EDITORIAL.

IT is significant that whenever Bryan makes a speech the imperialist organs make an uneasy-like note of the fact, but neglect to print his facts.

PENNSYLVANIA Grit, of Williamsport, recently celebrated its 20th anniversary with the opening of their new building which is one of the largest and finest publishing plants in the state. Grit has made wonderful progress for the reason that it is one of the best family papers published. It has succeeded purely upon

THERE is admirable modesty about the Rev. John Thompson, of Rockford, Ill., who declines to use the "D. D." recently conferred on him because he believes that the title should be "reserved for men who have displayed extraordinary attainments or have accomplished great things in their work." This man's good sense is wonderful and is more valuable than scholarly attainments.

If not, then they do not want him. The coming of the comet will be watched with interest whether Spooner will "come down."

IMPERIALIST organs keep babbling about the democrats criticizing the conduct of the war in the Phillipines. Not to tell its readers that the most bitter and telling speech against the manner of conducting the war in the Phillipines, was delivered in the senate by the oldest and ablest member on the floor, Senator Hoar of Massachusetts. No one has undertaken to reply to Mr. Hoar's arraignment of the administration's conduct of the war. And further, ex-speak. er Reed has said much harder things about the Phillipine war than any democrat. It is no easy matter for these organs "to jaw" at the democrats, to distract attention from the wrongs committed in the war, but the solid and field county, was struck by lightning on truthful and scathing remarks of Hoar, Reed, and other republican leaders, are kept from the eyes of the people so far as these organs can hide them.

PENNYPACKER has resigned his seat on the bench, and Quay will have him take the stump when the campaign opens. This event is looked forward to with much amusement and some interest, to see how the Judge will explain his assertion that "Pennsylvania has no evils to complain of," and what good he can adjudge in the infamous doings of the machine legislature, whose iniquity startled the whole country. How he will be able to apologize for the willful neglect to pass the sacredly promised ballot reform legislation? How he will explain the meaning of the charge of Elkin that "by some mysterious power" his delegates were gotten from him the night before the convention nominated Pennypacker. and by which he (Elkin) was defeated? And last but not least, opposing the election of Gen. Beaver and making speeches for Stewart the nominee of the independents. We repeat, these things it will be amusing to hear Pennypacker explain, now that he is the clown in the Quay cir-

DR. WOLF'S RE-UNION.

All arrangements have been perfected for the reunion and celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the work of Dr. D. M. Wolf as an educator. Advices from his former pupils indicate a very large attendauce upon this occasion, the 7th of August at Allison's grove, Spring Mills, Pa.

Efforts are being made to secure excursion rates between Bellefonte and Rising Springs and Coburn and Rising Springs and if possible a special return train will be secured from Rising Springs to Bellefonte. There is perhaps no one in Central Pennsylvania who has contributed so largely to the advancement of human character and the elevation of young men as has Dr. Wolf, and the project which has originated in the minds of some of his pupils is a very fitting tribute to the splendid work he has been doing in the last half century.

A Correction. Through false reports, a misunderstanding has been cast over the country concerning the boarding house at the Dr. Wolf Reunion, which should be corrected.

The privilege of furnishing meals and retreshments has been secured from the different committees on the Dr. Wolf Reunion by the Penn Hall Band. This band has just purchased a set of new instruments and are taking advantage of this occasion to raise funds to pay them and are to turnish music for the Reunion in return for the committee's kindness. Meals will be furnished at 25 cents.

FRIGHTFUL WRECK.

A fast mail train on the Penn. R. R. was wrecked along the Conemaugh river near Bolivar Wednesday. The train was running at an unusual speed when the engine swerved in rounding a curve, plunged into a solid rock, exploded and rebounded down a 200 foot precipice into the Conemaugh river. The engineer and fireman were instantly killed; they were from Altoona. The balance of the train was reduced to mere wreckage, consisting entirely of mail cars. Charles M. Foster, of State College, railway mail clerk, was on the train, in the rear car fortunately and escaped without any injuries. He lost his valise and clothes in Horse Taken From Stable.

Liveryman George C. Haney, of Mill Hall, writes to George Beezer of this place as follows: "My bay horse, blind in right eye, bobbed tailed, mane clipped, hind feet white, weight about 925 lbs., hitched in top buggy, was taken from my barn July 21st by man crippled that region is about all worked up. in hand and uses crutches and giving name as Frank Blair. The Methodists of Windber dedicated their new house of worship on Sunday. The new church was begun seven months ago and cost $4,000; it was dedicated free of debt.

The Pennsylvania legislature unanimously passed a resolution at the two last sessions declaring in favor of the election of United States senators by the vote of the people. What have the people now to say of Quay and Penrose, who both dodged the vote on the question? It is easy to understand why such senators are not willing to risk their ease with the people, but, if the people have any spunk they will call on them to explain why they refused to obey their wishes as expressed by their representatives in the legislature. Penrose not only refused to support the measure, but attached an amendment to make sure of killing it. If the citizens of Pennsylvania mean anything when they say through their newspapers and their representatives that they want their senators to support a bill to allow the people of the United States to be allowed to vote on the question of electing senators they will take the opportunity this fall to resent the insult of Quay and his man Friday in not only refusing to support the bill recommended but actually ridi-culing it.
