

BOER LOSSES ARE HEAVY

Forced to Retreat After Fierce Fight With British.

137 WERE KILLED OR WOUNDED

Britons Entrenched Themselves, and Getting Guns into Action, Repelled the Boers' Determined Attacks.

Bravery of Canadians. Klerksdorp, Transvaal Colony, April 7.—Details received of the battle at Doornbaat farm, March 31, in which the British had three officers and 21 men killed and 16 officers and 131 men wounded, while the Boers had 137 men killed or wounded, show that quite 2,000 Boers opened a strong attack from different points, with three guns and a pom-pom. This attack was made at a moment when the British had left their luggage in a laager in charge of the Canadian contingent and were galloping across the open plain, with the intention of capturing a Boer convoy which had been discovered five miles ahead. The British retired steadily, and, having dismounted, opened a return fusillade on the Boers.

While the luggage in charge of the Canadians was sent for, the British formed a camp and started digging trenches. The shelling of the Boers stampeded the mules and caused confusion, but otherwise it was not very effective, as many shells failed to explode.

The Canadians' front was attacked in strong numbers, but they gallantly repelled every attempt made by the Boers to break through. One party of the Canadians fought until all were killed or wounded, and the last man of this party, although mortally wounded, emptied two bandoliers of cartridges at the enemy and then broke his rifle.

The fighting was severe and general for fully three hours, but after the British had entrenched and the guns got into action the forces repelled numerous and determined attacks made under the personal exhortations of the Boer leaders.

Towards night the fire gradually ceased and the Boers retired. The British then telegraphed for aid, and further entrenched their camp for the night, to await the arrival of General Kitchener, but the Boers made no attempt to renew the attack.

SCREEN OF BOER WOMEN

General Delarey Reports Stories of British Atrocities.

Amsterdam, April 8.—Former President Kruger has received from General Delarey, the Boer leader, who recently captured Lord Methuen, harrowing stories of cruelties perpetrated by the British. The stories are supported by affidavits.

General Delarey says that Boer women were placed as a human screen around the British as a protection against his attacks, as a result of which many women are said to have been killed. General Delarey gives specific instances, with names and dates, of the killing of wounded prisoners and women.

Delarey's own wife, according to his reports, has been persecuted by General Lord Methuen's orders for the past six months, and is now wandering about the veldt with her six children. Delarey's mother, 82 years of age, he asserts, has been driven from Klerksdorp, after being robbed of all her cattle and her house burned. He also enumerates specific cases of defenseless women who were shot, and speaks of the cold-blooded murder of prisoners.

General Delarey appends to his report the story of gruesome atrocities perpetrated on decrepit and aged Boers and pregnant women and small children.

Van der Merwe, late mining commissioner of the Rand, now fighting under Delarey, appends a further list of atrocities, committed on women and children, to the report of General Delarey.

Kritzingler Acquitted.

London, April 8.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria, says that Commandant Kritzingler, who was captured by General French at Hanover road, Cape Colony, on December 17 last, and who has been tried by court martial on the charge of having committed four murders, in addition to train wrecking and cruelty to prisoners, has been acquitted, and is being well treated as an ordinary prisoner of war.

Farm Products Exported Last Year.

Washington, April 7.—The department of agriculture has issued a statement of the foreign trade of the United States in agricultural products. It shows that during the fiscal year 1901 foreign countries purchased American farm products to the value of $952,000,000, representing the largest agricultural exports in our history. Compared with the record for 1900 they show an increase of over $100,000,000.

Imprisoned For Applauding Murder.

Rome, April 8.—Enrico Malatesta, the Italian Anarchist, was yesterday sentenced by a court of justice to five months' imprisonment for contumacy on account of certain articles applauding the murder of President McKinley, which were written for and published in an Anarchist newspaper.

Kruger's Son Took Oath of Allegiance.

Pretoria, April 7.—Casper Kruger, the oldest son of President Kruger, and 24 other relatives of Mr. Kruger bearing the same family name are among those who have recently taken the oath of allegiance to Great Britain.

WHEN A MAN

spends his dollars for Clothing he wants his money's worth in CLOTHING. Of course he would prefer a little more rather than a little less. That's what we are trying to do.

No store in Centre county can give you the same values. YOU KNOW THIS. No store in Central Penn'a can show you any larger assortment than we do. We want YOU TO KNOW THIS.

No store in America selling ready-to-wear Clothing and Furnishing Goods can give you any better Clothing than the FAUBLE kind. We intend THAT YOU SHALL KNOW THIS.

The Best and only The Best here and we try hard to get the price as low, if not lower, than the ordinary kind. You will know this when you see both kinds.

We sell Men's Wear only, always a full, and many times a little more than a hundred cents' worth for your dollar. If you buy here we want you to continue to do so. If not, begin now. You will find it to your interest. You can find what you want with us.

THAT'S CERTAIN. You find it as good as it is possible to get any place, and the price is ALWAYS RIGHT. Come, compare us with others. You will readily note the difference and you will profit by what you learn.

We sell more Clothing than any two stores in Bellefonte, because we sell it to your liking. We ask for your business on the merits of our merchandise and prices, and if you but take the little time needed to give us a look we feel sure that we will number you among our many pleased customers.

M. Fauble & Son.
