Spring Mills.

school directors, H. H. Rachau and John

Hagan (re-nominated); auditor, J. W. Shook; constable, H. E. Shreckengast; overseer of poor, C. J. Finkle; town clerk,

The republican nominations were, for auditor, R. U. Bitner; school director, will poll their party strength. But this locality being a democratic Gibraltar,

the result of the election is easily fore-

The measles are quite prevalent here

Last week the foot log bridge over

Penus creek, a short distance from the

P. O., was swept away by the heavy ice and high water. The wreck lodged against the R. R. bridge below town.

During the day the logs were secured and returned and will again be thrown

Our venerable friend, John Grove, who had a stroke of paralysis some time since, is able to be about again and is occasionally driven from his farm to the

Mrs. H. C. Robison, since her return funeral directors and understand this frequently demanded in neighboring Beech Creek.

J. F. Huling has moved his family

Miss Tillie Metzgar is visiting at Charl-

Joseph Beschler is home from Altoona

Prof. Hubbard has been principal of

The families of James and Clarence

Meyers are moving from North Bend to this place and will live with their father, meetings in the Methodist church Sunday evening. The Presbyterian church is well attended every evening and 12 ad-ship. In Eagleville the Disciple church is holding the fourth week of service and there have been 15 conversions. Success ditions have been made to the member-the schools at Unionville, since the holi-from the township to his old home at but apparently in a mild form.

ing is a great inconvenience.

hope for his speedy recovery.

very rapidly.

Chatham's Run.

for a few days.

old Quay homestead.

days.

middling.

H. Frankenberger.

shadowed.

The Racket

UNDER PRICE SALES in the following departments begin on Saturday, February 1st and ends on Saturday February 8th:

Under Prices in Dress Goods Department.

Under Prices in all wool blankets. Every pair in dicitis. stock must be sold. Lots covery. of cold weather on tap and that G. C. Hosterman, a young man who this is your chance for bargains in blankets.

Under prices in all haps - and think we are very nearly right when (down and cotton filled.) come to our town. Is special cuts on price an inducement for you to fill place on caucus. your wants? If so, come nated: quick.

**Notice dates for Special Sales-Don't expect it to last one minute after closing of the doors, Saturday night, February 8th.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

NEW ROOM

NEW STOCK

NEW IDEAS

We are now in our New Room

in the Bush Arcade two doors

west of our former location where we have more room to handle a Larger stock, and better facilities to wait on our increasing trade.

People find it to advantage to buy footwear from us.

That explains all.

Yeager & Davis, sister, Miss Maynard, spent several da with their grandparents, near Gregg.

Bellefonte and Philipsburg.

IUDGES' REPORT.

15teenth count of coupons, Wednesday evening, Jan. 29th:

WEEKLY COUNT : Kreamerville M. E. church.....

Liberty Baptist ch. Blanchard ..... 596

TOTAL VOTE: Liberty Baptist church, Blanchard. 2383 Rishel last week. Kreamerville M. E. church..... 1460 U. B. church, Pleasant Valley ..... U. B. church, Pleasant Valley ..... 377 Evangelical church, Bellefonte .... 8607

> Total A. M. SLOTMAN, THOS. J. SEXTON, Judges.

Coupon;" cut it out, as some one will be anxious to have same :

CUT THIS OUT.

***************** The Centre Democrat. NEWSPAPER COUPON.

No. 18.

JANUARY

This coupon entitles the holder to one vote for the handsome.

ESTEY CHAPEL ORGAN

to be given to some Sunday School or Church in Centre county, by THE CEN-

This vote cast for :-

oupon, if held longer than 6 weeks fro il not be counted. Send by mail or pe to this office and have it deposited

CUT THIS OUT

Correspondents' Department.

(Continued from Page 7.)

Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. David Snyder, of Centre Hall, called at the home of David Keller on Friday eve. Wm. Leech and lady friend, of Penna. David Meyer, of near our burg, who Furnace, called at the home of John had been on the sick list, is again able to Jacobs, on Saturday eve. A'l the sick, we are glad to say, are improving. Major Miller, our oldest citizen, is still improving; our next oldest is David Keller, who celebrated his 84th and who has aspirations to attend our High school, entertained his best girl, Miss Springer, of Millheim, last week, we say that by spring a spring (er) may

The Republicans met in the usual place on Friday evening and held their The following ticket was nomi-Judge of the election, James Stuart; inspector, Mathew Goheen; constable, Daniel Patterson; supervisors, Robert McClellau; school director, Enoch town. Sweeney; overseer of the poor, Frank McFarlane; auditor, Scott Bricker; justice of the peace, Wm. Bumgardner.

Mrs. James Ross, Sr., of Linden Hall, place the latter part of last week.

Frank McFarlane, one of our most wideawake farmers, spent several days recently among friends in Lock Haven. He stopped on his way home and rang his bell (e) of Bellefonte.

For anything concerning the educational advantages of C. P. C. ask Marion. Our one blacksmith, I. J. Condo, has concluded to retire and take care of the little candy shop which was kept by his week. Robt. Condo will still keep the shop open. Mr. Condo is one of the best mechanics in this part of the state.

Paul, the promising son of Mr. and Mrs. Tourbot, from Coburn, is visiting his grandpa and grandma Mallory. Mrs. Sophia Chase, of Chicago, is at present visiting at the home of the Keller Miss Anna Ross, one of Linden Hall's bright young ladies, spent Friday with her friend, Miss Margaret Mothers-place, on Saturday. Geo. Meyer, who has been working in of this place. friends in this place.

day, from a three weeks' visit to her man is a fine business man. daughter, Mrs. Robt. McCrea, of Alle-Mrs. E. M. Bruugart is Mrs. Sophia Hall, of Wilmington, Del., Smallpox is the topic for generaly diswas called to this place to see her sister, cussion, though no one has them through Mrs. Sophia Hall, of Wilmington, Del., Miss Clara Keller, whose mind has be- here. come enfeebled.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Martha Holter, of Howard, spent overdose of temper. last week with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Kaup, Mrs. David Houser, of Houserville, was also a guest of Mrs. Kaup.

Our enterprising miller, Clayton Etters, is attending court as juror this week. During his absence the mill is in charge of Calvin Etters, of Lemont.

Miss Annie Kline returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in Altoona.

John Lonebarger accompanied by his sister, Miss Maynard, spent several days

John Peters, of Missouri, after a three months' v.sit among Pennsylvania friends, returned home on Tuesday.

Harry Burns and family, spent Sunday at Tusseyville.

Mrs. Henry Dale and daughter, Miss Anna, returned on Wednesday from a two weeks' visit in Duncansville and Al-The following is the result of the toona. They report a pleasant time.

E. B. Peters and wife were to Bellefonte on Tuesday. Miss Ella Dale spent last Friday afternoon with her cousin, Mrs. L. Frank Evangelical church, Bellefonte .... 1841 Mayes, at Lemont. Our town was well represented at the

I. O. O. F. festival at Pine Grove last Miss Myrtle Williams, of Bellefonte,

Miss Myrtle Williams, of Bellefonte, men are preparing for an entertainment to be held for the benefit of the Metho-Miss Benner, of Rock, is visiting at the home of W. H. Close.

seldom that the young folks undertake Geo. Meyer, of the Branch, who has been spending the past year in Illinois, posters. returned home last week. That a certain young man of near Prossertown was looking for the location

If you want to do any fancy writing, go to W. H. Close's general merchandise The following is the "NEWSPAPER writing fluid he keeps for sale. Mrs. Wieland and Miss Baker gave a dinner in honor of their brother, George Baker and wife, of Kansas.

Miss Minnie Kline spent part of last week among friends at Boalsburg. Albert S. Allen, of Boalsburg, was in town on Monday evening. R. C. Palmer expects to move to R. L. Bergstresser, our photographer and inventor, returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Rouse, of New Woolrich soon. We are sorry to lose Mr. Palmer and family, but wish them success in their new home. Rev. and Mrs. Black, of Boalsburg, and Rev. Robb, of Altoona, were enter-tained at dinner by John Kline and family, on Friday.

Blanchard.

Mrs. John Glossner, of Eagleville, on Saturday evening, was attending the protracted services at the Disciple church and while descending the stairs tripped and fell, breaking one of her limbs. Dr. Kurtz gave her surgical attention and she is doing as well as could be expected.

Rev. J. Stanley West is conducting a series of special meetings in the Baptist church at this place. They have been in progress for a week and the house has been filled with interested hearers. On Sunday evening nine persons accepted Christ and three on Monday evening, all of whom were adults.

Mrs. D. M. Whitman, has been spending the past week in Millheim.

A sled load of jolly young people of Zion came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Hoy last Thursday evening and with a few of the High school pupils which were invited, they spent a pleasant evening. Miss Mae was very much disappointed because Charles D. was not there. We also wonder why our friend Sullivan wasn't there? When a man refuses to buy his wife a new coat she is perhaps justified in saying that he doesn't care a rap for her.

Three sports from along the Furnace road attended society at this place Friday night. Their report is they had the best time after society.

Rebersburg.

The delegate election was well attended, on Saturday.

Our merchant Eiller's new house is ready for the plasterers. We understand that Lloyd Walker and Chas. Gramley will move out of our burg in the near future.

Wm. Limbert, of Madisonburg, was among his old friends on Saturday eve.

is David Keller, who celebrated his 84th birthday, on last Saturday.

Ex-Judge Riley is at present confined to his bed with a serious attack of appendicitis. We hope for him a speedy receiver.

Mills postoffice was moved to Smullton, formerly called Kreamerville. We understand that the postoffice was so called in honor of our wide-awake life insurance agent Geo. Smull, and the people really gentlemen of character and abilities. agent Geo. Smull, and the people really believe that the honor belongs to him, since it has been, as we understand, through his efforts that the Kreamerville people lastly got a postoffice, whereas all the former efforts have been in vain.

Rev. Doerstler's meetings have been weil attended during the past week. Reuben Rishel, of near Madisonburg, has been working at his trade at our burg last week.

REBERSBURG, NO. 2.

The people of Kreamerville are overjoyed that they succeeded in getting a across the creek as soon as the weather postoffice. The name of the village will permit. The loss of this old crosshence is Smullon. Quite an honor to the

The primary of this place was well attended and resulted in the following nomination: Justice of the Peace, W. J. Carlin; constable, R. O. Deihl; town visited among her many friends in this clerk, W. W. Hackman; overseer of the poor, Andrew Geyser; school directors, W. S. Shaffer, J. R. Brungart; supervisors, J. W.Zeigler, J. J. Gramley; auditor, Ira Brungart. The precinct nomination: Judge, R. E. Musser; inspector, T. J. Ocker; registra. assessor, Adam Grenninger.

Revival services in the Evangelical church are still in progress.

Master Harry Hubler was confined to branch thoroughly. Their services are the house during last week with a sore father-in-law, James Price, who died last

The singing class under the auspices of

Prof. G. E. Wise is progressing finely. The class numbers some forty. Prof. Wm. Limbert, from Madisonburg, was seen in town, on Saturday. C. M. Gramly, our capital machinist, was at west Rebersburg sawing wood. Harry Kellar and wife, of Bellefonte, called on some of their friends in this in Pittsburg, is home at present, and by what we have learned, will remain.

How peculiar that we have in this land Altoona for some time, returned home on Tuesday for a short visit with his parents archy in church or Sunday school.

D. F. Cordingley, the general manager Mervin Kuhn and wife, of Rebersburg, of the Vocalin Organ Co., Worchester, spent several days last week among Mass., was to our town on Monday looking up the interests of church organs, Mrs. S. H. Bailey returned on Wednes- and by what we have learned, the gentle-

Mrs. E. M. Brungart is housed up through vaccination.

Pleasant Gap.

Charley Packer, who was accidentally

The Messrs Houser, of this place, are

The grammar school of this place is

Mr. Sights an employe for some fur-

Mrs. Frank Weaver has been seriously

Samuel Page and wife, of Snow Shoe, were visiting relatives at this piace last hero being their friend "Noah," although our hero came out best in the

Some of our young ladies and gentle-dist preacher, of this place. Now its anything which does not prove to be a success. For further particulars see

That you can have the Centre Demo-Hublersburg.

with a solid coat of smooth ice at present which makes walking difficult and dan-

They say Emory and Ethel took a very pleasant sleigh ride Friday even-

Wm. G. Carner visited at Mill Hall

Rev. C. P. Garret, of Bellwood, will preach in the Ev. church Sunday evening. Communion will be administered.

The Grangers had their annual supper

Mrs. D. M. Whitman, has been spendon Tuesday evening. They always have a pleasant time on these occasions.

crat to read for one dollar per annum.

of a log house at this place.

Bloomfield, Pa., on Tuesday.

ing. How is it Emory?

Sullivan wasn't there?

nace company is visiting at this place at present. Now ladies, go away up and ill but is improving.

making arrangements for a rousing entertainment to be held on the 21st of running the skunk business on a large shot some time ago is not improving.

is also attending the meetings in the Baptist church. Seven penitents went Prof. H. A. Detwiler is afflicted like forward Sabbath evening. unto Job, only not in extent, being full of The democrats of this boro have held #### no caucus and will make no nominations Strange that people get ill through an for the coming election.

Geo. W. Wenerick who is employed on the Beecher & Co. job, on 'Scootac, was thrown down by his team while hauling ogs and had one of his ribs broken.

We do not hear any more about the Commercial telephone being extended to this place.

The Penna. fire brick company have discharged all the men employed in work upon their train road until next spring. The ground is frozen so deep that little progress can be made. Seven men composed the crew.

A letter recently received from L.Linn Lucas, the man with the broken back, who was taken to the hospital at Philadelphia, states that he is well and is being prepared for operation by massage, X rays and electrical treatment.

Woodward.

Miss Jane Walters is visiting at Mifflin-The famous Lynch law which was not burg. practiced in this part of the county yet, was enforced by some of our Gap "ter-rors" one afternoon of last week, the Walter Williams, one of our successful school teachers, who had been on the sick list is again able to resume his work. J. C. F. Motz and M. J. Yearick transacted business in Millheim, Monday.

A surprise party was given on Satur-day evening in honor of Mrs. Chas. Hosterman, it being her birthday.

Art. Runkle who had been ill for more than a week is again seen on the street. Motz's saw mill, which is under the management of the Fulton brothers, is running full time.

Cal Snyder arrived home on Saturday from Yeagertown, where he had been working for some time.

Miss Edith Glantz, who had been staying at Penn Cave for some time, is again in our midst.

A series of meetings will begin in the Evangelical church Sunday evening; all The roads in this vicinity are covered are cordially invited to attend.

The democratic caucus on Saturday was well attended; the men nominated are well qualified for the different offices.

Loganton.

Frank Heller is setting them up to the boys, because on Saturday a daughter came to their home.

Edson Dow, who is a contractor car-penter at Oak Grove, is home on a short J. B. Berry will vacate his position as clerk in the store of T. R. Harter on Sat-urday the 1st, and will start for Oregon on the 25th of Feb. A protracted meeting is in progress in the Ev. church on the hill.

Mary Conser, of Renovo, with two of her children, May and John, are visiting at her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan'l Karstetter. Mrs. Karstetter is seriously ill at her home.

Thursday evening a large party was given at the home of Peter Laubach on the D. K. Heckman farm. An oyster supper was served. A lodge of Rebeccas, I. O. O. F., will be instituted at this place in the near future. Delegates from Jersey Shore, Lock Haven, Renovo and elsewhere are expected to be present on this occasion.

Houserville.

The Democratic caucus on Saturday last was very largely attended and the contest among the several candidates quite exciting. The following ticket was nominated: for supervisors, John Breon (re-nominated) and W. W. Neese; Services were conducted at this place on Sunday afternoon by Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, but not largely attended on account of unfavorable weath-

Mrs. Maurice Bohn was a pleasent caller at the home of her uncle, B. F. Hoy. on Tuesday.

We are sorry to say that master Jesse. Sarson has had a very serious attack of whooping cough, but are glad to hear of his speedy recovery.

A party of Henserville young people were out coasting and re-port having a good time since they found a new wrinkle of sliding down the hill backwards; how about it Callie?—Callie says ask the other parties first-good boy

Miss Lizzie Hazel, of Zion, is the pleasant visitor at the home of her friend Miss Bertha Shaeffer.

A certain young man of this place drove over to Buffalo Run to call on his lady friend; while there a couple of colored people stopped and asked the way to Centre Furnace. Jakey being a very kind hearted fellow hitched up and brought them to their destination; hit it again for a dollar, Jakey.

Grant Coble and Ira Benner have been chopping wood for H. E. Grove for the past week; keep the ball rolling.

Miss Reamy has again returned home from Griz Martz's; we are glad to see you once again, Mabel. Alfred the next time you try to hit

Bertha with a snow ball throw a little village to see his old neighbers. We straighter then if she don't take the hint, give her a kick and let her go. HOUSERVILLE, NO. 2. from the city, does not seem to improve The primary election was well attended, both parties naming strong tickets.

Commercial agents report business on The whooping cough is still raging in the road, down this valley, from fair to our town; there are about fifteen cases at present, which lessened the atten-John Smith & Bro. in addition to their dance at school very much. large furniture business, are very able friends at this place, last week. Miss Bertha Schaeffer spent a week with friends at Zion; she reports a pleas-

Mrs. Sabina Houser has moved to Shingletown to live with her daughter, Mrs. James Peters.

Mrs. Geo. Scholl gave an organ recital at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Dale, on Saturday evening; quite a numbor of relatives and friends were present; the entertainment was very good.

Charles Brown transacted business in Bellefoute last Saturday; unfortumately for Mr. Brown the train left town minus one of her passengers, he consoled him- Fresh Eggs. self by walking home.

Gregg.

until April 1, when they will occupy the Mervin and Arthur Homan, of Penn Cave, think of going to Lewistown in the Rev. Geo. F. Boggs began a series of spring to learn the moulding trade.

> The Shreckengast's have put three foxes out of the way. Miss Lizzie Bradford, of Centre Hall, visiting her parents.

G. W. Barner has rented the Wm.

Homan farm, now owned by Joseph Bit ner, located near Farmers Mills.

Farm Sold.

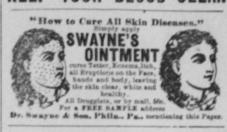

The farm belonging to the estate of Andrew Harter, in Marion township, was sold at public outery on Saturday, to Mr. Yearick, merchant at Jackson-

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

EAT 'EM LIKE CANDY

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

Ammerman Bldg

Miss Maay Etters, of Lemont, visited DO YOU LIKE SALT FISH ? We have them-

> Cod, Mackerel and Family White; also Canned Fish.

Creamery Butter. Country Butter.

GOODS DELIVERED FREE.

Oh yes, lots of other things I don't have time to tell you about. You will always find everything fresh and COMMERCIAL 'PHONE. E. T. ROAN.

Bellefonte, Pa.

CIGIGISIA GIBBILI GIBBILIA

Bishop St.

JANUARY 25TH

Commencing

....we offer any....

Winter Coat

(Raglans Excepted)

in the house, irrespective of former price, for $5.00

This includes garments that sold early in the season for $15.00 . . . .

THE KATZ & CO., GLOBE