

PRINCE IN PHILADELPHIA

Royal Visitor Was Hushed About in Lively Fashion.

WAS CHEERED BY THOUSANDS

Prince Henry Was Deeply Interested in the Revolutionary Relics at Independence Hall—He Inspected Cramps' Shipyard.

Philadelphia, March 11.—On Prince Henry's last day in America it was only fitting that he should visit the birthplace of the nation's freedom. Thrice before he had stolen through the city in the dead of night, and only a few had caught a glimpse of a flying palace on wheels.

The prince's train left Jersey City at 8.20 o'clock, and the special made a fast run across the intervening country. Its distinguished passenger has often declared that he liked speed and lots of action, and he got it. The train had a clear track and almost flew over the 90 miles or so separating the two big cities. The mayor of the city and the reception committee were waiting on the station platform, and when the train had stopped they were immediately ushered into the royal presence. There was a pleasant interchange of greetings. Then between long lines of policemen the city's guest and his suite were escorted to carriages waiting below.

The streets through which the prince passed from the municipal building to Independence Hall were thronged with cheering people, and the right hand of the royal guest was kept constantly in motion acknowledging the welcoming ovations. On the wide plaza in front of the historic old structure stands a statue of George Washington. A roar of applause greeted the action of his royal highness, when he, on alighting, gracefully uncovered before the statue. The prince entered the building and proceeded to the assembly room. He was informed that it was in this room the Declaration of Independence was signed, and he displayed much interest in the colonial and revolutionary relics exhibited in the adjoining room.

The prince was presented with an illustrated album containing a history of Independence Hall. In the corridor of the building ten veterans of the Franco-Prussian war stood ready to greet the prince. He shook hands with each and made inquiry of them as to their regiments and the battles in which they had participated.

The four-mile drive from Independence Hall to Cramps' shipyard, in the northeastern section of the city, was one continuous ovation for the prince and his party. The sidewalks along the entire route were filled with a holiday crowd, and all windows of factories and residences were lined with spectators. Prince Henry was thoroughly at home in the yard, and instead of taking only 45 minutes allowed by the programme to inspect the plant, he consumed an hour and forty minutes in going through the place. In taking his leave of Mr. Cramp, who escorted him through the yard, the prince said: "I could stay here all night."

The prince was first taken into the department where marine engines are built, and from there he was escorted to the battleship Maine, which was launched last summer. Mr. Cramp then took the prince to the Russian battleship Retzjans, which will leave for Russia as soon as the ice in Northern Europe breaks up. The great sea fighter looked pretty, all painted in white, with her sides lined with hundreds of Russian sailors.

Prince Henry and his suite arrived at the Union League about 1 o'clock. The men of affairs were his hosts here, and the regular toasts to the president, the kaiser and the prince were drunk. Prince Henry remained at the Union League until 20 minutes after 3 o'clock. Then with his suite he entered the carriage outside for the last time and was hurriedly driven to the railway station. The royal train pulled out at 3.30 o'clock, and the prince's visit to Philadelphia was a thing of the past.

GIFTS FOR ROOSEVELT

President Diaz Sent Three Pieces of Exquisite Linen.

Washington, March 10.—President Diaz, of Mexico, has sent to President Roosevelt three pieces of exquisitely drawn linen. The gift was made through John Barrett, delegate to the Pan-American Congress. The specimens are considered the most beautiful that have ever come to this country. They consist of a tray cover and two serviettes. The basis was the finest linen. The design worked out by the clever Indians of Guadalajara is more filmy than the finest lace and as delicate as a spider's web.

Lacks "Professional Qualifications."

San Francisco, March 10.—Joseph Hill, gunner on the United States training ship Pensacola, and survivor of the Maine, has received official notification from Washington that he is ineligible for a commission in the United States navy. The notice says that he passed with credit, but that he was lacking in "professional qualifications." Hill thus meets the same fate as Gunner Moran, whose application for a commission was adversely passed upon last year.

Killed by a Runaway Car.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 11.—George Rice, aged 17; Lloyd Briggs, aged 19, and Charles Briggs, aged 17, employed at foot tenders at the West End colliery at Moccasin, were struck by a runaway car on a trestling yesterday. Rice was killed and the Briggs boys so badly injured that it is believed they will die.

CORONATION TRIP OFF

Miss Roosevelt Will Not See King Edward VII Crowned.

Washington, March 8.—Miss Alice Roosevelt will not attend the coronation of King Edward VII next June. While this is not officially announced, it is admitted at the White House to be true. The canceling of Miss Roosevelt's plans to participate in the coronation is said to be the result of the adverse criticism that has come from all parts of the country upon the unofficial announcement of the proposed visit. Many persons did not hesitate to express their displeasure that the daughter of the president of the American republic by attending the coronation of a king, should give sanction to such a form of government.

It was learned last night that another reason why Miss Roosevelt will not attend the coronation of King Edward is because it has been found to be practically impossible for her to go simply as a young American girl traveling privately in the household of Special Ambassador Reid. It was learned that London court circles were considering seriously the question of the status she would occupy in all coronation functions. When Miss Roosevelt's status became a matter of international discussion the president first considered the advisability of canceling the visit, but not until it was found that an invitation to visit the Emperor and Empress of Germany was on the way to America was it decided that in view of the extreme youth of Miss Roosevelt and the international conditions as well as courtesies she would be called on to meet, the English visit and all its delights would have to be relinquished.

Washington, March 10.—Miss Alice Roosevelt, the daughter of the president, with several friends, and accompanied by a maid, left here last night for a visit to General and Mrs. Leonard Wood at Havana, going by rail to Florida. Miss Roosevelt expects to return to Washington the latter part of the month.

CONGRESSMAN POLK'S FUNERAL

William J. Bryan Among Those Who Attended the Services.

Danville, Pa., March 10.—The funeral of Congressman Rufus King Polk Saturday was one of the largest in the history of this city. The committees from the senate and congress arrived in the morning. All morning trains brought delegations from the neighboring towns, and when 1 o'clock arrived, the hour for the funeral, the streets were crowded with mourners, and all stores and factories were closed.

The Rev. Dr. McAtee conducted the services at the house. The honorary pall-bearers were fellow congressmen of Mr. Polk, while workmen who loved their employer carried the coffin. All places of business and all works were closed during the afternoon. William Jennings Bryan stopped off on his way to Bloomsburg to attend the funeral.

700 MEN KILLED IN BATTLE

Colombian General Forced His Way Through Rebels' Lines.

Panama, March 11.—The government General Castro was sent to Agua Dulce last December by the late General Alban to attack the Indian revolutionary chief, General Lorenzo. About this time the revolutionary General Herrera landed an expedition from Tumaco at Tonosi.

General Herrera attacked Agua Dulce with a strong force on February 20. General Castro resisted him for four days, but as he was probably short of ammunition, he then abandoned the town. To do this he had to force his way through the Liberal lines. The government here has positive information that the revolutionists had 700 men killed or wounded during these engagements.

Paid $500,000 For Rare Porcelain.

New York, March 10.—At a price said to have been $500,000, J. Pierpont Morgan has purchased the great Garland collection of porcelains, and they are to remain in this country. For years the Garland collection has been one of the most notable art treasures in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. By connoisseurs it is regarded as possibly the finest in the world. There are many single pieces which would easily bring $50,000 as a first bid. One in particular is the "red hawthorn" vase. It is jet black, with enameled peach blossoms scattered upon it. There is nothing else like it in the world, connoisseurs say.

Death of Bishop Spalding.

Erie, Pa., March 10.—Bishop Spalding, of the Protestant Episcopal Church, of Denver, Colo., died yesterday at the home of his son, Rev. Frank S. Spalding, in this city, of pneumonia, aged 85 years. The latter is seriously ill with typhoid fever, and his venerable father was summoned a week ago. He stood the journey well, but caught a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia on Friday.

Baptized in River Jordan.

Middletown, N. Y., March 10.—Word has reached here that Cornelius Van Ness, the octogenarian millionaire of Port Jervis, formerly of New York, has been baptized in the river Jordan by the Rev. William K. Hall, of Newburgh, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Van Ness sailed on the steamer Celtic for a trip to the Orient, his desire being to gratify an ambition of years to be baptized in the river Jordan.

Smallest House in Jersey Burned.

Plainfield, N. J., March 10.—John Cronin's "Little Dry Goods Box," the smallest dwelling in New Jersey, was burned to the ground Saturday. It was built by himself, and was only 10 by 14 feet in dimensions, and Cronin, his wife and two children occupied it.

EVERY DAY adds to the list of deaths attributed to heart failure. If the truth were told the bulk of these deaths might be written down as due to stomach failure. For it is in the failure of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, that "weak" heart, "weak" lungs, "weak" nerves and other forms of physical deterioration have their beginning. The man whose stomach is sound, who can digest and assimilate the food he eats, and so keep each organ of the body well nourished, is the man who is least liable to collapse under the sudden weakness of some vital organ.

The preservation of health which follows the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, is chiefly due to the fact that it perfectly and permanently cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies the blood and increases the blood supply of the body. Weak people will find in this medicine a sure means of strength.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I was under doctors' care for quite a time," writes Mr. J. F. Kidd, of Farmleysville, Wayne Co., Ky. "They had almost given me up, and my suffering was very great. My pulse was weak, breath short and I had severe pains in back, head and legs. Had palpitation of heart, and for eleven months I was not able to do a day's work. I purchased five bottles of Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and by the time the fifth bottle was gone I was a well man."

The People's Common Sense Medical Advisor, containing 1008 pages and over 700 illustrations is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book bound in paper, or 37 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

MONTGOMERY & CO. MEN'S AND BOYS' OUTFITTERS, BELLEFONTE, PENN'A.

DEAR SIR: This letter is to tell you that we have finished our work of preparation for the new spring season, and to invite you to visit our store and see the new goods. We have, by far, the best stock and assortment we ever had, and you ought to know what we can do in the way of styles and prices before laying out any money for new clothes.

Not every store enjoys our advantages in buying direct from the largest makers in the United States. Our clothes are not made in the ordinary way. The goods are all carefully tested for strength and color; every yard of cloth is steamed and shrunk, not once but twice, before it is cut; every seam is double sewed with heavy silk or linen thread. The linings are tested for wearing quality and all interlinings, paddings and facings are such as only the finest tailors use in their most expensive work. This produces a garment that wears, fits and holds its shape, not merely for a few weeks, but for months and years. A suit of this kind will outwear two ordinary ready-made suits and give you a well dressed appearance as long as it lasts. In cut and style our clothes conform to the best merchant tailor models. The dressy young man can find the latest thing in our store as soon as it is shown in New York.

We offer you these suits and overcoats at the same prices you would have to pay elsewhere for ordinary goods. We are repaid for all it costs us to do this by a constantly growing trade and increasing good will; the loyalty of old customers and the making of new ones. Our finer grades of suits and overcoats are hand-made throughout and guaranteed by the makers who refund the money if everything is not satisfactory.

We sell about everything a man wears—shirts, neckwear, hosiery, underwear, hats, gloves and haberdashery in general. All of the sort that you'll come back again for if you give them a trial. Come to see us. We want you to feel that this is your store and to make yourself at home here. Look about as much as you like; try on some of the new things. Ask questions and compare prices. Purchase when you please. We are here to show the goods and to sell when you are ready to buy.

Yours very truly,
MONTGOMERY & CO.
P. S.—The "Kirschbaum Hand-made" Clothes are the finest men's garments ever seen in this country. Every suit is guaranteed by the makers.
