Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Lemont.

The robins and black birds are here in great number, they must certainly be expecting spring. Mr. Rothemel, of Sunbury, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Jacob Bortoff. Mrs. Hopple is visiting with her sister Mrs. James Osman. Some of our boys expect to attend the entertainment at the branch school house on Friday evening. Don't let Hannah find this out Harry. Mrs. Elmer Ross made a brief visit in town last Friday. Miss Finkle Woodring, of Stormstown, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Martz. Mrs. L. S. Bortoff, of Julian, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Dale. William Schreck has improved the appearance of his mill by having a new roof put on it. Mrs. John Thompson spent a few days last week visiting friends in Altoona. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lingle visited in Milesburg last week. Mr. Dale and family, of Bellefonte, visited at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Dale. Miss Miriam Dreese expects to go to the Academy at Bellefonte, this summer. Miss May Getz returned home Wednesday after an extended visit with her friend, Miss Fannie Bunnell, of Milroy. Miss Dennison, of State College, passed through town Friday enroute for Bellefonte. We are sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. James Lenker; we wish her a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lingle, of Milesburg, visited at the home of his brother, Edward, of this place. Dr. Mary Thompson, of Altoona, is spending a few days at the parental home on Main St. James Mitchell, of Virginia, has come home to stay a few weeks with relatives. Owing to the illness of J. F. Shultz, pastor of the United Evangelical church, he was unable to preach for his last Sunday. His son preached instead and delivered a very able sermon. Anyone wishing goods delivered from the hardware can have it delivered free by calling on David Getz, manager of the Wheelbarrow Express. H. F. Evey will transfer his store from its present situation to the store formerly occupied by J. W. Getz.

Wolfs Store.

Another flood on Sunday. The birds of spring have come. C. J. Greninger and family spent last Sunday at Loganton, their former home. W. K. Haines and wife, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday at this place. Rev. Kennelly, of York, was a guest at C. W. Freely's last week. C. J. Weaver will in a few days leave for Pittcairn. Last Friday John Wirt, who lived on the Bowersock farm, packed up his goods and moved to Sugar valley. We are sorry to lose John as a neighbor and wish him lots of happiness in his new home. James Wert vacates Henry W. Wolfe's house this week and goes to Madisonburg. Mr. Wolfe will "batch" again. Mr. Johnson, of Rote, was seen in our midst last week. He stopped with D. B. Weaver. Benj. Beck will move to Madisonburg this week. G. C. Auman wears the belt in our section as the champion bear hunter. About ten days ago several of our old hunters discovered bear tracks across the mountain road and at once started for bruin, but after firing five shots at him and chasing him two days they got discouraged and abandoned the hunt. Mr. Auman the subject of this sketch, with his two dogs, alone, after hunting for only fifteen minutes, brought down Mr. Bruin in Gramley's Gap. It took him about three-fourths of a day to carry his bear home. Now for bear stories.

Mingoville.

Mrs. McMullen who has been ill with complication of diseases, is recovering slowly. The stove mills of this place are putting in full time. D. P. Shamp and little son, Frank, were visiting relatives at this place, last week. Miss Lizzie Hinds, one of our accomplished young ladies, left for Bellefonte, last week. F. W. Shamp and Perry Alters were over to Centre Hall, last Thursday. Mr. Brower, proprietor of the Club House, who had been to Philadelphia on business, returned home. McMullen brothers are getting ready to build a house in the near future. There will be quite a number of movings at this place in the spring. What will Mattie do when H. B. goes away? J. E. Alters transacted business in Bellefonte, on Wednesday. Bewey, little son of Henry Deitrich, ill with membranous croup, is better at this writing. Miss Kate Harpster, of Huhlersburg, visited at the home of her grand-parents, the past week. Vonada Dunkel is all smiles since that girl arrived at his home, he says it is a dishwasher. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This fact has been fully proven in many thousands of cases. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Beulah Bright Orwig has gone to spend a few weeks with her husband in Altoona. Mrs. Minnie Adams and daughter, of State College, spent the greater part of the week with Em. Cronmiller, parents of Mrs. Adams. Mrs. D. H. Lenker and daughter Sue were summoned last week to the sick bed of Mrs. James Lenker, of Lemont. Miss Sarah Haffley has gone to spend a few months with Mr. Meyers near Boalsburg; that, we are sorry to say, takes another of our seamstresses out of town. Mrs. Mary Edwards and son have returned home after having spent a few days pleasantly with friends at Boalsburg. John Krape was to New Berlin to see his brother, who has been sick with bilious fever. Prof. Wise treated his singing class and all others who were present with a comic solo on last Saturday evening. On Saturday evening, we have been informed, will be the last evening of singing, at which time, Prof. Wise's brother has kindly consented to come and help entertain the class and all others present, with some of his choice solos. All should come and hear the music. Clyde Boob has gone to Seanor at which place he is engaged at painting. Luke and Paul Swabb have gone to Pittsburg at which place they are going to run a bakery. Jerry Kline is housed in with an attack of heart trouble. The funeral services of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Sylvis were held on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. W. Brown in the Reformed church.

Hannah.

Mrs. Mary Newman has been on the sick list for the last couple of weeks. Henry Hale, of Julian, visited at the home of J. W. Beckwith last week. Miss Ella Beckwith visited friends at Julian and Milesburg a couple of days recently. P. A. Hoover is at home attending to his farm work, after having worked at Retort for the past few months. Vinton Beckwith is laid up with the grip. Miss Elizabeth Hoover visited her parents at Fillmore, last Saturday and Sunday. A. C. Williams, of Martha, is moving to Sam'l Hoover's farm at this place, this week. A cow that was bought by A. C. Williams, at Sam'l Hoover's sale, gave birth last week to her 4th pair of twins; in all she has given birth to nine calves, and will not be 8 years old till June. H. C. Thompson has bought the property known as the H. P. Downing property here.

Julian.

Mrs. Miller Herman is visiting her father Martin Fleck. Mrs. Mary Austin and daughter Miss Estelle have returned to their home at Julian after spending a few months at Lancaster. Mrs. Linn Bortoff and children are visiting friends at Lemont. Mrs. David Meese and son, of Barnsboro, spent a few days with her mother Mrs. Harbridge. Miss Eva Davis returned home after a few weeks visit with friends at Altoona. The Young Men's Club gave their closing reception and dance in their club room last Saturday night, which was quite a social event for Julian. Guests were present from Bellefonte, Unionville, Martha and Port Matilda. Miss Allie Irwin is visiting her brothers at Bellefonte. Miss Mary Adams is home after spending some time at Tyrone. Mrs. Jacob Frantz, of Port Matilda, spent Tuesday with her mother at this place.

Pine Creek Mills.

The snow is all gone. It seems like summer—robins and blackbirds are here singing their morning songs. Our lumbermen are running full time. W. H. Harter and Ben Coons are buying hogs at 12 cts per lb.—now is the time to sell your hogs, boys. There will be considerable moving around among our people this spring. M. A. Miller and his gang go to town every evening. H. G. Miller and son Cloy are running their mill day and night, and can not fill all the orders. Rain on Sunday all day which caused the creek to raise again. Now is the time to catch fish. We hear the bright whistle of the knitting factory every morning at five o'clock.

Sugar Valley.

Rev. J. A. Dunlap, Ph. D., of Tyrone, will assume charge of the Lutheran parish of Sugar valley the first week in April. Joseph Oyster and David Geisewite have taken the contract to haul lumberman George Breon's lumber to Antea Fort this summer. Charles Lytle has rented his farm to Rufus Sheats, who will take possession of it the 1st of April. Mr. Lytle intends to remove to DuBois. Henry Royer moved his household goods to Nittany valley on Tuesday, saying "good bye" to Sugar valley. A Printer Greatly Surprised. "I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville, (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle of it and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Spring Mills.

Harvey Confer has severed his connection with the Spring Mills Planing mill Co., and will return to Millheim, his former residence. Mr. Confer has won golden opinions from all sorts of people since residing in our village, and all regret to lose such a desirable citizen, a gentleman and a mechanic of his high abilities; of course our loss is a gain to Millheim. Mr. Confer will continue his business of manufacturing porch and stair work, window sash, door frames and all manner of inside work in Millheim, and extends a cordial invitation to all to visit him when in town. His skill in handling work of an artistic character, and the originality of his designs require no special eulogium at this time; while connected with the mill here he manufactured and shipped what was pronounced by able judges, some of the finest finished work ever manufactured in this or any other county. The planing mill here will be dismantled and part of the machinery sold. Saturday evening last, quite a large surprise party was gotten up at the residence of Andrew Corman, the occasion being the anniversary of his birthday. The party was quietly arranged and proved entirely successful in being kept a secret during its preparation. Saturday morning Mr. and Mrs. Corman attended a sale of the Tibbens estate and were detained 'til a late hour in the evening. In the meantime all the guests had arrived and were enjoying themselves in the parlor anxiously awaiting his return. On his approach silence, reigned supreme, but on entering Mr. Corman was almost struck speechless at encountering such a large assemblage of relatives and friends who overwhelmed him with congratulations and merriment. After recovering himself Mr. Corman greeted his guests in his usual cordial manner, remarking that they were all welcome under his roof. The mirth being subdued, all sat down to an elegant supper. The dining room was tastefully arranged for the occasion and the table beautifully decorated with flowers and water lilies, and lavishly furnished with all the delicacies of the season. Mrs. Corman, assisted by her daughter, Miss Anna, and her niece Miss Anna Royer, of Orsville, Ohio, did the honors of the table. After supper music, mirth and hilarity ruled the evening. Mr. Corman was the recipient of quite a large number of useful and valuable presents. At a reasonable hour all the guests retired to their respective homes having been delightfully entertained and wishing Mr. Corman many returns of the day. The following guests were present: Geo. Gentzel and wife, Jno. Hagan and wife, Dr. D. W. Letzel and wife, Wm. Smith and wife, Sam'l Long and wife, Nat'l Brown and wife, Jesse Long and wife, Benj. Ripka and wife, Emanuel Brown and wife, M. Weigley and wife, Mrs. John Kishel, John Smith, Harry Hagan, Grover Gentzel, the Misses Maggie Seitzinger, Carrie Gentzel, May Smith, Sadie Kishel, Grace Richardson, Mamie Weigley, Cora Ripka, Anna Corman, Masters Cleon Phillips, Harry Corman, Jerome Brown and Chas. Corman. The old foot log over Penns creek which was swept away by the ice and high water, previous to the last flood, is being replaced. People are wondering when the bridge over Sinking creek will be built. It is reported that the commissioners stated that we should not expect it too soon—this sounds like about next August.

W. W. Rishel well known here purchased the Washington hotel at Montgomery, Pa. Mr. Rishel is an old hotel man and knows what the traveling community requires. He was landlord of the above hotel for several years. Harry Rahl, of our village, left Monday last for Philadelphia. His return here very soon depends on circumstances.

Fairbrook.

Miss Gertie Keichline spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Driebelbis. Rev. Ralph Illingsworth was home a few days last week. Lovd Dickson spent last Sunday with Frank Black's. Mrs. Rostman and Mrs. Niece were the guests of their father, Amos Koch, last week. John Bressler passed through here last Wednesday with a fine horse purchased from John Driebelbis. On last Tuesday evening the members of the Presbyterian league held a social at J. G. Baileys and they realized $6.60. Milo Campbell passed through here last week with a fine Kemp & Burpee manure spreader. The sale of J. A. Decker on Saturday was well attended, it amounted to $1766. Adam Smith attended J. Morris Kimpert's sale on Friday. Ralph Stover spent Sunday at Fairbrook. Misses Agnes and Bertha Campbell attended the moving of C. B. Hess on Thursday. Some of our sports attended the party at William Beck's on Friday evening and reported having a good time and did not return till we, wee hours. Mr. and Mrs. Amos Koch attended the funeral of Charles Condo. J. W. Fry went to Oak Hall on Wednesday evening to assist Mr. Tresler's moving. D. G. Meek is hauling lumber for his new barn. Don't forget Isaac Gates' sale on Saturday as he has a fine lot of stock and implements. Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. P. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that sold better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This Remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

A deed made in 1787 was entered Monday in the office of the register and recorder of Clinton county.

Fillmore.

Wm. Sowers purchased a fine horse at Kimpert's sale. Willie has a fancy for fine horses. Sunday Rev. Runyon preached his farewell sermon at this place; there was a small turnout on account of the bad weather. There were two certain farmers in Bellefonte on Saturday that did not know what they had got in town, as they offered to give something away. C. E. Longwell is going to run a horseless wagon from this out; he sold his farm, horses and implements to Frank Huntzinger. G. D. Green was in town Saturday. Harry Crust who has been at home on the sick list is able to be around again. Reed Runyon, of Stormstown, spent a few days at the home of C. H. Kephart last week. Several of our people attended the sale of John Rimey at Pleasant Gap on 17th. J. B. Rockey is building a lime pit that will burn about 5000 bushels. Jos. Tressler, one of our implement agents, is working on George Thompson's saw mill, while the other agent is out selling binders and mowers; he has sold two car loads so far this spring. A fellow from our town went to a public sale where a filled bedtick was sold; he was in a sleigh, and did not buy it, for he had no 2-horse sled to bring it home; this fellow did not know he could have emptied the straw out and put the tick in his sleigh. Philip Walker built a new house this spring in which he will fit April 1st. The grain fields look very brown since the snow has gone; they do not look very promising for a crop. Edgar Kelley visited friends at this place Sunday. G. L. Rockey started for Iowa where he has been the past three years. Oh, my, you ought to see the change on a certain young lady's look since that young gentleman came home. There were two fellows at Taylor's moving that surely felt worse after dinner than before from the amount they ate. We will not say who they were but the people at the moving know who they are—I do too.

Fiedler.

Last Monday George Vonada, of Fultzburg, moved into the Denis property on North avenue. The settlement known as Battletown, has changed its name to Lumber City, and has applied for a patent. Officers will be elected soon. Roads are in bad condition from the effects of the recent flood and cost considerable to repair. Sumner Wolf and family were home to attend his father's sale, and help to move. Josiah Shirk, from Bayard, Iowa, is visiting relatives in this neighborhood. The sale of G. W. Wolf was well attended, being the largest sale in Penns valley this year. It was nearly $3000. Wilson Haines moved to the toll gate above Millheim last Thursday. Claude Hinds went to Valparaiso, Ind., where he has entered Dodge's Institute of Telegraphy, as a student. Willie Oyster, of Aaronsburg, has come to make his home at Wm. Hosterman's. Wm. Wolf moved to the postoffice on Thursday and Adam Winters moved on Wolf's farm and is now installed as farmer. Harry Fishburn, of Potters Bank, shook hands with his many friends at this place, last week. Harry used to blacksmith here a few years ago. Clayton Vonada was a very welcome visitor at the home of tax-collector Winklebleck's on last Saturday evening. Boyd Musser and Will Kister left last week to make their home in Ohio, this summer. The stove mill is again in operation after a three week's rest necessitated by the deep snow. Ruth, the little daughter of W. P. Winklebleck, who is teaching the Pine Creek school, had the misfortune to break her leg, while at school, one day last week. Mrs. B. V. Yearick after a stay of several months at J. D. Stover's has gone to her home at Woodward. Warren J. Smith purchased the engine thrashing outfit, and hay bailer at Wolfs sale. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson visited in West Brushvalley over Sunday.

Coburn.

About five o'clock last Thursday afternoon occurred the death of Lizzie A. P. Hosterman, the beautiful and much beloved daughter of T. W. and Rachel Hosterman, being in the grip of that lingering disease consumption, she complained about five months, and had been confined to bed but five days. Suffering intensely from fever the few last days of her life. She bore all patiently, and bravely waited till the Lord called her home. Death came to her simply as an easy sleep. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. H. W. Buck, in the United Eran. church, of which she was a faithful member. Her body was interred in the Woodward cemetery, Cyrus Meyer, Orvis Meyer, Warren Korman and Stuart Harter being pall bearers. She was aged 19 years, 3 months and 24 days, and leaves to mourn their loss her parents, six sisters, viz. Mrs. T. H. Moiz, of Woodward; Mrs. N. B. Shaeffer, of Centre Hall; Mrs. J. W. Waite and Mrs. John Krumrine, of Smethport; Mabel and Bertha at home; four brothers, Warren and William, of near Woodward; and Thomas A., and Nathan, of Coburn, the last named being sick at present. Three sisters and two brothers preceded her to the eternal world, five of them lying side by side and four died within five years. Mrs. W. H. Meyer, of Centre Hall, came down on Monday to attend Lizzie Hosterman's funeral and visit relatives here. Come again Hulda and stay longer. Mr. and Mrs. Krumrine, of Smethport, are now visiting friends in this and Union county. On Saturday our former Justice of Peace, J. P. Garthoff, of Bellefonte, gave our town a pleasant call. Invitations were received announcing the wedding of Miss Mabel Vonada, of Reading, Pa., and formerly made her home in this place.

Colyer.

Joen H. Lee and wife, Emmet Jordan and wife, made a business trip to Bellefonte last Wednesday to conclude the agreement for the Lee home which Jordan bought, and will occupy it on the first of April. G. R. Miess' time is now entirely taken up by attending public sales with his confectionery stand; on Saturday he was to Pine Grove Mills. Last year he sold 30 bushels of peanuts—of this year we will give an account later on. J. S. Housman, Esq., made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week. Mrs. Emmet Jordan was a guest at the home of Squire Housman, on Saturday. Miss Bessie Cooney spent Saturday afternoon at the home of J. H. Moyer's. We are glad to note the improvement of our esteemed friend, Mrs. J. H. Moyer, hope she may soon be numbered with those in perfect health. No wonder we have had such a flood and high waters during this month, caused by the grief of the "Mayor" leaving his mansion, (the little old log cabin) also the grief of some of our young men leaving our community this spring, which causes the shedding of many a tear, by both male and female; but alas, that time will come, and very soon will be, that "parting kiss" and that sweet melodious voice assuring and most familiar, never-to-be-forgotten words of—"Good bye Jake; long do not stay, come back soon to your own chick-a-biddy. Oh! my heart beats so when away you go—? Oh! don't forget your darling." Public roads have been in a terrible condition; our new supervisor has been kept very busy repairing bridges that had been destroyed by the flood. Miss Carrie Lee will make her home with Adam Heckman's for the time being. Our last week's correspondence was sent in a little late being due to the surprise party of which we were waiting to give a brief sketch; we felt sorry not to see all in print on account of want of space, as much honor and praise is due to Mrs. G. E. Ishler and family and Mrs. Mary Ishler, of Tusseyville, and J. N., of this place, for the way they had everything arranged as a complete surprise to the aged Mrs. Julia Ishler, who received many handsome and useful presents; among them were, 4 dresses, 4 aprons ready made, wollen skirt, dress bonnet, cloth cape, canton flannel, muslin, pillow slips, towels, underwear, stockings, tea coffee, rice, sugar, butter, canned fruit jellies, beef, etc., cash $2. John Ishler is highly respected and greatly honored for the good care he is taking of his aged mother, and who also succeeded in arranging this festive affair in such a delightful way and manner.

Rebersburg.

On Monday evening Mr. Krape, who works in the interests of musical instruments, gave an organ recital to a crowded house. Mr. Krape is a very enthusiastic worker. Everyone was pleased with the entertainment. Any church desiring an instrument for church, would do wisely to consult the firm which Mr. Krape represents. As the vocalion is the instrument for churches. Mrs. R. D. Bierly and C. M. Gramly made a business trip to Lock Haven, last week. Dr. Frank, of Millheim, made a vaccinating trip through this place. The smallpox are not as dangerous as some think. The smallpox cases are all getting along nicely. The infant of Charles Moyer, who lately buried his wife, who died of consumption, also died and will be buried at Rebersburg. The child also was a victim of consumption. C. J. Crouse and Jackson Ocker are the boss wood cutters. John Harter, one of our up-to-date merchants, desires to let his patrons know that he is ready to show them the nicest samples in the line of brushes carpets ever exhibited in our town. Prices low. Mrs. Jon. Auman is still on the sick list. The doctors pronounce her ailment is catarrh of the stomach.

Tylersville.

On Saturday M. B. Miller got a notion to go sucker fishing, a thing that he did not do for fifteen years; he fixed up his fishing kit and with plenty of bait he made for the creek and commenced fishing and pretty soon something nibbled at the bait, Frank thought it was time to pull out, and so he commenced to pull and tug with might and main, and pretty soon he landed a sucker that measured seventeen inches and weighed two and one half pounds. Who can beat this please and report. This is a true fish story. The sale of Wm. Greninger was well attended considering the weather. The next thing on the program will be digging garden. It rained all Sunday. The sick are improving. The iron bridge arrived at Tylersville Saturday evening. Some of our boys could hardly wait as they had a notion to get to work on Sunday. Wm. Nicholas is taking up a subscription to teach a term of nine weeks summer school. Rev. Dice preached his farewell sermon on Sunday afternoon.

West Brushvalley.

People don't die yet, spring is coming. The public sale of Mrs. Tibbens dec'd., which was held at Penn Cave, was well attended. Cephas L. Rishel is housed up with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. Domer Orndorf who had the measles is able to be about again. Ed. Ertel, of this place, is housed up with an attack of the measles. H. I. Brian left for Spring Mills, last Monday, where he has secured employment. Miss Jennie B. Bartholomew is visiting friends in Lock Haven. The public sale of Wm. Heckman at Madisonburg was well attended. N. A. Duck left for Clintondale last Monday. The singing class under the auspices of Prof. Wise was brought to a close last Monday evening. Pierce W. Duck left for Snow Shoe one day last week.

Milesburg.

The hose and ladder company are receiving bids for the erection of a two story building, 21x25 ft., with a tower in rear of the council room. Robt. W., age 11 months, infant son of Thomas Shope and wife, died recently of consumption. On a Sunday recently, an aged pair of lovers started for a drive into the country, to breathe the fresh mountain air. With in a short distance of their destination, they were deeply engaged in their future welfare; forgetting themselves, passed their stopping place, driving six miles out of the way before discovering their mistake. They may tell the balance of the story. We have been asked by many about the Order of Liberty connected with the order of the United American Mechanics—their object and purposes. The object of this order is to promote social intercourse and mutual improvement, visit the sick and distressed, perpetuate American principles in harmony and conjunction with the order of United American Mechanics, and to promote the happiness and prosperity of the order in general. It needs no further recommendation than the clause providing for the perpetuation of American principles to make it a welcome institution in the heart of every true American. With "Fidelity, Patriotism and Integrity" inscribed upon its banner, involves all that is good, all that is true, all that is virtuous and all that is patriotic. Its purpose is to teach American born women the necessity of perpetuating American principles by and through organization; its work is in conjunction with the American Mechanics and the Junior American Mechanics, to whom it is auxiliary by adoption.

Ingleby.

Three cars of props left the siding last week. Howard Eisenhuth, of Sober station, was seen at this place last Saturday. G. B. Shaffer, merchant at Coburn, had business at this place last week. T. Keen says he has his boiler ready to haul; he has taken out the fence posts and has other timbers in their place. The Highvalley scribe has received his sheep soil or sourmulle seed of which he intends to raise a large crop, to keep the rabbits and ground-squirrels from starving.
