

BRITISH OUTWITTED

Twelve Killed and Many Wounded in a Boer Trap.

FIRE ON FROM THREE SIDES

Britons Made Gallant Efforts to Defend Position, But Were Overpowered—De Wet's Wife Would Sooner See Him Dead Than Surrender.

Pretoria, Feb. 17.—One hundred and fifty mounted infantrymen, while patrolling the Klip river, south of Johannesburg, February 12, surrounded a farm house where they suspected Boers were in hiding. A single Boer broke away from the house, and the British started to pursue him. The Boer climbed a kopje, the British following. Immediately a heavy fire was opened on them from three sides. The British found themselves in a trap and in a position where they were unable to make any defense. Eight of the British officers made a gallant effort and defended the ridge with carbines and revolvers until they were overpowered. The British had two officers and ten men killed and several officers and 40 men wounded before the force was able to fall back under cover of a block house.

Lord Kitchener, in addition to reporting the Klip river affair, says: "A party from the South African constabulary line, on the Waterval river, encountered on February 10 a superior force of the enemy near Vantondersberg, and was driven back with loss."

According to special dispatches from Pretoria, the mounted infantrymen who were trapped at Klip river were all fresh from home and unused to Boer tactics. The bulk of the casualties occurred during the retreat of the British. The killed included Major Dowell, the commander of the force.

De Wet Will Never Surrender. Durban, Feb. 17.—Mrs. De Wet, in an interview held at the Maritzburg concentration camp, said that two of her sons were still fighting with their father. She regretted that the government had not permitted her to communicate with her husband, and said she was certain that he would never surrender. Mrs. De Wet declared she would rather see her husband die than submit.

SENATE PASSED DANISH TREATY No Amendment Made to Agreement For Cession of Islands.

Washington, Feb. 18.—Yesterday the senate disposed of the treaty with Denmark, ceding to the United States for a consideration of $5,000,000 the islands of St. Thomas, St. John and St. Croix, composing the group of the Antilles known as the Danish West Indies, and lying just east of Porto Rico, and thus so far as this country is concerned consummated a transaction which has been under consideration intermittently since the administration of President Lincoln.

The treaty and the report on it were read at length, and more or less discussion of the proposition was indulged in. It was not amended in any particular. Senator Bacon proposed an amendment eliminating the paragraph in the treaty giving authority to congress to fix the civil and political rights of the inhabitants, but it was voted down by a viva voce vote. Senator Culom then explained the provisions of the treaty in detail. The resolution to ratify was adopted without division.

Conference With Coal Barons. Shamokin, Pa., Feb. 18.—President John Mitchell notified the Ninth district United Mine Workers' headquarters here that he had issued invitations to heads of coal carrying railroads to attend a proposed joint conference of representatives of employers and employes, to be held Wednesday, March 12, at a place to be selected later in the anthracite region.

Secretary George Hartlein, of this place, was ordered to go to New York to aid President Mitchell and the anthracite district presidents to bring influence to bear on J. Pierpont Morgan and others to attend the convention or else to send representatives.

Killed Wife For Disobeying Him. Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 18.—Frank M. Beckwith, a descendant of one of the best-known families in this county, shot and instantly killed his wife. Beckwith lives near Hannah Furnace and works at Sandy Ridge, some eight miles distant. Mrs. Beckwith went to Sandy Ridge to visit at the home of Mr. Edminson. Beckwith told her to be home not later than midnight. Not coming home, the man walked eight miles over the mountain, and finding his wife, killed her. He then walked back home, intending, he said, to kill the eldest of his six children. Before he could carry out his threat he was arrested and brought here to jail.

Tried to Burn Boy at Stake. Scranton, Pa., Feb. 17.—Arthur Young, of Carbondale, who, after being discharged, tied his employer's son, William Hick, to a stake and attempted to set fire to it, was sentenced here in court Saturday by Judge Edwards. It is said that the youth was incited to the crime by reading cheap blood-and-thunder literature. He was sentenced to serve two and a half years in the penitentiary.

President's Cousin Dead. New York, Feb. 17.—Cornelius Roosevelt, the only surviving son of the late S. Weir Roosevelt, and a cousin to President Roosevelt, is dead of heart disease in this city. Mr. Roosevelt was born in this city 54 years ago, and was educated at the Troy Polytechnic Institute.

LAUNCHING OF EMPEROR'S YACHT

Two Thousand Invitations Sent Out By the Builder.

New York, Feb. 18.—Two thousand invitations to the launching of the emperor's yacht were sent out yesterday by the builders, the Townsend-Downey Co. Only those whose names had been passed upon by the committee of arrangements at Washington and the secret service bureau and personal friends of the builders received the coveted cards. The invited guests include those foremost in official life in Washington and in New York all the celebrities of finance, politics, literature, art and the business and official life of this city. At least two governors will witness the launching—Governor Odell, of New York, and Governor Murphy, of New Jersey. Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, has been invited.

As a safeguard against heavy weather in the outer harbor on the day that Prince Henry arrives here, the plan for formally welcoming him was changed yesterday. It was decided to abandon the idea of having him transfer down the bay from the Kronprinz Wilhelm to the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, and instead he will come to Recreation Pier, at the foot of West Thirty-fourth street, on the liner Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commanding the special squadron, will board the Kronprinz Wilhelm as soon as she arrives, and after formally greeting Prince Henry, will accompany him to the pier.

MACKAY-SMITH TO BE COADJUTOR Washington Clergyman Notices Committee of His Acceptance.

Philadelphia, Feb. 18.—Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, rector of St. John's Church, Washington, D. C., has decided to accept the office of bishop coadjutor of the diocese of Pennsylvania, to which he was elected at the recent special convention called by Bishop Whitaker. His formal acceptance was received yesterday by Rev. J. De Wolf Perry, rector of Calvary Church, Germantown, chairman of the notification committee.

Rev. Mackay-Smith's decision to give up his rectorship at the capital for the coadjutorship caused no surprise among the clergy and gentlemen of this city who are his friends. It is known that great pressure was brought to bear upon him by members of his parish to decline the office, but he was equally strongly urged to accept. Bishop Potter, of New York, is said to be among those who advised him to accept.

DEWEY WILL NOT ATTEND Wife's Illness Will Prevent Admiral From Meeting Prince Henry.

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 18.—Admiral Dewey received the following dispatch from Washington yesterday: "Will you dine with me on February 28, at 7.30 p. m., to have the honor to meet his royal highness, Prince Henry of Prussia?"

"HOLLEBERN. "Imperial German Ambassador." Admiral Dewey replied as follows: "I regret exceedingly not to accept your invitation to dine and have the honor of again meeting his royal highness, Prince Henry of Prussia, but Mrs. Dewey is too ill for me to leave her." GEORGE DEWEY. "The Admiral of the Navy."

Cleveland Slaughtering Ducks. Norfolk, Va., Feb. 18.—Charles Kettel, of Washington, secretary of the Back Bay Gunning Club, at which ex-President Grover Cleveland is a guest, returned to Norfolk from the marshes yesterday. He stated that the Cleveland party killed 200 ducks and 30 geese on Friday, and that Mr. Cleveland did more than his share of the slaughter. The weather is very rough at the club, but ideal for duck shooting, and the game is plentiful. Mr. Cleveland's health has improved since he arrived there.

Reciprocity With Cuba. Washington, Feb. 18.—Representative H. C. Smith, of Michigan, introduced a bill in the house yesterday providing for a reciprocity treaty with Cuba, to be effected by the president as soon as the islanders establish their government. Under the terms of the treaty the United States shall refund quarterly to the Cuban treasury 40 per cent. of the duties collected, and the Cubans shall make tariff concessions in their turn. The treaty shall continue in force for ten years.

Anniversary of Pope Leo XIII. Rome, Feb. 18.—All the Catholic sovereigns, besides the rulers of some of the South American republics, have notified the Vatican that they are sending jubilee representatives with gifts to the Pope in honor of his holiness' celebration of the 24th anniversary of his pontificate. The first pilgrimage, that from Lombardy, arrived yesterday. The pilgrimage was headed by Cardinal Jerrari. All the cardinals will visit Pope Leo during the jubilee. Leo XIII. was made Pope on February 18, 1878.

Captain Charles F. Snowden Dead. Trenton, N. J., Feb. 18.—Captain Charles F. Snowden, state military storekeeper in charge of the state arsenal, died here yesterday of heart disease. Captain Snowden was a personal friend of General Cooper, and his death is believed to have been hastened by the news of the sudden demise of General Cooper.

A Whiskey War. Peoria, Ill., Feb. 18.—A cut in the price of distilled spirits was announced yesterday, and now the basis for finished goods is $1.25. While neither the representatives of the trust nor the independent houses will talk concerning the cut, they both admit that it is the beginning of a war.

WAR TAXES REPEALED

House Unexpectedly Passed Bill Without Debate.

THE VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS

Mr. Richardson, Minority Leader, Suggested That the Bill Be Passed At Once, As It Could Not Be Amended.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The unexpected happened in the house yesterday, when the bill to repeal the war revenue taxes was passed unanimously without a word of debate. This action was the outcome of a challenge thrown down by Mr. Richardson, of Tennessee, the minority leader, after the adoption by a strict party vote of a special order for the consideration of the bill, which permitted debate upon it until 4 o'clock this afternoon, but cut off all opportunity to offer amendments except such as had been agreed upon by the ways and means committee. The adoption of the rule had been preceded by a stormy debate, in the course of which the Democrats protested against the application of the "gag," which Mr. Hay, of Virginia, charged was meant to prevent a free expression not only by the Democrats, but by some of the Republicans, attention being especially directed toward Mr. Babcock, of Wisconsin, the father of the bill to amend the steel schedule of the present tariff law.

They also charged that such a method of procedure was minimizing the influence of the house and making it simply a machine to register the decrees of the few men in control. Mr. Babcock said that he supported the program, on the ground that the issue presented for the repeal of the war revenue taxes should not be complicated with other matters. At the same time he gave notice that he should press his own bill at the first opportunity.

Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, scored a point against the minority by recalling the time under Democratic control of the house when 649 amendments to the Wilson tariff bill had been forced through without being read.

When the rule was adopted by a vote of 158 to 120, Mr. Richardson, the minority leader, sprang a surprise. Rising in his seat, he said: "Mr. Speaker—I rise to make a request for unanimous consent. In view of the fact that we are not permitted to amend the pending bill, and in view of the fact that two days' debate is absolutely fruitless under this rule, I ask unanimous consent that the bill be put upon its passage now." (Applause on both sides.)

Members looked at each other in amazement. Not an objection was voiced, and the vote was taken forthwith. Every vote, 278 in number, was cast in the affirmative, and thus quietly and unanimously came the end of what at one time had promised to be one of the most exciting contests of the session.

The measure, which was prepared by Chairman Payne, of New York, of the ways and means committee, cuts off in round figures $76,000,000 from the government's annual revenues. Every item on the war tax schedule is eliminated except that of mixed flour. This is a very small item, and is really not a war revenue tax.

Found Dead in a Mine. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Feb. 18.—Edward Broome, a fire boss employed at No. 1 mine, of the Delaware and Hudson Coal company, at Plymouth, was found dead in an abandoned working of the colliery last evening. He had been missing since Sunday morning. When he did not come to the surface Sunday a party entered the mine in search of him. They traveled the workings all night, but could find no trace of him. The search was kept up yesterday. Last evening about 9 o'clock the body of the missing man was found in an out-of-the-way place. It was badly burned. Broome had evidently encountered a body of gas, which had ignited and an explosion occurred, causing his death.

Packing Houses at War. Chicago, Feb. 18.—Big packing houses in the stock yards are at war, and as a result the price of dressed beef in the Chicago market has been cut more than 25 per cent. Instead of receiving from 9 to 10 cents, the packers are getting from 6 1/2 to 7 cents for their dressed beef, and the market man is reaping all the benefit for the retail price has not been reduced. The trouble is over the entrance of two new meat firms into the Chicago beef market. The established firms were quick to resent the intrusion into their territory, and began to meet the competition by cutting prices. The newcomers followed suit, determined to get business at any price.

Hobson Will Retire. Washington, Feb. 18.—The president yesterday sent to the senate a message recommending the retirement of Naval Constructor Richmond P. Hobson, and in accordance with this recommendation Senator Gallinger immediately introduced a bill providing for Mr. Hobson's transfer to the retired list. In his message the president gives as his reason the trouble that Mr. Hobson has had since 1900 with his eyes, and recites the history of that trouble.

Died in Church. New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 17.—Riverius Marsh, a wealthy inventor and hardware dealer of this city, died suddenly yesterday while attending morning service at the Second Reformed Church in this city.

It is better to be thrown on your own resources than to slip on an icy pavement.

Barnum's Monkeys

"All well—all happy—lots of fun". That is the regular report from the monkey cage of Barnum's Circus ever since the keepers began dosing the monkeys with Scott's Emulsion. Consumption was carrying off two thirds of them every year and the circus had to buy new ones.

One day a keeper accidentally broke a bottle of Scott's Emulsion near the monkey cage and the monkeys eagerly lapped it up from the floor. This suggested the idea that it might do them good. Since then the monkeys have received regular doses and the keepers report very few deaths from consumption. Of course it's cheaper to buy Scott's Emulsion than new monkeys—and that suits the circus men.

Consumption in monkeys and in man is the same disease. If you have it or are threatened with it can you take the hint?

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.
