THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA. MARCH 13, 1902.

CORRESPONDENTS' The late flood was about the most de-DEPARTMENT

Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

erous dwellings along that thoroughtare, of course flooding' the cellars and play-ing havoc with the board walks. Geo. W. Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities-What is Transpiring-Is Your Section Represented?

Boalsburg.

The Reformed congregation have decided to repair their church this summer: as soon as the weather is fit they will begin work.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Heath, of Sandy Ridge, are visiting among friends in this place.

Mrs. Julia Musser, of Pine Grove, spent several days recently with her niece, Mrs. E. A. Fisher.

Ezra Tressler, of Oak Hall, called at the home of Prof. P. H. Meyer, on Sunday.

Charles Dale, one of the prosperous farmers of the Branch, was seen in town on Friday evening.

A sled load of our young people, with Harry Lonebarger as chaperon, took advantage of the good sledding and went to the social held at Sam Glenn's at the Branch, last Friday evening.

S. H. Bailey, one of our wide awake and energetic farmers, attended the monthly meeting of the Grange Fire Insurance Co., which met at Bellefonte last Wednesday. Mr. Bailey is one of the directors of the company.

Elmer Campbell and wife, of Linden Hall, visited among friends here, on Friday, Charles Kuhn and family, of Shingletown, were circulating among friends in this place, on Saturday.

Capt. W. H. Fry, of Pine Grove, was seen passing through our burg, on Saturday.

Messers Fred Weber and James Bryson attended the sale at Houserville, on Saturday, Prof. Musser, principal of the Hublersburg schools, was in town on Saturday looking up his interests for county Supt.

The funeral of Jas. Stuart, on Monday, was largely attended. Many of the old soldiers from the nearby towns were present.

Miss Freda Weiland, one of Cedar Creek's popular young ladies, recently visited her brother, J. M. Weiland, our hustling and obliging coachmaker.

Miss Effie Long visited at Locust Grove last week.

Wash Garbrick, of Walnut Grove, has purchased from Ed. Williams, one of our efficient teachers, the property on Pike street, opposite the Lutheran church.

R. B. Harrison has been on the sick list and therefore his school has been closed for several days.

Messers Wm. and Geo. Stuart who are at present employed in Pittsburg were called home last week on the account of the serious illness of their father who died the same night on which they arrived at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale and son Ralph, of Fairbrook, spent last Saturday at the home of their grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keller. John From, one of the hustling farmers of State College, was seen in town on Saturday. We understand that Mr. From expects to move to Centre Line this spring.

Spring Mills.

turn towards the pike to below the iron bridge, was completely curved, the waters reaching to the steps of the num-office, W. H. Musser's bicycle building and the old farm house now occupied by Major Huss, were also completely surrounded. The employes of Allison's mill were on active duty from 3 o'clock in the morning 'til noon on the pike bridge run-prevent the accumulation of ice and rubbish above the bridge, as the ice came down the stream in large bodies, they broke them up and sent the pieces through under the bridge, thus keeping the channel open. West of the bridge the water swept across the pike in an angry mood, and was within an inch or two of entering the hotel building, of course severing all communications with the village proper. At the ho el were 15 or 20 guests storm stayed and weather eral gentlemen were desirous of visiting the stores, but as the pike was blockaded were unable to do so, 'til W. P. Alexander of the mill made his appearance and solved the problem by playing ferry-man and carried several gentlemen through the angry pool on his back, causing considerable merriment, yet an act highly appreciated. A pile of boards belonging to the Allison's valued at $100 were swept down the stream like chips.

Several other piles were likewise in the move, but were saved by the exertion of his active employes. On the south side of Penn creek the water reached to within an inch of entering both the Reformed and Methodist church buildings, and extended west to and along the road leading to the R. R. station to the new furni-tance below, twisted out of all semblance ber, with the assistance of others, a temporary foot-log bridge has been thrown

The snow storm here on Wednesday last, measured 18 inches in depth. March has indeed come in like a large sized at the old homestead on Saturday next

Sleighing is about over for this winter.

The late heavy fall of snow is fast being converted into slush and muddy pools.

SPRING MILLS NO. 2.

Moving time will soon be here and go out like a very diminutive lamb.

of all the personal property.

there will be lots of it.

across the creek for accommodation of the public.

Last week for two nights Mr.

bound.

Snow and rain was the go here. structive we have ever had in this locali-Last Monday two esteemed ladies from Penns and Sinking creeks were sim-Coburn were welcome visitors at Emanuel Eisenhuth's; call again, the ply angry floods, and tornado like swept everything away in the path of their com-Mrs. has more chickens. bined waters. The creek road from the Highvalley.

Mrs. Elizabeth Styers is at present in the valley visiting her friends, we all wish her a good time.

The real estate agent was seen at Coburn and as lively as ever.

Thomas Keen says if he dou't soon get Dunkle's residence and wall paper eshis mill at Rankeltown he will have no timber to saw, as Allen is already cuttablishment at Willow Grove Park a short distance below the village, was en-tirely surrounded by a raging flood. The store of Howard Rossman, the postting the limbs off the trees and is afraid may affect the trees.

The prop orders are coming in now, and the prop men begin to feel better ; that's what makes the real estate agent so lively I suppose.

The Ingleby scribe is better on definition than the Highvalley scribe ; he said the word wolf, according to the Ingleby ning east and west over Penns creek, to dictionary, means Tom does-never too old to learn.

The Ingleby scribe reports great damage at Ingleby, caused by the flood, last week ; Thomas Keen said it is not correct, as he can't see where the damage was; there was nothing there but two mining planks, and if he is not mistaken, the scribe cut them for stove wood.

The Daily News from Skunk Hollow says, as likely as not Skunk Hollow may trot out a professor ; if such will be the case take the Highvalley scribe's advice get your shoes on before breakfast, so if the compulsion law takes you unawares you are ready if called.

Ruhl had from 25 to 30 guests to enter-tain, every inch of the hotel being oc-cupied. At the height of the flood sev-William Shesley, from Skunk and Lizard Island, is looking for an appoint-ment ; if he don't succeed, he will stock the island with grapes, as he believed he can make more clear money by raising grapes than the Highvalley scribe can by hauling prop timber for miles and wait six months for pay.

> Jess Snyder finished his visit on last Friday and is now ready for the peach trees, he stopped the hog business as he could not find any to be had for nothing. Want a respectable woman to do house vork; must be good looking; no out door work ; water in each room-call or address Lewis Snavely, Coburn.

Thomas Keen says the real estate agent will leave to-morrow to take ture establishment of Smith Bros. and charge of the Pine Hollow log job, seven also completely surrounding the store and dwelling of O. T. Corman. On this or eight miles east of Woodward ; well the Senator is a good boss, the olny thing Castler had to say, he took much road the iron bridge over Sinking creek was swept away and lodged a short disout of the men, otherwise he can't be beat. It is rumored the Ingleby lumber king to a bridge. Through the exertions of will flit on his farm in east end of the Andrew Corman who furnished the timvalley, this week; after everything is stored to its right place, a fastastic parade will take place and the Ingleby scribe will deliver the welcome address, on a black stallion.

Milesburg.

lion and according to the adage, should Robins and black birds are here sing-I notice that the heirs of Mr. and Mrs. ing their morning songs. Michael Tibbens will have a public sale

Wm. Hoover and Geo. R. Hughes vere recent visitors to their uncle James Heverly

Miss Julia Grove arrived home from business trip to New York City and Philadelphia.

A movement against profanity should be inaugurated by the different churches of this place; it would be the proper Mrs. Davis Evans, of Alleghenv, 15 vis. | movement in our burg ; if the christian sting friends and relatives at Farmers people would take hold and reduce the Yarnell.

Miss Tressie Eckley returned home after spending a few days in town. William Fetzer and wife spent a few days at Hoslt hollow, last week.

Daniel Poorman, of Runville, was in our town fixing up things before he resigns his office.

Blain Rockey has gone to Roland were he has secured employment.

In the last week's issue the Yarnell scribe was warned to beware of the Runville newsbag that travels in the sheep skin overcoat. I would advise him to open or deposit his news at the foot of some tree on the way to Yarnell. The news from Yarnell to Runville at the foot of some tree. Both of our small villages were in quietness and peace till of late, the newsbag is known by all the community, all have their eyes on him ford, of this place, is at present laid up by day and dream of him at night, even with pneumonia. if he does resemble the black man.

Our doctor is kept very busy answer-ing all the calls, as there are many peo-Father and mother have I none and it is nobody's business if I am nobody's ple sick. S. L. Strohecker, from this place, and Miss Elsie Confer returned home from Pine Glenn where she had been for a few days. Miss Myrtle Heaton visited friends in our town. Mrs. Ira Confer has improved after an ing about three hours in digging for Mr. Coon, to their great surprise, they found illness of two weeks and is again able to it to be Mr. Woodchuck who had come be in the store as clerk. out to see if winter was soon over. Some of our men employ their time throwing salt on rabbits tails, so that they can catch them.

A sled load of our young folks went down to the church with the intention of singing. "Do" but they were very much dissapointed, so much so that they thought they would go and visit the old "mill dam"

Quite a number of folks attended the debate that was held in the school house on Friday night. It was the last that will present. be held this year under the present teacher, E. S. Stover.

A young man in our town has medicine to sell that will cure a pain in a glass eye in twenty-four hours. Those wishing information apply to -

We advise all young ladies who wish seriously ill last week by what the doctor to learn the seamstress trade to go by the new system, we have a lady in our calls catarrh in the stomach, is slowly town who learned it in three days time. Daniel Byer and Ellis Pounell have returned home after being employed hauling, at Panthur Run.

Howard.

Mrs. Clara Thomas and son, Weber, isited Bellefonte on Saturday.

Sunday.

on March 7th, at 2 o'clock with a com-

Protracted meeting has been in progand day. Dr. O. W. McEntire has had a com-

Irvin Lucas, of Howard twp, has a very desirable property for rent, situated Unionville.

Chief Justice, John M. Keichline and wife, of Belletonte, were recent visitors to our iown.

Mrs. Dr. Fore, of Dakota, Ill., a sister of J. C. Wagner, spent several days at the latter's home last week.

The Harry Hoover property, now occupied by Ellery Spotts, has been purchased by a Tyrone man, who will move here in the spring.

Ellery Spotts has purchased the Id-dings property on Allegheny street and will occupy it in the spring.

Mrs. Jesse Cleaver and family will move to York, Pa., in the early spring, where Miss Bertha has secured a position as teacher and Miss Florence has secured steady employment at her chosen profession, portrait painting. Edgar too, has secured a lucrative position. The Clevers have lived here many years: the young ladies above mentioned are both accomplished artists and all are popular with the people of our town, and it is much to be regretted that they have decided to remove from our midst. Our loss will be York's gain.

Mrs. E. J. Bathurst, widow of the late L. B. Bathurst, has become the owner of the store and store property of said de ceased, and the store will, in future, be conducted under the firm name of B. J. Bathurst & Co., with J. T. Barton as manager.

Clayton Stover will leave for Pittsburg in a few days, where he will take a thorough course of instruction in painting and paper hanging. The young people of our town gave him a happy "send off" by giving him a surprise party on last Lee Wolf, from Selinsgrove, was in Saturday. our burg last week. He is looking up Elwood

Elwood Fisher, who for more than a year, has been a sufferer from stomach troubles, left on last Thursday, in company with his sister Jennie, for Philadelphia, where he has entered the University of Pennsylvania for treatment. It is hoped, by his many friends, that his recovery may be speedy and sure.

One year ago there were signs of ten houses "to let" in our town, with no 'takers", now every house in town is either occupied or rented for spring occupancy, and still the demand is greater than the supply.

Miss Bertha Alexander, who spent several months visiting friends at Bellwood and other places West, returned to her home a few days ago, bright as a new blown rose.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. F. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelves bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, 'I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This Remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquaint-John Wolf, one of our most respected of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Fillmore.

The flood is over also the big snow;

of a man around his building-they are everything but small, and have been noticed as often as four times a week.

Take warning from this, as they have a good idea of who it is, and are onto him, pretty close-we will not mention any

Mrs. Daniel Stine is not improving

James and his pardner found some very rapidly, but we hope for her re-jewelry and if the owner comes forward, proves property, and pays each 25cts, can have the same. The owner is known, but he must prove it is his, as

Ex-sheriff Cronister passed through our town on Monday ; the sheriff drives

a fine team and greatly prides in fine supervisor; I could say, if I wanted to,

but it might not be the right one.

-we hope he soon will.

to his house on Sunday.

other screnade this spring.

Great excitement as to who will be

We are sorry to say our old veteran

David Stiner is not improving very fast

You ought to see Henry Shuey ; I did not know him, till he told me the reason for the change, he says a little girl came

WANTED :--- Some girl that suits mother, so a certain young fellow in our town will not get such letters from the ones that suit him; I think that if mother would have kept quiet, we would have had an-

We have all kinds of improvements in our town, the latest was to get a wakerup in the shape of an alarm clock-it is set for 5 o'clock in the morning, to give warning to fellows that it is time to make

Our protracted meeting that has been

Few girls would rather eat onions than

UREKA

ARNESS

they want nothing that is not theirs.

thing that has been missing, so far.

covery soon.

horses.

tracks.

sold.

be kissed.

Robt. Neff, of Tyrone, visited his par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Neff, over Thomas Sanders, of Howard twp., died plication of diseases. Interment m Schenck's cemetery on Monday, March 9, at 2 p. m. He leaves a widow, three sons and one daughter. He was aged 69 years.

ress here for the past two weeks with several converts.

The bar mill, which is operated by Jenkins Iron Tool Co., is running night along railroad street.

mercial phone placed in his office.

Bierly on last Wednesday, died on Friday morning. Mrs. Daniel Dubbs, one of our aged mothers, of this place, who had been ill for some time died on Friday morning. Interment took place on Monday. Rev.

Rebersburg.

Simon Spangler, from Kansas, who had been present at the soldiers' en-

Mr. Miller's house is being rapidly finished by the plasterers, as first of April is not far distant.

Jacob Heller, for many years one of our most efficient black-smiths in the line of fine horse shoeing, we are sorry to say, is guitting the business, on account

One of Hon. Willis Bierly's sons arrived at the home of Wm. Frank and was laid up with severe attack of black measles, which resulted in his death on Friday morning, buried on Friday even-

Earnest Wolford, son of Henry Wol-

Elmer Miller, from Smullton, were out which they thought was the track of a raccoon, they followed, which led into a hole in the mountain side. After spend-

Sid Krumrine, who had been to Pitts-

The biggest flood on record in Rebers-

L. A. and Reno Walker, who had been

Another deep snow; almost impossible

Howard Krape, our enthusiastic organ

Mrs. Jno. Auman, who had been very

C. J. Crouse and J. N. Meyer made a

The child born at the home of Lowell business trip to Millheim on Saturday.

dealer, was home over Sunday accom-working at Harrisburg, are home at Opossums are plenty in this valley.

the work of enlarging pictures.

hunting last week; coming upon a track,

was visiting relatives and campment,

ing.

friends of this place.

of physical ailments.

burg, is home again.

panied by Mr. Brown.

burg last week.

to travel.

improving.

The patrons of the Rebersburg water ompany at a meeting last week unanmously voted for larger water pipes.

Henry Wolford and Reuben Musser citizens, is at present housed up with rheumatism.

Adam Wolf and Miss Grace Page were married last week.

John Reifsnyder, from Millheim, was in town on Monnay.

Rev. Dubs left last week to attend the annual conference in Lock Haven.

Some of our people are still without water. We hope after the three and four inch pipes are laid our people will be ntly supplie Our ex-supervisor, Andrew Ocker, There is a certain farmer in our village that has noticed a very large track is in our burg fixing up tax accounts.

Wetzel officiating.

That is a step in the right direction.

and families were to Millheim on Saturday.

Zion.

Charles Rockey has returned home again from Pittsburg where he had been employed for some time.

Our merchant, B. A. Noll, has been on the sick list for several weeks, but is recovering slowly.

On account of the inclement weather there has been no society, church or Sunday school for several weeks.

The high water caused the lake to form in Spring twp., near the Walker line; it covers more than a hundred acres and is twenty feet deep at some places ; about fifty wild ducks are swimming on its waters.

Spring will soon be here and sales are in full blast. Several flocks of robins and blue birds have been seen.

There will be quite a few changes made in this vicinity this spring. They will be mentioned in a later issue.

Calvin says he has put in a bid to be Jim Hull's clerk as he knows the place better than any one else; but since he has been beaten he has hired to help Susie to cook. That's right Cal, don't let them back you out.

Houserville.

The sale of Mrs. Herkeimer's was well attended; everything brought a fair price and a few things were at a premium ; chickeus 14 4 cts. per lb., and other things at the same rate.

Rev. A. A. Black took dinner with Chas. Brown, on Sunday and christened the junior Brown Thomas Franklin Wolf Brown.

Miss Rebecca Lutz arrived in town Sunday evening for a ten days' stay.

Mrs. Wm. Sarson returned home after a week's visit with friends at Pine Grove.

Miss Olive Tressler visited at Lemont. on Monday.

The Sunny Hillside ladies circulated among friends in town on last Saturday; they report an enjoyable sleighride over the rough roads.

The large sale of B. F. Hoy's stock and implements Mar. 19.

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville, (N. C. Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by get-ting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I ave not had a rheumatic pain since.' old by Green's Pharmacy.

Mills. H. F. Confer, the head man in the Spring Mills plaining mill, will move to Millheim on the 20 lust .- sorry to loose such a good neighbor. C. J. Finkel, one of our popular merchants, joined the Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Rev. John Hertz on Thursday evening, March 13th, will deliver the anniversary sermon for Centre Castle No. 169, K. G. E., of which he has been a member for many years.

Ino. Smith and daughter, May, spent a couple days at Punxsutawney to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Ellen Hummel; her sickness was pneumonia, she was landlady of the Washington Hotel for more than twenty five years where she gained many friends; she leaves a husband, three daughters and a son to mourn her loss. The funeral was largely attended. Age 62 years.

Tylersville.

The free exibition given by Adam Ruhl with his phonograph, on Friday night, was well attended, and the machine gives good satisfaction. (Collection $2.08,

The Box social given by the P. O. S. of A., of Tylersville, was a success. Everybody enjoyed it, especialy those who were lucky enough to get the box that chance for success. was put up by their own-Oh my dear. How is it Hons?

Mrs. W. D. Kerstetter who was ill for the past few weeks is improving.

Our town looks quite different since

The weather was very bad on Sunday. When the cat is away the mice will play. That is what the red heads say.

Newton Walizer has to open up the moving as he is moving one mile south of Greenburr, close to his father-in-law, Zwintley Kahl. Willis Rishel and Mrs. Elvina Grieb received their chopping mills.

Coburn.

Scott Stover, of Rebersburg, spent Sat-arday at this place among friends and relatives. Peter Kessler, of Rebersburg, was in town, on Saturday looking for farm Jacob Platt, a citizen, died on Wed-nesday afternoon, aged 67 years. David Moyer, of Centre Hall, Was een on our street, on Monday.

N. D. Hosterman and Lizzie Hosterman are on the sick list.

Mrs. Styers left for Patton on Tuesday porning to visit friends.

Chester Kerstetter and wife. lof Lewisourg, were in town Friday to attend the funeral of Samuel Everett.

Rev. Newcommer, of Allentown, will preach in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening.

James Platt expects to leave for Cass, West Va., next Monday; he intends seeking a permanent residence in that olume of profanity on our streets, by so doing would make an impression on some minds and cleanse the tougues of our men and boys. Very often we hear females use some very strong profanity on our streets ; we throw this out as food for thought for our praying people-form yourselves into a company of crusaders against profanity.

Claud W. Smith returned home from Columbus, Ohio, where he was nursing his brother, Alvin, who was confined to his bed with typhoid fever.

Thomas Murray arrived home from York, Pa., visited his daughter, Mrs. Rev. Hipple, bringing one of his daughters home with him, who was attending school at that place.

On Monday morning, at 2 o'clock, Frank Lucas was aroused from his slumber by the ceiling falling in his bed room; the house was on fire; jumping from his bed grabing his coat and bible made his escape from the burning house everything went up in smoke ; the house belonged to Wm. Fisher recently purchased from Philip Crider, at Wingate, it was the farm tenant house. Origin of the fire is not known.

I am not much of a mathematician said the cigarette, but I can add to a man's nervous trouble I can subtract from his physical energy, I can multiply his aches and pains and I can take interest from his work and discount his

Mrs. Dr. S. M. Huff spent Sunday in Loveland and wife

Lovd Fisher had a sled load of young folks to Confer's in Howard twp., on Henry Grieb is getting his house weather | Friday night arriving home at 5 o'clock Saturday morning.

Centre Hall.

Wm. A. Boal will occupy the Clemens ouse at the lower end of town, and Mr. picher moved into the J. J. Arney house on East church street. The erection of a new creamery on the burnt site, will soon be in progress. Th loss was some $4000 by last week's fire. The There are some seven or eight houses not yet rented. Persons desiring a pleasant place to live, will find good opportunities here to purchase or rent. Mr. Sellars is making preparations to nove to his former home and foundry at Oak Hall. Sorry to lose so good a citizen. The lining of coming nuptials, it said, will soon appear on the horizon.

Walter Kerlin will have a short-haul itting, only going across the lot to the esidence occupied by his deceased ather

Abner Alexander and his new wife, make two good people less in our town by occupying the Alexander homestead on the farm at Earlystown.

Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This fact has been fully proven in many thousands of cases. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner are reoicing over the arrival of a brand new baby boy.

Holter Bro's., general merchants, have had a commercial phone placed in their store.

J. F. Pletcher, operator at Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Pletcher.

Mrs. Mary J. Holter, who has been very seriously ill has improved considerably under the treatment of Dr. O. W. McEntire. Quite a lot of movings will take place in our burg, on the first of April. Leroy Leathers now has the honor of being constable of our burg.

Lemont.

About 500 millimeters of snow fell in this vicinity last Wednesday. Jacob Murray, of Pittsburg, is visiting his parents at this place. Elliot Mays returned from Howard on Saturday having been working there for his brother Will for several weeks.

Geo. Meyer, Esq., of the Branch, returned Saturday from an extended tour over the eastern part of the State. Born, March 7th, at the home of MI

Hepler's, another girl. There was quite a little stir in town last Monday when the "Freshies" of Lock Haven with her parents, Sheriff their annual banquet. The Sophs were not exactly on to their plans and about State attempted to go to Sunbury to hold one-third of the Freshman class succeeded in getting away with much difficulty.

The social held at Samuel Glenn's on Friday evening was a success. The games played were of a modern type and the refreshments excellent. The offering was unusually large.

Fred Herman who has been in Al toona, is circulating among friends in this community.

Jack Mitchell says that a fat purse is good thing to lean on.

Transpiring across our future legal in telligence we notice that 'tis cruel how some things in this world are so con versely put. George, asked her father for her hand. He got her father's foot.

Sober.

Benj. Breon was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. U. G. Auman on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Breon, of this place, went to visit her parents at Aarons-burg on Saturday and remained till Sun-

Miss Dora Gentzel took the train for Spring Mills.

Spring Mills. George was rather late going home on Sunday morning ; how is it Katie ? Andrew Zerby is ill at this writing. Look out boys for the near wedding. The sledding is just about all gone. Elmer Walizer took all his household goods to Huntingdon county on Friday. The railroad company has employed two watchmen, they go as far as the water tank, at Walizer's crossing. You will know them by their white hoods. On duty Saturday and Sunday evenings, and through the week, ask the huckster, he lit the match ; how is it Bill ? people came down, among them we noticed C. M. Bower, Beq., and the first man Cal. met was the scribe of High valley. The scribe is very prominent.

Joseph K. Moyer, of Centre Mills, who had been in the Sunny South for some five weeks, returned home last week.

Ira Gramley, we notice, was a friendly person among our people, on last Friday.

Penn Cave.

The warm rays of the sun have almost exterminated the beautiful winter's vision.

The singing class, under the auspices of Prof, Wise is progressing rapidly.

Wallace Rachau left for Ohio Monday. where he expects to spend the summer. We are sorry to see him go but wish him a happy and prosperous season.

Chas. Wise went to Rebersburg last Saturday night. I wonder why?

Wm. Heckman, of Madisonburg, will nove into the house vacated by John Rossman.

Miss Bessie Feidler, of Madisonburg, Sundayed at Benj. Limbert's.

Next Saturday the heirs of the Tib bens estate will have sale at the old homestead, and Saturday, March 29th, John Rossman will have public sale.

Wm. Weaver, Boyd Miller and John Rachau made a business trip to Lock Haven last week.

It is certainly honorable to be so lucky as to be a member of the Grand List; and who would not like to have her name recorded?

Mr. and Mrs. Evans Yearick are reoicing over the arrival of a baby boy. Last Saturday a quilting was held at the home of Benj. Limbert and the gossip and mastication were estimated to have been in a common ratio. going on of late has not been the means of fetching any seekers out. On the 20th is Jas Hney's sale, a lot of fine stock and implements will be Last Saturday night Edwin N----l, of Madisonburg, was seen passing What is the attraction Edwin? by.

Coburn.

Thursday afternoon occurred the death of J. J. D. Platt. He was buried on Sat-urday, services in the Lutheran church at Coburn, conducted by Rev. F. W. Brown. Interment in the cemetery at Millheim. He is survived by his wife and three sons, James and John at h and Joseph, doing military service in the Philip Peter Kessler and wife, of Rebersburg, spent Saturday in our town.

W. E. Hosterman and wife and W. Z W. E. Hosterman and will and W. Z. Hosterman were in town, on Tuesday, to call on their sick brother, Nathan, who is suffering from hemorrhage of the lungs, but at this writing is getting along as well as can be expected; and their sister, Lizzie, who is at this writing lving very low in the grip of that dread disease, consumption On Tuesday some of the Bellefon

The barroom wit loses his prestige hen his money is all spent.