PRESIDENT CANNOT TAKE GIFTS Congress Must Give Him Authority to Accept Presents.

Washington, Jan. 29 .- In the opinion of the officials bere, President Roosevelt cannot accept any present from either Emperor William or Prince Henry without authority from congress. An examination of the precedents is said to disclose the fact that while in a great many instances presidents apparently received presents from abroad, they never have retained these except by express authority conferred by congress. In the other cases where the gifts have not been returned to the donor, the presents have been deposited by the president in the department of state or in the Smithsonian Institution. Many medals and articles of value may be seen in the library of the state department, the gifts of foreign rulers.

Seven Dead In Tenement Fire. Boston, Jan. 29 .- Seven Italians were suffocated in a tenement house fire on Fleet street, in the north end. this morning. Three others were removed to the hospital and will probably die. The other victims include three women and one man, who Ind., yesterday. The dead: Mrs. Mary jumped out of windows. The dead include men, women and children, all thought to be members of two families. The police are trying to secure identifications.

Two Years For Shooting a Woman. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Jan. 29.-Michael Joyce, of Pittston, who created a sensation in the office of Magistrate Barrett some weeks ago by shooting Mrs. Frances Myers while she was giving testimony against him on the witnessstand, and inflicting a serious wound, was arraigned in court yesterday afternoon, pleaded guilty of felonious wounding, and was sentenced to two years and six months in the Eastern Penitentiary.

Young Corbett Agrees to Fight. Louisville, Ky., Jan. 29.-Manager Gray, of the Southern Athletic Club, had a conference last night with Young Corbett, who agreed to box here in six months, his opponent to be the winner of the McGovern-Sullivan fight, scheduled for 25 rounds before the Southern Athletic Club on February 22.

Bill to Change Pension Laws. Washington, Jan. 28 .- Representative Ryan, of New York, introduced a bill changing the pension laws so that all veterans of the civil war now living who have reached the age of 60 will receive a pension of $6 a month, and all over 80 years will get $30

Eaptain Porter's Marines Suffered Hardships In Samar.

Manila, Jan. 29.-General Chaffee curtailed his trip and returned here yesterday morning. He says he found the conditions satisfactory everywhere, except at Samar, where continuous rain, during the past two months, has retarded the campaign, especially against such an elusive enemy.

The condition of Captain David D. He Will Take Dinner at White House Porter's marines, who took part in the expedition into the interior of Samar, is much worse than previously described. They suffered fearful hardships and were without food for several days. The natives who accompanied the marines claimed they were John D. Rockefeller is considering a unable to distinguish the edible roots, which the marines did not believe. The anger of the marines against the natives is intense. None of the latter bill granting the franking privilege to returned with the marines. The marines suffered so acutely from starvation that they are raw the flesh of two 000 to the Syracuse, N. Y., University

Henry to the Hohenzollern, which the turee of his men staggered into camp they were delirious and difficulty was experienced in ascertaining the whereabouts of their companions.

> Williams, of the first infantry, headed the relief expedition in the face of a torrential rainstorm which flooded the rivers. He succeeded in reaching the remaining ten men, who would otherwise have certainly perished. He found them all delirious. Two of the men were discovered in the branches of trees, barking like dogs. Some of the marines are so ill that they are not likely to recover.

General Chaffeee has endeavored to obtain full details of the trip of the marines, but Captain Porter is not yet able to lucidly explain matters.

MISS STONE STILL A CAPTIVE Brigands Want to Conclude Negotiations In Turkey. Washington, Jan. 29.-The state department yesterday received a dispatch from the United States representatives in Turkey regarding the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary held by brigands, and her companion, Madame Tsilka. Its contents were disappointing, the captives not having been released, as was hoped would be the case from the manner in which the negotiations looking to that end had been progressing lately.

Vienna, Jan. 29.-A telegram has been received here from Sofia, saying that the brigands wish the liberation of Miss Stone, the captive American missionary, to take place upon Turkish territory, and that the Turkish government will not consent to this arrangement, unless it be advised of the time and place of the passage of the brigands across the frontier. The Turkish government also requires that a neutral escort accompany the bri-

Big Crown at Double Hanging. Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 29.-Watson M. Keiper and Henry Rowe were hanged yesterday morning in the Harthe prince and his suite for his south. risburg jail yard in the presence of 1,000 people for the murder of Charles W. Ryan, cashier of the Halifax National Bank, at Halifax. The murderers went to their death without a shudder and neither made any statement on the gallows or at any time since their trial. The crush for admission to the jail was so great that it required the combined effort of the police force and the sheriff's deputies to keep the crowd away from the entrances. The house tops and telegraph poles in the vicinity were Mulcahey, a baker here, probably saved the town from a serious conflagration yesterday, because its warning bark aroused its master, and the alarm was given in time to prevent the widespreading of the flames. Three buildings were burned, causing a total damage estimated at $15,000. One building fell in and five firemen were injured. The dog which roused Mr. Mulcahey was crowded with people eager to witness burned to death. Train Struck Funeral Party. Chicago, Jan. 29 .- Three persons were instantly killed and four seriously injured by a Michigan Central train at a crossing at West Hammond, Polek, Joseph Bojek, Joseph Swisgak. The party was in a closed carriage, returning from a funeral. The locomotive struck the carriage with great force, demolishing it and throwing the occupants in all directions.

Military Bill Carries $91,000,000. Washington, Jan. 29 .- The military appropriation bill has been practically completed by the house committee on military affairs, and Chairman Hull will report it as soon as he returns from a trip to Iowa which he is about to take. The bill carries approximately $91,000,000, which is about $10,000,000 below the estimates and about $25,000,000 below the appropriations of last year.

Died While Reading Paper. Passaic, N. J., Jan. 29.-Aaron Woodworth, a prominent resident of Rutherford, near here, dropped dead yesterday while reading the morning papers. He was one of the oldest residents of the town. For a number of years he held a seat on the New York

Stock Exchange, but lately retired from business.

Chief of Police Dismissed. Wilmington, Del., Jan. 29 .- Chief of Police Massey was last night dismissed by the police commissioners on charges of conduct unbecoming for an officer in neglecting to suppress gambling and policy playing last winter. Much testimony was heard.
