KNOX TELLS OF ASSAULT

Attorney General's Party Insulted in Atlantic City Restaurant.

NO POLITICS IN THE AFFAIR

Boisterous Language of Philadel phians Caused the Trouble, Which Ended in a Lively Fist Fight-Mr Knox Was Not Injured.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 9 .- Attorney General P. C. Knox, upon whom an attack was made by three wealthy Penn sylvanias at Atlantic City Wednesday night was the guest of the president, accompanied by his wife. When seen here yesterday, the attorney-general told the story of the attack upon him. which he characterized as snameful "It was one of those disagreeable incidents," said Mr. Knox, "that sometimes occur in a restaurant or other public place. Accompanied by Mrs. Knox, my daughter and two or three friends, including District Attorney Young, of Pittsburg, I was dining in the restaurant of the Garden Hotel. A party of men, none of whom I knew, seated themselves at an adjoining table. Their conduct was unseemly and boisterous. They talked loudly and their comments upon members of my party and upon me were insulting, to put it mildly. In the circumstances, accompanied as I was by the ladies, I could not resent their actions or their words at that time. They evidently were seeking trouble, so without attracting any more attention than possible, I got my party out of the restaurant.

"Then I returned," continued Mr. Knox with a smile, "to see if the men really were looking for me. I think they were for scarcely had I approached them when they sprang up. One of them aimed a blow at my stomach, but it failed to reach me. I have no idea who he was. What happened to him I am not prepared to say. Those things occur very quickly. I am quite satisfied, however, that he does not feel as well as I do. You will note that I am looking first rate."

"You do not know who were in the party of your assailants?" the attorney general was asked.

"Not positively. I understand that Chas. T. Schoen, of Philadelphia, and one of the Cramps, also of Philadelphia, were in the party, but even of that I am not at all positive.

What actuated them I do not know. A newspaper said that it had something to do with my attitude on the trust question, but that seems to be entirely unlikely. As they sat at the table in the restaurant they made no reference to the action which, as attorney general, I have taken against certain socalled trusts. Their remarks were personal to me and my family, and were of such a character that I could do nothing but resent them.

"I understand that after I left the restaurant at the conclusion of the difficulty, the waiters suppressed the crowd with some energy."

A gentleman who was a member of Mr. Knox's party said that after Mr. Knox escorted the ladies from the restaurant and returned he expressed his opinion of the actions of the party in a vigorous manner, whereupon one of the men seized him roughly. District Attorney Young, quick as a flash, struck over Attorney-General Knox's head, landing on the assailant. He retaliated and seized Young by the throat. One of Mr. Knox's friends dealt him a chopping blow on the head The waiters rushed forward and threw themselves upon him, bearing him to the ground. It was all over in an instant. It was a purely personal affair. and politics had nothing whatever to do with it.

WASHED FROM THEIR GRAVES Awful Result of Cloudburst at Madi

Madison, N. J., Aug. 12.-With scarcely a warning a cloudburst broke over Madison Sunday night, and with in a short time had spread ruin oc every side. Roads became rivers, bridges were swept away, and, most terrible of all, the Presbyterian ceme tery, on the west of the town, was flooded and hundreds of bodies were washed from the graves. News of the calamity spread, and soon nearly a thousand men were at work trying to secure the coffins with the bodies in them from the rush of waters.

in many cases the rescuers were prevented by the flood from doing anything, but about a bundred corpses were taken from the water and carried to dry land. Undertakers from all over the county were summoned, and disinfectants were freely used to prevent any pestilence. In many cases there was no way of identifying the bodies, which were washed out of the coffins, and they will have to be interred again as nameless persons.

The country for miles around is all excitement, and thousands of penple are on the scene looking fer traces of their dead

Besides the destruction of the ceme tery the tracks of the Lackawanna Road west of Madison was destroyed a washout and one train was wrecked as a result. The engine overturned and the brakeman was killed and the conductor and engineer perhaps fatally injured. The roads are Impassable to vehicles for miles in every direction.

Expired at His Summer Home In Massachusetts of Heart Failure. Washington, Aug. 11.-A dispatch was received here yesterday announcing the death of James McMillan, of SENATOR JAMES M'MILLAN OF MICHIGAN. Michigan, at an early hour yesterday morning at his summer home at Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass. Death was the result of heart failure, following congestion, after an illness of a very few hours. The news came as a great shock to his friends here, as when the senator left Washington shortly after the adjournment of congress he appeared to be in good health and looked forward with much satisfaction to a quiet and restful summer.

Senator McMillan was a native of Ontario, having been born in Hamilton, May 12, 1838, but in early life removed to Michigan, and for many years has been prominently identified with the business interests and political life of that state, having for a number of terms been chairman of the Republican state committee. He has been a member of the senate since March 4, 1889.

JUDGE GRAY'S SUCCESSOR

President Appoints Oliver Wendell Holmes to the Supreme Bench.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 12.-President Roosevelt yesterday afternoon announced that he had appointed Hon. Oliver Wendell Holmes, chief justice of the supreme court of Massachusetts, to be an associate justice of the United States supreme court, vice Justice Gray, resigned.

The resignation of Justice Gray was due to ill-health. Several months ago he suffered a stroke of apoplexy, which some time later was followed by another. He has not appeared on the bench since he was stricken the first time. His advanced age-74 years-told against his recovery with serious force, and he decided to resign. He was appointed an associate justice by President Arthur on December 19, 1881, his service extending, therefore, through a period of nearly 21 years.

has selected as Justice Gray's successor, is one of the most distinguished lawyers and jurists of Massachusetts. His career on the bench, particularly as chief justice of the Massachusetts supreme court, has attracted wide attention. Like Justice Gray, he is a native of Massachusetts. He is a son and namesake of the late Dr Holmes, the poet and essayist.

BRYAN DECLINES FOR GOOD Says Positively He Will Not Run For

President In 1904. Muscatine, Ia., Aug. 9 .- William J. Bryan settled for all time the rumors that he will be a candidate for president in 1904 in an interview yesterday while on the way to Danville, Ill., where he spoke last night. Colonel Bryan, when shown reports that he might again be a candidate, was much nettled, and expressed himself in no uncertain manner. He said he wanted the matter settled right now, so there could be no further question. The Mason City interview, he said, was unreliable.

"I will not be a candidate for president in 1904," said Mr. Bryan. "While I would act promise never to be a candidate again under any circumstances, I have no plans looking to the future nomination for any office. am perfectly content to do my work as a private citizen and enjoy my editorial work. I shall continue to advocate with tongue and pen reforms which I believe to be necessary."

Oleo Makers Cannot Use Palm Oil Washington, ug. 12.-Mr. Yerkes, the commissioner of internal revenue. has made a decision on the question of whether palm oil in very small quantities may be used in the manufacture of oleomargerine. The com missioner holds in the negative. Mr. Yerkes says that after making a full unalysis of the somples submitted, it was found that the oil was rancid, of bad taste and smell, and that it was considered wholly unfit for use in Struck Oil While Digging For Water. Mass City, Mich., Aug. 11,-While digging for water on his homestead near here, John Person uncovered a vein of oil which gushed out in large volume. Already the petroleum has covered several acres some inches deep and a lake is being rapidly formed, no apparatus being at hand to stop the flow. The oil is of excelient quality and appears to be inexhaustible in quantity.

Rockport, Ind., Aug. 12.-Julius Hoffman, a German farmer, 65 years of age, committed suicide yesterday, and before doing so burned between $5,000 and $6,000 in money, that his young wife, with whom he is said to have had frequent quarrels, might not enjoy its benefits.

STRIKERS RAID FARMS

Are Foraging in Agricultural District of Catawissa Valley.

FARMERS ASK FOR PROTECTION

If Troops Are Not Sent to Prevent Raids They Will Appeal to the Sheriff-Soldiers Feeding Hungry Women and Children.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 12.-Complaint was made to brigade beadquarters yesterday that strikers are foraging in the rich agricultural district of the Catawissa Valley, which spreads its broad and fertile length along the other side of the mountains north of this city. The life of one farmer has been threatened because he attempted to protect his property and the raids have reached such serious proportions that the farmers are preparing to take some concerted action to stop further depredations. The complaints reached headquarters yesterday afternoon, and it is not unlikely that cavalry will be sent into the district for the purpose of stop ping the raids. If the cavalry is sent there it is probable that a platoon of the troopers will be left in the valley to patrol the farms day and night. The farmers are drawing up a petition asking for protection, which will be sent to the sheriff in case General Gobin decides not to send the troops into the valley.

Lucien Munbeck, a farmer, reported that for some time past raids have been made on his place by parties of men. Early yesterday morning he caught a man tearing out whole stalks of corn. He ordered the man off the place, and as he was leaving he fired two shots at the farmer. The latter was armed, but did not shoot. A widow who owns a farm reported that several men come on her premises and started to dig out potatoes. She ordered them off the patch, but they paid no attention to her, and did not leave until they had taken all they needed. One farmer has several men patrolling his farm day and night The foragers do not confine themselves to stealing crops, but also take away with them chickens and geese.

The soldiers in camp are daily feeding several hundred women and children. They come there, saying they are hungry, and as there is more than enough food in the camp to supply the wants of the men, the officers permit the soldiers to give something to the needy applicants. The number that came last week was small. but it is increasing every day. Some of the women and all of the children come to the camp in their bare feet Mary of them bring baskets to carry the food home. It is a common sight to see some of the women and children take scraps from the leavings of the soldiers. Colonel Hoffman, of the soldiers. Colonel Hoffman, of the soldiers. the soldiers. Colonel Hoffman, of the Eighth Regiment, was asked if all of these persons were foreigners, and he replied that a good many belonged to the English-speaking classes.

The officials of the Mine Workers' Union deny there is any actual want. They maintain that the local unions are well able at this time to take care of all cases of distress. The strike situation remains unchanged, and the region hereabouts is peaceful.

LIVELY BATTLE AT THROOP Deputies and Strikers Exchange Shots, But Hit No One.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 12.-A lively battle occurred last night between deputies and strikers at Throop, an isolated mining village six miles north of here. Scores of shots were exchanged, but as far as is known no one was hit. The one colliery in the village is operated by the Pancoast Coal Company, a branch of the Ontario and Western coal department Last Tuesday the washery was started under the protection of armed dep uties. There has been some stone throwing at the deputies and clubbing of workmen, and on several occasions the deputies discharged their guns to frighten away the boys who pelted the washery with sling-shots.

Yesterday at noon the four deputies guarding the company's pumping station, located on the river bank, were driven to cover by a volley of shots from the opposite shore. They returned the fire and silenced the attack. Last night when darkness fell the attack on the pump house was renewed. The company anticipated it and had a big force of deputies on hand. For an hour bullets flew thick and fast. The attacking party seemed to concentrate its fire on the pump house, for it was fairly riddled with bullets. The deputies shot into the bushes on the opposite shore, only 100 feet away, making a target of the apot where the flashes of the assailants' guns were seen

The strikers evidently quit because of their ammunition being exhausted. and this put an end to hostilities.
