finkle took formal possession of the stock and store formerly owned and occupied by H. C. Robison. Mr. Finkle intends enlarging the store room and will add several modern improvements. He has just placed in the store two very handsome counters which add greatly to the appearance of the room. Mr. Finkle is well known, and no doubt will do a large and successful business.

Nittany.

Mrs. R. B. Kramer and little daughter, of Milesburg, were visiting some of their many friends at this place.

H. P. Zerby and daughter Mamie went to Brush valley on Saturday, to visit friends.

There were quite a number of our young people to Lamar on Saturday evening to an oyster supper.

A. R. Rossman, of Clintondale, was the guest of his cousin, J. W. Tolbert, at this place, on Sunday.

Quite a number of young folks from Lamar and Snydertown attended the U. E. Sunday school on Sunday afternoon. Come again, you are welcome.

Next Sunday morning, the 24th inst, Rev. Diehl will preach his farewell sermon in the Snydertown church. Mr. Diehl will move to Freeburg, where he accepted a call. Rev. and family will be missed very much by their many friends.

J. W. Tolbert and J. E. Rossman were to Abdera on Sunday and report having a good time.

Mrs. W. F. Rossman, of Clintondale, was a caller at this place on Sunday afternoon.

Frank Emerick, Jr. has returned home from Johnstown where he had been employed for some time.

Don't forget preaching in the U. E. church Sunday evening.

T. A. Williams, who had been employed at Johnstown for some time, has returned home.

Joe Emerick, who is working at Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with his wife and parents.

We noticed William Workman and lady home, of Hecla Park, in our town Sunday night.

Mrs. Pearl Hoy, of Hublersburg, was the guest of Miss Vera Allison over Sunday.

Rebersburg.

John Breon reports a good time while at Danville last week.

The returned people are busily engaged in giving their church a coat of paint which greatly improves the building.

During Saturday and Monday our wide-awake book agent, Henry Wolford, has been busy delivering the many books which he sold at our burg and vicinity. It has been our privilege to learn that our people have been very sympathetic in behalf of Henry.

Mrs. Louisa Small, the mother of our life insurance agent Geo., is making considerable progress from her unfortunate accident that she had last week, when in one way or the other she was hurt while two cows were boxing each other.

Little George Weber is obliged to contend with measles. George thinks that the measles are not a very nice thing to have, since they are so uncomfortable during the night hours.

Hello! Many of our people are already eating sausage while many others are making ready to do likewise; is this not a world of imitation?

We have no doubt but that some of our horse jockeys have often wished that they had the X rays turned on their horses before they had bought them, because it would have kept away many unpleasant thoughts and probably words.

Our wide-awake merchant, Howard Miller, who seems to have almost a perfect eye to business and who recently bought Henry Brungart's, dec'd, lot at the west end of our burg, is getting ready to build an up-to-date house.

Jolly William Confer, of Green Barr, was in our burg on his wheel on Tuesday.

Jasper Brungart is improving the appearance of his home by cutting the tops off two of those young maple trees.

John Housman and wife, of Millheim, were helping her parents, Adam Crouse's, at Rock Hill, to butcher, on Tuesday.

Martha.

There has been quite a scare in this community about smallpox, and while there was some reason for fear, yet the reports were very much exaggerated.

Miss Blanche Eberts had varioloid, she had been vaccinated while visiting near Elmira, N. Y., and had not taken proper care of her arm. The family used every precaution to prevent the spreading of the disease and under Dr. Harshberger's skillful treatment, Miss Eberts is almost well again.

Mrs. Phoebe Wagner has been on the sick list for a few days.

Mrs. Eva Apple, of Punxsutawney, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hannah Ardry.

Martha lost one of it's o'dest residents a short time ago, but "Martha's" loss was "Julian's" gain. Calvin Williams has lived at Martha and has been employed by John I. Thompson (deceased) and his son Budd Thompson, for about thirty six years. He has been a very faithful employe. A few weeks ago the house in which Mr. Williams lived was burned down. He then purchased a property in Julian, owned by Dr. Irvin, and has since moved his family into their new home. The family have many friends here.

H. F. Williams had good luck while hunting, a few days ago; he killed two fine wild turkeys by one discharge from his gun.

Mrs. D. I. Richards has been quit sick but is improving.

Tylersville.

Miss Rosie Weaver, who has been working with her sister Mrs. Wetzel, has returned home.

The lecture which was held in the Ev. church, on the 13 of Nov., was well attended.

Miss Margarette Miller came home to help her parents butcher.

The people are nearly all butchering on account of the cholera.

Newton Walizer has as far as yet herd had the champion porker, as it weighed 385 pounds.

The scholars of the grammar school think it is so much nicer to go to school since they have their room decorated.

Bill Smith's baby died on Sunday night. Interment in the Union cemetery.

Benore.

P. H. Clemson, Coach Williams and Dr. S. G. Coons left on Monday for the Allegheny Mountains where they intend hunting for a few days.

Miss Jesse Reed, of Graysville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Katie and Anna Reed, of this place.

Miss Mattie Williams and Miss Julie Robinson, of Martha, were the guests of Mesach Williams on Sunday.

John Haugh, one of our merchants, has purchased a fine horse.

J. S. Parsons and daughter Mary spent Friday last in Bellefonte.

Miss Flo Kaup spent Sunday last with friends at Howard.

Fillmore.

A. C. Kelley and family spent Sunday at Robert Read's, of Benore.

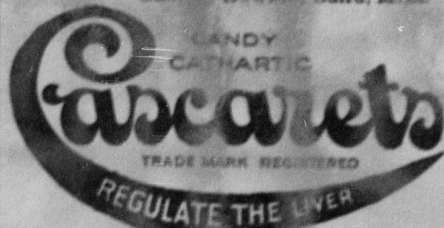

If any one wanting to know what tame wild turkeys are worth, just ask the county detective what he paid Hastings for the one he shot—mighty high.

Any one wanting to buy rabbits should call on the Fillmore sports; they ought to have some for sale, the amount of hunting they have done and got one.

The minister of the practice, and he preaches must be large, and so on.
