

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Local News Compiled During the Week

BRIEFLY TOLD IN A FEW LINES

Movements of Our People—Personal Mention, Society Events—What Has Transpired Worthy of Mention—Short Paragraphs

—Trout fishing was improved by the recent rains.

—A correspondent wanted at every post office in the county.

—Misses Jennie Furst and Elizabeth Gephart are at Atlantic City.

—Col. W. R. Telfer is visiting friends in Bellefonte. He is in his usual good health.

—The new grocery, by the Central Supply Co., near the depot will be opened up this week.

—S. M. Bell, one of Boalsburg's hustling merchants, transacted business in town on Tuesday.

—Prof. A. R. Rutt, Supt. of the Milton public schools spent Sunday as the guest of Prof. D. O. Eppers.

—Rev. E. E. Brooks, of Tyrone, delivered two able sermons on Sunday in St. John's Episcopal church.

—Miss Loretta Brown, of New York, is the guest of her cousin Mrs. John Powers, on North Spring street.

—Tuesday morning came in bright and with pure atmosphere. Every locality reports having had rain.

—Bruce Garman is troubled with another slight attack of rheumatism. Thus far no serious symptoms have developed.

—The venerable Wm. Eckley and his daughter, Mrs. Annie Dawson, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in this place.

—John Dubbs, Jr., express agent for the Adams company in Cumberland, Md., spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

—Albert C. Hoy, formerly of this place, but now residing at Woonsocket, Rhode Island, has been visiting friends here the past week.

—Boyd A. Musser attended the meeting of the executive committee State County Commissioners Association, at Harrisburg, on Wednesday.

—Piano tickets will be given to every visitor at Sim the Clother's store, Saturday, June 21st. See his announcement in another part of this issue.

—The Misses Minnie and Mabel Postlewait, of Oak Park, Chicago, were guests at the Crider home on West Linn street. They are cousins of Mrs. Krider.

—Miss Christine Merriman, after an absence of several months attending Bishopthorp School at South Bethlehem, is at home to spend the summer with her mother.

—Miss Eleanor Ardell is attending the commencement exercises of the Buffalo Kindergarten Training School, her aunt, Miss Lillian Crittenden being one of the graduates.

—Alex. McConnell, one of Col. Reynolds' faithful employes, left Saturday for his mother country, Ould Ireland. He was called to go by the serious illness of his father.

—Al Haupt, one of Bellefonte's old-time printers, but now holding down a good position with the Meyer's Publishing House at Philadelphia, attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Frank Crosthwaite.

—While working on a scaffold in one of the rooms in the Brockhoff House last Thursday afternoon, Rash Williams, the painter, stepped on a loose board which broke and let him fall causing a dislocated wrist.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jennings were arrivals home from Philadelphia Saturday evening, accompanied by Thomas' mother whose home is in the Quaker City and will be the guest of Edward Brown, Sr., while in town.

—Mrs. W. L. Dagget and son, Louis, are at Mansfield, Tioga county, attending the graduating exercises of the Mansfield State Normal school of which Miss Leah Dagget, a niece of Mr. Dagget is one of the graduates.

—Edward Hughes spent Monday in Bellefonte with his father, Rev. James P. Hughes. He is now on his way from Kansas City, Mo., to New York where he is to be permanently located as an electrician for the Western Electrical company.

—General and Mrs. Hastings left Tuesday for their trip to Europe taking the steamer from New York in a day or two. We wish them a pleasant time and safe journey. We understand they will visit England, France, Germany and other parts of Europe.

—Dr. Shreiner in his remarks at the children's day services in the M. E. church, Sabbath evening, stated the fact that he knew of no town of the size of Bellefonte, where the attendance of children at the Sabbath schools of the different churches was as large as in Bellefonte. On the other hand he also stated that he knew of no town where the attendance of Sabbath school children at church was as small as in Bellefonte. The first is very creditable and the latter is a matter needed to be looked after by the parents of those children.

—Cherries are showing up at curb market, 10 and 12 cents per quart.

—Mrs. Jane Harper, of Centre Hall, is at present visiting her son, J. C. Harper.

—Frank Woomeer, of Jersey Shore, spent Sunday with his parents in this place.

—William Wallace Gephart a member of the graduating class at Princeton, is home.

—Landlord H. S. Ray, of the Brockhoff House, spent Sunday with friends in Lock Haven.

—Miss Jennie Fauble, stenographer in the Executive department at Harrisburg, spent Sunday with her parents in this place.

—The Undine fire company will have a good programme for their picnic at Hecla Park, July 4th. Plenty of amusement for all.

—Wm. Pealer, who is administrator of the estate of Edwin Ruhl, late proprietor of the Spring Mills hotel, was transacting legal business in town, on Monday.

—Wm. Johnson, the engineer of the shifting engine at Bellefonte Furnace, is confined to his home by sickness. His position is being filled for the present by William Royer.

—W. N. Kurtz, formerly the bookstore man, spent Sunday in Bellefonte. He is now located at Pittsburg where he holds a position in the advertising department of the Pittsburg Press.

—Miss Jennie Morrison, one of Phillipsburg's efficient school teachers, is here to spend the summer vacation period with her sister, Miss Lizzie Morrison, at their home on North Spring street.

—Gilbert A. Beaver, secretary of Students' work, of Young Men's Christian Association, N. Y. City, and his little daughter, Katherine Simonton, are spending a few days at his parents' home.

—The Methodists will have their picnic on Friday, June 20th this year. The picnic will be held at Hecla. Special trains will be run and the Coleville band will furnish the music. All are cordially invited.

—Miss Jennie Harper is attending commencement at Bucknell college, Lewisburg. After remaining there two weeks, she will go to Williamsport and join her mother, to go camping near Eagle's Mere.

—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Irvin returned from Greenboro, N. C., Wednesday evening of last week and will spend the summer here. He had an opportunity to sell his book store at that place at a nice profit, and took it.

—Miss Minnie Schreyer, of Chicago, is visiting at the home of Mrs. John Harper, on Linn street. Miss Schreyer for the past two years has been a student at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, and is taking a course of designing, and wood carving.

—Hon. Frank B. Keller, of Branville, West Virginia, attended commencement exercises last week. Judge Keller is a member of the West Virginia Supreme court, having received his appointment under President McKinley. He is president of the alumni association of State College.

—The marriage of Dr. Harry Wilson Tate, dentist of this place, and Miss Tillie M. Harmer, of Philadelphia, occurred on Wednesday evening, June 18th, in Grace Baptist Temple. Broad and Berks streets, Philadelphia. After the wedding journey Dr. Tate and his bride will make their home at Mrs. A. M. Hoover's in this place.

—Editor Miller gave the Hit Medical Concert "aggregation" a piece of his mind in Friday's daily, and on Saturday evening the "Hit man" hit back and gave John C. a dose from the tempered vials of his wrath, whether for stomach, liver or kidney trouble, we do not know, but the "hit" went for the brain and that was not on the program of remedies.

—Too many National holidays results in very few being observed. Flag Day, on Saturday was generally overlooked. Traveling from Philadelphia to Bellefonte that day, at but one town along the route was there any noticeable display. Flag Day is useless. Sentiment for the Flag, should be fully embodied in Decoration Day and 4th of July, which are gradually being overlooked.

—Editor T. H. Harter and wife, Miss Bessie Musser and Charles T. Mensch left on Monday to join the outing of the Penna. State Editorial Association, at Cambridge Spring, near Erie, this week. During their absence Francis Speer will be the High-Mucky-Muck about the Gazette office. For that reason look out for some blistering effusions this week from the caustic pen of "That" man. Give him a wide berth during this week.

—Children's Day, last Sabbath, in the Methodist church, was fittingly observed. The church was most charmingly decorated, with plants, flowers, and evergreens. The children's exercises were set apart for the evening, and were attended by one of the largest audiences that ever entered the spacious audience room. The music selected for the occasion was of a live, soul inspiring order and rendered with elegance and precision. The recitations were most creditably spoken by the little ones and the flag exercise was an elegant feature. The pastor, Dr. Shreiner, lent interest to the exercises by occasional remarks of encouragement and admonition.

—Lawyer Gettig transacted business at Ridgway the other day.

—Ed. Sellers, of Oak Hall, transacted business in town Saturday.

—Col. Reynolds added three fine carriage horses to his other teams in the stable.

—Mrs. Laura Elliott has gone to Oswego, Kan., to visit her son, who resides at that place.

—Capt. Hiltz, of Buffalo, N. Y., is assisting Ensign McIntyre in the Salvation Army work at this place.

—Home strawberries this season are not as luscious as last year. The dry and cool weather accounts for it.

—Geo. A. Witherite, a veteran from Clarence, was transacting business at the county seat a few days ago.

—Rev. George A. Brown, of Bellefonte, officiated at the several services in Trinity Episcopal church, at Tyrone, last Sunday.

—Mrs. Shortlidge and her daughter Miss Annie went to Chicago this week to visit Mrs. Nolan and her mother Mrs. Davidson.

—Miss Bella Rankin, one of Bellefonte's successful primary school teachers, visited at the McFarlane mansion, near Boalsburg.

—Miss Margaret Cook, daughter of A. J. Cook, who has been taking a course in biology, at the University of Pennsylvania is home again.

—Bellefonte's educational system is equal in standard to that of any inland town in the state. And we have school edifices to correspond.

—The general committee of the Fourth of July demonstration, to be held in Tyrone, has engaged the Coleville band as one of the crack musical organizations to take part in the celebration.

—Bob Hunter and J. C. Meyer, Esq., are at Granby, Mo., looking after the zinc mining operation owned by local capitalists. They will likely extend their journey further west to Colorado.

—Andrew Lytle, of College township, who underwent a serious operation in the Hahneman hospital at Philadelphia about three weeks ago, was here on Saturday and he is now almost fully recovered.

—Ward Fleming, junior at Haverford; Wallace Reeder, who was graduated from the same institution this year; Will Ventriles, now senior at Princeton, are among the students who arrived home the past week.

—Little Maria Steele, who was so severely burned last week while having a lighted paper, mentioned in our last issue, died on last Thursday afternoon, after much suffering. She was the daughter of David Steele.

—A meeting for the purpose of transacting special business by the A. O. U. A. M., of Bellefonte, will be held at Frank Davis' residence, east Logan street, next Tuesday evening. All members are urged to be present, by order of committee.

—Chas Houser, the young man who was shot by the policeman for resisting, on the day of the Main show, is almost recovered from the injury. It was only a flesh wound and, under ordinary care, soon healed over. He was able to be about during the past week.

—Tyrone is going to have a big 4th of July celebration. What will Bellefonte have to keep us all from going to Tyrone? The Millbailers have called off their proposed 4th of July tear-up and will have to go elsewhere if they wish to hear the eagle scream.

—Several thunder gusts, with hail in some sections, passed over the county during the latter part of last week, bringing copious and refreshing showers of rain, striking different portions, and were beneficial to most of the crops and vegetation generally. These showers favored different localities in succession.

—Brigadier McIntyre, who is superintendent in charge of the Salvation Army in this part of Pennsylvania and a portion of New York State, will be in Bellefonte on Sunday and has accepted the invitation of the W. C. T. U. to address a large audience in Petrik Hall at 2:30 p. m. Brigadier McIntyre is the brother of Ensign McIntyre. He has been in active christian work for seventeen years and is a speaker of magnetic power and eloquence. Everybody is cordially invited.

—At the meeting of delegates from the several agricultural societies in the state at State College last week, for the election of trustees, Joel A. Herr presided. The election resulted as follows: Charles M. Schwab, John A. Woodward, Dr. M. E. Conrad, Charles W. Stone, Walton Mitchell. The last named was the selection of alumni, he being a graduate of the class of '90 and is now located at Pittsburg, Pa. These trustees are elected to take the places of those whose terms have expired.

—There have been thunder showers passing over the county, every day for a week, some favoring one locality, some another, and no section of the county has been missed. These rains were very welcome and will do much to help the suffering corn and timothy, potatoes and gardens. For the hay crop these rains were too late, except that the timothy may be benefited somewhat yet. The wheat crop, unfortunately for the farmer, will be much below the average. Only the most favorable weather from now until fall will insure a fair corn crop.

—Concert at Hecla Park to-morrow evening.

—Merchant Sigmund Joseph is laid up with rheumatism.

—The 28th is the last day for $4 photos at $1.69 the doz. at Mallory & Taylors.

—Only one more week to take advantage of Mallory & Taylor's offer on photos.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Munson and son John, are away for a ten day visit to the seashore.

—Charles Trout, of Tyrone, spent Sunday as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith.

—P. F. Keller, George Emerick, and constable Runkle, all of Centre Hall, were over here yesterday.

—Messrs. C. M. Bower, E. R. Chambers, and W. E. Gray, transacted legal business in Phillipsburg this week.

—Miss Louisa Callaway sang a solo in the Episcopal church last Sunday evening which was enjoyed by all who heard her.

—You will regret it if you do not get a doz. of our $4 photos for $1.69. The 28th is the last day at Mallory & Taylor's.

—Witmer Smith and family have returned from Williamsport where they had been attending the funeral of Mrs. Smith's father.

—Very little special business was transacted at council on Monday evening. Borough Solicitor Portney gave an opinion that council had a right to place water meters and charge an established rate.

—Mrs. Isaac Maitland, who had been visiting at the home of her father, Daniel Garman, Esq., was called to her home in Williamsport by the serious illness of her husband. He is somewhat improved since then.

—Jacob Gross has rented the office building next door to Dr. Klump and will remove his tailoring establishment to the new location in a few days. This will give him ample opportunity to spread himself.

—Dr. Robert Hayes, physician of Freeport, Ill., is visiting his brother, Dr. Thomas R. Hayes. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and is on his way to attend the reunion of his class in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. A. G. Furst was at Milton, Pa., owing to the illness of her father, when the wind storm or cyclone struck the town last Friday. Her father's house, at which she was staying, was unroofed and the house adjoining completely demolished.

—Rev. M. J. Jamison, of Altoona, was a caller yesterday, while on his way to Gregg township, his native place. Rev. Jamison is a son of Fred Jamison and pastor of the United Ev. church, in the mountain city, where so many Centre county people abide.

—The Methodist people of Bellefonte will hold their picnic at the park to-morrow, Friday. The Coleville band will be present and remain to give an evening concert in the pavilion. These concerts will continue during the summer as long as appreciated by the public.

—Ex-sheriff B. F. Shaffer, of Nittany, was a caller on Monday and were pleased to observe an improved appearance in health. The sheriff informed us that his peach orchard would yield scarce any fruit this year, owing to the freeze, and that other peach orchards in that section were perhaps only a few points better.

—While fishing at Poe Creek last week County Detective Joseph Rightmour, in a peculiar way, came in contact with a poisonous plant and as a result was confined to his bed several days since, suffering much from the trouble. We can't go into particulars, enough to say that it is a severe trial for him. Joe can explain how to avoid such experiences, which it is well to know.

—Sunday morning Miss Rebecca Rhoads sang a solo in the Presbyterian church that was much appreciated by the audience. During the past winter Miss Rhoads had been in New York City where her time was devoted to voice culture and with good results. This was her first appearance before a Bellefonte audience and proved a delightful surprise.

—Col. W. Fred Reynolds was appointed a member of the Board of Inquiry to investigate the charges against the Right Rev. Ethelbert Talbot, Bishop of Central Penna. Bishop Talbot is charged by Rev. Dr. Irvine that he wrongfully unfrocked a priest to gratify the malice of a woman, and that he disturbed the peaceful relations of St. John's parish at Huntingdon. The case promises some sensations; the trial will take place in Harrisburg, commencing July 1st.

—At the school board meeting, Monday evening, the following standing committees were announced: Finance—J. P. Harris, W. H. Crissman. Account—Heine, Crissman, Hard P. Harris. Supplies—Quigley, Hard P. Harris, Heine. Repairs—Hard P. Harris, A. C. Mingle, Jari us Waite. Grounds—Waite, Portney, John P. Harris. High School—John P. Harris, Portney, Rees. Text Books—Crissman, Mingle, Quigley. Library and Books—A. C. Mingle, Heine, Waite. One who is familiar with school work in Bellefonte, can readily understand, from the above, why G. W. Reese was chosen to succeed D. F. Portney.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Samuel Walker, of Salona, were guests at the home of their son W. Harrison Walker, Tuesday. They found him happy in his handsome home.

—Robert Burns, editor of the State College "Times," is frequently seen in Bellefonte for evening sessions. He is a good fellow and deserves encouragement.

—Mrs. Agnes Martindale, of Illinois, and Mrs. Wm. Curry, of Danville, returned to their homes Tuesday afternoon after a pleasant visit in Bellefonte with their niece, Mrs. J. C. Meyer.

—William Dawson and Miss Lizzie Malligan of this place, were married at 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the Catholic parsonage by Rev. P. McArdie. After the ceremony they went to the home of the groom's father on Half Moon hill, where a reception was tendered them.

—The Committee appointed to select places and time for holding local farmers institutes in Centre county met in the Arbitration room Tuesday, arranged to hold two institutes. One at Rock Spring and one at Spring Mills. Time about the last week of December or first week of January.

—The "Hit Medicine Co.," of Elmira, N. Y., is drawing large street crowds every evening to hear their free concerts in which some excellent singing is done. They sell medicine, of course, and appear to be disposing of a considerable quantity. As to the quality of their goods, we cannot say and leave that point to Dr. John Miller, of the Daily New, for discussion.

—"Gospel Workers" is the name of a new religious element that visited our town last evening. An exhorter accompanied by a female quartette, who were fine singers, each playing a banjo, drew a large crowd on the streets. They announced they were simply going about to advertise their big camp meeting, at Pine Station, July 12 to the 20th.

Hailstorm Destroys Crops.

A heavy electrical hail and rainstorm swept over Mifflin county, Saturday night, doing great damage. Telephone and telegraph wires were burned out. The heaviest damage was done by hail to the fruit trees, young plants and growing crops in the vicinity of Burnham, Yeagerstown and in Ferguson valley, where it is said hailstones as large as ordinary hen's eggs fell.

—J. Victor Royer, B. q., left this afternoon to attend the 7th Annual Bible Conference of the Young Men's Christian Association, at Eagles Mere.

—The prizes given by the Bellefonte Academy to the scholars were as follows: The James Potter Hughes Mathematical prize of $10, given by Rev. J. P. Hughes, was awarded to Ralph Van Valin, of Unionville, and the Classical prize was equally divided between Merrill Russell, of Butler, and Elliott Vandevender, of Bellefonte.
