THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA., APRIL 3, 1902.

Lemont.

to the room previously occupied by J. W.

Getz. After veiwing things for a second,

I turned my throttle and noticed Dan

Keller passing by on his yeknod, enroute to the Hillside farm, Boalsburg. Well, just about that time, I heard of a fellow in town by the name of Gabriel Plunkett,

Squibnocket, Mass., that is he registered his name as such at our hotel. He seems and gave some of us an intense headache followed by an "ease up" in the evening.

celebrated his 42nd, birtuday and others followed suit. Oran Grove also spent this day in Bellefonte. Now this day was far spent, yet our intuitive knowledge of the native character enabled us to recall one thing still and that is that ed business in Bellefonte that day, and will Coble, who has been working in local freight. Yes, and Miss Ruth Bot-torf came home from that place where I looked out the car-window one day to see a rut with my hind wheel and puncturing no less than eighteen persons who

SUNDAY :-- Was Easter and one which will long be remembered in this vicinity.

Easter services were held in the Presbyterian church, conducted by a member of the M. E. Conference, of Bellefonte,

Rev. Mr. Frysinger, of Hatelton. In the were watching me look on.

The Racket

WANTED, WOMEN

experienced in breaking corset side steels.

$20.00

paid for an H. & C. corset side steel broken by ordinary wear. Price 50c, and $1.00 Stainless eyelets.

If U are thinking of buying an Ice Cream Freezer this Spring don't torget the pay for any good freezer.

markable values in Dishes and trade has doubled since we moved to 1st floor.

ideas in the Dress Goods and Notion sections. These d partments are now easily THE BEST IN BELLEFONTE.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Correspondents' Department.

(Continued from Page 7.)

Millheim.

At the Reed horse sale last Thursday the average price was $154.

Henry Eisenhuth, of Ingleby, transacted business in town on Monday; he is still in the lumber business, he will occupy the old Rupp property after April first.

F. S. Yearick, of Brush valley, had business in town the beginning of the week; he purchased timberland and is going in the lumber trade

Mrs. J. H. Reifsnyder, after spending a week at Rebersburg with relatives and friends, returned on Monday.

B. F. Nearhood's sale, on Saturday, was slim and the bidding was poor. The smallpox scare prevented the people from coming to town.

During the late flood the bridge at Peters' broke down and bothing has been done to it ; council should be compelled to keep the public road open or be ousted and men put in who would be willing to perform their duties as required by law.

Elijah Burd, of Brush valley, was in town on Monday, after business matters.

John Stoner made a business trip to Centre Hall and Bellefonte, on Wednesday.

The Aaronsburg and Old Fort turnpike road is in a terrible condition this spring, and unless the same is put in a passable condition, shortly, it will be condemned, as noth ng has been done on it for years.

John P. Condo moved his store from ore to this place and is putting Milesburg. Dear Annis :--- sleep.

Rev. Mrs, George King, of Williamsport, was a recent guest of Prof. James Gregg and wife. THURSDAY :- Leaving from my home to the city on last Thursday, I noticed that Robt. Evey had changed his store goods William Charles, of Jersev Shore, off on a ten days' vacation visiting his parents, Sam'l Charles and wife. Robert McKinley, of South Williamsport, was a recent visitor to his father, Joseph G. McKinley.

Dr. S. M. Huff and wife attended a wedding at Salona, recently.

Prof. James Gregg had some business in the belfry of the school house and the trap door played the catch-game with had a good appetite for pretty soon Israel him ; when he was ready to return to his room, lo ! and behold, a prisoner was he —like a child he called for help. Miss McCloskey heard his cries and went to Its the new 3 minute Freezer, sold exclu-sively at The Racket. Prices as low as U Miss McCloskey, the teacher of the mtermediate school, ah, she was at the day, when "broke," I went into Jack Mitchell's hardware store and telephonfoot of the ladder, and James was out of sight, poor James plead like a lawyer. ed a friend of mine for car-fare. As I and with a great deal of persuasion to be door, James. The Crescent club gave a social party other end." And he did with both feet. We are showing this week many new in honor of the young ladies of the burg, on Tuesday night, the 25th; the hour for refreshments was the best of the evening, thirty-seven were present.

A female wrestling match came off recently at the Milesburg depot, for a prize; the single and married had a hand in it; the single won the prize, a paper of sweet cakes. was divided among the party ; after the first round all gathered to see W. C. K eamer's family depart for Lock Haven, their future home. The burg was pretty well thined out on Sunday; everyone seemed to have business in Bellefonte at conference.

Benjamin Weiland, of Howard, with his family spent Sunday with his wife's parents, Israel Comer and wife.

Mrs. Cora Crain and children are visiting her brother. John Fulton, of Philipsburg, Prof. D. B. Getz desires to announce his Mrs. Elizabeth Parson, of Altoona, is name as candidate for State Inspector of St. Bernard dogs. I now joined the spending a few weeks with Al. Bierly and wife.

Charles Hopkins, of Tyrone, was a recent guest of Mrs. Levi Grubb-he had one eye on her girls.

Al Bierly is now a happy man, his wife presented him with a young daughter, lately, A son came to the home of James Bryan and wife, recently.

An heir came to the home of Frank Houizdale, also came home on the 238 Charles and wife for a share of their ortune.

Miss Brouse, of Tyrone, is a guest of her friend, Miss Lorena Mattern.

Mr. Tipton, of Altoona, was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Z. D. Miles, on Sunday.

Julian.

John Parsons, of Williamport, spent Sunday with his grandparents at Julian. Miss Ellie Alexander is spending a few weeks with friends at Bellefonte.

Mrs. George Sones and two children are on a visit to Mrs. Sones' mother at Northumberland.

Mrs. I. F. Davis attended the M. E. Conference at Bellefonte last Sunday. Miss Ruth Bottorff returned to he Yarnell.

We would just say that the ground hog doesn't need spectacles nor a glass house, if he did he would just do like the Eskimos, where the houses are made of snow and ice. We have people that resemble the Eskimos, they sleep one week and dream of things that have passed a year ago and write it for late news, but the ground hog always can find new vagaries and ideas, and thank the Lord for it.

The farmers are busily engaged in tending sales ; they report pigs selling at a penny a hair and everything else sellto have a healthy name and indeed he ing well

Snodgrass, from Snohmisk, Wash., came We had a stone picking party in our along and helped this poor fellow up town, but the stone did not roll out of the from his banquet, as you know the effects way, although they tried it twice, and of a big feast are nearly as bad as the the result was that no apology was made. Theodore Yarnell was a pleasant caller in our town last week.

Some of our young ladies enjoy going for tea berries and pick to chew at; if you don't have anything better to chew at let me know and we will let you have a gum shoe to chew at.

was walking out the door the assistant The singing school class was not permitted to meet on account of the illness of Prof. Pletcher's daughter.

We believe, if no mistake was made, cents, you'll have to collect from the that the news bag has been transferred, he says he no longer leaves it at the foot of a tree, but brings it to the foot of the And from the way I felt, I think he must have taken out for long distance. Now hill; he travels no more in a sheep skin let the rich go to bed and we'll go to overcoat, but foots his way from place sleep. tive mood and if he gets much more he FRIDAY :- I slept on a double decker will stick in the mud.

last night on my way from Lemont to Mr. and Mrs Wilson Heaton and son, Boalsburg, and there I learned that our of Milesburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. T. A. beloved friend and co-worker, Mothers-baugh, had departed and was going to Confer, Sr., of this place. be absent for quite a while. This blast-ed all our bright prospects for that day

Quite a number of our people attended the birthday party of James Poorman, at Snow Shoe. About fifty were present.

Well, just recalling that this was Good Ellis Elmer Pownell spent Saturday in Friday, yet it was not nearly as nice as town. the Friday previous when Wm. J. Bryan

Woodward,

Easter was duly celebrated by many people in this place, while others who do not realize the true meaning of the day made gluttons of themselves by devour ing eggs by the dozen going about boastng of the number eaten at one meal.

The choir that sings down along the Sleepmore to rusticate for several hours. mill dam in the early evenings reminds SATURDAY :- It was perchance, that one of summer days.

perhaps I perspired last night while sleeping in a flat, I predicted a cold wave Miss Mary Yearick, who has been living in Lancaster, returned home last or an Easter bonnet soon, but anyway Robt. Wasson and Harry Long transactweek.

Rev. Buck, of the Esher Ev. church, preached his first sermon last Sunday. Mrs. James Weaver, of this place, and Mary Weaver, of Buffalo, N. Y., Mrs. spent a day very pleasantly at Mr. Hess'. E. J. Mingle, of Aaronsburg, was seen it, but I could not see Julian, for a cow was standing in front of it. Well, I got a bird-cage full of doughtnuts at Myers' on our streets Saturday. Those who expect to go to housekeeping this spring are taking advantage of barber shop and worked on one for an the many sales of household goods, and hour, but could not make a scour on it, are laying in a supply of dishes and so I decided to go to the Blind Trio Concert, but did not go on account of striking canned fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Meyer, of Coburn, spent Sunday with her parents.

Aaronsburg.

Prof. H. F. Yearick wishes to inform the public that he will open a term of of select school, beginning April 21st, 1902, it is just the thing we need in our town and it is earnestly hoped he will

We have no intentions here to give you any pointers on the art of dressing. It is for us to give you our name and ask you to call on us and see our goods for yourself. Our showing is a most lavish one, and will commend itself to every gentleman who desires to dress to the best advantage. We ask you to call and inspect the finest productions of the greatest manufacturers in our lines. We are fully prepared to dress you stylishly and comfortably for the least amount of money.

CALL AND SEE US.

Leading Clothiers, Tailors and Furnishers,

BELLEFONTE - - - - - PENN'A.

Suits Made to Order $15.00.

Montgomery

the goods in the store here

Jacob Emerick had an attack of cramp, on Monday morning, but is able to be about again.

Mr. Houtz, the new butcher from Linden Hall, has arrived and opened business on Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Swabb has been on the sick list for some time.

The snow and cold weather has put the damper on spring plowing.

Chas. Smull, the mail carrier, has sold throat. his bay horse to Peter Breon.

The public schools will close this week: the results don't seem to be satisfactory to some, which seems very strange.

A union Endeavor meeting will be held in the United Ev. church Sunday evening, conducted by Daniel Koch.

Rev. Shortess and family arrived in town Friday and he preached his first sermon here on Sunday. On account of their goods not having arrived, they are visiting among the members.

Wm. Meyer purchased the Spigelmyer livery stable and is ready for business.

Rev. Buck and family left for their new home at Berwick, on Saturday.

W. R. Musser is home from State College for his Easter vacation.

Quite a number of our people are nursing very sore arms caused by vaccination.

Ed. Winters, the supposed smallpox victim, is getting along very nicely. The rash has alrady disappeared and he is entirely out of danger.

Sober.

The shingle mill at this place will soon be in operation.

H. E. Zerby and wife, from Glen Union, were seen here on business.

J. R. Zerby is still hanling stave wood. Andrew Zerby died last Sunday morning, age 81 years. The funeral was Herb held Wednesday morning; interment in Swartz. the Georges valley cemetery.

The two parties that used to meet at the west end changed and travel east instead of west.

Roads are in bad condition, caused from the floods.

B. B. Breon was brought to his home last week with a bad sprain in his foot; he was working for Kulp's and has to walk on crutches now.

The young man that stole the potatoes out of a barrel at Zerby Station had better not lost any on going home, then no-body could have traced him up.

Potter Twp.

Elmer Rover is having a new barn built, boss carpenter Aaron Thomas is doing the job.

Ed. Brown, formerly of Potters Bank, has his leg broken in being tramped while shoeing a horse at Lemont.

Our Methodist brethren enjoyed the conference at Bellefonte.

Our excellent citizen, Will Stiver, has moved to Centre Hall. Another citizen M. N. Miller has moved to the same place.

Wheat fields look somewhat better.

home at Lemont, on Saturday. after a week's visit to her brother Linn, at this place.

Miss Bernice Irvin is home after spending the winter with friends at Sandy Ridge.

Miss Emma Murray lelt on Saturday for Punxsutawney to spend the summer with her sister, Mrs. John Beezer.

Miss Nannie Campbell has been housed up the past week with a bealed

Mrs. Joseph Anderson, of Altoona, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Talihelm.

Mrs John Parsons is on the sick list at this writing.

Earle McKenzie left last week to join the Chesscreek Engineering Co., with headquarters at Patton.

James Davis, of Altoona, spent a few days with his parents at Julian. He was accompanied home by his brother Ira, who expects to secure a position in the Mountain City.

The Blind Trio Concert Co. gave a concert in J. C. Nason's hall last Wed-nesday night, which was well attended and much enjoyed.

W. P. Parsons, of Unionville, was up to Julian last Saturday to see his mother, who has been ill.

Walter G. Tallbeim and Samuel Mc-Ginley are crecting new houses which will be quite an improvement to Julian.

Rockview.

Easter was here again and it reminds as how fast time is passing. The death angel came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Tressler and took away their sweet little girl. The funeral was held on Sunday; Rev. H. Brown preached the sermon. Mrs. Tressier who is also ill is some better at this writing.

Herb Klinger is working for Harry

There was a quiet wedding in our neighborhood, at the home of Wash Smith, who took unto himself a wife; may happiness attend them.

Prudence Swartz is spending a week in Bellefonte at the home of W. H. Brown. Maggie Keen spent Sunday at home.

Julia Watson is visiting her parents, at

Next week we can give the list of movings in our section.

West Brushvalley.

West Brushvalley is not dead, but is at a stand still. Prosperity has not reached it yet J. A. Ertel and H. J. Uhl made a business trip to Bellefonte one day last week. The public sale of John Rossman, Sr., was well attended last Saturday. Some of our farmers are busily engagged in plo

ged in ploughing. Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Duck and family, C. S. Wise and sister Gertte all of this place, and Mrs. Thomas Wise, of Madi-sonburg, were visiting at the home of D. I. Peidler, at Madisonburg, last Sunday. Anybody in need of sourramble plants and seed should call on the Ingleby scribe.

evening the whole town united in one song service conducted by the famous Blind Trio. who deserve all the credit they can receive for the excellent talents which these persons possess in this world, which seems so dark to them. MONDAY :- I was just about able to get my nut-meg eyes open that morning and could scarcely see that man, Dale, come along with his fountain whiskers on his chin, but he got to the creamery anyway with his milk, then boldly came along and told me that he was at the College on Saturday evening, so I tumbl-ed right away. as this was the reason our Easter storm was delayed one day Next Asburry Halderman told me that a bur would hang on longer than a strawberry, so I departed for the place where it says "No Admittance" above the door, but you know that is the only place where women care to enter. Walk ing down street byn myself I saw Kanah Hoble and she told me she had lost her sole and didn't know where to find a shoemakes, but looking up at myself I saw Mrs. Bottorff telling me that Miss Clark, of Williamsport, had closed a very successful term of school here today.

apologizing*profusely for being in the big-gest hurry I could think of, I escaped with "Midnight in Chinatown" between seat. my mind. APRIL FIRST :- As a fitting finish to this April Foolishness, I will conclude my position of the exercise with a vocal exertion entitled "Dried Apple Pies" (For want of space I will not sing now, but call confidentially some opportune moment to hear the chorus). Thanking you very kindly for your concise attention, and expecting to meet you at the over flowing meeting next week where I will give you some more astute "white Yours Fondly lies.

Q. A. K.

Mingoville.

The young men of this place, are talking of organizing a band.

Misses Sadie and Myrtle Yarnell, two of Salona's popular young ladies, visited friends in this place one day last week. Rev. Price, the newly appointed Evan-gelical preacher, delivered a very im-pressive sermon at this place on Easter Sunday.

Charles Young who had been to Clear-field has returned home.

We noticed E. Gephart and wife, of Zion, in church on Sunday.

The public school at this place closes to-day, and then young America will be free again.

Ferguson Twp.

On the list of those "out-of fix" are, Luther Fye, measles; Geo. W. Hoy, throat trouble; the aged Charles Sny-der, suffering from a cold; Frank Black, pleurisy.

Geo. M. Bloom, who has been employ-ed in a hospital in Massachusetts, is spending a few days with his parents.

-The "Fast Mail" is one of the anest scenic and most thrilling productions on of Millheim. All delegates will please the stage. Coming here next Tuesday get a large school. Dr. D. K. Musser, of Bellefonte, was home over Sunday. E. R. Wolfe attended the funeral of his little niece, on Wednesday, at Boalsburg. consequently there was no school in the intermediate room. The yearly examination for the scholarship diploma, including the Haines and Penn township, was held in Aaronsburg, Saturday, March 29th, The following were examined : Nellie Mingle, Ruth Swabb, Eva Wance, John Krape, Clyde Bartges, Merrill Eisenhauer, all from this town. A. R. Evert, Thos. Z. Stover and Geo. Stover, from Coburn.

Centre Hall.

Al. Krape in running his well drill a few days ago to find a fissure for waste water on the former Boob premises, struck a fissure which evidently led to the Miller Goodhart cellar on Church street, one square distant, and led a stream of water into his cellar.

Dr. Emerick, Will Spangler and Jas. Keller transacted business at the county

Mrs. Abe Luse is still in a critical condition.

The body of Wm. Shoop was brought to Centre Hall from Scranton, on Saturday

Miles Arney and Paul Murray were spending Easter vacation at home.

Wm. Sando, Jr., left for Davton, O., where he has secured a position in a R. R. office, Domer Emerick taking his place in the postoffice here.

Harry Patton spent several weeks at Charley Homan went to Williamsport Monday where he will learn painting and paper hanging.

Quite a large attendance at the surprise prayer meeting.

Rev. Ward Shultz went to Lock Haven, Saturday.

A young son arrived at David Boozer's. Mr. Stahl, father of James Stahl, died Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Dr. Hosterman is at Lewisburg, visiting Mrs. G. W. Ocker.

Mrs. Charles Decker has gone to Mis-souri to join her husband who will engage in farming.

Miss Sarah McClellathan is at home for several weeks to please her many customers. She is an expert dress maker. Wm. Boal is now occupying the house vacated by Mrs. Clements. Mrs. Geo. Boal is unable to be about on account of a very bad cold.

James Odenkirk, who had been in the west some 15 years and returned near a year ago with the intention of making Centre Hall his home, has changed his mind and will return west again.

S. S. Convention.

The annual convention of the Centre county Sabbath School Association will be held at Centre Hall, April 8, instead report promptly to Miss Grace Smith.

J. M. Rearick, Pres't.

NEW THINGS, SMALL PRICES

Should prove an attraction well worth looking into-We've not all the good things shown in the Eastern markets, but we've enough to prove to any prospective buyer that 100 cents invested here takes away more merchandise and better merchandise than the same amount invested elsewhere.

Give us the Opportunity to Prove it.

Here's just a few	of the new comers of the past week:
in due Flowers. Dai	sprays of flowers, with foliage, at a re- ed price-a sample line comprising Roses, sysanthemums, Forget-Me-Nots, Violets, isies, etc. Worth from 40 cents to 75 special sale now at
Black Merceri Underskirts	They're called PECo Skirts-pe-
ings that don't come	e unpleated, ruffles that stay ruffled even et. Priced from One Dollar up.
Two Specials in Umbrellas.	1st. Gloria Silk Covering. Paragon Frame. Congo Wood Handles, Steel Rod; guaranteed fast color 98c
2nd. Taffeta Silk tached, steel rod, fa	Covering, tight rolling, with cover at- ney and plain wood handles $1.50
4 inch striped	ffeta Ribbon-white, black & colors 18c Taffeta Ribbon-excellent line of 15c
ball fasteners	ove, Lisle thread. lace effect, large 50c lly guaranteed. New shades are:— d Gray. We'll guarantee these st in town for $1.00
Dress Goods D Dollar Cheviote Royal Blue. Spor S5c Granite Clo
Don't forget u	is, when in need of a Carpet.
THE *	Limited. GLOBE,
an and a second s

1