

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings About Centre County Briefly Told by

A CORPS OF ABLE WRITERS

Our Alert Correspondents Note Many Important Events in Different Localities—What is Transpiring—Is Your Section Represented?

Coburn.

One day last week, while on his way to the old homestead, with a bundle of wire on his horse, Daniel Krader was obliged to dismount his horse very suddenly. The result is a badly bruised leg near the knee where the horse stepped on. So gaits von mer dread of en irn gowl neumb.

Sunday was a pleasant day; rain enough in the morning to keep the dust down, then a clear sky with a cool wind. It was just what a number of our people were hoping for.

T. W. Hosterman and wife, Jacob Kerstetter and Mrs. Cora Hosterman and daughter Estella, were at Woodward attending communion service in the Ev. church. O. E. Meyer, of Pine Creek Mills, made use of his new buggy and took his true one to Rebersburg. Harry Snyder and his best one had a pleasant time near Spring Mills. John Vonada and his only one made a visit to Spring Mills.

T. F. Meyer and family spent last week at Centre Hall and Bellefonte.

Mrs. T. B. Everett left Thursday for Trout Run where she will visit her parents.

John Winkleblech a student in the Linden Hall station spent Sunday at home.

Wishing to do some repairing at his house Levi Spigelmeyer moved into G. J. Meyer's house.

Last Friday occurred the death of Mrs. Francis Long. The funeral took place Tuesday. Interment in the cemetery of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg.

The Ev. Sunday school will observe Children's Day on the 27th.

There will be two festivals at this place before long. One by the Lutheran church on the 21st, and the other will be a band festival July 12. We are sorry to say the band cannot stay at home on the 21; it will play for the P. O. S. of A. picnic at Tylersville.

Monday afternoon some of our people saw what they had never seen before: two gentlemen on their way from Harrisburg to State College passed through here on an automobile.

The band rendered some good selections Saturday evening. We would be pleased to hear some more. Pat up that grand stand and give us open air concerts these fine evenings.

Coburn No. 2.

Miss Ruth Swabb, of Aaronsburg, spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. Ezra Burd.

Mrs. G. W. Tharp, formerly of this place, but now of Virginia, is circulating among her many friends in this community.

Miss Elodia Wie, at present working for Mrs. Ezra Burd, was called to her home at Aaronsburg on account of the illness of her mother.

Messrs. Orvis Meyer and Harry Meyers of this place, accompanied with their best girls, took a drive in the country on Sunday; that's right, boys, take your girls out driving and get fresh country air; as a general rule it is more beneficial than town air.

The Coburn orchestra rendered some of their fine selections at J. W. Myers' on Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine Shook, of Spring Mills, spent Saturday at this place.

C. H. Meyer & Co. loaded a car of boards on Saturday. Orvis and Warren say its not carrying books to Spring Mills.

Samuel Ard and Roland Shaffer made a business trip through Mifflin county last week. They report a fine time.

C. C. Johnson, a student at Spring Mills Academy, spent several days with his brother last week.

Wm. Harter and family of Pine Creek Mills, spent Sunday with his brother, Ezra.

Mrs. A. J. Campbell, of Shamokin, is at present visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Kaier.

Nittany.

The sick of this place are all getting better.

T. M. Williams and W. M. Gates went to Oak Grove to do carpenter work.

D. O. Dorman was to Lock Haven on Monday, on business.

Misses Carrie and Vertie Long and Miss Mamie Zerby went to Madisonburg on Sunday, to visit friends.

Charley Gonsaulas spent Sunday with his family. He is black-smithing in the lumber woods, near Ferrandville.

William Knecht and family, of Parvin, were the guests of B. Y. Shaffer and family, on Sunday.

W. C. Shaffer and son Charly, of Milton, spent Sunday at this place with his parents, B. F. Shaffer and wife.

Chas. Emerick has returned home for a few days.

There will be no services in the Ev. church next Sunday, on account of the corner stone laying at Clintondale.

Last Wednesday the aint, Glen Myers, of Lamar, and Miss Jennie Tweed, of this place, skipped off to Tyrone and were married. May happiness and prosperity be their lot is the wish of their many friends.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Props., Toledo, O. We the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe his merit worthy of honorable and successful business transactions and financially able to carry out all obligations made by him.

WEST & TRACY, Wholesale Druggist, Toledo, O. WALKER, KESSLER & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Price, 75c per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Testimonials free. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Milesburg.

Mrs. Solomon Shay arrived home from a recent visit with her mother at Marsh Creek.

Mrs. James Wagner, of Bellefonte, was a recent visitor of her sister Mrs. Frank Letterman.

George Moore, of Renovo, was a recent guest of George Noll.

Shaffer Wagner, of Panksutawney, is visiting Daniel Boyer.

Carlton McKinley and wife, of Howard, is visiting Mrs. Mary McKinley, his mother.

The Presbyterian Sunday school held their Children's Day services last Sunday and the church was beautifully decorated.

Mrs. Charles Price and daughter Mrs. George Bratt, of Altoona, were guests of the former's son Charles and family.

The Methodist Sunday school held their Children's Day services on Sunday night last.

Daniel Boyer is the champion rat catcher. From Thursday to Monday he caught 30 rats in a wire trap.

FACTS, FUN AND FANCY.

What is manual labor pay? Well, sonny, a fair sample of it is the way your dear mother works to get you up in the morning and get you to go to bed at night.

Is it quiet in the country where you live Simpson? Quiet? Why, when I get home at night, our cow comes around and sits down by the porch to hear what I have to tell.

Pat's Resurrection—Pat Burke was in a smash-up on the New York Central and was supposed to be killed. His wife, even, recognized his remains among the killed. The remains were brought home and a wake was had. Then Mrs. Burke accompanied by the funeral cortege and the corpse, started for the grave yard. After the procession had left the house, Pat appeared.

"Where's my wife," said Pat; "spake quickly," "she's gone to yer funeral, sure;" "my funeral? Bedad as' oi'n not dead yet;" "not dead, sure now Pat yer foolin'." "Foolin'? what do you mane woman, ain't oi here now?" "Arrah, Pat, jewel! you know yer dead, sure, and wasn't I at yer wake myself?" "Then where's me corpse?" "Gone to the burying a mock; an' yer poor wife is with it, wapin' her eyes out." "Begorra, she'd better be wapin' her eyes out over me dead corpse than be batin' the life out of me live corpse wid a broomstick," said Pat as he lighted his pipe.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. D. H. Rote returned home after having spent a few weeks with friends in Bellefonte and Lock Haven.

Geo. Weaver and wife Sundayed with friends at Salona.

Miss Carrie Weaver is visiting her brother at Salona.

Em. Croumiller and daughter, Mrs. E. G. Mingle, spent a few days at State College, as guests of P. O. Adam's.

Mrs. Nora Bailey, of Loganton, is visiting her parents, Chas. Bowers on West 2nd street.

The funeral services of Mrs. Frances Long were held in the Reformed church, on Tuesday forenoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. W. Brown.

Mrs. Harry Kremer, of Millheim, spent a few days with her father-in-law, Newton Stover, having been on the sick list for the last month, we are glad to say, is improving slowly.

Miss Edna Edmunds, of Windber, is spending a few weeks with her sisters on Main St.

Miss Bessie Stover and D. K. Summers attended the Hosterman and Stover wedding at Woodward last Thursday.

Walter Rupp and sister, Jennie, are spending a few days with their brother John, at State College.

John Kahl, of Greenburr, was seen with his brother-in-law, E. W. Wyle's.

Penn Hall.

If we only had a good rain, is all our farmers desire.

Our carriage works are doing a rushing business.

Hay and wheat crop will be short in this section.

L. B. Showers moved from Poe valley to Andrew Sheesley's house.

H. E. Bickel and I. B. Showers made a short trip to Lock Haven and other places last week.

Leonard Musser left for Snyder and Mifflin county to see his many friends.

Frank Rager and family, of Lewisburg, were visiting friends at this place.

Some church members seem to have forgotten the 8th commandment, since berry season, (which reads): "Thou shalt not steal."

Our challenge band was called to Potters Mills, to furnish music for a festival.

How are the mountain folks, N. W.?

J. W. Gobbie and wife spent Sunday at Samuel Gobbie's.

Daniel Keller has bought a number of cows in this section.

Jerry Gramley visited his father over Sunday.

Father Gramley is not yet able to walk.

Port Matilda.

Died, in Reese Hollow, near Shady Dell, on Saturday morning, June 7, 1902, from a short but severe attack of pneumonia, Mrs. Lidia Peters, wife of John Peters, aged 51 years, 7 months and 14 days; the deceased was a devoted wife, a tender mother and a generous neighbor; she bore her illness, which was only of seven days duration, with patience. She leaves to mourn her death a husband and four children: Joseph, of Tyrone; Jennie, William and Virgie at home; also one brother and two sisters, Joseph Cowher, of Reese Hollow; Mrs. Annie Leathers, of Philadelphia; and Mrs. Sarah Weckerman, of Tyrone. Interment was made in Mount Pleasant cemetery; religious services were held over her remains in Mount Pleasant United Brethren church. Rev. Dillen, pastor of above church officiating.

Cuts, Bruises and Burns Quickly Healed.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment, and when applied to cuts, bruises and burns, causes them to heal without maturation and much more quickly than by the usual treatment. For sale by Greene's Pharmacy.

Yarnell.

David Walker, of Coalport, was the pleasant guest of A. G. Walker.

Joe says, "what will you do when the black man comes" and the reply is, "run like a toe head."

Miss May Walker, while engaged in her household affairs on Tuesday p. m., was called to assist her aunt Mrs. Geo. Walker in killing a black snake which measured 6 ft. 2 in. in length and 8 in. in circumference, it being the third snake for the day they killed in the yard; this was the largest snake we have heard of in our locality.

Raymond Butler is at present nursing a cut foot.

The farmers are all busy planting corn, as some was taken out by the crows while some was rotten.

Miss Mida McCartney is on the sick list; hope for her speedy recovery.

Charles Miller, who has been ill, is slowly recovering.

Mike, don't be afraid of the girls, a little cold water won't hurt you, you will feel fresher and better until you get another dose.

We wonder what has become of the Gazette scribe? Bible news must have done some good.

It is rumored that two weddings are to be celebrated on the Fourth.

While burning a brush pile, fire got away from Joe Petzer, and got into the woods, several dozen men assisted in putting it out.

You tobacco-chewing christian,

You will soon become a wreck;

You must unload, you must unload,

And no smoking is allowed upon the upper deck.

You must, you must unload.

O, you paper-rolling sinners,

One thing do go to forget,

You will have to go to hades,

To smoke your cigarette.

You must, you must unload.

Straight is the way and narrow is the road.

Brothers and sisters there's no other mode,

If you want to make Heaven your future abode,

You must unload.

Oak Hall.

Robert Jackson moved from Centre Furnace to P. S. Dale's house last week.

A. J. Tate and wife, of Dale's Summit, were recent visitors in town.

Jacob Klingler spent several days in Bellefonte and attended Main's show.

Grace Barnhart is home from State College for a few days.

Mrs. John Musser and daughter, Mrs. Milton Krebs, of Pine Grove, were visitors in town on Friday.

Mrs. Ed. Owens, of Axemann, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Kamp.

E. B. Peters entertained his son James and family, of Rock Springs, over Sunday.

Mrs. H. E. Homan and Gertrude and Mary Homan are visiting near Tyrone.

Miss Alice Homan, of Pine Hall, is a guest of her cousin Cora Homan.

Mrs. Corrigan, of State College, was in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Eiters, of Lemont, and Jacob Meyer and wife, of Linden Hall, were visitors at Sunny Hillside on Saturday.

A. A. Dale, of Bellefonte, spent several days with friends in this place.

Oak Hall was well represented at the Children's services held in the Ev. church at Lemont on Sunday evening.

Edith Houser and Mattie Hazel, of Houserville, were guests of the former's sister on Thursday.

Mrs. Geo. Loxebarger spent Sunday at State College.

Mrs. R. C. Lowder recently entertained her brother John Gramley and sisters Stella and Donna, of Altoona.

Miss Marion Benner, of Rock, is visiting at the home of Ira C. Korman.

Bessie Weber returned Saturday from Allentown where she was attending school.

A number of our people from our town attended commencement services at State College, Sunday.

High Valley.

Dr. Snyder, wife and daughter, were welcome visitors on Sunday, also the Rankietown attorney John Galer, in company with the east end scribe. Call again.

On Monday J. Eisenhuth left for Stock valley with his family.

Rumor that another law suit is at hand from Rankietown. Advice, save your money and live peaceably and in the end money and trouble are saved, never take advice from such that don't know anything.

On Saturday John Eisenhuth and Chas. Vonada, coming from Coburn, on their way home, a short distance from John Weaver's house they saw two black snakes on a tree; they managed to get them off and killed them; each snake was 6 feet long. Dr. Snyder claims the smell of his medicine will drive them out of the valley; he says the whipper-wills used to come to his house and made such a noise that no one could sleep; one evening they had their justification, and he took his satchel and tacked it against the house and that ended it. Now I can lie down and the rascals will let me alone.

Frank Stoughtan, of Lewisburg, supervisor on the L. & T. road was at Ingleby, making an estimate of the timber that was burnt by the late fire. Frank makes it big. The hay crop will be short, and about the corn, we can't tell.

Last week Thomas Keen was sitting at Ingleby waiting on the train to meet his spouse, but she failed to get off. Tom was disappointed and took on his feet and walked apiece and met Dr. Barker and asked: did you see Mrs. get off?

Spit Blood by the Mouthful.

Mr. G. W. Martin, of Moody, Mo., was troubled with a very severe cough and spit blood by the mouthful. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was recommended to him and he now says, "I think it the best cough medicine on earth for one small bottle of it cured me." If troubled with a cough why not take this remedy and get well? Many thousands of others have done so. For sale by Greene's Pharmacy.

Georgetown.

Georgetown was in the shade for a while, but came to light again.

Henry Wingard, wife and son George, C. E. Finkel, wife and son James, took in Maine's show last Wednesday.

Perry, Henry and Frank Wingard, have taken the contract to lay the water pipes for the Rebersburg water company.

S. G. Rote, our up-to-date miller, is making big improvements on his mill property and now you will find the best brands of flour are kept by S. G. Rote at Penns Creek Mills.

T. B. Motz is driving a fancy new horse and a brand new road wagon.

S. G. Rote went to Union county on business.

A young lad, not far in his teens, down here, had hired out to a farmer for the summer and fell in love with a young lady, also in her teens; the love ran so deep on the lad, that when he came to his home on Monday, late in the night, he went to bed and dreamed about his love affairs, and it was 9 o'clock in the forenoon when he awoke; the dream was so pleasant that he commenced to sing, "home sweet home," and home he went and he lives on love.

C. A. Weaver, our newly elected squire at Coburn, has headed his docket with a marriage ceremony—good for you, Cal.

The High valley scribe has let himself out again about his valley, what they can raise and what they cannot; but one thing they can raise he forgot to mention, and that is the whipperwill apple. A wonderful thing happened in High valley, last summer, the scribe of High valley was manufacturing whipperwill apple suits and the other week his cows got at a barrel of them and they helped themselves, the first churning, to his surprise, he found the churn half full of the best whipperwill apple-butter; now he values those cows highly and is going to feed all his suits to the cows.

James E. Harter and wife, of Coburn, were guests of the latter's parents, on Sunday.

Walker.

The Presbyterians at Jacksonville, will hold Children's Day services on Sunday evening; all are invited.

Prof. Mark and family, of DuBois; Joseph Frain, of Altoona, and Mrs. Sam'l Frain are guests of I. S. Frain.

Rev. Crittenden and his Seneca Indians were at Jacksonville Saturday evening and sang in the Presbyterian church.

Two families are made happy again over the arrival of sons, one to William Orrs and one to J. W. Leathers.

Frank Frain spent Sunday with his father.

Miss Maggie McDowell and friend, of Lewisburg, are visiting her parents.

Theo. B. Hoy attended the Bucknell University commencement at Lewisburg.

Mrs. W. P. Lucas and Jennie Petzer, of Howard, spent Friday at Frank Vonada's.

Mrs. Newton Kling, of Scottsdale, is visiting her parents here.

Al Spayd and family of Hecla, were in town on Sunday.

Boyd Carner and wife, of Hublersburg, visited her father J. W. Shamp.

Mrs. Robert Strunk and daughter, of Bellefonte, visited her sons at this place.

This section of the country is suffering from very dry weather.

Fillmore.

Elmer Limbert and wife and little son, of Aaronsburg, visited among friends at this place Saturday and Sunday.

William Tibbes and wife spent Sunday at Unionville with Domingo.

On Saturday eve 7th, Children's services were held here in the M. E. church, the children did well; it showed they had good instructors; liberal collection was taken up—near $10.

Miss Mabel Norris has returned home from Spring Mills where she has been attending school.

Carpenters stuck their shingles on last Thursday, at Henry Armeysag's new barn; Alie Brown, the foreman, is a hustler and it will be a short job.

On last Thurs-day E. H. Marshall had a paper in Bellefonte for the benefit of the Pleasant Hill S. S.; a number of clever hearted people gave him money; the Editor of the Democrat says he still would give more towards converting Mr. Marshall. We thank all the people that gave to help the good cause alone.

We are glad to say Orle Kelley is getting better again. Our sick list is pretty well cleared up again.

W. F. Dillen transacted business at Fillmore on Saturday.

Moshannon.

The weather has been quite cool in this section for the past few days.

A number of our prominent people attended Children's service at Pine Glen.

Miss Lizzie Fleming has returned home from Spring Mills where she has been attending a summer normal.

Miss Lottie Miller has returned to Jersey Shore, after spending Sunday with her sister, Mrs. H. H. Bowes.

A number of our people visited the show in Bellefonte, on Wednesday.

Misses Margaret and Sarah Loy spent Sunday at their Uncle John Conter's.

The Children's service was well attended at this place.

Raymond Butler having met with an accident, had gone home, but is now able to be at work again.

Violent Attack of Diarrhoea Cured and Perhaps a Life saved.

"A short time ago I was taken with a violent attack of diarrhoea and believed I would have died if I had not gotten relief," says John J. Patton, a leading citizen of Patton Ala. "A friend recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I bought a twenty-five-cent bottle and after taking three doses of it was entirely cured. I consider it the best remedy in the world for bowel complaints." This remedy is certain to be needed in every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is especially valuable for summer diarrhoea in children. It is pleasant to take, never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by Greene's Pharmacy.

Woodward.

On Thursday night, June 5th, at 11 o'clock, the death angle, visited the home of Adam and Margaret Weaver, of Woodward, by calling away her aged mother Lydia Young. (Maiden name Kerstetter) She was born at Coburn, on the 28th day of January, and died on the 5th day of June, 1902, aged 91 years, 4 months, 8 days. She leaves to mourn her loss one child, Margaret Weaver; also two grand-children, James Weaver and Lydia Orndorf, of Woodward; also three great-grand-children, namely: Luther Weaver, of Woodward and Tammie Meyer, of Coburn, children of James and Clara Weaver, of Woodward; and Ray Orndorf, son of Lewis and Lydia Orndorf, of Woodward; one great-grand-grand-child, Maud Weaver, daughter of Luther and Gertie Weaver, of Woodward. She was a consistent member of the St. Paul Lutheran church for some fifty years. She had always been in the best of health up to six weeks before death. She has been at home with her daughter Margaret Weaver, at Woodward, ever since the death of her husband, John Young. Funeral took place on Monday forenoon at 9 o'clock, at the house; she was buried in the Wolf's Chapel cemetery.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hosterman, on Thursday, June 5, when their daughter, Miss Alverna and Prof. Edgar Stover, of Rebersburg, were declared man and wife. Promptly at half past eleven o'clock the interested parties filed into the spacious reception room of the Woodward hotel, of which the bride's father is proprietor; was decorated with fern and spruce, dotted with white roses and other sweet scented flowers. The wedding march was rendered by Prof. Meyer, of Coburn. Miss Lida Hosterman, a sister of the bride, and Dortha Whitney acted as flower girls. The bride was handsomely gowned in cream crepe de chene, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Buck, of Rebersburg, after receiving congratulations all were ushered into the dining room where they found several large tables handsom