

The Racket

"Victor" Talking Machines.

"HIS MASTER'S VOICE"

$15, 25, 35 and 45. "Gold Medal" for superiority over all competitors at Buffalo.

Columbia Bicycles.

Chain $40, Chainless $50. Hartforda $30. U kno if U ride a Columbia U ride the Best—and Cheapest, too, in the long run.

The Shoe Dep't offers U a Bush-el or more of Ladies' Shoes and Slippers at 35c. If U can find U'r size U get a bargain sure.

Correspondents' Department.

(Continued from Page 7.)

Mingoville.

Calvin Fulton met with an accident on Monday which might have proved seriously. He was out in the woods making rails when the axe glanced cutting a deep gash about four inches long in his left foot, severing the artery. Dr. McCormick dressed the wound which required six stitches.

J. M. Dale and family, of Bellefonte, are spending a week at the club house.

Daniel Peters was unfortunate enough to have his foot smashed by a tie falling on it.

A band of Gospel workers, from Williamsport, stopped at the park several hours on Thursday. They did some fine singing.

The fruit crop will be small in this section.

J. Snook, wife and children, visited her parents at New Lancaster, over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Vonada, of Hubersburg, visited at the hospitable home of John Guiser, on Sunday.

MINGOVILLE NO 2.

Sunday school was organized at this place on Sunday. The officers are as follows: F. W. Shamp, superintendent; Hezekiah Sproul, assistant superintendent; Calvin Guiser, secretary; Charles Guiser treasurer; and Mary Workman and Miss Cross, librarians.

I wonder why Mike likes to spend the Sunday at Colyer? I guess a Miss Somebody draws him.

James Deitrich was visiting his parents over Sunday.

Jacob Snook, of this place, went to Milroy, on a visit, over Sunday.

Mrs. Peter's mother, from Unionville, was visiting at this place, over Sunday.

Mrs. Loyd Peters is still on the sick list.

Joseph Herman was taken so since that curious grubbing hoe was found in Rag valley, that he took to driving the mule in the mountains so that he could find the pot of gold but he did not succeed yet. Seek, and ye shall find, Joe.

Church was well attended on Sunday at Hecla.

Mrs. Jacob Dunkle is getting a new roof put on her barn.

Ferguson.

Levi Bathurst lost a valuable cow this week, he also recently lost a fine driving horse.

Mrs. Newell McCalmont is laid up again.

Daniel Dreibelbis and wife spent Sunday at Spring Mills.

Mrs. Geo Baldwin and children, of Chicago, are visiting her friends.

Our minister, Mr. Aikens, was elected last week a trustee of Susquehanna University. Last Sunday he spent in the Sugar valley charge, installing Rev. J. A. Dunlap, and also took part in the fiftieth anniversary of that congregation.

Wednesday was the raising of a new barn on David George Meek's farm. The best dinner that the old farm and the market could produce was set before 200 workers under the trees in the orchard. Ammon Kerstetter, of Pleasant Gap, was the builder.

Joseph Hess, son of C. B. Hess, of Rock Springs, is seriously ill at Nova Springs, Iowa, with appendicitis.

Hannah.

A. L. Sharer and wife, and three little children were the guests of Mrs. Jerry Sharer over Sunday.

John W. Wilson cut his foot very badly but we are glad to say is able to be out again.

Mrs. Bertha McMonigal was home to see her mother. On her return home she found one of her little girls very ill.

Miss Madora Sharer who has been sick with lung fever and rheumatism, is improving.

The members of the M. E. church are working at the new church at Hannah. They will have a fine building when it is finished.

The gardens and fields look fine since the rain. Cherries are getting ripe in this section of the county but are not very plenty.

Rev. Dillon made a pleasant call on Mrs. Jerry Sharer and daughter.

To Correspondents.

Correspondents will kindly note the fact that no paper will be issued from this office next week. For that reason omit correspondence for that issue, but we would like to hear from you the following week. Let us know what is going on in your community.

Heavy frost in Sugar valley on Tuesday morning.

Coburn.

Mrs. G. W. Stover left Tuesday of last week, for Collins, W. Va., where she is visiting her sons, Perry and Kreider, who are engaged in lumbering.

Harvey Vonada, of near Woodward, was a visitor in our town last week.

C. H. and T. A. Meyer were looking up some timberland west of State College, on Wednesday.

J. Frank Bible and his new wife, of Centre Hill, spent their first night of wedded bliss at our hotel.

Miss Sarah Beekey, who had been staying with Mrs. Amelia Everett, returned to her home in Millinburg.

Miss Verna Rearick, of Spring Mills, spent several days at the home of W. J. Harter last week.

Tom Walls, who did the baking for the Coburn bakery, left last week and now Ziving Weaver is chief baker. He kneads the dough because he and his customers need the bread.

Last Saturday evening the school directors selected Stanley Mallory, of Rebersburg for the Mountain school and T. A. Hosterman for the Gentzel school.

The Citizen Water Co. started again to dig the trench to bring pure water into town.

It is said that Ambrose Bartges, who works at Slate Run, and Miss Bertha Rote who went to that place about two weeks ago, are married and are keeping a boarding house at a lumber camp.

Mrs. J. Weaver and sister Mrs. Howard Musser, of Woodward, visited Mrs. A. B. Meyer, daughter of Mrs. Weaver, on Saturday.

The Children's day exercises in the Evangelical church was well attended on Sunday. The singing was excellent, also the recitations given by the children.

Lizzie Vonada recited "Saved and Saviour" very well, and Marion Kerstetter held the attention of the audience with "Curfew Must Not Ring To-night."

Arbor Everett and Edward Winkleblech visited at the home of Michael Everett's last Sunday.

Randall Harter spent a few days at home last week.

The festival was well attended on Saturday evening.

T. A. Hosterman wears the broadest smile in town since that little girl came to his house to stay.

Our band will go to Madisonburg next Saturday to furnish music for their picnic and festival.

Certain boys were seen driving some cattle to Millheim boro. Now boys, I will inform you, to save trouble, don't attempt it again.

Quite a number of the Meyer folks attended the funeral of Newton Stover in Aaronsburg last Sunday.

Centre Hall.

Prof. W. A. Krise, who had been ill for the past two weeks, is able to be about again.

Miss Emily Alexander, of this place, has a class of some forty scholars in music at Tyrone.

Edward M. Kerlin, who for the past seven months has been an employe at the Middletown, Connecticut, asylum, is home for a two weeks' stay.

Mrs. A. E. Kerlin and son William left last Thursday for Glasgow, Cambria county, to visit the former's brother, Rev. Wm. J. Wagner, who is serving a Lutheran charge at that place. They will be absent about two weeks.

Mrs. Katie Boozer, of Centre Hall, now 85 years of age, is seriously ill.

The Board of Directors of the Farmers' Mut. Fire Ins. Co. held its quarterly meeting at Runkle's hotel, Centre Hall, last Monday. Applications amounting to $53,145 passed.

Mrs. J. T. Atlee and her mother Mrs. Harper, of Tyrone, are visiting in town.

John Miller arrived Tuesday from Du Bois for a short visit.

Fred Kurtz, of Bellefonte, was in town on Monday.

Cly. Reesman is slowly improving.

Sim Gross and wife are proud over the arrival of a young son.

The new creamery building is near completion. It is larger than the one burned.

Colyer's new farm buildings east of the Fort are under way, the barn is nigh ready for crops.

It is reported settled that lumberman Huyett will leave here in the fall and move to Bellefonte.

Rebersburg.

The Reformed Children's exercises on Sunday was a success; the church was crowded to its utmost.

Rev. Crumbling, P. E. of the Ev. church preached Saturday evening and Sunday morning. Rev. Crumbling is a man who believes in preaching the pure message in a clear and vivid way.

Miss Mary Meyer, who was attending the State Normal school in Lock Haven, is home.

Millheim.

John Burns and wife, of Shamokin, are visiting Mrs. Rebecca Schliefer.

Mrs. J. W. Reifsnnyder visited at Linden Hall last week.

Shem and Wm. Auran, of Milroy, visited their aunt Mrs. J. Spigelayer, last week.

Miss Bessie Sturgis returned from Dickinson Seminary to spend the summer here.

Misses Margaret and Mollie Bolander, of Middleburg, Mrs. Allison of LeRoy, and Laura Runkle, of Centre Hill, were entertained by Mabel Zeigler, Saturday.

Ed. Pressler and wife, of Williamsport, visited with his mother recently.

Mrs. W. W. Boob and daughter Grace, of Cincinnati, spent last week here.

Harry Kister, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his parents here.

The Lutherans will observe Children's Day the coming Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. F. Smith and daughter Anna, attended the double wedding at the home of J. K. Moyer at Centre Mills, Wednesday.

David Ulrich and wife spent Sunday at Madisonburg.

Jos. and Jennie Reifsnnyder and Mrs. Boob and daughter spent Sunday at Farmers Mills.

D. M. Morris and wife, of Loganton, is here visiting.

Frank Keen, of Nittany, visited friends at this place.

Clarence Long, of Mackeyville, was here buying up live stock; he says business is brisk.

Mrs. Susan Stubecher, of Rebersburg, was calling on her friends; she is nearly 84 years old.

Clem Gramley and J. A. Brungart, of Brush valley, attended the horse sale.

Mrs. Chas. Grim, of Madisonburg, was in town Saturday.

Enos Erdly, of Jacksonville, was in town Tuesday.

D. J. Hubler and wife, of Tylersville, were in town Monday.

J. H. Reifsnnyder and wife visited with her daughter Mrs. W. H. Boob at Rebersburg, Monday.

The Gentzle horse sale on Friday only lasted an hour and 20 minutes. The crowd was not so large, but the bidding was lively; this was the 5th sale for Mr. Gentzle this spring; there were a number here from a distance, and the demand was greater than the supply.

Mrs. Boyd Wilson, of Bellefonte, visited friends here last week.

Miss Ida Carson, of Nigh Bank, visited her sister, Mrs. Ellery Brown.

Miss Ida Weber, of Lock Haven, was in town while on her way to Mrs. Jacob Gentzel's, at Sober.

S. M. Campbell is attending commencement at New Berlin.

Mrs. Andrew Campbell, of Shamokin, is spending some time at this place.

F. P. Musser and W. F. Smith were in attendance at the Democratic Convention at Erie.

Zion.

Mrs. Samuel Decker left on Monday morning for Pittsburg, and from there she will travel for points westward and will spend several months with relatives.

Mrs. Dr. Fisher spent several days in Williamsport with her mother last week.

Merrill, if you don't want to get the balance you mustn't go to the ridge because, Old Jess don't want em tators to be trotted upon by Fannie.

There never was a goose so gray. As sometime, soon or late. An honest gender came that way. And took her for his mate.

Some of the farmers began to make hay, which will be a very short crop.

Mrs. Wm. Rothrock and children, of Williamsport, is visiting with her parents, W. B. Shaeffer's.

Miss Mary Struble is spending several weeks with relatives, at Lewisburg.

Cyrus says he is sorry because it isn't a little sawmill fellow.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Sharer spent Sunday, at Rebersburg.

VARIETY OF COUNTY NEWS.

(Continued from Page 1.)

some are sowing corn for a crop of fodder which will furnish feed for the winter.

A. A. Pietcher, of Nittany, has taken up the agency for the Christopher Sower Co., Philadelphia, public school text books. In his list he deserves special mention of Brooks, arithmetics and Algebra. Brumbaugh's readers, and other standard text books. He proposes to call on directors to explain the merits of his line of books.

IN ADJOINING COUNTIES.

The Centre countians in Blair county will hold their next annual reunion on August 23rd.

The Howard Athletic Association defeated the Flemington base ball team on Saturday by a score of 2 to 0.

George W. Dunlap, a son of Rev. J. A. Dunlap, of Loganton, was injured in a street car wreck at Pittsburg last week.

Contracts for the stone and brick work of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in Lock Haven were awarded on Tuesday night.

A couple of Pilgrim Brethren evangelists have pitched a tent in North Philipsburg and are holding gospel meetings each night, except Saturday.

The framework of the recently burned Evangelical church at Clintondale is being raised. The festival held on a recent Saturday evening brought in over ninety dollars.

A large tube mill is one of the prospective industries on which the citizens of Tyrone are building with much hope. It is to be an immense concern and located a short distance west of the town.

Dr. F. J. Pond, State College, and Miss Nellie Oids were married at Circleville, Ohio, on Tuesday 17th. Several years ago Miss Oids spent a winter in State College at the home of her cousin Mrs. W. L. Poster, and it was then that she and Dr. Pond became acquainted.

The fastest run ever made on the middle division of the Pennsylvania railroad was made Saturday when the fast mail train, No. 11 covered the 132 miles between Harrisburg and Altoona in 129 minutes, averaging a fraction over 60 miles an hour. The run was made necessary on account of the train being behind time.

The first ordination of priests in the new diocese of Altoona was completed at St. John's pro-cathedral at Altoona, on Thursday, when Right Rev. Eugene A. Garvey ordained James Michael Quinn and Gerard B. Welch, of St. Vincent's college, Latrobe, and Francis P. Cochran, of Canada, and John L. O'Donnell, Mount St. Mary's college, Emmittsburg, Md.

The 12-year old son of Charles Campbell, of Ulysses, Tioga county, who was supposed to be lost in the woods several weeks ago, has been found in a gypsy camp. Men searched the woods for days and on one Sunday parties of men and boys numbering hundreds spent the day in the woods looking for the lost boy. Saturday the boy was found in a gypsy camp near Port Allegheny.

In the railroad improvements east of Altoona it is the intention of the Pennsylvania railroad to eliminate a sharp curve, making a comparatively straight line between Altoona and Bellwood. To do this it will be necessary to build a tunnel 400 feet long. Over this tunnel will be built the new gravity classification yard. The passenger and through freight tracks will be independent of all others.

John A. Kling, of Lewisburg, was struck by a south bound Fast Express on the Reading railroad Saturday morning and instantly killed. Kling and a man named Keiser, of Watsonstown, were walking on the Pennsylvania tracks, which at the place where the accident occurred ran side by side with the Reading. They stepped from the Pennsylvania tracks to avoid a train and Kling was struck by a Reading train. Keiser escaped without injury.

The Potter township school board elected the following teachers: Thos. L. Moore, Earlystown; Jacob Bible, Potters Mills; John F. Miller, Cold Spring; Geo. Smith, Centre Hill; Bertha Duck, Egg Hill; Jennie Sweetwood, Cross Lane; Edna Krumrine, Tusseville; David Foreman, Fleishers Gap; John Portney, Colyer; J. Spangler, Pine Stump. (declined); Cora Love, Pine Grove; Prof. Krise, Mannor; Mr. Noll, Plum Grove; Tussey Sink and Rock Grove, vacant.

Miss Fredrica Harpster, of Spruce Creek, probably saved the life of Henry Lambert, of Seward, Westmoreland county, Thursday 19th. These young people were united in marriage at the bride's home at Spruce Creek, at 8 o'clock by Rev. Edgar Eugene Brooks, of Tyrone. Mr. Lambert is an employe in the Cambria Powder company's mill at Seward, Westmoreland county, and during his absence on the important mission of getting married, there was a serious explosion at the mill where he is employed, in which three men were killed and five others were injured.

Cuts, Bruises and Burns Quickly Healed. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment, and when applied to cuts, bruises and burns, causes them to heal without maturation and much more quickly than by the usual treatment. For sale by Greene's Pharmacy.

SUMMER WEARABLES

OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS.

COPYRIGHT, 1902 A. B. KRESCHBAUM & CO.

Everything that is new and attractive.

Up-to-date Flannel and Homespun Coats and Trousers, in the nobbiest styles. Two button double breasted, single breasted and Norfolk Jackets.

A new lot of Homespun Trousers just received. There are the new cuts to be worn with belt, and turned up at the bottoms.

Another new line of Neglige Shirts in white, also neat figures.

Straw Hats and Panamas. The straight brim Sailor is having quite a run for it is a dressy hat. Softer braids in Mackinaw for the men who want solid comfort, and a big line of the rough braids for nobby dressers.

Everything here in abundance for the glorious 4th.

Come now and make your selections.

MONTGOMERY & CO.,

PROGRESSIVE CLOTHIERS.

MEN, HERE'S A SAVING!

MEN'S SHIRTS:

Stiff and soft bosoms; some have collars attached, some with two separate collars; all have separate cuffs, worth from 50 cts to $1.00 On sale Saturday - - - 25c.

Assorted lot of shirts worth from 30 cts to 45c, light and dark colors, all sizes 19cts.

SUSPENDERS:

Heavy Suspenders—linen stitched back, extra long; neer sold under 25 cents. On sale Saturday 15 cents.

Suspenders worth 20c, metal back, - 8cts.

CELLULOID COLLARS,

Two styles - - - - - 5 cents. Cuffs per pair - - - - - 10⁰⁰cents.

The Globe,

KATZ & CO., Limited. - BELLEFONTE, PA.