

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Rebersburg.

Mrs. John Ocker left last Tuesday for Bellefonte to visit her son Forest. Prof. Henry Meyer and Thos. Royer, made a short business trip to Bellefonte Saturday.

On Wednesday Prof. Dubs left for his new field of pastoral labor. We hope that his work will be crowned with success.

Some of our early farmers thought that they could plough, but after they had made a few rounds in the field they soon changed their minds and unhitched and went home.

George Wolford, who had been a farmer for many years at the east end of our valley, moved into our burg last Tuesday.

Wm. Lambert, who moved to Madisonburg last fall, again moved back to our burg last Thursday.

Supervisor John Ziegler is beginning to repair the public roads. No doubt Mr. Ziegler will make good roads for the people.

Herb Smull, of Smulton, moved into our burg on last Monday.

A quiet wedding took place in our burg last Wednesday eve, Mr. Larry, of near Tylersville, and Miss Tammie Bowersox, of our burg, were married by Rev. Buck. May their future be crowned with a long and happy life.

We understand that R. D. Bierly sold one of his fine horses.

The Easter services, given by the U. Rv. church on Sunday eve, was a grand success. The crowded house went away well pleased. It would be a great blessing would every church observe in a special way Easter Sunday.

Mr. Esterline, of Centre Mills, moved on his brother's farm near Loganton.

REBERSBURG, NO. 2. Smallpox is gradually subsiding, all the patients are convalescing.

Schools are again closed, with another year's work on record. Everything seems to have moved along smoothly between teachers and pupils. The work done seems satisfactory to all. The attendance was not what it would have been had it not been for the many epidemics invading our community.

Under the auspices of Prof. Morris the schools of our place are proud of the fact that they have raised funds and secured a library of 165 choice volumes. Thanks to Prof. Morris.

T. A. Auman, we understand, will teach a term of select school this spring, beginning on April 21. All who desire to send their children would do well to see Mr. Auman personally on terms.

Our water directors were busy testing the hydrants through this town last week and found many in leaky condition.

By what we can learn, there will be evangelistic services held in the Lutheran church, beginning April 6.

Supt. Gramley made an electioneering trip last week.

Mrs. Jasper Brungart is on the sick list.

Messrs. O. C. Frank and V. I. Walker are home from Susquehanna University on their Easter vacation. Both gentlemen are making a good record in their work.

Dwight Wolf is home from Lewisburg where he is attending Keller's business institute.

C. M. Bierly, who had been attending Keller's business college at Lewisburg for the past two years, came home on Thursday, having completed his course in business, shorthand and typewriting, with credit to himself and honor to the institute.

Ammon Strayer made a trip through our town, delivering wall paper. He has a large supply on hand.

Wolfs Store.

J. R. Wolf, of Bellwood, is in our midst looking after the interests of his store room and other property here.

Wolf's Store is now entirely without a store, and all indications are that we will soon have no postoffice. Mr. Freeby having resigned and there being no applicant, the department will probably discontinue the office.

Our farmers are beginning to plow and getting ready for spring sowing.

The Ev. Sunday school will reopen next Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Noah Fehi, who for the last two years made his home with Cyrus Ziegler, went to Madisonburg last week to work for J. E. Miller. We are sorry to lose Noah in the community but Mr. Miller will find him an honest, industrious and obliging young man.

W. H. Ziegler is in Sugar valley this week building wire fences.

Our public school closed last Friday.

Eli Wolfe and Mrs. Wm. Wolfe, of Loganton, spent a day last week at the home of Cyrus Ziegler.

Indications are for an abundant fruit crop in this section.

Having a Run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and closing time at night on Jan. 25th, 1901, A. P. Clark, druggist, Glade Springs, Va., sold twelve bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says, "I never handled a medicine that did better or gave better satisfaction to my customers." This Remedy has been in general use in Virginia for many years, and the people there are well acquainted with its excellent qualities. Many of them have testified to the remarkable cures which it has effected. When you need a good, reliable medicine for a cough or cold or attack of the grip, use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you are certain to be more than pleased with the quick cure which it affords. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Madisonburg.

April fool. Were you one? Miss Ida Fisher, an accomplished young lady of Nitany, was the guest of friends here on Sunday.

Farmers are already busy preparing their ground for the spring seeding. The unusually fine weather has greatly encouraged early sowing.

One day last week as Emanuel Vonada, son of Henry Vonada, was on the way to town on horse back the horse for some reason became unmanageable, threw its young rider to the ground and proceeded at break neck speed down the road until caught by Ed. Noll. Emanuel escaped with a few slight scratches.

The Spring term of select school will open on Monday, April 14, under the direction of Prof. Hosterman, of Spring Mills. The fact that Prof. Hosterman is one of the ablest instructors in the county and that excellent boarding can be secured at reasonable rates, should make this a very desirable location for all those who intend to prepare for teaching.

The grain fields in this end of the county look very promising and farmers have every occasion to look forward to an excellent harvest.

Smallpox! Smallpox! Everybody is talking about it and some seem to be all wrought up about it. Some argue that the whole town ought to be quarantined while others earnestly believe that the telephone wires ought to be cut to prevent the germs from getting an entrance to town. One thing is certain, it gives some of our petty officers an opportunity to show their authority which is no small matter with some. The treatment received by our mail clerk is a fitting example.

W. E. Keller bought himself an up-to-date driver at the sale in Millheim one day last week.

Miss Mabel Vonada is reported on the sick list.

R. G. Hockman, K. A. Miller and Ed. Noll left on Monday morning for Clearfield where they have secured employment in the woods.

Russell Warthington, of Little Sugar valley, spent Sunday at the home of Elias Miller. Russell there must be some attraction.

Some of our sidewalks are in a miserable condition, in fact in some places there are none at all which makes traveling in wet weather very difficult on account of the mud.

On these balmy spring days if you have nothing else to do go a fishing before you listen to all the rumors concerning smallpox. This lying should be stopped.

Zion.

All says he doesn't like to teach the Irish school as well as Zion, as there are no big girls for him to admire. How about it?

Frank G., with a great deal of care you may raise a fine mustache in a year or so.

Mrs. Catharine Miller, an aged lady of our vicinity, passed away on Thursday morning of old age. Interment at this place on Saturday forenoon.

The angel of death has again visited the home of John Bilger and has taken from their midst their daughter, Miss Sally, who has been ill for some time.

James Hal, we notice, has left the farm for a quieter life in the town.

Fairy says she just loves to dance if she has the right fellow and not a married man.

We hope the people of Zion will have a rest since the society has broken up.

Jermiah Yearick and daughter and Miss Mary Shaffer, from Nebraska, are visiting among their friends here.

Rev. Young, of California, preached last Sunday in the Lutheran churches of Zion and Snydertown.

The sales are almost over and the people are busy at their spring work.

Penn Hall.

Already the ladies are thinking about the spring house cleaning.

Mrs. L. E. Musser, after spending a few days at Brush valley with her mother Mrs. Sam'l Wise, returned home last week.

John Dunlap, of Spring twp., was in town the latter part of last week, looking after his candidacy for commissioner.

James Roush and family, of Coburn, spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

Nelson Wert and wife, of Aaronsburg, spent Sunday at the home of Lewis Rossmann.

T. B. Motz, of Coburn, transacted business in town on Monday.

Mrs. F. M. Fisher is housed up with a gold.

The Reformed Sunday school will reorganize on Sunday. Everybody is invited to come.

James Keller, of Centre Hall, is at present visiting his daughter Mrs. F. M. Fisher.

Ingleby.

Easter Sunday was well blessed with eggs at this place.

Jas. L. Eisenhuth and Miss Jennie Grumbing, both of this place, will leave for Seanoor, Somerset county, on Monday.

The grain fields look favorable but the sourmuzzle is a failure at Ingleby.

T. O. Keen is in the logging business at present.

John Mark and wife, of Poe Mills, were welcome visitors at W. W. Koonsman, on Sunday.

J. M. Barker is nursing a sore eye.

J. T. Eisenhuth, of Linden Hall, paid the Eisenhuth boys a visit last week.

David Raymond is able to work again.

The Highvalley scribe was at this place on his bay looking up items; and he will put his gray on exhibition next week. 25cts admission.

Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This fact has been fully proven in many thousands of cases. Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Tylersville.

The board walk between Mr. Wolfe and Mr. Miller's house need repairs.

The box social which was given for the benefit of V. A. Shreckengast was a success. Many thanks to everybody who helped him along.

The iron bridge at this place is completed, and everybody rejoices.

Can any one tell what makes C. G. all smiles?

Miss Elsie Grieb was visiting her friend, Miss Rose Ruhl, on Saturday night.

Announcement:—communion in the morning by Rev. Wetzel, preaching in the afternoon by Rev. Baumgardner; prayer meeting in the evening.

There was no school in the grammar school for the past few days on account of the teacher's illness, W. D. Kerstetter.

Mrs. Irvin Shreekeangst, of Pittsburg, is visiting at this place.

Amelia Spangler moved into Phil Shaw's house this spring.

A good many of our young folks attended the Easter services at Booneville in the Lutheran church.

On Sunday and Monday the weather was a little winter like.

Scott Stover, of Rebersburg, passed through town on Monday.

I guess, I. H. made his last appearance on Saturday night.

Those on the sick list are: Mrs. Reuben McKee, little Florence McKee, W. D. Kerstetter.

W. H. it is not very safe to hide in the bushes on Sunday when you take a walk, but it is all the same; the people see you go it all the same.

A good many were fooled on the first of April.

Spring Mills.

Merchant C. Long has purchased the entire outfit of the Spring Mills planing mill, and has added some new machinery and made several other improvements. The working force has also been increased. Mr. Long very wisely retains H. P. Confer as general manager. The plant will now be operated to its utmost capacity.

H. C. Robinson, formerly one of our prominent merchants, being unable to rent or purchase a suitable residence in our village, moved to Pa. Furnace, on Tuesday last week.

Our fishermen are anxiously waiting for the trout season to open. The concave shores of Penns Creek are now dotted with fishermen trying to catch anything in the fish line, but it being a trifle previous the catch is very light.

The smallpox scare from the Millheim cases is fast disappearing.

Geo. W. Dunkle, the reliable wallpaper dealer, has just received a splendid line of spring styles. The designs are beautiful even in the lower grades and are sold at a remarkably low figure.

SPRING MILLS NO. 2. The new foot bridge is finished, but is too narrow by two feet.

Elias Shaffer, the lumberman of Evert, Bedford county, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Jacob Hazel.

Edward Ruhl, the village landlord, is housed up with a severe cold.

Hiram Darst sold his farm near Farmers Mills last week to Adam Barges, of near Coburn, for a consideration of $6,500.

Prof. Ziegler spent a couple days at Milroy where he expects to have a term of music school.

Houserville.

Jonas E. Wagner is spending his Easter vacation at the home of his parents at this place.

The Easter snow arrived in due time giving the landscape the appearance of winter.

The farmers are busily engaged repairing the damage done by the recent floods.

David Houser is spending his spare time in buying, selling and exchanging horses.

Samuel Wirtz has secured the service of Mrs. Lizzie Confer as housekeeper for the ensuing year.

Did you meet any April fools, on Tuesday?

Frederick Houser and son, Emanuel, transacted business in Bellefonte, on Monday.

G. S. Keller is about ready to begin operation in the woolen mill.

Pine Creek Mills.

A number of movings will be made around here, we will lose some good neighbors, but we hope good ones to come in their places.

John Whitmyer can eat eighteen eggs at breakfast; who can beat it?

Charley Grim shipped a car load of cows last week.

Farming hands are very scarce in this locality; some of the farmers have not secured hirelings yet.

John Whitmyer and family were guests at J. B. Rishel's Sunday.

Highvalley scribe is doing a big business; he pays his bills before they are due.

Bill Harter is an early man, he hauls lime when other people sleep.

Meyer & Vanado Lumber Co. are getting out timber and sawing every day, Koy is helping too.

Pleasant Gap.

The Misses Maggie Mulfinger, Mary and Mable Irvin, of State College, were visiting their respective homes in this place last week.

The Blind Trio Concert Co. played in the M. E. church Friday of last week, and had a fairly good house for the night.

Rev. Young, formerly of this place, preached in the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Preaching service was held in the Lutheran church Sunday at 10:30.

Wm. Corl made an improvement in his house by re-painting; and Thomas Lonce and Mary Dolan are also making improvements.

The public schools of this place will close near about the 15th inst.

Moshannon.

The next day it snowed (after Easter) Well, the license court has met, and it is decided that we must put our unnatural thirst away for another year and become easy victims of typhoid fever and the deadly rattler. It seemeth to be for the best, but it is "tuff," ya verily.

Brant White, of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting at A. L. Grove's and is entertaining the people of this place with the violin. Mr. White is one of the ablest performers on the violin that the writer has ever heard.

Harry Yeager expects to leave for the northern part of the state in a few days.

Messrs. Bowes and Confer are re-roofing their houses. The work is being done by James Lucas and Henry Kech.

James Culver spent Sunday with his family in this place. Mr. Culver is employed at Winburn.

John Dougherty is studying law at the present time. John is a bright boy and, judging by the frequency of the recitations, he will soon buy a legal certificate.

Thomas Bitner, operator at Winburn, visited at Mrs. M. H. Rankins last week.

Edward Shannon, our efficient overseer, took a Hungarian boy to the Lock Haven hospital, last week.

James Gleason, of Houtzdale, was seen on our streets the past few days.

James Flanigan tells us that beef took a sudden jump the other day. There should be money in raising beef cattle.

There are enough of coal cars moved on the B. C. R. R. each year, that if put in one train, it would reach from Philadelphia to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Among those who attended the M. E. conference at Bellefonte from this place are: Misses Carrie and Edith Lucas and Simeon Hazard.

J. F. Lucas has been suffering with a severe cold for the past week.

Some of our Grammar school pupils took the examination at Snow Shoe, on Saturday.

Roy Confer went to Karthaus on Saturday, or wanted to go, and was prevented from going.

Dr. Cramer's full-blooded, spotted English, stumped-tailed fox terrier is growing very rapidly. He may become a dog yet.

Rev. Forest preached in the M. E. church, on Sunday afternoon.

Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wibly and daughter, of State College, were in town on Sunday.

Mrs. Loeberger and Mrs. John Weber were to Linden Hall to assist Mrs. Ed. Meyer with moving from Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Etters were guests of their son Clayton, on Sunday.

Mrs. Ross Lower entertained her mother and sisters, Mrs. Thos. Gramly and Misses Stella, Grace and Donna Gramly, over Sunday. They left Tuesday morning for Altoona where they will make their future home.

Miss Gertrude Homan is visiting among Ferguson township friends.

Miss Izora Rupp spent last week at Henry Homan's.

Charles Klime and Miss Lillie Dale, of Dales Summit, and Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Dale, of Houserville, were Sunday guests at Sunny Hillside.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Smith spent last Thursday at the home of A. J. Tate.

The primary school, taught by E. K. Smith, closed on Tuesday and the high school taught by E. H. Williams, closed on Friday. The winter term was very successful and the teachers deserve the praise of the citizens.

Sheriff Brungart was in town on Thursday morning.

E. B. Peters transacted business in Bellefonte, on Monday.

John Reeser, of Snow Shoe, was in town last week buying cattle.

George Kaup, of Bellefonte, and Reuben Kaup, of Axe Mann, were in town Thursday repairing fences wrecked by the flood for Mrs. Wm. Kaup.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Stamm, of Altoona, are visiting among friends in this vicinity.

Hublersburg.

Tuesday was a very blistery moving day.

Mrs. Holloway Hoy was visiting friends at Pleasant Gap, one day last week.

Rev. Price, the new pastor of the United Evangelical church, preached a very interesting sermon, on Sunday morning.

Rev. Payson Young, Ph. D., who filled the Lutheran pulpit at Snydertown the other Sunday evening, did some visiting in our vicinity, last week.

H. Gayer Rumberger, who is a student at Keller's Business College, Lewisburg, Pa., is spending his Easter vacation at home.

Irvin Yarnell moved to Beech Creek, on Tuesday. We are sorry to lose him, but wish him success in his new home.

Most of the schools of Walker township will close this week. As far as we know the teachers were all satisfactory and had a very successful term.

Will B. Rearick, of Niagara Falls, and brother, Harry, of Bellefonte, were pleasant callers at B. W. Rumberger's recently.

Wm. Zimmerman, of Mingoville, has been doing some papering for John McAuley the past week, and any one needing work in this line should give him a call.

We are glad to note that those who had taken the project in hand to raise a select school at this place were successful and have secured Prof. Black, a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College, as a teacher. He is highly recommended and all those who expect to prepare for teaching will not miss it by attending school here.

A Printer Greatly Surprised.

"I never was so much surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville, (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism early last winter by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so I bought a bottle of it and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Coburn.

Grain fields in this vicinity look very promising.

William Rote, of Chambersburg, arrived home on a visit for a week.

James Platt and Frank Hackenberg left for Collins, West Va., on Monday.

Geo. Stover, our R. R. agent expects to go in the poultry business. Expects to get eggs from Peter Rider.

This week most of the schools of our township will close. Some of the parents seemed to be very negligent in sending their children to school, especially the larger boys and girls.

Josiah Shirk, of Millinburg, was visiting at the home of Emanuel Kerstetter last week.

Miss Sadie Bower, who had her home at John Weaver's is now staying with Christiana Miller at the toll gate.

William Braucht, formerly of this place, but for the last three years engaged in lumbering in West Virginia, came here to pay a week's visit to relatives.

P. F. Vonada, of Penn Cave, was in town last Friday on business. He is looking well.

Mrs. Emma J. Stonebraker accompanied Lot Condo's fitting to Spring Mills on the 1st of April.

That John who was so busily engaged on the mill that he could not share that certain dinner was not left after all. His best girl just gathered some of the best things and brought them down to him.

When a girl is away from her home and has a beau it does not seem to be altogether justice for him to go home first, and require her to borrow a lantern and go home with that for company.

Another snow was placed on the ground on Monday morning, but soon disappeared.

Cloyd Dinges had been up to visit H. G. Miller on Monday.

N. E. Miller is moving his buggies and road wagons to the Frogdown blacksmith shop, where he intends to start in business in the near future.

Charley likes his trade.

We still hear about smallpox in Millheim, and it does not suit some of our boys, because they are afraid to go there.

H. G. Miller sold one of his horses; now, horsemen is the time to replace.

Harry Snyder will play for the Pine Creek wedding with his new slide trombone, if he is called upon.

M. A. Miller is busy repairing his old homestead one mile north of Woodward.

L. E. Stover has moved to the Creamer farm.

Alvin Barges has replaced the bridge across Pine Creek. We thank you ever so much Alvin.

The Highvalley scribe is increasing his items instead of decreasing, keep on scribe you will beat.

Wm. Harter is busy burning lime and is able to put out any amount.

T. C. Miller and Miss Ada passed through here Sunday.

A. J. Everett took the primary examination at Aaronsburg on Saturday.

Merrill Miller, Arber Everett and Orvis Meyer, expect to start to school