The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs

—When you move and change your address notify us in time. —There will be very little new building in Bellefonte this summer. —McAlmont & Co., agricultural dealers of Bellefonte, are gradually moving their large stock of goods. —Miss Louise B. Calloway returned last week from New York, where she has been studying voice culture. —Mrs. Nearhood, of Rebersburg, mother of Ed. Nearhood a popular clerk in this place, is paying her son a visit. —Tuesday night, April 22nd, the Logans are going to have the great Howe moving picture show back for a benefit. —W. D. Dukeman moved his household effects to Winburne, Clearfield county on Tuesday, at which place he has a good position in a general store. —The annual Easter ball of the Undines will be given in the Armory on Monday evening, March 31st. That means a good time for all who will attend. —James Chambers, of DuBois, has sold his hotel at that place and will probably locate in Bellefonte. It is part of his plan to secure control of one of the local hotels. —Farmers report cattle and other live stock bringing higher prices than for many years. Ordinary milch cows are selling for $40, and farm horses from $125 to $150. —Bellefonte is filled with strangers, yet the police find nothing to do and sheriff Brungart is having no increase in boarders—the Methodists are here. Our citizens are glad and so are the followers of John Wesley. —Charles Cunio, the Italian fruit dealer who established the fine stand in the Brockerhoff block, has sold his interest in it to Luigi Carpineto and will move to Connettsville, where he has purchased a half interest in a large wholesale fruit establishment. —Our little city has a large increase in population this week, by influx of hundreds of respectable strangers, theologians enough to stock three score and ten institutions, and best of good things to eat filling the air with appetizing odors, as well as hundreds of willing stomachs. —A measuring party will be given in the W. C. T. U. rooms on Tuesday evening, April 1st. It will be for the benefit of the woman's auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church and all who are invited are supposed to take 2cts., for every foot they are tall. This is no "April fool." —The Commonwealth Trust Company, of Harrisburg, will offer the Valentine Furnace property with all their leases, or mines, etc., at public sale, at the Court House in Bellefonte, April 17th, 1902. The result of this sale will likely determine whether the plant will be started again. —Harris B. Heyman has offered a prize of ten dollars to the Freshman or Sophomore class at the Bellefonte High school who shall excel in a rhetorical contest. The contest will take place in May and five will be chosen from the Sophomore and five from the freshman class to compete for the prize. —Charles W. Tripple, formerly agent for the Adams Express company at this place, has accepted an excellent position as traveling salesman for Weikle, Smith & Co., wholesale spice and match dealers, of Philadelphia. This is the firm that handles the entire output of the Pennsylvania Match company. —Communion in the Lutheran church next Sabbath morning and evening. In the morning, preceding communion, confirmations of catechumens and reception of new members. Sermons will be delivered by ministers of the M. E. church in attendance upon conference. Rev. Moses, of Harrisburg, and Rev. Musser, of Carlisle. —Friday evening at the McAlmont limestone quarry, the head driller was preparing to set off a blast and was loading a hole with dynamite. The hole was about fifteen feet deep and while in the act of swabbing it out there was an explosion which drove the stick used clear through the right hand of Kessinger shattering it so that it is feared it will have to be amputated at the wrist. Kessinger is about 30 years of age and has a wife and two children depending upon him for support. —A pretty and instructive entertainment will be given in the Lutheran church of this place on Sabbath evening, April 13, by the Sabbath school, in the audience room. The main feature will be an exhibition of the Twelve Crosses, with an explanation of their meaning. In addition there will be vocal music accompanied by organ and piano, recitations, etc. The entertainment throughout will be of a fine order. Admission free; a silver collection will be taken for benefit of the school. —Howe's Moving Pictures are alright. —Whither are you moving this season. —Miss Maize Graham is visiting friends in Altoona. —After Conference the next sensation will be the murder trial. —Colonial Ties the newest thing in Ladies' slippers. Yeager & Davis. —Miller's tin store has moved to their new room, across Allegheny street. —Ex-postmaster Kennedy, of State College, was a pleasant caller on Monday. —Boys' clothing—more styles, better made and fine qualities—Sim The Clothier. —Ensign McIntire returned from Buffalo accompanied by a lieutenant who is an excellent singer. —Mrs. George Young and Mrs. Ramsey, of Jersey Shore, are attending conference here this week. —Don one of our new shape hats for Easter you may be assured of its correctness and quality—Sim The Clothier. —Miss Anna McCoy, a student at Bryn Mawr, is spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy. —G. W. Rumberger, of Fleming, was in town bright and early Monday morning and reports a mad dog scare in that community. —One of the latest Doremus Cancellation machines was placed in the Post-office at this place. It is a fine piece of workmanship. —Jacob Runkle says it is a mistake that he is going to move to Youngstown, Ohio, where two of his sons now have employment. —The appearance of smallpox in the county has made business good for physicians as vaccination is becoming quite popular. —Charles McCafferty, of Washington, D. C., arrived in town last week. A mining proposition in South Dakota is interesting him. —General Taylor, of Lewistown, Past Commander of the State department Grand Army of the Republic, was a Bellefonte visitor Monday. —Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, who have resided at Mt. Pleasant, Pa., for sometime past, are moving back to their former home in this place. —Harry Johnson, an electrician for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at Pittsburg, visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson, over Sunday. —Will Reatick, who is employed in a large Carbide works at Niagara Falls, arrived home Friday evening for a two weeks' visit with his parents. —The widow of ex-Commissioner H. A. Mingle, of Aaronsburg, mother of Albert Mingle, of this place, is quite ill—she has passed her 80th year. —Mrs. Maurice Yeager and her two children, Fred and Margaret, left Saturday for a two weeks visit with her cousin, Miss Mary Darby, of Baltimore, Md. —J. G. Bailey, of Ferguson township, was a Bellefonte visitor Friday to announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for County Commissioner. —The newly re-organized Bellefonte Club have rented the house on Spring street now occupied by Dr. John Schring and will move in soon after the 1st of April. —Next Sabbath most of the pulpits in town will be filled by Methodist ministers from abroad attending conference, and some able and strong sermons will be preached. —The United Brethren congregation of this place, in addition to building a neat parsonage will enlarge the audience room of their church by an extension to the west of the church. —Joseph Rhoads, of Tacony, Pa., supervisor of the Amboy and New York Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, spent Monday in Bellefonte with his mother, Mrs. Maria D. Rhoads. —Since the insurance companies have put up the rates over 25 per cent, there is lots of kicking. It is a heavy burden on most people, and all that is left is either to pay the amount or do without. —It has been announced that the firm of Reeder & Quigley, composed of Col. Wilbur F. Reeder and H. C. Quigley, Esq., have dissolved partnership, the same to go into effect on April 1st, 1902. —If it's an Easter you want we'll show you more styles than you'll see in all Bellefonte's furnishing goods stores combined. Its a broad assertion to make—just measure us up to it—Sim The Clothier. —Wm. F. Smith and John Kerstetter, of Millheim, transacted business in town, on Saturday; Mr. Kerstetter was badly injured at Pittsburg last fall and is mending up but his locomotion is still that of a crippled man. —Regimental appointments announced by Colonel Elder, of the Fifth Regiment, N. G. P., include Boyd A. Musser, of Bellefonte, to be regimental commissary with rank of first lieutenant and R. C. Daley, of Romola, to be quartermaster sergeant. —While at work in the American Lime & Lime Stone Company's quarry along the Milesburg pike, Friday afternoon a large stone rolled down from the side of the quarry striking Robert V. Miller on the right foot bruising it so that he cannot work for several days.

—Next Sunday will be Easter. —Andy Knisely, of Shamokin, is visiting his parents here. —Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook are visiting friends at Williamsport. —A full line of Ladies' and gent's Oxford all new. Yeager & Davis. —Irwin Gettig the butcher moved his family Monday to Pleasant Gap. —Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Graham returned home Monday evening from their wedding tour. Are you a regular subscriber to the Centre Democrat? Pay $1 in advance and get it for the coming year. —Ezra P. Holderman left Monday evening for Erie, Pa., where he has accepted a position in a large mill. —Messrs. Harvey Benner and H. C. Baney, both of Atlantic City, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday to transact business, both are looking well. —Jay Woodcock, of Scranton, a graduate of the Drew Theological Seminary at Madison, N. J., is attending Conference. He is a member of the class of candidates for admission on trial to the Methodist ministry. —Tuesday, March 25, is known as fruit day among fruit growers. As all the conditions were favorable, a great yield of fruit is predicted next autumn, unless this sign should fail. Groundhog day was a great success. —Mrs. W. F. Cobick and children, formerly of this place, arrived this week at Youngdale, Clinton county, where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Cobick's mother. Mr. Cobick, whose health is much improved, will remain at El Paso. —Dr. J. M. Lock purchased the building on Allegheny street, occupied by the Y. M. C. A.; price paid was $2800. That organization holds a lease on the property for another year, to April 1903, which will give ample time to secure a new location. It is the Dr's intention to locate permanently at that place. —On Saturday afternoon as the local freight from Sunbury was coming around a sharp curve at Pleasant Gap, the caboose left the track and toppled over an embankment fifteen feet high. Mr. Underwood jumped, but was caught in the rolling caboose and sustained severe injuries to his back. The caboose afterwards caught fire and was partly destroyed. —A representative of the Lemont Marble and Granite works, while in town the other day, called at our office and informed us the proprietors, J. B. Maves & Son, are offering something very fine and entirely new in design in monuments. Persons expecting to purchase monuments will do well to call on this firm—car fare and traveling expense paid to purchasers. —H. W. Gibson, General Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Lancaster, Pa., paid Bellefonte a visit over Sunday and assisted in various meetings at the Y. M. C. A. M. E. church and the Salvation Army. Monday evening he delivered an interesting address to parents on "The Boy Problem" in the Presbyterian chapel. He is a fine vocalist and entertaining talker. —All persons who admire fine music should keep in mind the fact that there will be a rare treat in store for all who will attend the entertainment to be given on Thursday, April 3rd, under the direction of Mrs. Bonbright, in the Presbyterian church at this place. A copy of the programme was submitted to us, just as we were closing the forms for this issue and did not have time to give the same space. It is made up of some of the choicest selections by musicians of note from Bellefonte and other cities, and will be an opportunity that should be appreciated by all who like good music. Thursday of next week is the date. —J. T. Barton, of Fleming, is one of the many republicans in the county who can't enjoy good health unless he reads the Centre Democrat regularly, and for that reason came in on Wednesday to make us happy. He is now permanently located at that place where he has purchased the mercantile establishment of the L. B. Bathurst estate and will continue the same, only on a larger scale than formerly, his line of goods being staple groceries, tin ware, confectionery, fruit, tobacco, and in connection will conduct an ice cream parlor. Joe is a good business man and is at home in the store business, at which we hope he will accumulate an abundance of worldly goods and at the same time not forget the other side of life. —Gottlieb Haag can be seen these nice spring days at work on his garden on Bishop street and already has nice onions growing and other seeds planted. There are few people who can show up as fine a garden as just our friend Mr. Haag and it is one of his pastimes to have vegetables on hand before other people know anything about it. Thus far there is only one man in the community who got the bulge on Mr. Haag and it happened last summer when he was so proud of an immense tomato that weighed a pound and a quarter. His neighbor, Landlord Newcomer, is also a gardner and had a brag tomato that he nursed for weeks just to beat anyone else and kept it quiet until it weighed four ounces more than Mr. Haag's and then had the laugh. This year the fellow that gets the biggest tomato will have to watch his business. They are eyeing one another.

—Walkover shoes for men at Yeager & Davis. —Don't let everybody make a fool of you next Tuesday. —Remember the Undine ball on Monday evening in the Armory. —The "House that Jack Built" at the Methodist church to morrow evening. —L. C. Irvin, the stationer, has returned from a business trip to North Carolina. —Our delinquents are again reminded that April 1st will soon be here—they know what we mean. —Swallow appears to be the most prominent member of Conference. A plucky fighter is always admired. —Merchant W. Galer Morrison, of Roland, was in town Wednesday looking after business affairs. —The Court House loungers have left the interior department and moved out into the open for the Spring campaign. —Spring suckers are being caught along Spring Creek. The other kind were caught about town off and on all winter. —Go to Miss Magill's public sale of household furniture, beds, bedding, etc., etc., on Saturday morning, March 29th, sale beginning at 10 o'clock. House opposite Y. M. C. A. building. —Mrs. McGill closed her Allegheny street boarding house on Monday. Her boarders have located elsewhere as follows: John C. Miller and son Charles will take apartments with Mrs. Mary Johnston, on Linn street. Dr. H. W. Tate, the dentist, will take up quarters with Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoover, on Spring street, next to the Presbyterian church. Frank H. Gamel has secured boarding with Mrs. Louise Harris on Allegheny street. C. M. Parrish is at the Brockerhoff house. —For the accommodation of persons desiring to attend the Sabbath exercise of the M. E. Conference, the Bellefonte Central R. R. Co. will run a special train from points on their line, leaving Pine Grove Mills at 7:30 a. m.; State College, 8 a. m.; Scottdale and Graysville, 8:20 a. m., arriving at Bellefonte about 9:15 a. m. Returning, leave Bellefonte after the evening exercises, about 9:30 p. m. Single fare for round trip, no fare less than 15 cts.

Silly Stories. It is astonishing how silly stories will be invented and be believed by the credulous. Here is one referred to by the Loganton Journal: "The report that one of the smallpox patients at Rebersburg had broken out of quarantine on Saturday and ran across the mountain to Tyersville screaming at the top of his voice for help is false. Don't believe it." Here is another: The other day the question was asked the Centre Democrat whether there was any truth in the story from Kansas, that a child had been born out there, which, when three weeks old, began to talk and prophesied that there would be six years of famine in Kansas, in consequence of which prophesy the farmers of that state were selling out by scores and leaving the state. The Kansas baby story was too silly to be printed in the Democrat, and we only make this allusion to it to show that some people believe anything that is unnatural and out of reason if set afloat. Licenses Disposed. This week the court took up the applications for liquor licenses that had been held over, and on Tuesday they were again considered. The application at Old Fort, in Potter township where two parties applied, was settled by Mr. Shaffer the former landlord withdrawing and Isaac Shawver, the new proprietor, was awarded license. The other applications that had been held over: J. I. DeLong, Eagleville; Charles P. Reese, Boggs township; Aloozza Grove, Moshannon; and Robert Hass, brewers license in Benner twp., were all refused. This leaves the number of licenses in the county about the same as formerly. Elk for Otzinochson Park. A herd of seventeen elk are expected to arrive in Lock Haven within a few days from Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The elk on their arrival here will be placed in the big game preserve of the Otzinochson Rod and Gun club at the head waters of Rattlesnake Run. Frank Peterson, a ranchman, and guide, of Wyoming, is in charge of the herd. The elk were captured two years ago in the snow. There are now about 200 deer in the club grounds. Rev. Mr. Hughes' Son Succeeds Him. After having served as principal of the Bellefonte academy for more than 40 years, Rev. James P. Hughes a few days ago tendered his resignation and at a full meeting of the board of trustees of the institution a few days ago was accepted and the former principal's son, Prof. James R. Hughes, was elected to the principalship. Rev. Hughes will remain with the academy as a professor. "SCHOOL AND FIRESIDE," published by A. L. Barger, Baltimore, is a splendid literary magazine with a variety of departments to make it a welcome visitor in any home. One swallow may not make a summer, but a grasshopper can make a spring.

CONSTIPATION "I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; each was my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and if I was rich I would give $1000 for each movement. It is such a relief." AVLENER L. HUNT, 180 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.
