

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs.

—We had an awful blow on Monday night. —Ice last week was from four to six inches in thickness. —Miss Emma Aiken was the guest of Miss Jane Witter, in Tyrone. —But one more issue of the Centre Democrat for the year 1901. —Edward Gross, who has been seriously ill with appendicitis, is able to be out again. —Mrs. John N. Lane and her daughter, Miss Patty, are in New York city visiting friends and shopping. —David Harter, one of Marion township's veteran farmers gave the Democrat a pleasant call. —Harter of the Gazette has the longest string of game of any hunter this season, in these regions. —Our own make of handmade clear toys and satin finished ribbon candy only 10 cts. lb. at SOURBECKS, 107 High St. —Some of our merchants have shown rare taste in decorating their store windows for the holiday season. —During the past week there was excellent skating at the fair grounds, also at Hecla Park. The ice was from 4 to 6 inches. —The members of the Lutheran S. S. will have a rehearsal of their Christmas entertainment on Friday evening, 8 p. m. sharp. —Grant Hoover, the insurance man, has some of the best ideas in calendars that we have seen. He handles good insurance too. —Mr. and Mrs. Murray Andrews and Mrs. Andrew's maid, Miss Lulu Pacini, returned home on Saturday evening from their European trip. —The indications are that a great many public sales will be held in our county this spring. Farmers seem to be growing dissatisfied with results. —The Bellefonte chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was entertained, Monday evening, by Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway at her home. —Wednesday was a veritable spring day, and with a legion of pretty school marmas about; reminded one of the welcome ushering in of the arrival of blue birds and robins. —Prof. John D. Meyer left on Wednesday for a three weeks' trip to South Carolina and will put in part of the time at the cities of Washington, Richmond, Charleston and Columbia. —Mrs. Mary McMahon, of south Allegheny street, with her daughters, has moved to Philadelphia to make her future home. They have been residents of Bellefonte for thirty years. —Mrs. Bickel, whose goods were damaged by water and breakage at the fire of the Pacini house on Thomas street, has been paid $184 by the Concordia company in which she was insured. —Miss Lulu Rine, daughter of James H. Rine, of this place, has been elected teacher of the Walker township school at Hecla Park. She is a graduate of the Bellefonte High school "Class of 1901." —Everything entirely new this season with Gorton's Famous Minstrels. Sweet singing, great dancing specialties, big novelty features; seen only with Gorton's, at Garman's opera house, this evening. —The Lutheran Sabbath school is holding two rehearsals each week, Monday and Friday evenings, for their entertainment on Christmas evening, "The Birth of Christ in song and characters." It will be entertaining and instructive. —Wm. Meyer, of Boalsburg, was in town Tuesday and called to renew his subscription. He says the hunters up there are chasing bear now, since deer season closed. Monday Oscar Stover wounded a large fellow that got away. —The next entertainment under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., course will be John R. Clarke, who is styled as orator, vocalist, mimic, actor, traveler. This is the second of the course and is booked for Wednesday evening, Dec. 12th, in the Court House. —Mr. John S. Furst, of Williamsport, formerly treasurer of the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply Co., has resigned his position as toll line superintendent of the Pennsylvania Telephone Co., with which the Central Pennsylvania Co. was recently consolidated. —The name of Prof. J. Dorsey Hunter, of Benner Twp., has been prominently mentioned the past week as a candidate for the County Superintendent. He is a son of the late Hon. Benj. Hunter, is a graduate of State College, taught several terms in this county, was superintendent of the schools of Gettysburg for about four years, and then accepted a similar position in the schools at Huntingdon, Pa. Finding that position too confusing he resigned. His preparation and experience qualify him for such a position.

—Samuel H. Gueiswite, of Bellefonte, has pension increased to $8. —See our fine chocolate mixed candy at 10, 15, 20 and 25 cts. lb. at SOURBECKS, 107 West High St. —Thomas Howley, who was formerly with Harper Brothers, has accepted the position of clerk in C. C. Shuey's grocery. —Miss Julia Powers, who has been visiting her mother, for the past month, returned to Philadelphia, Monday morning. —Read the receipt in another part of this paper how to make hens lay. When eggs are 25 cents a dozen it is worth trying. —Miss Margaret Sechler, a nurse in the Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sechler. —Mrs. L. A. Schaeffer left for Williamsport, Wednesday to attend the wedding of Miss Josie Kendig of that city, which occurred yesterday. —Prof. John Meyer, who had been ill the past week with inflammation of the bowels, is able to be about again and attended institute the past week. —Rev. George Israel Brown, rector of the St. John's Episcopal church, will speak in the Salvation Army Hall this Thursday evening. All are welcome. —G. W. Rumberger, of Unionville, slipped away from home Wednesday to have a look at institute. He pronounced it a success and thought the school marmas as handsome as of yore, if not a little more so. —See our own make of fine Christmas candies for churches and schools at 10 cts. a pound. Beautiful embossed Christmas boxes furnished free when you buy your candy at SOURBECKS, High St. —Mrs. R. M. Brown and Mrs. A. L. English, both of Jersey Shore, are in Bellefonte this week, having been called here by the serious illness of the former's daughter, Mrs. Altenderfer. —The first of January will soon be here—the time when business men settle up accounts. This is a gentle reminder to some of those who may have allowed their subscription accounts to get in arrears. —Owing to the damp and gloomy quarters of District Attorney Spangler, in the Court House, he considered the same not only unfit, but unhealthy and has removed his office to the second floor of Crider's Exchange. —Gov. Bob Taylor, of Tennessee, will be on hand this evening at the Court House to lecture and sing. He is a whole entertainment in himself and has been before the public in this capacity for a great many years. —Christmas Day the Salvation Army, at this place, will give a free dinner to two-hundred poor children of this borough. It will be served in the room above the Centre County Bank building at noon, and all will be admitted by ticket. —Charles Haines, son of David Haines, and Maize Keeler, daughter of Wallace Keeler, were united in marriage Tuesday evening by the Rev. W. H. Brown, pastor of the Evangelical church. The young couple have gone to housekeeping on West Logan St. —A free reading room has been fitted up in the Parish hall at this place. The room is open to everyone, every weekday evening from 7 to 10:30. Books, periodicals and daily papers are provided for those who wish to avail themselves of the privileges of the room. —Building lots at Oak Grove, the new railroad town, are selling at a lively rate the past week. You will see an announcement of this place on page 7 of this issue. It promises to be quite a town. When spring opens up there will be a great building boom in that section. —Lyman Howe's Moving Pictures at the opera house on Monday, December 30th, promises to entertain all. Mr. Howe was here several times prior and always gave splendid entertainments. Some of his pictures are of rare historical merit. It will be given for the benefit of the G. A. R. relief fund. —Gorton's Minstrels will be at the opera house this evening. They are good and every time they were here in the past did not fail, but pleased audience. They have good music throughout the programme and a lot of singing and dancing that will amuse and entertain. It will be a fine entertainment. —The singing in the teachers' institute this week, comes upon the ear like unto a tornado, so full of volume, but freighted with elegance charming to the ear of the lover of music. It is one of the pleasant features of the institute, and creditable to the teachers for charming rendition from several hundred throats. —The Democrat office had calls from many teachers and others attending institute this week. The pedagogues of Centre county, male and female, for good looks, good character, and efficiency, compare with the best of their class in the state and to them is much credit due for the excellency of the public schools of Centre county. —George Hart, of Bellefonte, an employe of the Commercial Telephone company, met with an accident at Jersey Shore last week, which nearly cost him the sight of one of his eyes. He was engaged in stringing wire when it broke and an end struck him in the left eye, cutting an ugly gash in the white, a bare half inch from the sight.—Williamsport Sun.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

What Transpired Worthy of Brief Mention, the Past Week—News From Over the County—For Hasty Readers—A New Department.

Samuel H. Glossner, one of the leading business men of Eagleville, is reported as seriously ill. Samuel Gramley, of Rebersburg, is again on the sick list, having been in ill health for over a year. We are sorry to learn that our old friend, John Grove of Gregg, had a slight attack of paralysis a few days ago. John Fish, of Philipsburg, has been granted a pension of $6.00 per month and Mrs. Hannah Kurtz, of the same place, $8.00. Thanksgiving day Clara and Mildred Kreamer, of Fiedler, killed two black bears south of Fiedler; one old and one young one. Samuel Jordan, of Moshannon, has been granted a pension of $17 a month and John H. Fish, of Philipsburg, one of $6 a month. Sir Knight C. H. Breen represented Millheim Castle K. G. E. at a special session of the grand castle held in Reading on the 9th. While Oliver Hosterman, of Buffalo, was home on a visit to his parents at Woodward he shot 34 pheasants, 2 gray squirrels and a lot of rabbits. Jacob Lee, of Linden Hall, this fall, lost through disease twenty-seven head of hogs. Henry Zeigler, of near the same place, also lost twelve hogs from the disease. The well lately sunk on the farm of B. F. Frankenberger, in Penn township, is 130 feet deep and has 12 feet of water in it. It was drilled by Mr. Krape, of Spring Mills. Saturday, 30th, was a good day for rabbits; John J. Orndorf and party, of Fiedler, killed 15; John Pultz and party of Fiedler, 11, while other parties killed from one to five. The club house of the Nittany Rod and Gun club at Hecla Park will be closed for the winter season. Supt. Brower will remain in the club house and entertain members and their parties upon notice. Miss Ella Lesy and her mother Mrs. Sue Fisher, of Milesburg, departed Friday afternoon for Winona, Minn., to spend Christmas and the holiday season with Samuel Levy and two little daughters. At the First Methodist Episcopal church parsonage, Tyrone, Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, Rev. John A. Wood, Jr., performed the ceremony uniting in the holy bonds of wedlock Miss Frances S. Bitner and Alfred F. Bitner, both of Blanchard, Centre county. Mrs. Armstrong, mother of Abram Armstrong, of Pleasant Gap, was found dead in bed on Friday morning at the home of her son-in-law, James Eckeroth, near Zion. She was 78 years of age. The funeral took place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock from the Eckeroth home. Interment at Pleasant Gap. CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENTS AT CENTRE HALL.—The Spinsters Return, in Grange Arcadia, by the members of the M. E. church, evening of Dec. 21. Christmas services in the Reformed church Sunday evening before Christmas. A similar service in the Lutheran church evening of December 24th. Miss Grace Alexander, daughter of Dr. John F. Alexander, of Centre Hall, left last week for Sacramento, Cal., where she will be married to Mr. George Reed, who is a mining engineer at Cheswick, Cal. She and Mr. Reed were both members of the class of 1901 at the Pennsylvania State College and it was while attending that institution that they plighted their troth. The Shreckengost party, consisting of Messrs. Newton Shreckengost, Cyrus Shreckengost, Robert Smith, John Ream, Harry Wert and Bruce Duck, raised a large buck Saturday 30th, last day of the season and made chase. After dinner one of the party, Harry Wert, concluded to take the big buck's back track, a trick that old hunters understand, and he met the animal, and sure enough he was successful. The first shot knocked off a portion of one horn; the buck fell, but soon jumped to his feet, another shot reduced the opposite horn. Wert saw that he must fire at his body or lose his game, and after firing eight shots and hitting him five times, his career was ended. IN ADJOINING COUNTIES. Clearfield county employs 483 teachers in the common schools. Henry Riley, a woodsman, was found dead in a box car at Medix, near Penfield, Saturday, and foul play is suspected. At Clearfield, Friday, the Rev. Mr. Chambers, colored, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for killing a companion at Karthaus. There were 50 new cases for trial last week in the Clearfield criminal court, and 30 left over for the September term. Ninety criminal cases for one term is a pretty good record. The Clearfield Lumber company is working 24 car loads of lumber, which is to be shipped to the Philippines. It is a government order and is the second one to be filled by this company. A trio of Lewistown youths, Percy Hunchberger, William Chester and Martin Cargill, all under seventeen years of age, have been arrested for alleged horse stealing at McVeytown. A conference of the public school teachers of Central Pennsylvania will be held in the High schools building at Altoona, January 24 and 25. State Supt. Shaeffer and others will speak. Samuel Wittenmyer, the oldest man in Snyder county, died Tuesday morning, aged 93 years. He has been in business there since 1829. He was appointed postmaster in 1848 and again in 1884. The board of health of Williamsport has decided to cover all dead water ponds in that vicinity with petroleum early in the spring in order to banish

Wronged His Wife.

A story of a man's alleged dual life became public at Williamsport last week when J. Vicent Johnson, of Jamestown, N. Y., was arrested in that city charged with wife desertion. Johnson, who is 50 years old, came to Williamsport several months ago, and is alleged to have been married to a young woman named Lottie Webber, of Sugar Valley. Soon after arriving he wrote to his wife that he was ill in the hospital, and has since written similar letters advising her of his slow progress towards health. Becoming worried over her husband's condition Mrs. Johnson left Jamestown and came to Williamsport. Upon her arrival there she learned the true condition of affairs and caused her husband's arrest.—Clinton Democrat.

Good Advice.

An exchange prints the following which is applicable in every community. "Don't ship a big box of clothing and provisions 1000 miles away, when there is a little boy freezing just around the corner. It is right to send help away, but take care of the destitute at your own door before going further away. Don't hesitate about giving a Presbyterian coat or a Methodist pair of pants to a Lutheran. Give the clothing to the needy, regardless of the faith of his parents or relatives.

How it is Done in Coudersport.

A minister in Coudersport recently adopted a novel scheme for bolstering up the church collection, which had been diminishing. He informed his congregation just before the plates were passed around that the members who were in debt were not expected to contribute. The collection that day was double the usual sum.

—Mrs. R. V. Pugh, and Mrs. Mary Linn, left Tuesday for Harrisburg to join Mrs. R. J. Haldeman and Mrs. A. Wilson Norris, of that city, on a visit to Charleston, S. C., where they will be the guests of former United States Senator J. D. Cameron at his winter home in that place. The ladies will spend a few days in Washington enroute South.

—Remember Gorton's Minstrels at the opera house tonight.

—Public school children in our borough are enjoying a three-week's vacation.

IN the first two days, session of the House of Representatives at Washington over three thousand bills were introduced.

Royal Baking Powder will always keep fresh and of full strength regardless of climate or season. Every atom, to the last in the can, does even, perfect work. Made from pure, grape cream of tartar. Makes wholesome food.

RECENT DEATHS.

WILLIAM BECKWITH.—A life long and respected citizen of Port Matilda, died Dec. 11, 1901, from injuries received some time since by being trampled on by a vicious horse; aged 62 years. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery at that place, Revs. Latschaw, of the M. E. church, and Dillon of the U. B. church officiating.

MRS. HARRY STEVENSON.—died Saturday morning. She had been ill since last Tuesday. She was born at Hublersburg, this county, and was the daughter of Christ and Susan Swartz, of this place. She was aged 31 years the 7th of last May. She leaves a husband and three children, Vernice B., Mary M., and a baby born last Thursday night. She also leaves one brother, Lincoln E. Swartz, of Hublersburg. Interment in the Union cemetery Tuesday.

MRS. GEO. W. KLINE.—died at her home, Oak Hall, on Monday evening after an illness of six days that affected the heart and lungs. Death came very unexpectedly. Her maiden name was Sarah Houtz, 51 years ago she was married. The aged husband and the following children survive: John A., Cornelius H., Mrs. Mary Bohu and Annie, all of Oak Hall; Samuel L., George H., Calvin W., and Mrs. Lizzie Weibly, State College; James I., Tyrone; also three brothers, Henry, of Linden Hall; John, of Waddie, and Philip of Beavertown. Age 73 years. Interment at Boalsburg Thursday morning.

DAVID BANEY.—Saturday morning at about 11 o'clock, while crossing Bishop street to Aikens corner he was seen to reel and fall to the ground. He was carried into his nephew's barber shop near by. He never regained consciousness. Dr. Locke was summoned and pronounced death due to heart failure. Deceased was born in Lycoming county and was about 80 years of age. He has been a resident of this town for many years. For a long time he was employed by the Mann's at their axe factory at Axeman and often drove team over the mountain to Lewistown. He was married twice; both wives have long since died. He is survived by one brother, Eli Baney, of Bush Addition, and three sons, namely, Frank, of Bellefonte, and Harry and William, of Butler, Pa.
