

The Racket

Forecast of Fashions for Spring—Butterick's Delinicator, Patterns and Fashion Sheets for March now ready.

CARPETS FROM SAMPLE—Our new lines for Spring are ready for your inspection. Wilton, Axminster and Saxony Velvets, extra quality and Stinson Tapestry, extra suer all-wool Ingrains, best 3-ply and Model Unions. If U need a carpet this spring we know we can save U money and show U patterns not to be found elsewhere in in this city.

Special bargains in Fine Embroidery. See Table, Room No. 11.

Don't forget the China Department is now in Room No. 9, First Floor.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Correspondents' Department.

(Continued from Page 7.)

Milesburg.

George Gray is now visiting his daughter, Mrs. Bierly, of Sugar valley. John Brotherhood, of Morningside, was a recent guest of Ed. Kinzie and sisters.

Emanuel Noll on Saturday started for Lamar with a sled load of old and young folks to visit and have an old fashioned jubilee at the Treaster's old homestead, returning Sunday evening.

Miss Julia Grove is now in Philadelphia on her way to New York City with a lady friend on a business trip.

Wm. Baird, of Windber, arrived home on Thursday last, resigned his position as postal clerk—had held the position for some time.

A very pretty dance was held at James McKinley's, near Milesburg, which was largely attended; the dance was given in honor of their son Homer, on his sixteenth anniversary of his birth; fifty guests were present. The party and dance were made up with guests from Snow Shoe, Bellefonte, Milesburg and vicinity; had a grand good old fashion country dance; all had a sociable time, the greatest feature of the dance was, that Mrs. George Shecker manipulated the violin bow, she made the violin talk, and is a good violinist.

Miss Albina Fulton is again able to be up; she was confined to her bed with congestion of the lungs.

Miss Ruth Crain is much better at this writing.

Claud W. Smith is at Columbus, Ohio, nursing his brother Alvin, who is confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Miss Anna Gregg is suffering from an attack of sciatic rheumatism; at this writing is much better.

A daughter arrived at the home of Charles Peters recently.

Miss Mary Confer, of Snow Shoe, was a recent visitor among her many young associates of this place.

Many of the young people as well as the older ones are enjoying the sleighing and many sledding parties have their outings.

Oscar E. Miles is again at business—after an attack of quinsy.

Rev. Wharton is now holding a revival meeting in his church, (M. E. church); sinners presenting themselves for prayer.

Mrs. Charles Peters is suffering from an attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. Dr. S. M. Huff is housed with an attack of grip.

Charles Adams is housed with Bright's disease, so said.

Clarence Flick is suffering with rheumatism of knee and foot.

Miss Urb Stevens, of Bellwood, is a guest of Mrs. Harry Austin.

Harry Austin is suffering from an attack of a heavy cold setting in his knee, similar to rheumatic pains.

At a regular meeting of the Milesburg fire company the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: president, Geo. Shecker; vice president, E. D. Noll; corresponding sec'y, Herbert Hasinger; asst. sec'y, Oscar E. Miles; financial sec'y, Prof. James Gregg; treasurer, Jas. B. Noll; foreman, Jas. B. Noll; 1st asst., Sam'l Swann; and asst., Geo. Shecker; delegate to state convention, James Gregg; alternate, George Shecker; delegate to district convention, Sam C. Swann; alternate, Leeds Lambert; trustees, E. L. Noll, Sam'l Swann and Leeds Lambert.

Ed. Burst, of Pitcairn, is a guest of his wife's parents, Wesley Crain and wife.

Claud Fulton's children are on the sick list—two boys.

Philipsburg.

Mrs. George Lamb slipped on an icy pavement while going home from church on Wednesday and broke her ankle.

A big party of Presbyterians had a sleighing party to Osceola.

Mrs. Eliza Tyson, who has been sick with what threatened to be pneumonia, is, we are pleased to learn, much better.

Miss Annie Simler has so far recovered from her recent attack of pneumonia as to be again at her post in the telephone office.

Mrs. Adam Mayer is quite ill at her home on South Front street.

We understand that Jim Hatch is lying very sick at his mother's home on South Second street.

A young daughter of Harry Newan, aged 21 months, died Thursday night 13th, of pneumonia.

A little change in the pocket is better than a decided change in the weather.

Ferguson Township.

Jacob D. Nearhood is receiving congratulations over the arrival of a little boy at his home.

J. H. Black has been awarded the contract for the free rural mail route No. 3, with the distributing office at Alexandria.

Veterinary Fry's broken arm is able to "be out."

On the sick list are Mrs. J. M. Kepler with a serious attack of the grip and J. G. Hess is recovering from a week's illness of the same.

As soon as the weather permits H. M. Snyder will build a barn on the site of the one that was burned last fall. W. B. Ward is the contractor.

J. D. Nearhood has added to his family another one, his eleventh, a little boy.

Mrs. Olie Bowersox, who has been under medical treatment in Philadelphia for the last four months is home again somewhat improved.

A crowd of young folks sledded from Baileyville Friday night and halted at the hospitable home of John G. Bailey. They captured it on the first charge and were served by Mrs. Bailey and her daughter, Marv, with ample refreshments.

Emanuel Musser, of Orangeville, Ill., died two weeks ago, aged 76 years, leaving a wife and three children. The deceased went west from Pine Grove Mills about forty-five years ago. He was married to Harriet, daughter of Jno. A. Confer, deceased, of Penn Hall.

R. W. Illingworth has accepted the associate editorship of the Morenci (Arizona) Standard. The town is a copper mining camp, of 3000 population.

A reception was tendered to the Rev. R. W. Illingworth and wife in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening 5th, by the Ladies' Aid. It was a delightful social event and was largely attended by the people of the camp. Refreshments were served by the ladies—sandwiches, coffee, cake and custard. New acquaintances were made and old ones renewed.

Ingleby.

Mr. Bartges, of Coburn, the photographer, was called to this place last Saturday where he was engaged taking pictures all day.

Dr. Barker, of this place, captured another wild cat. Measuring 4 feet 1 inch, this makes the second one for the Dr.

The Highvalley scribe has almost his car load of props at the siding at Ingleby, where he has been hauling for the last four weeks.

Reuben Eisenhuth, who was shot in the leg some time last summer, is able to be about again, but must use one crutch.

J. M. Barker who was very ill with the measles is able to do his work around the farm.

The ice crop this year was the largest one for many years.

Mrs. H. Eisenhuth, who was cooking for the Pine Creek Lumber Co., came home last Thursday and will remain till spring.

T. O. Keen, our up-to-date sawyer, received a handsome present last Friday by mail.

David Raymond, of Poe Mills, is very ill at this writing.

Barnet Eisenhuth went to Pine Creek last week where he is employed with the Pine Creek Lumber Co.

William Eisenhuth who was reported very sick is able to be around in the house. Mr. Eisenhuth is the oldest man we have in this part of the county.

Fairbrook.

There was a sled load of young people entertained by H. N. Koch on Tuesday.

G. D. Meek is at present hauling coal from Fairbrook. He intends burning lime on his Bunker Hill farm this summer.

Quite a number of our young folks attended services at Pine Hall last week.

Misses Katie and Ella Dale accompanied by Wm. Fry were visitors at L. K. Dale's last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Myers spent last Friday at State College.

Mrs. G. W. McWilliams spent last week in Altoona.

Blair Ritter and father will move on the Foster farm where they will make their home after April 1st.

Our hustling implement agent, C. B. McCormick is delivering washing machines in this section last week.

During the fine sledding quite a number of our farmers were hauling coal from Philipsburg.

Abraham Bailey spent Saturday and Sunday at Stormstown.

Mrs. Amos Koch and daughter Ada, were pleasant visitors at D. G. Meek's on Thursday.

Harvey Grenoble, of State College, transacted business at Fairbrook Saturday.

Centre Hall.

The Runkle hotel has gained a reputation for being one of the best inland hotels in the state, and our town feels proud of it.

Local institute on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 21 and 22.

The Leuzont Dramatic Club will give an entertainment in Grange Arcadia on Saturday evening, Feb. 22nd.

Former townsman E. G. Van Pelt is here from York state, looking after his interests.

Last week's issue of the Centre Democrat was much in demand on account of its history of the 148th regiment.

Our industrious and useful townsman, Frank Arney is on the sick list.

Brush Valley.

Clesta Beck, Elsie Lambert and Marie Emerick, were visitors at Hoya's school one day last week. Lloyd you was glad to see them come.

There is a report at Hoya's school, that would better be stopped instantly or a lot of trouble will be the outcome.

Dora Roush had the measles.

Kate Hoy was very sick last week.

B. F. Grenoble will have sale on the 21 of Feb. He has fine stock and farm implements.

Hublersburg.

Our town has a "Pedro and Euchre" club that meets regularly at the home of "Goat." We will not mention names of members.

Miss Maud Kessinger, accompanied Williams on a visit to his parents at Beck Creek, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Noll, of Madisonburg, were welcome visitors at the home of their son, Harry, on Sunday.

The oyster supper held by the High school on Saturday evening was well attended and they realized a nice sum towards paying their organ.

Jacob Walker and Mrs. Julia Brown were to Blanchard on Saturday to visit Miss Sophie Rockey, who was seriously ill at the home of Christ Robb; but they report her improving.

Harry Noll and Frank Harshberger were to Mill Hall, last Thursday.

Nearly everybody in this vicinity was taking advantage of the fine weather and sleighing, on Sunday.

Frank Carner took a horse to Mill Hall for Walter Agar, on Saturday.

Prof. L. W. Musser and Miss Fannie Shafer were visiting the latter's parents, on Sunday.

Mr. Robb and sister were guests at B. W. Rumberger's, on Sunday.

A sled load of young people from Zion passed through our town on Thursday evening enroute for Mackeyville. Some of our young people accompanied them and report having had a good time.

Jonas Stover and sisters Fannie and Elsie, of Wolf's Store, were the guests of their sister, Mrs. W. H. Minnich, on Monday.

The exercises of the High school Literary Society were very well attended, on Friday evening, which shows the interest that the citizens take in their work. The members deserve praise for the excellent progress that they are making along the literary line. But a great deal of their progress is due to the enthusiasm put into them by the untiring efforts of their instructor, Prof. L. W. Musser.

On Tuesday evening two sled loads of people from this vicinity went to the home of W. E. Shaffer, at Nittany, to spend a social evening together. All that were present report having had a very pleasant time.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Jacob Klinger is caring for a strained arm, the result of a fall on the ice.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burns entertained some of their friends, on Friday evening.

Miss Mary Dale is visiting at Johnstown.

J. C. Etters and family spent Sunday with friends, near Lemont.

A crowd of young folks from our town, attended the poverty social at the home of T. F. Gramley, near Walnut Grove, on Friday eve.

Miss Anna M. Dale accompanied by Chas. Dale and wife, of the Branch, spent Friday at Centre Hall the guests of Mrs. John Sanders.

Al. Koopp purchased a horse at the Millheim horse sale last week.

Thursday evening a sled load of young folks from Walnut Grove, were entertained at the home of Ezra Tressler.

Paul Bailey, of Pine Grove, accompanied by Miss Jennie From, of State College, were guests at the hospitable home of John Kline, recently.

C. G. Dale and wife, of Houserville, Willard Dale, of Dale's Summit and L. K. Dale and family, of near Pine Grove, were recent visitors in town.

A crowd of young folks from our town drove to Lauverton on Thursday evening and were entertained by Uriah Evey and family. They stayed only once.

Edwin Smith and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents, A. J. Tate and wife, at Dale's Summit.

While driving home, after having spent the evening in our town, a party of people from Dale's Summit had the misfortune of upsetting. No person was injured.

Smullton.

John H. Brindle, who has been in the employ of Geo. H. Small, of this place, left Monday noon, for Francesville, Ind., to work on the farm for his uncle, who lives there.

Revival services in the M. E. church are still in progress.

On last Thursday, the ladies below mentioned, were hospitably entertained and cared for at the home of George H. Smull, by his wife, Blanche. They report having had a pleasant time, which of course the correspondent (although not a guest) can vouch for knowing that all the delicacies that could be procured for the social enjoyment of the visitors were at their command. The following persons were present: Mrs. M. C. Gephart, Mrs. C. H. Morris, Mrs. A. Walters, Mrs. F. P. Musser, Mrs. W. S. Musser, Mrs. E. M. Manck, Mrs. J. W. Stover, Mrs. S. M. Campbell, Mrs. Brennan and Miss Hartman, all of Millheim.

Valentine day is over and some of our folks have sand enough to open their letters.

H. H. Stover was to Lock Haven, Friday last.

A. E. Stragis was to Hublersburg, Friday in his interest as painter and paper hanger.

Lee Weber and Harry Bair of this valley have hauled the largest load of lumber to Coburn, that was known of for years. Having loaded 2700 ft.

W. J. Hackenberg moved Tuesday.

CALIFORNIA.

Thirty one Days' Western Tour via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Personally-conducted Tour to California will leave on February 25. Passengers will be transported to El Paso, Texas, in special Pullman cars. At the latter point they will be transferred to the "Mexico and California Special," composed exclusively of Pullman parlor-smoking, dining, room, drawing-room sleeping, compartment and observation cars, which will be used over the entire trip back to New York. While the best hotels will be used where extended stops are made, the train will be at the constant command of the party.

Round-trip tickets, covering all necessary expenses, $375 from all points on Pennsylvania Railroad except Pittsburg, from which point the rate will be $370.

For further information apply to ticket agents; or address Geo. W. Boyd, Assistant General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia.

Coburn.

Sledding is getting a little thin on the main road.

The real estate agent moved quarters during the cold snap, which he says, is "very unpleasant" when so cold. He is on a strike now and very near came in striking contact with the fortunate man near the tunnel.

The High valley scribe has a good under (standing)

No telling how soon we may have a wedding in our town. Put oil in the lamps so you are ready.

Chas. F. Kerstetter, of Milton, spent Sunday with his parents, Emanuel Kerstetter's.

Misses Lulu Stover and Pearl Kerstetter, two of our pretty young ladies, are spending a few weeks in Lewisburg.

Harter Bros. filed their ice house with ice.

F. A. Hosterman and wife visited friends in the lower end of the valley, on Saturday.

J. W. Kooney, an employe of the P. R. R. of North Bend, was home a few days.

J. J. D. Platt is still suffering with d.opsy.

FOUND—A pair of men's heavy mittens; owner can get same at the post-office.

Millheim.

The horse sale of Gentzel & Beezer, on last Wednesday was well attended. The average price was $125.

Ed. Brown, of State College, was home over Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Sheffer returned to Maucy, Saturday.

W. E. Keen bought a horse at last week's sale. Suppose he will start farming after his school term.

Grant Hoover, the hustling insurance agent, of Bellefonte, registered at the Musser House and took in the show Monday night.

Ammon Snook is hauling fire wood from the mountains; at a distance it appears more like a load of hay than wood as he hauls two cords on a sled.

Mrs. Lizzie Snook and daughter, Lulu, returned from a visit of several months at Altoona.

At Mrs. Alexander's sale on Saturday the hogs brought about 9 cts. lb.

Mr. and M. McCool, of Spring Mills, and Miss Lottie Kiester, of Aaronsburg, were guests of Miss Lizzie Keen, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Doebler have been making use of the sleighing for several weeks.

Ed. Zimmerman, the sawyer at Hublersburg, spent Sunday with his family.

Em'l Bower, the retired farmer, on North street, found employment in removing the snow drifts on said street.

Geo. Royer was taking out ice, but since everybody is supplied, he must follow something else.

J. H. Reifsnnyder and children, spent Sunday at L'Avonia.

Mrs. John P. Condo is on the sick list.

Unionville.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard VanValin, of Jeanette, and Mrs. Clara Baker, of New York City, were called here last week on account of the death of their father, L. B. Barthurst.

George Keatley, of Pittsburg, came home with a broken leg.

John M. Shugart and Mac Laury, of Centre County Bank, came up from Bellefonte on last Friday evening.

The engineer who recently made the "fastest time on record" between Philadelphia and New York, is a brother-in-law of P. J. McDonnell, of this place.

Miss Maud Hoover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hoover, of Pittsburg, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Jesse Fredericks.

The election is over and, politically speaking, we met the enemy and he "sint all ours".

The Friends' quarterly meeting was held at their church here on last Saturday and Sunday and was largely attended by our people as well as many from a distance.

Reunion of the 148th Regiment. (Continued from 1st Page.)

M. Rider, Gatesburg. Reuben Pa ge, Lincon Hall. Jno. Stewart, State college.

Company C. Jno C. Jackson, Tyrone. E. F. Tate, Hagerstown. Christ Laurie, Fillmore. L. H. Osman, State College. J. C. Rumberger, Philipsburg. W. P. Harpster, Houtzdale. Christ Swartz, Bellefonte. Andrew M. Corbin, West Dublin, Pa. Jno. Coble, Linden Hall. A. L. Whitedill, Lemont. Ephram Lytle, Benore. Wm. O. Husy, Warren. John Gray, Julliasburg. David Ross, Port Matilda. James Knox, Fillmore. H. A. Sowers, State College.

Company D. W. B. Crape, Johnstown. Wm. Heberling, Benore. David L. Miller, Pine Grove Mills. Leonard Messinger, Penn Hall. L. D. Kurtz, Millburg. T. D. Stover, Smullton. Nathaniel Brown, Spring Mills. Jno. C. Rote, Axe Mann. George Sweeney, Centre Hall. J. N. Stover, Wells Store. W. Gemmill, Alderwood. C. D. Runkle, Pittsburg. J. A. Cooney, Coburn. David F. Forthey, Bellefonte. David Harshberger, Hublersburg. D. H. Harter, Holtman, Ohio. Chas. F. Spunker, Williamsport. Dr. F. G. Mattern, Millburg. H. C. Campbell, State college.

PATENTS

Conveys and Trade-Marks obtained and all Patent business conducted for MONEY FEEL. OUR OFFICE IS OPPOSITE U. S. PATENT OFFICE and we can secure patent in less time than those secured from Washington. Send model, drawing or photo, with description. We advise, if patentable or not, free of charge. Our fee not due until patent is secured. A PAMPHLET, "How to Obtain Patents," with cost of same in the U. S. and foreign countries sent free. Address, C. A. SNOW & CO. OP. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. 2-14-21

Houserville.

David Wagner sold two fine beeves to Markle Brothers, of State College.

Mrs. Sallie Herkeimer is in a very critical condition having received other injuries beside the broken hip.

Dr. Fisher, of Zion, made a short call here recently a few of the doctors slight-of-hand performances caused Wm. Tibbens and James Clark to imagine themselves hypnotized.

Howard Grove purchased a flock of fine sheep recently.

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

If you haven't a regular, healthy movement of the bowels every day, you're ill or will be. Keep your bowels open, and be well. Purges in the shape of violent physic or pill poison, is dangerous. The smoothest, easiest, most perfect way of keeping the bowels clear and clean is to take

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

EAT 'EM LIKE CANDY Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, No Gripe, Never Sickens, Weakens, or Grips, 25, 50, and 100 cents per box. Write for free sample, and booklet on health.

STERLING REMEDY COMPANY, CHICAGO or NEW YORK.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN

THE NEW GROCERY

THE PIONEER OF LOW PRICES IN BELLEFONTE.

We are at your service and will be pleased to show you goods and quote you prices at any time—no trouble whatever.

Am having a nice trade in SALT FISH. Have a look at them.

Do you like good Bread? Well, I have the stuff that makes it.

GOODS DELIVERED FREE.

E. T. ROAN,
Bishop St. Bellefonte, Pa.

Doing One Thing Well

In the business life it is a case of the survival of the fittest. Hours of toil, planning, studying to understand business more fully and increase the output. No experienced business man would attempt sell a poor article.

WHAT IS IT?

We have for several months been displaying the finest stock of pianos and organs that it has been possible for us to procure. Many homes bear evidence of our increasing business. But we have not reached you. Times are prosperous now. They are helping you to adorn your home. Come in and let us suit an instrument to your taste and finances.

M. C. GEPHART.

STORES AT BELLEFONTE, PA. and MILLHEIM, PA.

Tapestry Brussels, extra heavy, guaranteed fast color, regular 75c. quality, for an introductory price

59c.

Extra heavy Rag Carpet, 4-ply chain well covered, for an introductory price

25c.

Four values that demonstrate our ability to serve you in your carpet wants this spring.

Come to see us. We guarantee to save you money.

Dunlap Velvets, never been known to fade; $1 is the value; for an introductory price

75c.

All-wool Ingrain Carpet, only a few pieces left, full yard wide, 65c. goods at 50c.