

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County.

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Penn Cave.

The weather is very unfavorable for the farmers to get their grain in the barns.

Two of our young sports Sundayed at Aaronsburg.

Mr. Noll was a pleasant caller at Mr. Weaver's, on Sunday; Cora says so at least.

There is a rumor afloat that there will be bushmiking in Wert's Grove, in about two weeks; the Escherits will have it.

I think the Murray Sunday school should have a picnic before long.

B. B. Miller is at work at the white church, below Penn Hall.

Mrs. Hall, of Lebanon, Ohio, is giving her parents, Daniel Weaver's, a pleasant visit at present.

Harvey Hough wears a broad smile since the arrival of a new farmer at his place.

We hear that Will Weaver has ordered a new bicycle; then look out for Bellefonte. How is it Will?

George Weaver was to the examination at Bellefonte, on Tuesday.

PENN CAVE NO. 2.

Bruce Rossman and wife were to Penn Cave to visit his parents, Lewis Rossman's, on Sunday.

Sallie Vonada, of Fiedler, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Heckman, at present.

Clarence you had better travel that road a little more—why it's getting grassy.

Last Friday evening one of the happiest crowds that ever assembled in Brush valley paid a visit to Benj. Lambert for the sole purpose of celebrating his fifty-ninth anniversary. So noisy were they that they might have been taken for a flock of wild geese and so unexpected was it that the gentleman took no notice of them. They entered the house and surprised him completely, but he soon recovered from his fright and enjoyed himself as much as any of the others. The crowd enjoyed themselves to the utmost, not only by friendship and conversation, but also by partaking of the refreshments provided for the occasion. They had about twenty gallons of ice cream and about two dozen cakes and so busy and industrious were they, that all the cream and all the cakes, except the crumbs, were eaten. Then when all had supplied their physical wants and enjoyed themselves satisfactorily they, at a very late hour, returned to their homes with the assurance that neither they or Mr. Lambert would ever forget the 18th of July, 1902. Much credit should be given to his children, which are as follows: Herman, Agnew, Allen, Blanche, Gertie and Nannie, for accomplishing such a gift to their father. He also received many valuable gifts. Those present were as follows: Isaiah Fiedler; Bessie, Nevin and Edna; Newton Fiedler and wife; Harry Fiedler; Chas. Wise; Sarah Musser; Michal Duck, Bertha, Flora and Allen; Frank Duck and wife, Chas. and Loyd; Mr. Frankenberg and wife and Dora; Geo. Tresler and wife, Viola; Harvey Hough and wife, Carrie and Elsie; Donner Ordorf; Ella and Wm. Phillips; Andrew Ocker and wife, Della, and Sadie; J. C. Rossman and wife, John, Elmer and Abner; Israel Rachau and wife, John and wife, Katie; Jennie Bartholomew; Geo. Weaver, Wm. and Cora; Mr. and Mrs. Musser, Clarence, Harry, Carrie, and Ester; T. A. Yearick and wife.

Unionville.

Andy Rowan is on the sick list. Hundreds of eels have been caught in the Bald Eagle.

Miss Margaret Cambridge had all her apple butter stolen one night recently.

Miss Harriet Hall, of "Farmers' Retreat" did some fancy shopping in town on Saturday.

Miss Ella Brooks, of Philadelphia, cousin, of T. E. Griest, is visiting at the latter's home.

Bennie Fredericks, of Batchelor's Grove, was in town on Saturday evening.

Elmer White's barn was destroyed by fire on last Thursday night. He had three or four loads of hay in it. The origin of the fire is not known.

"Vint" Stevens, living a few miles west of town, has a cow that gave birth to a calf that is totally blind.

Grandma Holtzworth and her jolly granddaughter, Bessie Brown, left for several months visit to friends in Lancaster and other eastern points.

Miss Mamie Rich who has spent the last six weeks at Bedford Springs and Hollidaysburg, returned home a few days ago looking more bright and cheerful than ever.

Our venerable friend, Geo. W. Peters, who is an octogenarian, surprised our people on Saturday evening by rolling in a motor and other eastern points.

Miss Mamie Rich who has spent the last six weeks at Bedford Springs and Hollidaysburg, returned home a few days ago looking more bright and cheerful than ever.

Penn Cave.

The weather is very unfavorable for the farmers to get their grain in the barns.

Two of our young sports Sundayed at Aaronsburg.

Mr. Noll was a pleasant caller at Mr. Weaver's, on Sunday; Cora says so at least.

There is a rumor afloat that there will be bushmiking in Wert's Grove, in about two weeks; the Escherits will have it.

I think the Murray Sunday school should have a picnic before long.

B. B. Miller is at work at the white church, below Penn Hall.

Mrs. Hall, of Lebanon, Ohio, is giving her parents, Daniel Weaver's, a pleasant visit at present.

Harvey Hough wears a broad smile since the arrival of a new farmer at his place.

We hear that Will Weaver has ordered a new bicycle; then look out for Bellefonte. How is it Will?

George Weaver was to the examination at Bellefonte, on Tuesday.

PENN CAVE NO. 2.

Bruce Rossman and wife were to Penn Cave to visit his parents, Lewis Rossman's, on Sunday.

Sallie Vonada, of Fiedler, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Heckman, at present.

Clarence you had better travel that road a little more—why it's getting grassy.

Last Friday evening one of the happiest crowds that ever assembled in Brush valley paid a visit to Benj. Lambert for the sole purpose of celebrating his fifty-ninth anniversary. So noisy were they that they might have been taken for a flock of wild geese and so unexpected was it that the gentleman took no notice of them. They entered the house and surprised him completely, but he soon recovered from his fright and enjoyed himself as much as any of the others. The crowd enjoyed themselves to the utmost, not only by friendship and conversation, but also by partaking of the refreshments provided for the occasion. They had about twenty gallons of ice cream and about two dozen cakes and so busy and industrious were they, that all the cream and all the cakes, except the crumbs, were eaten. Then when all had supplied their physical wants and enjoyed themselves satisfactorily they, at a very late hour, returned to their homes with the assurance that neither they or Mr. Lambert would ever forget the 18th of July, 1902. Much credit should be given to his children, which are as follows: Herman, Agnew, Allen, Blanche, Gertie and Nannie, for accomplishing such a gift to their father. He also received many valuable gifts. Those present were as follows: Isaiah Fiedler; Bessie, Nevin and Edna; Newton Fiedler and wife; Harry Fiedler; Chas. Wise; Sarah Musser; Michal Duck, Bertha, Flora and Allen; Frank Duck and wife, Chas. and Loyd; Mr. Frankenberg and wife and Dora; Geo. Tresler and wife, Viola; Harvey Hough and wife, Carrie and Elsie; Donner Ordorf; Ella and Wm. Phillips; Andrew Ocker and wife, Della, and Sadie; J. C. Rossman and wife, John, Elmer and Abner; Israel Rachau and wife, John and wife, Katie; Jennie Bartholomew; Geo. Weaver, Wm. and Cora; Mr. and Mrs. Musser, Clarence, Harry, Carrie, and Ester; T. A. Yearick and wife.

Unionville.

Andy Rowan is on the sick list. Hundreds of eels have been caught in the Bald Eagle.

Miss Margaret Cambridge had all her apple butter stolen one night recently.

Miss Harriet Hall, of "Farmers' Retreat" did some fancy shopping in town on Saturday.

Miss Ella Brooks, of Philadelphia, cousin, of T. E. Griest, is visiting at the latter's home.

Bennie Fredericks, of Batchelor's Grove, was in town on Saturday evening.

Elmer White's barn was destroyed by fire on last Thursday night. He had three or four loads of hay in it. The origin of the fire is not known.

"Vint" Stevens, living a few miles west of town, has a cow that gave birth to a calf that is totally blind.

Grandma Holtzworth and her jolly granddaughter, Bessie Brown, left for several months visit to friends in Lancaster and other eastern points.

Miss Mamie Rich who has spent the last six weeks at Bedford Springs and Hollidaysburg, returned home a few days ago looking more bright and cheerful than ever.

Our venerable friend, Geo. W. Peters, who is an octogenarian, surprised our people on Saturday evening by rolling in a motor and other eastern points.

Miss Mamie Rich who has spent the last six weeks at Bedford Springs and Hollidaysburg, returned home a few days ago looking more bright and cheerful than ever.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Jonathan Condo, of Jacksonville, spent a day with Mrs. Condo's sister, Mrs. Maggie Keller.

Mr. Roush and wife, of Penn Hall, spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Detwiler.

Prof Wm. T. Meyers, of Philadelphia, has come to spend a month with friends in town.

Mrs. Barner and children, of Yeagerstown, were the guests of Sam Beavers.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, on Saturday eve, the Ev. Sunday school had a fair attendance at their festival.

Pierce Bright, of Altoona, is spending a month with his brother-in-law, merchant E. A. Beaver.

Edgar Mingle and wife attended the funeral of Mr. Stover's child, which was held at Woodward Sunday forenoon.

Messrs. Catherman and Charles, of Hartleton, were seen at the festival on Saturday evening.

Miss Bertha Hosterman, of Woodward, Saturday at Squire H. K. Summer's.

The funeral services of the infant son of Herbert Condo were held in the Lutheran church, on Saturday forenoon.

Mrs. Katie Weaver presided as organist in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening.

Miss Minnie Beaver was circulating among her many friends, on Monday.

Fiedler.

A sad and distressing accident occurred on last Friday morning, at the home of Harris Stover. Lowell their only child fell into the spring and was drowned. His age was 1 year, 7 months. The child was unusually bright and his sudden demise will be severely felt by parents and grandparents, being the only grandchild. They have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement. Funeral at Woodward on Sunday by Rev. Buck.

On last Thursday morning lightning struck the house of R. E. Hinds, damaging the roof and chimney, and demolishing a window, then down the spouting.

Mrs. Johnathan Condo and child, from Jacksonville, are visiting her parents Harvey Stover and other relatives.

Harter Bro's are erecting a sawmill on their farm south of this place and will be ready to begin sawing in about a week.

We are having lots of rain and farmers are trying to get their grain hauled in between showers.

Fred Malone had the misfortune to cut a gash into his hand while splitting wood one day last week.

Robert Hosterman is suffering with a sprained shoulder, the result of trying to shoe a vicious colt.

Roland.

Reynolds Shope and wife, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Henry Shultz.

Elmer Bryan is all smiles since a little boy came to his home to stay.

There is talk of a wedding in the near future; if you don't believe it just ask May.

Going for huckleberries is all the go now.

Some of our girls went for raspberries and Minnie got after them, and they had a sham battle.

Anna Ebbs is visiting her nephew, Henry Shultz.

Mrs. Henry Shultz is on the sick list this week.

We had some very heavy storms over this part of the county.

Mrs. Lada Fink, of McKeesport, visited Mrs. Henry Shultz one day last week.

On Sunday evening, July 13, Children's Day services were held in the Ev. church; the house was filled to its utmost capacity; the program was well rendered; the children all did their parts nobly. All seemed pleased with the exercises and return thanks to Miss Alice Neff for playing and assisting Mrs. Shultz in drilling the children.

Tylersville.

The festival that was held last night was not so well attended on account of the rain.

On Thursday evening quite a few of our young folks gathered at the home of Newton Walizers, spending the evening in playing games, after which ice cream, lemonade, bananas and cake were served, to which all did justice; they departed wishing many more such happy evenings.

Quite a few people were to Greenburg to attend the funeral of little Raymond Tyson, Sunday afternoon.

Ferdinand Miller, wife and little son Harry, of Centre Oak, are visiting his parents at this place.

Miss Edith Shrack and Maggie Shreckengast came home after a short visit with friends in Pittsburg.

Miss Celeste Weaver is paying her parents a short visit.

Miss Nina McCloskey, of Nittany, was seen on our streets Sunday.

Potter's Mills

Hay making is about done and the wheat is all cut and some hauled in the barns.

George Michals was visiting at Millheim over Sunday.

One night last week there was a man and his wife cultivating potatoes by moonshine.

Alick McCoy sold a horse to Jim Decker, of Pine Grove, for $150.

The huckleberries are plenty around here this year and sell for 5 cts. a quart.

The apple crop is a good one here this year.

Now at Hand.

The season for diarrhoea and dysentery is now on and many are interested in knowing how to get quick relief. There is one remedy that never fails and is pleasant to take. Read what Mr. W. L. Story, of Union, Ala., says of it: "I had an attack of flux (dysentery) which lasted about two days, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured by two doses of it." This remedy is for sale by Green's Pharmacy.

FIND THE SEXTON AND HIS AID.

Ferguson Twp.

Jon Gummo, after suffering from lumbago, is able to be about again.

Mrs. Sarah Louck is visiting in Altoona.

Mrs. D. H. Krebs is improving from her illness.

Mrs. Levi Krebs went to Williamsport to enter the hospital for treatment for her spine.

Hezekiah Ewing, of State College, went to Philadelphia Tuesday to enter the Jefferson College hospital for treatment for a tumor.

John Musser, while chopping wood recently, a splint of wood penetrated the ball of his left eye, and will give him trouble for some time.

Rev. Isaac Kider, of Duncansville, preached a very able sermon in the Lutheran church on Sunday morning, 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reed are off to Atlantic City.

Thursday mornings' 17th, hail storm was the worst the Pine Grove country has had in years. Many panes of glass were knocked out of the houses. The corn fields were riddled, especially along the Branch.

The venerable L. H. H. Schrader, who had so far recovered from his recent illness as to be about, had a relapse.

A special train will be run over the Tyrone and Lewisburg branch on Aug. 2 to accommodate those who wish to attend the harvest home picnic at Baileyville on that date.

Rural free delivery inspector, Smith went over our free delivery route last Thursday with the mail carrier, and was well pleased with the way it was conducted. He says it makes a better showing than many of them do.

Frank Bowersox came home from Philadelphia last Saturday. Frank is putting himself through a pharmaceutical school.

D. G. Meek recently put up a new barn on his property beyond Meek's church, and has given the place into the care of Adam Smith, who impresses one as being a careful farmer.

G. B. Campbell has had a new roof put on his barn.

J. A. Decker was blessed with a fine hay crop this year, when everybody else's hay was a little thin. He has an immense field of timothy, and it stands very thick.

Zion.

The grain is all cut and nearly all in the barns; some hay to make yet of first crop, while some fields will make more the second crop than they did the first. Corn and potatoes doing well, apples will be a fair crop, while peaches will be scarce.

John Stein is nursing a sore hand at present.

John after this you had better leave "the plantation on the hill" before daylight on Sunday morning, as Joel says he hates to act secretary of the Sunday school.

The Zion band will furnish the music for the festival to be held at Lamar on the 26th of this month.

The Nittany Valley reunion that was held in Gentzel's grove, 1 1/2 miles south of Zion, was a failure in the day time; but in the night a fair crowd gathered and the boys realized a nice sum; the baseball game between the Hecla Athletic Club and the band boys, was stopped by the rain.

Cora seems to be awful down hearted since the festival but Harry said he couldn't help it.

Frank G. says he hopes the rural mail delivery will soon commence; we suppose Cora H. will be glad too.

Samuel Decker and children spent Sunday at Pleasant Gap.

Milesburg.

Charles Price, of Altoona, after a pleasant visit with his son Charles, of the burg, returned home on Sunday last.

Mrs. E. M. Singleton, of Dassel, Minnesota, is a pleasant guest at the home of Jermina H. Parson, her sister.

The Rev. Crouch, of the United Ev. Association, delivered an excellent sermon on Sunday last; text "God's Riches in Mercy," he aimed and brought out some very good points on earthly riches, and divine; showing how earthly riches will separate itself from you, and divine riches will remain with you.

Lizzie and Della Shay, after a brief visit with friends in Howard, returned home much delighted with their visit.

Mrs. Frank Neff, of Tyrone, was a guest of Mrs. Margaret Fulton recently.

Mrs. Thomas Cullen, Mrs. Edward Cullen, and Arthur Cullen, all of Portage, are guests of Mrs. Wesley Crain.

On Thursday last the Orris sisters, Misses Ida and Bess, left for Philadelphia and Cape May, to spend a two week's vacation.

William Shore was cutting weeds along the Bald Eagle Valley R. R., and came in contact with poison vines; he now carries the full contents of the vines on his hands and arms.

Rebersburg.

The latest topic for discussion is that our sister town has a new name, viz., Brook Gap. Quite an honor to the town to make the change.

Prof. Meyer, of Bellefonte, is the guest of Prof. J. N. Moyer, of this place.

Mrs. Chas. Wooding and son, of Philadelphia, are the guests of friends at this place.

Frank Shultz of near this place, had an exciting experience last week. On entering his grain field with the binder, his team of young horses took fright and became unmanageable. The animal with two others in the machine, ran off, demolishing the binder.

Most of our farmers are done cutting hay and till this paper will be in print will be done cutting grain.

Henry Wolford is out delivering his extracts and perfumes.

Curtin Greninger and family, of Williamsport, are the guests of H. W. Corman.

Elmer Miller and family, from Brook Gap, made a call at C. C. Bierly's.

C. O. Moyer's sale was well attended, on Saturday.

A. N. Brungart took his new machine through our burg.

Everybody anticipates a fine oats harvest.

Geo. Breen, who has been working in Pittsburg during the last month, is home again. Nothing like home and mother's table.

The past rainy season has brought anxious feelings to many a farmer's heart, about the golden grain yet unprotected.

Miss Alma Gramly, one of our town belles, who has been visiting in Pittsburg for the past few weeks, is home again.

Stray cattle are a dangerous thing to unfenced yards and gardens.

R. D. Bierly has finally accepted the contract to cover the ditch of the main pipe line.

Who is the girl of eighteen to marry an aged widower?

Rev. Harmon talked very plainly to store loafers on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Rev. Solly, of Virginia, is home to spend the summer with her parents.

Farmers desiring to purchase a good binder, would do well to consult C. McGramly. He sells a good one.

Yarnell.

Mrs. Austin and daughter Stella, of Bald Eagle, were the pleasant guests of Jonathan Packer's.

William and Eddie Walker, who are employed at Hayes Run, spent Sunday at home.

Miss Frances Confer was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward Burd at Holt's Hollow.

Geo. Walker is at present on the sick list.

Larming Irvin and son Roy, of Runville, spent this week at this place.

Caught while fishing—a turtle. Owner can have same by calling on Francis Confer, proving property and paying damages.

Thomas Croft wears a broad smile now, as his wife presented him with a bouncing big boy, Saturday.

Several new songs can be purchased by writing or calling on Wm. Field Walker.

West Brushvalley.

Misses Carrie and Elsie Haugh were the guests of their friend, Miss Jennie Bartholomew, on Sunday.

Thomas Scholl and wife, of near Farmers Mills, were visiting friends in this section, on Sunday.

Israel Rachau and wife spent Sunday in Nittany valley.

Miss Jennie Bartholomew left for Spring Mills, last Tuesday, where she will stay for some time.

J. S. Hoy, who was employed at Pittsburg, is at present in Penns valley.

Most of our farmers are done hauling in wheat and next we'll hear the roaring of the threshing machine.

On Friday evening of last week quite a large surprise party was gotten up at the residence of Benj. Limbert.

A WELL KNOWN ALBANY MAN.

Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

About eighteen months ago Mr. W. S. Manning, of Albany, N. Y., widely known in trade circles as the representative of the Albany Chemical Co., was suffering from a protracted attack of diarrhoea. "I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," he says, "and obtained immediate relief. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to those similarly afflicted." Sold by Green's Pharmacy.

Coburn.

Last Thursday morning during a thunder storm lightning struck a rye shock and reduced it to ashes, on the farm where Jacob Breen lives.

Morris Ammon Braucht, who died in the Lock Haven hospital, July 16, was brought to this place on Thursday morning and the funeral services were held in the Ev. church, in Millheim, on Saturday morning, by Rev. J. D. Shortess. His age was 23 years, 8 months and 12 days. He was an intelligent and useful young man with a bright future before him. For about two years he had been employed by the P. R. R. Co. and at the time of his illness was working in the station at North Bend, but was to take charge of a station at Montandon this week. He is survived by his parents, John and Priscilla Braucht and three brothers, Edward W., of this place, a public school teacher; Harvey S., who is practicing medicine at Spring Mills and Newton F., a telegraph operator at McEhattan. The following from a distance attended his funeral: Charles Kerstetter, of Milton; N. F. Braucht and family and Miss Alba Simcox, of McEhattan.

Luther Bower and family, of Aaronsburg, called at the home of the former's brother, J. O. Bower on Sunday.

On Sunday night the one year old child of E. C. Harter, of Yeagerstown, formerly of this place, died and was taken to Woodward on Monday, where interment was made on Wednesday.

Elmer Kooney, who had been working in Harrisburg, came home on Saturday to visit his family.

Wm. Kerstetter, of Linden Hall, visited at J. A. Kooney's over Sunday.

Miss Pearl Mallory, of Rebersburg, is at present staying with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Tarbert.

Miss Loda Wyle, of Aaronsburg, is working at the hotel at present.

Merrill Miller and Chas. Mallory are on the sick list. We hope they will soon recover.

John Vonada and his lady friend made a visit, on Sunday afternoon to the old Corman homestead about two miles east of this place.

A Correction:—Two weeks ago we stated that it was said that Ambrose Barges, of Slate Run, was married. Thinking that some of our ladies would believe the report he notified us to say through the Centre Democrat that he is still a single man, like Charley Kurtz, and ready for chances. The mistake occurred because the lady at the camp wrote her name Mrs. A. C. Barges.

Two water companies in town and still not enough pure water. Some of our young boys had to drink "fire" water on Saturday evening.

Colyer.