BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs

—Have you read Mingle's Ad. If not, read it at once—you will lose money if you don't.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Magee, of Philadelphia, are welcome visitors in Bellefonte, arrived on Saturday.

—Col. Jas. F. Weaver, of course was here to attend the re-union; he could not think of missing his old comrades.

—Hon. Robert A. Cassidy, of Canton, Ohio, was an arrival in Bellefonte Tuesday for the reunion of his old regiment, the 148th.

—Lieut. S. M. Spangler, of Newton, Ks., a native of Miles township, was an arrival on Tuesday, to attend the 148 reg. re-union. He was a member of Co. A.

—Carpenters and other mechanics are putting in extra time at night on Petriken Hall in order to have the building finished for the various tenants, by the first of April.

—On account of ill health Miss Mary Ann McGill, who for years has been keeping a boarding house on Allegheny street, will be compelled to retire by the 1st of April.

—Mrs. Wilbur F. Reeder is representing the Bellefonte chapter of the D. A. R. at the Eleventh Continental Congress of the National society of the order now in session at Washington, D. C.

—The board of trustees of the Bellefonte Academy met and decided to turn the entire third floor of the main building into dormitories for the students, as the school is gradually growing each year.

—The next entertainment by the W. C. T. U. course will be on Wednesday evening, in the court house, "The Marion Wilson Costumed Impersonations." Admission 35 cents; reserved seats 15 cents extra.

—Some of our people are going to Centre Hall tomorrow evening to hear the Hon. Fred Iker deliver his lecture on "Political Agitators," in Grange Academy. It will be given before an educational institute to be held there on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

—Corporal D. H. Harter, of Rittenhouse, Ohio, a member of Co. D, 148th reg, was the first arrival to attend the re-union—reaching here Monday afternoon. He is a brother of Harter of the Gazette and Mrs. Fred. Kurtz. He was wounded three times.

—Sim The Clothier is hustling around in the eastern markets at present to make selections in the clothing line. Whenever he comes from such a trip you generally hear of some exceptional bargains, for he generally gets what he goes after and shares with his customers the result of some of his excellent selections and good purchases.

—Lumberman Huyett, of Centre Hall, is a frequent visitor in Bellefonte, his association with the McNitts in a lumber operation at Hecla, requires his frequent presence here. Mr. Huyett's other operation is beyond Potters Mills where he manufactures great quantities of staves. His lumber interests in our county are now among the most important.

—A visit to the store of Robt. Montgomery, in the Crider stone building, will show you that they have made all preparations for the spring trade. All the latest wrinkles in papering and interior decorating are in stock and from the bustle and bustle around the establishment they have an abundance of work on hand.

—John S. Yearick, the supervisor in Spring township, was in to see us on Monday and incidentally remarked that he is on the ticket again this year for the same office which means that it is the eighth time that he has been nominated by the democrats in his township. He must have been making good roads for them, or else they would not have been after him so often.

—Charles Bard returned on Saturday from near Pittsburg whether he had gone to obtain the body of his son who was killed in a railroad collision, of which particulars were given in last week's Centre Democrat. The body of the boy was burned in the wreck beyond identification, and only a short crisp was left, which the father had buried at Haysville, where the accident occurred. Mr. Bard is preparing to move to Pittsburg for his future home.

—Mingle, the shoe man, is stirring around some of the odds and ends in his store that have become slightly shop worn or are not just the latest fashions, but at the same time are standard goods and will give exceptional wear and service. He is actually giving these goods away, for the small price he asks for them is insignificant. You can get good shoes there now for about one-fourth actual cost. If you don't believe what we are telling you, see what he says in his advertisement and then go around and look at the goods. His clearance sale is a good opportunity to save money.

—The streams in the county are low. —Watsontown Oil Grain Lacey and Congress, $1.50—Mingle's.

—In the woods in some parts of our county the snow was two feet deep.

—Yesterday and to-day the 148th boys were enjoying the freedom of Bellefonte.

—Baled hay is bringing fancy prices, on account of short crop and feed generally.

—February clearance sale at Mingle's, everything under regular prices—sale closes March 1st.

—Dr. J. M. Brockerhoff departed Tuesday for a business trip to the lumber districts of West Virginia.

—J. Linn Harris, engaged in the lumber business in West Virginia, is at his home. He has been on the sick list, and is here to recuperate.

—Messrs. Elliot Van Devander, Louis Daggett, Donald Potter and Philip Weaver are attending the State Y. M. C. A. convention at Warren, Pa.

—Paul Shaffer and family moved from Crider Exchange, on Tuesday, to the house recently vacated by David J. Kelly.

—Thos. M. Stover, of Livonia, with a "Paint Remover," was in this section for the purpose of giving some demonstrations of the value of this invention. It is claimed to be a great labor saver, easily applied and does its work satisfactorily.

—Frank Warfield, general freight agent of the C. R. of Pa., was on a business trip to New York state last week and visited his wife and little daughter who are at Clifton Springs before returning home.

—A report is circulated that John Doak is ill with small-pox. He came here recently from Niagara Falls. Dr. Dorworth, the attending physician denies the report and says the symptoms are that of typhoid fever.

—We sent out over five hundred bills this week to those of our patrons who are in arrears on subscription. We hope no offence will be taken where a name was accidentally overlooked. We have no desire to slight anyone, with our regards.

—The funeral of Warren Burnside proceeded from St. John's Episcopal church, on Friday afternoon, and was largely attended. Many floral tributes lay on the coffin of the deceased. The pall-bearers were the Vestry of St. John's church.

—Hardware merchant John I. Olewine while at work in his store Monday morning fell from a step-ladder to the store cellar through a trap door. Mr. Olewine was unconscious when picked up. He sustained painful bruises, which will incapacitate him from active duty for a few days. His injuries are not thought to be serious.

—Henry will soon put his royal feet upon American soil, and go sight seeing over Uncle Sam's farm. The Prince should not miss Bellefonte—our youngsters would gladly give him a taste of delightful coasting down our thousand hills, all centering in the diamond. Kom here Heinrich, hier hat man such gates Bier.

—Public sales are about to begin and will have the right-of-way in this county, from now on up to April 1st, as will be seen from the Democrat's advertising columns. The sales will mostly be large ones, of farmers selling off live stock, machinery, implements, and some having household effects. Live stock is likely to bring good prices.

—Ad. Fauble returned the past week from a trip to New York where he spent two weeks in the large wholesale district selecting stock for their spring trade. Since he is home goods have been arriving daily and more are to follow, and that means that their stores will be up to date for any and all of their numerous customers. Faubles always are up to date, and propose to maintain their prestige.

—Wednesday afternoon Louis E. Walsh, of Denton, Indiana, county, Pa., a member of Co. E, 148th, while at the railroad station at Salona was overcome from heart trouble and died suddenly. He had come to Bellefonte to attend the reunion and had gone to Salona to visit a sister.

—Killed at Loganton. Raymond Herlacher, Ralph Berry and his cousin, Roy Berry, of Loganton, were shooting sparrows last Saturday forenoon. Raymond had an old musket. He aimed the weapon at a bird, but it flew before he pulled the trigger. As he lowered the gun, the weapon was accidentally discharged. The ball entered Roy Berry's body under the right arm, went through the chest and heart, and lodged under the skin on the left side. He was carried to his parents home and expired in about twenty minutes. Roy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Berry. He was twelve years and 6 months old.

—Innocent But Must Pay the Costs. The jury in the famous fraudulent jury wheel case, of Clearfield county, Commonwealth vs. William F. Daly, returned their verdict, when court opened. "We find the defendant, W. F. Daly, not guilty, but pay the costs," is the finding. The costs of prosecution will amount to at least $1,200. Add to this the cost of the defendant's witnesses and counsel fees, and the total will aggregate about $2,000.

—Clearfield is getting famous for verdicts of "not guilty, but must pay the costs."

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

What Transpired Worthy of Brief Mention, the Past Week—News From Over the County—For Hasty Readers—A New Department

Henry Swartz, of Philipsburg, was granted a pension, $10.

L. G. Kessler, the veteran Philipsburg merchant, is critically ill.

W. W. Royer, of Centre Hill, is still confined to his home, having been ill over a month.

John A. Strunk, of Penns valley, intends moving to the Hale farm at Pleasant Gap in the spring.

J. H. Wolf, of State College, is erecting a handsome dwelling on Highland street, at Oak Grove.

The ladies' Aid Society of the Boalsburg Presbyterian church will give an entertainment in their hall on Feb. 22nd. The entertainment will consist of Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works and a play entitled "Tompkins, hired man."

Cephas S. Rover and Miss Amanda M. Yearick, both of Zion, Centre county were united in bonds matrimonial at St. Luke's Reformed parsonage, Lock Haven, by Rev. Warren J. Johnson, Tuesday afternoon.

Squire Henry Beck, of Sugar valley, went to Pinecroft to visit the family of his son-in-law, John Stamm, who were greatly distressed by fire destroying their residence. Mr. Stamm and the three children were somewhat burned in making their escape out of the house.

D. C. Caris and Raymond McCloskey, of Nittany valley, were out sleighing Wednesday evening, 12, when their sleigh was upset in a snow drift. The horse ran away and broke the sleigh to pieces. The animal was found at 3 o'clock in the morning at Cedar Run. The horse was badly cut about the legs and will be useless for some time.

C. A. M. stands for the "Coming Men of America." An order with that title was recently organized at Potters Mills. The present membership is fifteen. The officers are Noble Grand, J. E. Harshbarger; Vice Noble Grand, H. B. Wagner; Secretary, Charles S. Bitner; Treasurer, H. G. Smith; Speaker, L. T. Smith; Director, E. Blaine Palmer; Sentinel, H. R. Faltz.

IN ADJOINING COUNTIES. C. E. Rumberger, who for many years was in the Adams' express office, at Lock Haven, has been promoted to the agency at Sharon, Pa.

Edward McKee, a retired farmer of Ferguson Valley, Mifflin county, has been stricken with smallpox, making the first case in that vicinity.

Two cases of virulent diphtheria have developed in Loganton and one new case in Greene township during the past fortnight. Great alarm is felt among the people.

Thirteen thousand five hundred dollars were raised by public subscription at the dedicatory services of St. John's Lutheran church, Lewistown, on Sunday night, and the building, costing $40,000, was dedicated clear of debt.

The ice on the river at Lock Haven is 23 inches thick, which some rivermen say is the heaviest ice ever known on the Susquehanna. In upper districts, on both river and creeks, the ice is said to be thicker than it is at Lock Haven.

George Mann, of Eagleville, was brought home from Beecher's lumber camp on Baker's run Sunday suffering from temporary paralysis of his lower limbs. Mr. Mann was in the act of felling a tree when he dropped to the ground in a helpless condition.

The work of demolishing the old Millerstown dam, that has been partially accomplished, will be resumed in a few days and that obstruction removed. With this obstruction removed the shad will be able to go up the Juniata river as far as Newton Hamilton.

Lieutenant Colonel R. C. Elder, of Lewistown, has been elected colonel of the Fifth Regiment, N. G. P., to succeed Colonel Theodore Burchfield, whose term has expired. The headquarters of the regiment will be removed to Lewistown. Major Bare, of Huntingdon, was elected lieutenant colonel and Captain Samuel S. Hughes, of Indiana, was elected major.

There are three topics of conversation in Beech Creek at present—the temperance cause in Eagleville, religious subjects, and the anticipated change in the postoffice. Whenever two or three are gathered together, one or all of these subjects are discussed. The successful revivals in all the churches there and in Eagleville has caused a wave of religious fervor to pass over the community. As for the postoffice, since the announcement from Washington no removals of fourth-class postmasters will be made without cause or charges, some are inclined to believe that no change will be made here.

Many a man is a chronic kicker because he has corns on his conscience. One way to avoid being disappointed in love is to marry for money.

AUDITOR'S REPORT.

County auditors J. H. Beck, Wm. Tibbens and Archie Allison, with their clerk, W. Miles Walker, completed the work of investigating the accounts of the various county officials and submitted the following signed report to the court the 13th: "The books and accounts of William T. Speer, treasurer, were carefully gone over and find that the records and accounts of said office are kept with the utmost neatness and accuracy and that the treasurer and his deputy, Mr. Cori, are entitled to commendation for the satisfactory manner with which the business of the office is conducted. In the examination of the sheriff's and prothonotary's accounts, we find that both officers have carefully observed the allowance of the fee bill in all their charges. Upon investigation of the several accounts of Daniel Heckman, P. H. Myer, and Abram V. Miller, county commissioners, notwithstanding the fact of a reduced valuation have been able to defray the current expenses of the year without an increased millage and have left a very satisfactory balance to the credit of the county. We also find that they have exercised utmost prudence in the payment of bills, whereby the current expenses of the year have been materially reduced, thereby placing the financial affairs of the county in good, healthy condition. And we, therefore, recommend that the board of commissioners and their clerk Mr. Musser be given the continued confidence and support of every tax-payer of the county." W. H. TIMBENS, JOHN H. BECK, W. M. WALKER, Clerk. ARCHIE ALLISON

After Farmers. The Williamsport News says: It is stated that the Pennsylvania railroad is preparing to claim their land along the route of the abandoned canal between this city and Lock Haven. Last week a force of men was sent along the canal and inspected the land that has been encroached upon by the farmers whose fields abut on the old canal right of way.

In scores of places between Williamsport and Lock Haven farmers have appropriated portions of the canal bed and in many cases plow up the depression which the canal once occupied, and plant corn, potatoes etc.

Railroad officials claim that the encroachments on the canal right of way represent thousands of dollars.

THE Queen of England's retinue of servants makes a staff which would appal an American housekeeper. The salaries aggregate $660,000 a year. Appended is a list of some of the functionaries, and what the cost of their service: Waxfitter, who arranges all the candles, $300 a year; a first and second lamp-lighter, $500 each per year; five table deckers, who set the royal table, $1,400; chief butler, $2,500 a year; chef, $3,500 a year; four master cooks, each $1000 a year; clerk of the kitchen, $1,500 a year; confectioners, $1,500 and $1,200 each; workers in royal laundry, aggregate wages, $10,000 a year. Besides the amount that is paid for household labor, the tradespeople who supply the eatables receive on an average $860,000 a year.

Makes delicious hot biscuit, rolls, crusts, griddle cakes and muffins. A cream of tartar powder, absolutely pure.
