He Foretold His Death.

The funeral of Clyde Keefer, the Willamsport 10 year old boy who foretold his own death, took place Sunday from the home of his parents. The peculiar circumstances connected with the boy's death has occasioned much comment. Returning home from school Friday evening, he threw off his coat and said, "I'll never again wear that coat. I am going to die." That night he was taken ill, pneumonia developed, and 24 hours later he was dead.

—We are prepared to suit you in winter foot wear. Yeager & Davis.

RECENT DEATHS.

CHARLES ALBERT—Son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Lutz, died at the home of his parents, on Wednesday last, at Rockview, of inflammation. Aged 6 years 3 months and 3 days. Interment in Meyer's cemetery.

JOHN G. MCKINNEY—died at his home, at Tyrone, Sunday night, the result of an affliction of the stomach of many years' duration. He was aged 61 years, 10 months and 4 days. John Gray McKinney was born at Stormstown, Centre county.

MRS. SUSAN BUTTS ISETT—a sister of the late David M., and Jerry Butts, of Bellefonte, died Saturday at her home in Altoona. She has been ailing for the past two years; age 65 years, 1 month and 6 days. Deceased is the last representative of her family.

MRS. CLARK BIBLE—died at Potters Mills on Tuesday. Her ailment was brain fever. She was aged 56 years, and was much esteemed in that vicinity. A husband and two children mourn her loss. Funeral this afternoon; interment in Sprucetown cemetery.

MRS. MARY S. FIEDLER: Wife of Isaiah Fiedler, died at her home in Miles township on Wednesday, Nov. 13, aged 50 years, 6 months and 10 days. She was the mother of eight children, six of whom with the husband survive her. In the spring of 1884 the family moved to near Carthage, Missouri, but three years ago returned to their native state and residence on the Fiedler farm near Madisonburg. Her remains were laid to rest in the Union cemetery near Madisonburg.

WM. C. SCHUYLER: Died on Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. The patient was brought to Bellefonte for treatment, about three weeks ago. The young man has been suffering since last July from a complication of diseases affecting the lungs, and it was thought advisable to bring him to Bellefonte. An operation was performed on the young man on the 18th of this month. He was aged 21 years, 6 months and 12 days. He had just finished a most successful sophomore term at Hamilton college, at Clinton, N. Y. He is survived by his father, Rev. Wm. Henry Schuyler, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Centre Hall, and his mother and one sister, Miss Eloise, who is teaching school at Pennsylvania Furnace. The funeral took place yesterday at Centre Hall.

MRS. CAROLINE T. ISENBURG—Died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Lucas, at Moshannon, on Sunday, Nov. 24th, at 1 o'clock. The cause of her death was paralysis of which she had been suffering for more than three years, having had a stroke on July 20th, 1898, and has not been able to leave her bed since that time. She was 81 years, 3 mos. and 9 days old, and is survived by two sisters, Irene Dunlap and Harriet Place, who reside in Wisconsin; one brother, Gideon Taxis, of Joliet, Illinois; two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Lucas and Mrs. Wm. Lucas, of Moshannon, also 9 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren. The deceased was an earnest and consistent member of the Methodist church for over 50 years, and has gone to her reward which is promised to all the faithful. Interment in the Askey cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Organizing for Missionary Work.

The delegates appointed to reorganize the Women's Missionary society of West Susquehanna classis met in convention in Trinity Reformed church, Centre Hall, on the 7th and 8th inst, and effected an organization by the election of the following officers: President Mrs. H. I. Crowe, Hubersburg; vice president, Miss Jennie Henning, Lewisburg; recording secretary, Miss Agnes Kryder, Salona; treasurer, Miss Eva Moyer, Centre Mills. The reports of the delegates were encouraging and showed a spirit of awakening in the cause of missions. A constitution was adopted and resolutions were also adopted recommending the organization of congregational societies at all the charges of West Susquehanna classis. Among the delegates present were Misses Ellen Kryder, Linnie Kryder, Alice Meyer and Mrs. Will Knecht, Mt Bethel; Misses Agnes Kryder and Leah Best, Salona.

Stricken With Paralysis.
Henderson Grinnett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—GEO. R. McDONALD, Mas, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Out in Pittsburg the republicans are having more of a Brown than a blue time of it. The ripper is ripping among them, and there is some Stone-throwing going on.

The barn of Amos Bailey in Monroe township, Snyder county, was burned Monday evening with all its contents except the live stock. Loss about $3000; $1,000 insurance.

PROCEEDINGS IN COURT.

not all according to specifications given him and the inspector allowed for only forty-one first class ties and rejected fifteen or sixteen and the balance second class making the amount due forty-two dollars and sixty-five cents, which the defendant tendered before the justice and renewed in Court. Verdict in favor of the plaintiff for fifty-one dollars and fifty cents.

After the jury was challenged in the next case all jurors not on this case were discharged.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Harry J. Shuey, who waived the finding of the grand jury and plead guilty to the charge of forgery on Monday, was sentenced to pay the costs and make restitution and to undergo imprisonment in the Reformatory at Huntingdon.

Rose Shortidge, Robert McCalmont and Jane McCalmont, trading and doing business as McCalmont & Company vs. John Rishel, an appeal, plea non assumpt, payment set off and tender; being a controversy relative to the purchase of a McCormick binder. On trial Wednesday evening and there will be court today, Thanksgiving.

The grand jury made their final report on Wednesday forenoon and were discharged with the thanks of the Court.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

To the Honorable, the Judge of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County of Centre. The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring for the county of Centre, in all matters relating to the same, do respectfully report:

That we have acted upon nineteen bills of indictment, of which sixteen were found true bills and three were ignored. We beg leave further to report that we have visited and inspected the county buildings and find them in good condition.

We further report that the petition to appropriate $5,000 toward the erection of the soldiers' and sailors' monument was considered and approved. And further we respectfully recommend that if feasible the room now occupied by the District Attorney be converted into a ladies' waiting room. We respectfully tender our thanks to the Honorable Judge and District Attorney for their courtesy and assistance rendered us during our deliberations.
