TheRacket

Butterick Publications for May now ready. The May Patterns show all the newest Sailor effects, the new collar effects applied to Eton Jackets, and the newest tuck plaited styles.

Jewelry-Spring 1902 ideas. Remarkable values in Sash and Miniature Pins, Blouse Sets, Belt Buckles, &c. C North Window, Main Room.

Cooking Utensils .- A full line of solid Steel Lava Enameled Ware. Prettiest and best The Racket ever showed and U will agree with me if U C it.

Shoe Department is fitting lots day at Wm. Thompson's. of feet these days. Our stock was never as good as it is now, and prices never were lower. Kom & C.

G. R. SPIGELMYER.

Correspondents' Department.

(Continued from Page 7.)

Millheim.

The prospect for a wheat crop are not very flattering on account of the freeze and washouts. Some of the fields are almost bare and will not yield half a crop.

Quite a number of our people attended the Gospel services at Rebersburg, among them G. B. Stover and wife, G. Frank and wife, Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mrs. L. Stover.

Prof. H. N. Mever and Miss Lyle Mc-Closkey had intended to open a select summer school on Monday, but there not being a sufficient number in attendance they abandoned the project and the place will be without schools. Millheim should certainly have good schools.

The average price paid at the Gentzel & Beezer horse sale was $167 which is

W. R. Henney put down a new board walk along his lot on Main street. Jonathan Auman, of Bellefonte, was in town Sunday. I. W. Stover had the first shad for sale at this place this season. They are high priced on account of the beef trust. S. K. Faust now of Smullton, tranact-ed business here during the week. Mrs. R. B. Hartman, 80 years old, visited her daughter at Roland during the week. She is still hale and heart for her age and has no need for glasses. Elijah Burd, of Brush valley, was in town Tuesday.

The trout season opened Tuesday but very few of the speckled beauties were enticed to take the bait.

The "Citizens" libelous communication in last week's Millheim Journal does not meet with the expected approval and the great rejoicing was of short duration, the isolation scheme is a fake as the present condition shows. There are two families penned up in one house on Main street right in the centre of the town and more trouble must come from such a course of proceeding as to isola-

W. N. Dennis, of Williamsport, visited his sister Clara Clark during the week. Miss Mary Mauck has a fine display of millinery goods for the spring trade.

The different candidates were out shaking hands on Thursday at the horse

Herbert Rishel has secured work at Jeanette and went there last week. Marcellus and Mattie Sankey, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday at W. F.

Misses Rosa Maize and Ollie Snook visited at Tusseyville Sunday.

A. A. Frank the merchant returned last Tuesday. from the East with a full line of spring goods. Mrs. J. H. Reifsnyder visited at Rebersburg Sunday.

That was a tall meeting between Harry and Lyle, not so Harry?

Aaronsburg.

Charles Stover, of Altoona, spent a few days with his father, who had quite a sick spell.

Mrs. Anna Wolfe, of Wolf's Store, spent one day last week with her father, H. H. Weaver.

Among those that attended Jeremiah Kline's funeral on Saturday were D. K. Heckman and wife, Mrs. Smith and daughter Lizzie, of Loganton; Dr. P. Pontius, of Philadelphia; Dr. H. K. Hoy and sister Chestie, of Altoona; Mrs. Tibbs and son, of Irvona; Wm. Jaminson, of Lock Haven, Mrs. B. Butler, of Lewisburg; Mrs. Bender, of Ill., Mrs. Sankey, of Mifflinburg.

Prof. H. Y. Yearick and Miss Cordie Acker's schools closed on Tuesday.

Messrs. C. W. and B. W. Wyle have been selling quite a good many oranges and bananas to their many customers for the last week or more. Mrs. Beula Bright Orwig has returned to her home after having spent a few weeks with her husband in Altoona. Miss Nora Bower has returned, to her home on N. street, after having spent a few months with her cousin at Penn Hall.

The Town Clerk Cured of Bilious Colic. Mr. James McMahon, town clerk of Columbia, N. Y., was the victim of a severe attack of bilious colic recently. Three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy effected a cure. He was so much pleased with the quick relief which that remedy af-forded that he now recommends it to his Lemont.

William Coble has gone to Houtzdale, to pursue his regular work again, hav-ing been home for a few weeks vacation. Will Miller, of Zion, spent Sabbath at the home of Andrew Gregg.

Miss Ella Bottorf, who had been visiting her sister in Bellefonte, was called home very suddenly on Saturday on account of the illness of her cousin, George. Mrs. Etta Martz and family, of Altoona, are visiting at the home of her father, Geo. Roan. Mr. Rothermal, a telegrapher, of Sun-bury, spent a few days in our midst last

Geo. Thompson is reported to have made public his engagement to Miss Magdalene Callaway, of Bellefonte. We don't know the exact date of the marriage now, but further information may be secured from him if desired.

Mrs. Elmer Ross returned from Mill Hall, on Thursday, and now she and Mr. Ross have taken up house keeping in the Ross homestead.

Frank Halderman spent Saturday night in Bellefonte. Woody Jackson spent Sabbath somewhere near Roopsburg. Rev. Hepler the Presbyterian minister, filled the pulpit of the Buffalo Run church on Sunday, recently vacated by Mr.

Miss Potter, of Bellefonte, spent Sun-

Waid Evey has gone to Pittsburg. where he has secured work. Nannie Herman, the special dispatcher at Howard, is reported well again after a long and serious attack of huchstering. Walter Woods ex.'04. of Lafayette, but now a resident of Pine Grove, was a caller at Mr. Hepler's, on Saturday.

Jack and Punch Mitchell occupy rooms on the second story of the Thompson building, previously occupied by Ange-

Warren Bailey, accompanied by Miss Mary Felty, was seen driving through town on Saturday.

Several young men and women started to school on Monday to Bryson's class in Boalsburg.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weaver, a young son.

I tell you everybody, that Julian is a great village, isn't it? I spent one week there last summer and till I got away from the cows I was just ten years older than when I arrived there. I had to set up at nights to celebrate my birthdays, but anyhow my attention was called the other day to the article in the Julian items of last issue. Well now, Miss Julian Sillycus, in refuting this article, I am very glad to say that I am a farmer's boy and was never very far away from home and never saw anything but cow around you. Should I ever call on you again, I the highest of any since the horse market | will try to conduct my business is a feasible manner, as I know you are as pretty as a composite photograph of a woman's suffrage convention. Now Miss Julian, If you desire me to call again, as you have almost stated why please have a parquet ready for I and you and we will then go from your office at the P. R. R. depot to your house and thence to the creamery. If these plans do not coincide with yours I will weigh out molasses from now until I hear from. Yours in the ground,

Colyer.

Jonas Moore an aged soldier and a respectable citizen, died Wednesday 9th, from pneumonia which lasted only a few days; age 80 years. He leaves but one daughter, Mrs. Henry Fye, and his aged wife Mrs. Hannah Moore who still lingers in a hopeless condition.

Wm. Colyer and wife, from Centre family. Hall, spent a day here last week.

Peter Stipples, of Yeagertown, has been spending several weeks in assisting to take care of his belpless mother Mrs. Moore, they hope for her recovery that they may be able to move her to her daughter's home at Centre Hall.

Reuben Colyer's sale, which had been postponed from Tuesday last to Saturday was well attended.

The unfavorable weather has been a draw-back on farmers in keeping them from their spring work.

John McNitt, of Mifflin county, spent Wednesday night at the home of Henry Shadows. Mrs. Mary Treaster, of Pleasant Gap spent last week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Shadow.

Wm. Stump and lady friend Miss Lizzie Slack, attended the wedding of Miss Mary Keller daughter of D. C. Keller

Elmer Hettinger an enterprising young farmer from Egg Hill, in company with Miss Annie Corman, of Spring Mills, and Miss Annie Royer, of Ohio, two accom plished young ladies drove here Sunday morning and were guests at the home of Squire J. S. Houseman where they spent a day most pleasantly. Among those who spent Sunday evening at the home of Squine Housman's were E Jordan and wife, J. H. Moyer and daughter, John Shuey, Misses May, Pearl and Virgie Kreitzer. The evening was entirely devoted to vocal and instrumental music

Emanuel Smith and family, of Potters Mills were guests at the home of J. H. Moyer.

J. H. Ishler entertained some friends Mrs. O. K. Love is not improving any, and no hopes for her recovery. Misses Bessie and Mary Cooney spent Saturday at Potters Mills.

Mrs. Sadie Rearick, of Zion, has again secured a class of instrumental here.

Potter Twp.

On the sick list are John Bitner and Lizzie Faust.

David Foreman is a valued addition to Henry Stover is going into the fruit business, and will set out many trees. He is an up-to-date farmer. Charley Stover, while trimming trees, trimmed one of his own "limbs" by a gash in his foot. The McClellan farm is now tenanted

Parmers are anxious for a let-up of attack of bilious colic recently. doses of Chamberlain's Colic, and Diarrhoea Remedy effected He was so much pleased with k relief which that remedy afhat he now recommends it to his For sale by Green's Pharmacy. wet weather.

Forest W. Bible has been appointed agent for Oak Hall station on the L. & Clearfield, Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran churches, and the Osceola Presbyterian church; also $2,000 a piece to the Clearfield school district and the Opening of the branch road, retired.

Hublersburg.

H. H. Noll and family visited his parents at Madisonburg, Sunday.

J. H. Rathmel, of Philadelphia, moved into the Bergstresser house last week, and expects to say here for the summer. Jacob H. Weaver, who had been away working for several months, has returned

Farmers have done very little of their spring plowing on account of so much wet weather, and will be late getting out their spring crops.

The select school, under Prof. Black, opened on Monday with a good attend-

Paul Carner, a student at Kellar's Business College, of Lewisburg, was home on a visit.

"Here Hucky take one on me," but it didn't happen to be Huck. If you have any dogs to kill call on D. M. as he is an expert hand at shooting

William, the oldest child of H. H Noll, is on the sick list.

ing in this vicinity latter part of last G. F. Hoy and wife were visiting the latter's brothers at Mt. Carmel, latter part of last and beginning of this week. Joe. Emerick was crushing stone for our roads the past week. Our roads are evening. Postmaster John Hess had second to none in the county under the efficient management of our supervisors, Messrs. Emerick and Shafer.

Miss Grace Miller, of Lock Haven, was visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. F. Hoy, last week.

Centre Hall.

Col. J. L. Spangler and wife spent Tuesday with Mr. Spangler's parents. Dr. Lee has a force of men tearing down some of the buildings on his lot. In a short while he expects to have his stable finished.

Wm. Boal has been on the sick list for several weeks, but is improving slowly. The Union Bible class is very well at-

Alfred Homan is home from Cresson on a short visit. He is looking very well. Wilbur Henny returned from Pittsburg. In about a week he expects to return and take his family with him. Clay Reesman has been seriously ill, but is improving now. Chas. Slack is now clerk in the P. O. Mr. Huyett will move to Bellefoute in the fall. Sorry to loose such a citizen. Ralph Boozer left for Philadelphia on the 10th. He will enter the Williamson College.

Miss Sarah McClellanthan went to State Colliege for a few weeks. Miss Florence Rhone is able to be out after a severe spell of sickness.

Loganton.

J. C. Smith from near New Florida on the mountain was obliged to kill one of his best cows on Monday because she was seriously effected with rabies. is the second cow that Mr. Smith had effected with rabies recently.

Mrs. Mary Conser, of Renovo, is visiting at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Daniel Karstetter, who is very seriously ill with a complication of diseases.

Calvin Kerstetter has gone to Jersey Shore with C. F. Herlacher to work at the plastering trade.

Tuesday the family of John Kemmerer will take their departure for Iowa, where the husband has gone to make his future home. Mamie Moyer will go with the Oak Hall.

Mrs. W.O. Dougherty and son Charles, of Pine Hall, were in town on Thursday. Miss Dollie Lonebarger spent several days with friends at Linden Hall last

After spending two weeks with James Peters, at Rock Springs, Miss Elsie Peters arrived home Monday evening. Mrs. B. F. Homan departed on Thursday morning for a week's visit among Tyrone friends. Miss Dollie Lonebarger, Harry Lonebarger, Ralph Lowder and Donald Sellers are attending school at Boalsburg.

Tylersville.

Miss Margie Shreckengast is at Rebersburg learning the millinery trade with Mrs. Duck. Miss Kate Miller is at present at Lock Haven where she is working. It seems a little winter like as some of our men wear mittens to plow.

Harvey Caris is all smiles and says a tramp came there and that it would stay. Because it is a little girl. Miss Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McKee, died on Sunday evening of lung fever. She was about two years old.

Beech Creek.

Mrs. S. H. Glossner, of Eagleville, is reported ill. The condition of Claude Meyers, who was severely injured in the clay mines

Friday, is not so favorable. ill the past few days.

Mrs. Lydia Jones has been seriously Miss Emma J. Haagen will open a summer term of school in two weeks.

Unionville.

We are pleased to note that Miss Carrie Daley, teacher of the intermediate grade, will teach a summer term of six weeks ommencing on the 28th of April. Her reputation as a successful teacher is of the highest type; she will teach the higher branches in connection with the common branches. Here is a fine opportunity for advanced pupils in the sur-rounding nearby schools, to make ad-vancements at a moderate cost.

Bequests to Churches.

The will of the late Captain David McGaughey, who died at Clearfield, pro-

VARIETY OF

COUNTY NEWS

Items of Interest Gathered From All Sections

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

What Transpired Worthy of Brief Mention, the Past Week-News From Over the County-For Hasty Readers-A New Department

Levi Stover died Wednesday morning, at his home at Coburn. A wife and five children survive; age 45 years.

H. S. Kerbaugh, of Philadelphia, has been awarded the contract at $450,ooo for straightening the main line tracks of the Penna. Railroad, east of Altoona and enlarging the freight yards.

The Susquehanna Ministerial Associa Harry Garret, of Bellefonte, was visit- tion of the Reformed church have selected the 31st of July, 1902, for the day of holding their sixth annual reunion on Island Park.

The Post Office at Pine Grove Mills was broken into by burglars Tuesday fortunately taken all the stamps and money home with him when he closed the office for the night.

Joseph Philips, alias "Lang Boy," of Lynchburg, Va., was arrested in Philadelphia, Thursday, for the murder of George Rooney, a negro, near Clearfield, Pa., last July. He was turned over to the Clearfield authorities.

Mrs. Annie Gardner, aged 16 years, attempted to commit suicide on Saturday evening on an Altoona street by swallowing a nickel's worth of laudanum. Antidotes and exercise in the open air brought her round all right.

The shareholders in the Tangascootac Oil and Gas company, Clinton county, decided that the driller should resume boring in the well on the Gummo farm. It is the intention to go a depth of 3,000 feet, if necessary to give this well a

We are sorry to note the serious illness of N. D. Hosterman, for several years our correspondent at Coburn. Wednesday morning he had two hemorrhages from the lungs. He is a young man of sterling worth and we hope to hear of

IN ADJOINING COUNTIES.

John Hicklin, of Philipsburg, was granted a pension, $8.

A festival will be held at Snow Shoe on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 18 and 19, the proceeds of which will be used in building boardwalks in town. This is a clever idea of some of the young men of that place. Robert Thomas while going through the fields of the Al. Hanna farm along Bald Eagle creek, last week, picked up two relics, one was a copper coin bearing the date of 1730 and an Indian hatchet together with a number of Indian arrows.

Dr. Schuyler informs the Democrat that the Huntingdon Presbytery will bold its next session at Centre Hall the first Monday in October. The body consists of about one hundred and twenty ministers and elders, and the sessions continue Weather prophets who have been able to catch a glimpse of the new moon say the points are turned upward, and will catch the rain drops, consequently another spell of wet weather may be expected. The February and March moons, the prophets say, were both "wet moons," and as the moon predictions were fulfilled the April moon has started in to verify its indications. Now there vou are! No charge for the informa-

A. J. Reichiv, William Blauser and John Weaver had a bear battle in the woods near Underwood's mill in the seven mountains a few days ago in which they came out victorious although the only weapons they had were pine knots. When the bear made its appearance the men at first were inclined to retreat but pine knots being plentiful they began hurling them at bruin with all their might and main. An occasional big stone thrown with true aim thumped the bear's head and finally the animal gave up the ghost and died, the life having been literally pounded out of the animal.

Violation of Tobacco Laws.

Fourteen tobacco dealers were placed under arrest in Williamsport, Friday, for alleged violations of the act of assembly prohibiting the sale of tobacco in any form to children under 16 years of age. All of the accused dealers gave bail for a hearing on Monday. Other arrests but milk toast, and digest even that not retain and digest even that began taking CASCARETS and since then a began taking CASCARETS and since then a began taking the control of the contr

CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all drug

Judge Love is on the Bench.

Judge Bailey, not having sufficiently recovered from his recent illness, Judge Love, of Bellefonte, is conducting Miffin county courts this week. For the first time in the history of that county two sessions of April court will be held.

Company

Fell 120 Feet.

While a Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg train was crossing the high bridge at Mosgrove, near Punxsutawny, last Priday evening, Thomas Sutton, a passenger who was riding on the platform made an effort to recover his hat which had blown from his head, he lost his balance and pitched over the railing of the bridge into the river, 120 feet below. The body was recovered two hours later and taken to Sharpsburg. The victim of this peculiar accident was about 37 years old and his home was in California

CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH

Safe. Always reliable. Ladies, ask Druggist for CHICHENTER'S ENGLISH in Red and Gold metallic boxes, scaled with blue ribbon. Take no other. Refuse dangerous substitutions and imitations. Buy of your Druggist, or send the statement of the send to monials and "Relief for Ladies," is teller by return Mail, 19,000 Testimonials. Sold by

CHICHESTER CHEMICAL CO. 2100 Madison Square, PHILA., PA

At the many requests of friends who have not been able to see or hear the tones of the three hundred dollar Piano that is to be given away, we beg to announce that it will be on exhibition in our window Saturday, April 19, 1902, and there will be an able musician playing on it all day and evening.

You are cordially invited to attend.

SIM, THE CLOTHIER,

Bellefonte, Pa.

Temple Court.

IN ADVERTISING is to interest people in news of the store, to bring before them in part the goods we have to sell, to show them the advantages we offer to secure their patronage, to enable them to compare our prices with others so as to decide where they will do their shopping. One thing more: -You'll always find our advertising helpful and truthful. Helpful, because you can see at a glance the inducements we offer. Truthful, because we allow no misleading ads. to be published. Every article advertised is represented at our store. Will it pay you to trade at this kind of a store? We think so. A trial is all we ask.

Look over the list of this week's good things:

SHIRT WAISTS. White Lawn Waists-2 rows insertion down front. Tucks in between. New pointed collar and cuffs - - 50c White Lawn Waists-4 rows of insertion and tucks in front, cluster tucks in back. Tucked collar - - 75c Gingham Waists-Plain and stripped. Tucked front and

Mercerized Gingham waist hemstitched yoke, in pink,

Peco Mercerized Underskirts, the best made-pleated, tucked or corded, all have wide dust ruffle. Priced from One back. Pointed collar and cuffs - - - blue, green and red and handsomely finished

SKIRTS.Oxford walking skirts Tailor made, 10 rows of stitching with 12 inch facing—wide flounce - - $2.50 Rainproof walking and full length skirts. Guaranteed to turn water-graduated flounce - - - $4.75 Broadcloth Skirts Blue and Black; trimmed around, graduated flounce with 3 rows of satin folds - -

Dollar up. LACE CURTAINS.

Special bargains in this department.-Full 2 1-2 yard curtains per pair..... 50c 3 yard lengths, wide...... 69c 3 1 2 yard lengths, extra value..... 95c Very special offerings at$1.50

CARPETS.

Still making record breaking prices in this department. All-wool Ingrains 49c

If what you want is in our store (quality considered) you'll save money if you purchase it here. REMEMBER NO GOOD STORE AS LOW PRICED AS THIS. NO LOW PRICED STORE AS GOOD AS THIS.

THE KATZ & CO. GLOBE,