COUNTY FINANCES.

One of the gratifying features in the Financial Statement issued last week by the Commissioners of Centre county is that the assetts over liabilities is $25.737 .-03, with a cash balance in the treasury of $11,672 76. During the past year there was a decrease in the assessed valuation of about $200,000, which cut down the available revenues considerably. Then the county had two unexpected, rather unusual, bills to pay during the year. The first was the Sheriff Condo item for the destruction of the Ettlinger property at Woodward of $1,805 03, and the cost of the turnpike condemned between Nittany and Brushvalley, amounting to over $1800. The liabilities of the county are now about four thousand, while last year they were nine, and the previous year were over thirteen thousand.

Another good showing is that all outstanding duplicates, exceeding the 2-year limit, have been settled by the Commissioners insisting upon prompt work of collectors. When they came into office there were 32 unsettled duplicates on hand from the former republican board. Such delinquency is not tolerated now. For this they are to be complimented highly.

In the last statement of the republican board items aggregating about $400 were found for extra clerical hire for a single year. In two years the present board has paid only $10 for that purpse -quite a difference.

During the years 1900 and 1901 the present board has paid off outstanding notes to the amount of over $5000 yearly.

The expenditures during 1899 were $64,023.76; 1900 dropped to $62,502.04; and last year were $61,061.41. This shows careful management again; despite the decrease in revenues, extraordinary expenditures, the balances every time show that the present Democratic Board of County Cmmissioners bave been careful and prudent, and conducted the public affairs with integrity, wisdom and discretion. It is seldom that complaint is heard from the public in regard to their treatment at that office, as these officials are always courteous and obliging, yet firm in the performance of their duty, and ever guarding with jealous care the trust reposed in them by the public.

The tax rate has been 3 mills, which is among the very lowest in the state. Several years ago it was 31/2. It is not likely to drop below 3 mills as the appropriation for the soldier's monument, of $10,000, will have to be met in the course of a few years and at a 3 mill rate there should be a surplus on hand, under careful management, to meet the same.

The tax pavers of Centre county can congratulate themselves that they have no County debt and the tax rate is among the lowest in the state.

SPRING ELECTION.

tions which engender feuds that cause the continued turmoil and strife in a community. Election day is the one time in the year when sound judgment should control the actions of men-good citizenship should prevail.

Keep these thoughts in mind and next Tuesday exercise your right to vote according to your best judgment, and you will have done your full duty.

People who attempt to get even with each other are apt to remain at odds. An indulgent husband is all right provided he doesn't indulge too frequently.

MEEK-HARRIS LIBEL SUIT.

The action in the Clearfield county court brought by State Treasurer Frank Harris, of Clearfield, against P. Gray Meek, editor of the Watchman, at this place, was concluded last Saturday morning with a verdict of "Not Guilty, but Mr. Meek pay the costs." This case attracted considerable attention owing to the prominence of the parties and the long list of state politicians summoned by Mr. Meek to testify as to the corruption in the last legislature and in which body Mr. Harris was a very conspicuous figure. The hope that some spicy testimony would be adduced from these on the stand kept all attention on the result of the trial. The case would have come up sooner but there was trouble in getting the various witnesses to Clearfield and bench warrants had to be issued. When the trial was taken up krape, Samuel Lanich George W. the admission of testimony but the court's Long Daniel ruling prevented Mr. Meek from getting any of the noted politicians on the stand and the sensations expected did not malar Lt. J. C. P. Jones. 2d Lt., J.E. McCartney, 2d Lt., J.E. McCartney

The verdict is a surprise to Mr. Harris and his politi al backers who are finding much trouble in the job of character building, by prosecuting democratic publishers. Mr. Meek feels that he has been vindicated by the verdict. The docket costs in the case amount to about $48 while the expense for his numerous R. W. Ami witnesses may be quite large, if all who traveled there on passes should charge him full mileage.

The result of this case establishes a fact that men who do not want to have their former careers ventilated had better not aspire for office or attempt to punish and persecute a newspaperman for performing a duty to the public.

THE reunion of the 148th, better known as the Centre county Regiment, on 19th and 20th, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, will be a notable affair, at which many of the survivors Fredrick Do will be present, and have a good timeand that's what Bellefonte has in store for these veterans. On our front page we give an interesting history of the regiment, and a complete roster of the seven companies from this county. The | S Centre Democrat publishes this as a George W. Harris chapter in its Historical Review which has been running through our issues for over a year, and it constitutes matter deserving a large space in the history of Centre county, hence we devote almost an entire page to it. Read the deeds of valor that crown the 148th, and lay by William Keeler, David Kline William Knight, the Democrat for reference in the future, as the facts as given are accurate and Jacob Kriner,
Jacob Kriner,

MANY of our exchanges note the fact that the financial statement of Centre county shows it to be out of debt. We feel proud of it too. Follow the example of the voters of this county, brethren, onest and competent officials | Sergt and the same results will follow. Economy-not stinginess-is the aim of the county fathers that old Centre has been

THE papers have had little discussion this year on Bellefonte boro politics. The people are personally acquainted with the various nominees and comment is hardly necessary. It is up to the taxpayers to vote for what they want. They should know who are deserving support.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

(concluded from last week) Lehigh Valley Coal Company vs. Jacob Folmer, administrator, of etc., of Patrick Ward, Sr., Patrick Ward, Jr., John Gunsalus and Patrick Kelley, summoned in assumpsit, plea non assumpsit. This case is from Snow Shoe township and was brought to secure on an estrepment bond given plaintiffs in order to remove timber from a tract of land cut by de fendants on land claimed by plaintiffs in an action of ejectment, which suit was finally determined in favor of the plaintiffs, and suit brought on the bond given by the Wards, Mr. Kelley being deceased, no suit could be maintained against him and plaintiffs suffered a voluntary non suit.

W. C. Farner, D. G. Tressler, and William Boal, trustees for the Centre Hall congregation of the Evangelical Association vs. Joseph Alters, J. S. Dauberman, J. A. Krumbine and J. F. Smith, trustees of the United Evangelical church of Centre Hall, summoned in ejectment, plea not guilty. This case is from Centre Hall and grows out of the division of the Evangelical church in the early nineties, when the United Evangelical church was first organized after the separation growing out of the split of the General Conference of that denomination, one thereof meeting in Indianapolis and the other in Philadelphia and after considerable litigation the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania decided that the Indian apolis conference was the regular conference, which decision also gave the church properties in trust for the Evangelical congregation to the adherents of the Indianapolis conference, in which was included the Centre Hall church and parsonage and the same was surrender; ed to them though non of the crongregation were adherents of that faction of the church Sometime afterwards, in some litigation a compromise was efected relative to this property and the United people given possesion of the property, while compromise as alleged was never ratified by the conference of the Association people, and in the meantime the United people had rented the parsonage to Mr. Alters, and an ejectment was instituted against him to get possession of the property, when the trustees interpleaded and defended. At the trial the plaintiffs could not show that they were the duly elected trustees of the Association, not having their church records at court and were not allowed to show it by parol, and after making strong efforts to get in their evidence finally withdrew a juror and the case was continued at the costs of the plaintiffs.

IMPORTANT EIECTMENT CASE.

Last week an important ejectment case was tried before Judge Love involving the title to the lands of a number of farmers in the vicinity of Zion and Hecla. The trial of the case occupied three full days and was desperately fought, inch by inch, during the entire progress of the trial. The question in-volved was one of location, and the testimony of the surveyors was the principal evidence adduced.

The plaintiff, Richard J. Gibbs, claimed title to the land in dispute under a survey in the name of J. J. Lingle, and the defendants. H. A. Brungard, Wm. B. Shaffer, Isaac Stover, Wm. B. Vonada, Ellis Vonada, A. G. Gerbrick, J. A. Hoy and Isaac P. Bickel under a survey in the name of William Wistar. The warrant of the plaintiff was issued in 1854 and located in 1855, that under which the defendants claimed was issued in 1793 and located in 1824. The defendants having the older title, even if both tracts were located on the same ground, would be entitled to the land, thest the plaintiff claimed that the Wil. Hoy and Isaac P. Bickel under a survey but the plaintiff claimed that the Wilham Wistar, the defendants' tract, was IMPLEMENTS :-

afternoon sustained the location contended for by the defendants. Ex-Judge A. O. Furst and Reeder & Quigley repre-sented the plaintiff, and Clement Dale and Orvis, Bower & Orvis the defendants.
