What has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Ferguson.

Oran Johnson and wife are gladdened by the arrival of a little son—their first. Mrs. Emanuel Musser, of State College, with her daughter, Mrs. Roger Bowman, of Philadelphia, were royally entertained at Fred Bottorf's home.

Little Sarah, the three-year-old daughter of Thomas and Mary Gates, died of indigestion, and was buried at Graysville. Mrs. Gates lives at Altoona and was here on a visit.

Prof. H. C. Houtz, of Selinsgrove University, is visiting friends here. Dr. F. W. Bailey, of West Milton, is visiting at Fairbrook.

The State College Times: There is a movement on foot to organize a stock company for the purpose of erecting a large hotel on the present site of the college hotel. It is to be a three story brick structure of modern design and to cover the entire lot. The estimated cost is $25,000. The old hotel building will be moved over on High street and fitted up for dwellings.

The Lutheran congregation of Pleasant Gap, Boalsburg and Shiloh has tendered a call to Rev. J. I. Stonesspyher, who has preached trial sermons at all of the above places.

Highvalley.

Plowing is the go, oats is still in the field. The huckleberry pickers are still busy and making money. Michael Snyder, a brother of Jess Snyder, is at present in the valley.

This is no snake story—on last Monday as I was making fence I got in contact with a rattlesnake and while trying to kill her she struck her pangs in a small sunbath that was in her reach. It happened about ten o'clock in the forenoon and by noon the leaves were dyed. It could be seen where she struck; the sap was running out. Here I enclose you the rattles; it was a black snake.

A wonderful corn stock at each end of Highvalley—the stock is ten inches in diameter and ears are like the limbs on a hemlock tree. The Real Estate agent climbed up and when half way up he could see to Georgetown and is sure that he saw the Georgetown scribe feed his frogs, and when he got to the top he saw Pitchtown. If correct, it's a wonderful corn stock.

Mingoville.

Mrs. Mittie Richard and son and Mrs. Simmers, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of the former's father, F. W. Shamp.

Mrs. Christy Struble, of Zion, visited here Wednesday. Mrs. Dietz spent several days with her parents at Howard last week.

Mrs. Lewis Dunkel, of Altoona, is visiting relatives here. Mrs. Sarah Hinds, of Lock Haven, is spending a few days at the home of her son.

Sue Yangorder, of near Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday here. Misses Lulu Johnson, Cora and Nora Whitman, Edith and Clara Weaver, of Hubersburg spent Sunday here.

Rev. Bair, of Howard, delivered a very able sermon in the Union church here Sunday afternoon. Calvin Guiser was unfortunate by having his foot cut while chopping timber on the ridge.

Mrs. Wm. Harnish left for Centre Hall Thursday for a short visit. Quite a number of our young people took in the festival at Hubersburg Saturday.

FRANK J. CHERRY makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHERRY & Co., doing business in the City of Toledo, Ohio, and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CHERRY'S CATARRH CURE which cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

Prosserville.

Wm. Saylor paid a visit home to his family; he is employed at Curtin's Rolling mill; good and experienced men are always in demand.

Don't think because you don't see any young ladies in our town in the forenoon, that we have none. They are all good hearted young ladies.

Samuel Butler, of Romola, was a pleasant caller at our town, the guest of D. W. McCloskey.

If you see a stranger come to the Gap, and inquire for D. W. McCloskey or A. V. Miller, you can set it down that he is from Romola. You are welcome.

Jacob has got to be an expert on the organ; just call and hear him play "Emma, the girl I left behind me."

Our town is still on the increase; a family by the name of Albright moved here. Doc. Gripy is still working at the Valley furnace.

It's Jacob that sports the new buggy and pulls the lines on the little black pony; go in, Jakey and have her trained for we hear you say she'll make a good family horse.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Orrin McCloskey, of Romola, son of W. R. and Leona McCloskey. By the failure of the party entrusted with the dispatch, it came too late for the friends here to attend the funeral.

PROSSERVILLE NO. 2. Miss Lizzie Juster was the pleasant guest of Tillie Shearer, on Thursday.

Mrs. Chas. Rote was the guest of her father, Thomas Shearer, on Thursday. Thomas Shearer, Jr. has gone to Berwick where he is employed.

James Johnson and Miss Elsie McCloskey spent Friday at Summit Hill. R. Jackson, of State College, was the guest of Boyd Hunter on Saturday.

Miss Arie Shearer has come home after a very pleasant visit at State College. William Kelley and wife, of Scottdale, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saylor.

Smullton.

During the past week the oats fields have been pretty well cleared up, and several parties have thrashed.

Quite a number of people have raised their potatoes, which crop is reported fairly good, but some rotting.

Tuesday, Hower Harry, the boy who had his back broken about two years ago, and who was an invalid ever since, was taken to the Williamsport hospital to be operated upon. We would be glad to hear of his recovery, but it is a very doubtful case.

Wm. Emerick's wife and children are visiting at J. S. Emericks. Smith's show will exhibit at Rebersburg, Saturday evening, Aug. 13. This show is the best road traveling show we know of and should be well patronized.

F. V. G. Housman and wife, of Millheim, were the guests of Harry Smull, on Sunday. It is reported that Herbert Smull has bought the 100. Housman home at this place. This looks as though Herb wants to move back to the old place again.

H. H. Stover left Tuesday on a canvassing tour to Penns valley. Thank you, Rebersburg correspondent, for the favor of using direct names in your items of last week. I suppose you are living in the dark as regards to the publishing of names for the purpose of slander, you no doubt are pumped so over-run and you must empty at the expense of reputable citizens. We will bear with you, knowing who you are and hope you will live long and be useful in the work you are engaged in, and am only too sorry that you could not have lived at the dawn of creation.

Elmer Confer and wife, of Sober, visited in town on Sunday.

Aaronsburg.

Charles Stover and family, of Altoona, are the guests of Mr. Stover's father, whose health has been failing all summer.

Mrs. Kartz, of Milton, is the guest of Luther Stover's. Merchant Thos Meyer and family, of Coburn, Sundayed with Wm. Guisewites.

Squire C. A. Weaver and family were seen in the burg on Sunday. Rev. Kreider and wife, of Penbrooke, and Rev. Geo. Lambert and family, of Danville, spent one day last week with friends.

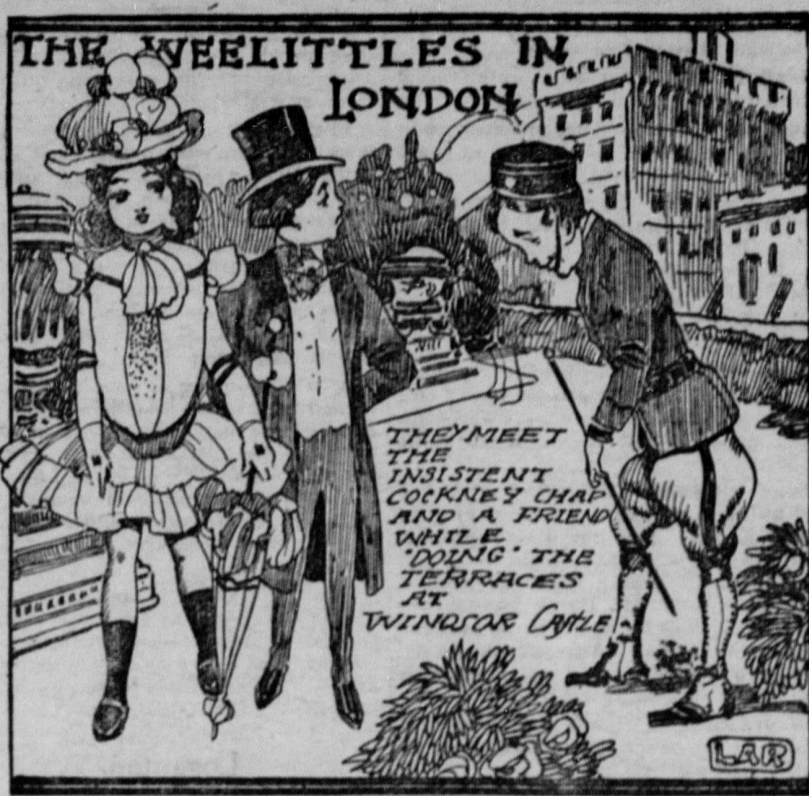

Mrs. Kate Yordy and daughter, of Shamokin, is making her annual visit to her parents, Squire H. K. Summer's. Miss Kathryn Beaver, of Milton, is the guest of her uncle, A. S. Stover.

Miss Lida Yearick, of Woodward, and Victor Brungard, of Rebersburg, were seen at Geo. Weaver's on Sunday. Misses Annie Edmunds and Edna Weaver, of Coburn, spent a few days in town.

Edwin Smull and family, of Beech Creek, spent a few days with Mr. Smull's parents. Mr. Rote and wife, of near Spring Mills, Sundayed with Mrs. Rote's aunt, Mrs. Fred Lambert.

Mrs. Murray, of Centre Hall visited her aged mother at the residence of Lewis Mensch. Not Over-Wise.

There is an old allegorical picture of a girl scared at a grass hopper, but in the act of heedlessly treading on snake. This is paralleled by the man who spends a large sum of money building a cyclone cellar, but neglects to provide his family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a safeguard against bowel complaints, whose victims outnumber those of the cyclone a hundred to one. This remedy is everywhere recognized as the most prompt and reliable medicine in the use for these diseases. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Millheim.

During the past week the weather was fine, the nights were cool; most of the oats is cut and bound, and lots of it won't be fit to use as it was cut green; had lots of rain and was taken in while still wet.

Jas. Reish and family, of Potters Mills, visited his mother at the National hotel Sunday. Mrs. Newton Fiedler and Geo. Hazel, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday here.

J. H. Reifsnnyder and wife visited Jas. Leitzell at Spring Mills Sunday. The public schools will open Sept. 1st; the directors give notice that none but vaccinated children will be admitted; how about the compulsory school law?

J. H. Auman fell down stairs and was rendered unconscious for some time. Sheriff Brungard had a new roof put on the rear of the meat market.

Mrs. J. H. Hartman and Mrs. J. C. Snook, who are on the sick list, are not improving. Harry Cole and Thos. Harter, of Loganton, and Geo. Smull, of Smullton, were at the Musser house Sunday.

Marcellus Sankey, of Potters Mills, spent Sunday here. Mr. Krebs and family returned from Potter county last week.

Mrs. R. J. Smith and children, of Wilkesburg, arrived in town Saturday. Mrs. L. I. Noll is visiting her daughter Mrs. Chas. Sheffer at Dewart.

Mrs. Lottie Harter and daughters are visiting in Altoona. Miss Helen Crawford returned Monday from Altoona. Maggie Kreider, of Nittany valley, spent several days here last week.

Wm. Wiekie, of Philadelphia, is spending his vacation in this place. The Misses Cain, of Bellefonte, are visiting here. Mamie Miller visited Clara Condo at Penn Hall, Sunday.

J. G. Bowman, of Chicago, spent last week in town. Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs and son Leslie, of Centre Hall, visited at the Musser house over Sunday.

Mrs. Sallie Alexander is visiting at Penns Creek. Miss Margaret Weaver visited at Centre Hall last week.

Wm. Myer and family spent Thursday at Axe Mann. Lula Stover, of Boonerville, spent Sunday here. Messrs. Reighard and Sharer, of Shamokin, departed for their home Saturday.

Yarnell.

Miss Ellie Confer is at present visiting her aunt Miss Frances Confer. David James, of Eagleville, spent a few days at this place.

Miss Elsie Confer Sundayed at Fairview as the guest of Miss Mealey Kelley. Miss Tressie Eckley and Mr. Hipple, of Snow Shoe, attended brushmeeting held at Romola Sunday.

Those attending the picnic which was held at Hecla on Thursday, were as follows: Mrs. Rachel Walker, Misses Orpha and Florence Butler, Miss Frances Confer and Arthur Confer.

New, patented sleds have come in our town, they are made in the latest style, two logs laid side by side and a few boards nailed over them loaded with stones, they can be purchased very cheap by applying to —

Preaching service in the U. B. church on Saturday evening. Raymond Butler spent Sunday at home.

Sugarvalley.

Mrs. Peter Gramley raised 16 pounds of potatoes from one hill at Camp Jamison, in Klondyke. This entitles her to the scepter and crown. Sarah Stamm lifted a potato out of her garden the other day that weighed a pound and a quarter.

Charles Schwenk, brother of Harvey and Edward Schwenk in Green township, was drowned while fishing in a river in Washington recently.

David Schrack's wheat crop is the best in the valley. A little more than four acres produced 160 bushels. The wheat is a new variety called the "roomark," introduced into this section eight years ago.

Gay Brungard gathered 200 quarts of huckleberries so far this season, and intends to gather fully as many more. He is an industrious boy.—Journal.

Mrs. Mollie Allen, of South Fork, Ky., says she has prevented attacks of cholera morbus by taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets when she felt an attack coming on. Such attacks are usually caused by indigestion and these Tablets are just what is needed to cleanse the stomach and ward off the approaching attack. Attacks of bilious colic may be prevented in the same way. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Coburn.

Prof. Harry Smith's Show was well attended while here. Lewis had a new cook last week. Amos would like to be the ice man.

Miss Mamie Garthoff, of Bellefonte, spent last week with her friend, Miss Susie Stonebraker, and others in this place. C. F. Corman, of Duquesne, is making a few weeks visit in this community.

Dr. Alexander, of Centre Hall, was a pleasant caller at the home of William J. Harter. The Misses Fleisher, Bottorf and Horner, of near Tusseville, visited at James B. Wagner's, over Sunday.

D. Music, A. C. and E. A. Bartges, who were working in the woods near Slaterun, came home last Saturday. They also brought their cook along home.

Mrs. Cora Hosterman and daughters, Lulu and Estella, are spending this week in Brush valley with relatives and friends. Peter Kessler and wife were in town on Sunday. They took Miss Garthoff along to Rebersburg.

L. L. Weaver, and wife, of Woodward, were welcome guests at W. L. Hosterman's, on Sunday. David Dorman and wife, of Feidler, spent Sunday with Levi Spiglemeyer.

Last Thursday we noticed Robert Geiswite, of Centre Oak, in town. Calvin Meyer, Esq., of Bellefonte, was in town on Monday.

Everybody in attendance at Smith's Show was well pleased. The stereoscopic views were excellent, especially those of our late President McKinley, and those showing the execution of the cruel Czolgoz.

William C. Sheesley was in town on Monday. T. F. Meyer and family spent a few days in Aaronsburg and attended the picnic there on Saturday.

A certain man living about midway between Aaronsburg and Woodward had quite a time to get married. He was with the preacher several times and had to send twice for a license. Although a few days later than was intended he got married at last and will vote for Archey.

Julian.

Mrs. Weller, who has been sick for several weeks, we are glad to say is still improving. Harry Hoover and James Swisher who were employed on the sawmill at Vintondale returned home this week.

John Austin, of Lancaster, is visiting his mother at this place. James Munson, of Philipsburg, spent Sunday at T. A. Ardell's.

Daniel Bowers is suffering with a sore finger, the effects of ball playing. Mrs. Irvin Craig and two daughters, of Johnstown, have been visiting Rev. John Craig's.

The Julian base ball club and Martha ball team will play at Martha, Saturday, Aug. 23d; admission free on grounds. Mrs. J. S. Reed, of Johnstown, is visiting her parents, at this place.

Calvin Holt is improving his house by putting a new porch around his house and painting it. The base ball club met and elected the following officers: Arthur Irvin, sec'y and treas.; Will Williams, capt'n; Walter G. Tallhelm, gen'l manager.

The club will hold a festival Friday and Saturday nights, Aug. 29 and 30; ice cream, cake, fruits and nuts will be served. Also, a supper will be served on Saturday night. They invite everybody to turn out and have a good time. Don't forget the dates.

Any one wanting voice culture can call on Ira Davis, Jr., who will instruct in vocal music.

Houserville.

The sound of the thresher is heard in our vicinity. Wheat is turning out very well; very little oats thrashed yet, the quantity and quality being below the average.

Mrs. Caroline Rumberger, of Philipsburg, spent several weeks with friends at this place. On Sunday about 30 of our town people attended the Grove meeting at Hunters Park. During the afternoon service some gentlemen enjoyed the remains of our lunch which remained in our buggy on the ball field. The good and evil were striving for mastery, we know not which won.

Rev. A. A. Black will hold his annual Harvest Home service next Sabbath morning at ten o'clock; all are cordially invited to attend.

Rural free delivery of mail works like a charm in this community, although we have been unable to get out address changed from Houserville to State College.

Spring Mills.

Among the number of visitors spending their vacation in our village, are a few of the employees of the P. R. R. Co., viz: train master, R. E. Williams and family, and baggage master, A. Warner and family, of Harrisburg; conductor Gries and family, of Sunbury; guests of Prof. C. E. Zeigler. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cameron, of Germantown, (Phila.) and S. E. Gross and daughter Ad.ih, of Norristown, were also here for a few days last week.

The saw mill above the R. R. station, just erected by Frank Finkle, is now in full operation. Quite a number of our people contemplate attending the business men's picnic at Hecla this week.

Weather remarkably cool the forepart of the week. Spring Mills Castle K. G. E. will have their grand picnic on the 30th. Invitations have been extended to several castles, and a day of enjoyment and pleasure may be expected, as it promises to be a large assemblage of "Brave Knights and Fair Maidens."

H. B. Miller, of Allisons Mill, left on Tuesday last for Renova, and may possibly accept a position in the car shops. The corner stone of the new church building (Lutheran) was laid on Sunday last with appropriate ceremony, and witnessed by a large concourse of our people and from the surrounding country.

Miss Florida R. Duck, one of our accomplished and successful teachers, recently appointed teacher of the Murray school, this township, has resigned the appointment, and accepted the position of teacher in the grammar school at Centre Hall; of course her resignation causes a vacancy in the Murray school, Gregg township.

Mrs. Mazie Krape, of our village, died very suddenly on Monday last. Evidently heart failure. Apples seem quite plentiful in this neighborhood. Corman & Son started their cider press on Wednesday, and will start in Tusseville in a week or ten days.

Port Matilda.

On 14th of present month a quiet wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Sharer, widow of the late Jerre Sharer; the parties most interested were B. F. Clewell, of Wilkesbarre and Dorcas M. Sharer, daughter of the above at her home. The couple doifg honor were, James Cowher, of Sandy Ridge and Miss May Rankin, of Philadelphia; the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Dillon, pastor of the U. B. church. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Myrtle Sharer, of Tyrone. After the ceremony was performed and congratulations tendered all sat down to a table loaded with a splendid repast. May the sunshine of happiness and contentment always shine in their pathway and the waters on which they sail be without a ripple.

Perdue Cowher wears an unusual smiling countenance since the arrival of the two young people at his home—a boy and a girl this time; not so bad Daey. Landlord Pennington, of Sandy Ridge, took in the late wedding near Mount Pleasant.

Mrs. Myrtle Sharer, of Tyrone, visited relatives in this vicinity one day this week. James Sharer, of Tyrone, visited at the home of his mother, Mrs. M. A. Sharer, a few days since.

Mrs. Susie Moore and Mrs. Emma Cower rendered valuable assistance at the Clewell-Sharer wedding. Miss Sadie Kennedy, of Sandy Ridge, was a welcome visitor at the home of Mrs. Jerre Sharer during the past week.

Bion Williams and wife attended the Williams reunion at Martha, on Saturday, and spent Sunday with friends in our town. Miss Kate Parker, of Roland, was a welcome visitor at the home of H. O. Osman's.

On August 14, at Martha, a base ball contest between Port Matilda base ball team, No. 1 and Scotia team; score 11-10 in favor of Port Matilda.

Mt. Pleasant.

Mrs. C. M. Tice, of Howard, is visiting at the home of her parents. Miss Jennie Fink, of Tipton, is visiting her parents at this place.

J. W. Grenoble, of near Farmers Mills, took in the festival at Madisonburg last Saturday. N. A. Duck, of Clintondale, spent Sunday at his home.

ANY CHURCH or parsonage or institution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paints whenever they paint.

NOTE.—This has been our custom for twenty-seven years; any building not satisfactorily painted, will be repainted at our expense; about one gallon of Linseed Oil to be added to every gallon of the paint to make ready for use; it's mixed in two minutes, and cost of the paint thereby made less in price than any other. Yearly product over one million gallons.

Longman & Martinez, Sole Agents.—J. W. Glasgow, Coburn, Pa.

Rebersburg.

Rev. Solly, of Virginia, preached to a crowded house in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening, on the following subject: "The wages of sin is death."

Our people are busy raising their potatoes. Rev. Buck administered the Lord's supper on Sunday evening in the Ev. church.

Our merchant W. J. Carlin was in Bellefonte last week. Last week at the Millheim horse sale, Prof. Henry Meyer bought one of those fine horses.

The young folks of the Lutheran Sunday school had a pleasant lawn party on Prof. C. Gramley's lawn. In the middle part of this week Prof. Edwin Brungard and wife will move to Millburg, at which place Prof. Brungard will teach this coming winter.

Rev. Lambert, of Danville, has been the guest of John Moyer for a few days, preached an interesting sermon in the Reformed church on Sunday morning. Clark Gramley and wife are at present in Atlantic City.

Forrest Ocker and wife, of Bellefonte, are at present visiting their parents. Mrs. Annie Ruhl, of Union county, is the guest of her parents, John Ocker's.

Potters Mills.

Cutting oats is about a thing of the past. Thos. Palmer is putting up McCoy's corn house. Call Hashbarger was through here thrashing last week.

Harry Miller is down here working in the blacksmith shop while Harry Fishburn is away. There was a big crowd at the festival on Saturday night at Sprucecreek.

Ammon Vonada and family visited at Frank Herman's over Sunday. Mrs. Belchimer was visiting down at Atlantic City last week.

Mrs. Berkins, of Altoona, is visiting her mother, Mrs. McClenahan, for a few weeks. Ed. Allison is having his new house painted; Auman's, of Spring Mills, are doing the work.

Don't forget the festival next Saturday night at Smith's store, let everybody come and give the boys a lift. McCoy sold another horse to a man from New York.

Frank Carson was married last week to Miss Wilkinson and they went to the eastern cities for a few weeks.

Tylersville.

The festival on Saturday was well attended. Quite a few young people from a distance were present. Miss Celeste Weaver has returned home after a short stay at Mackeyville.

Miss Virgie Caris was a pleasant caller at the home of her parents, over Sunday. Miss Sadie Day has returned home from Wolf's Store.

William Glantz is on the sick list. Samuel Glantz and grand daughter, Florence Lytle, from Ridgway, are visiting friends and relatives of this place.

D. K. Miller and son Oliver, of Lock Haven, are visiting relatives at this place. The Harry Smith's Show was largely attended, and all report having a fine time.

The Misses Rose and Bessie Ruhl were to Rebersburg Saturday to do some shopping. Grandma Rishel, who is in her eighty first year, is visiting friends and neighbors the past week.

Miss Estella Gramley was seen in our town this week. Centre Hall.

Rev. Thomas F. Land, former pastor here, filled the pulpit of the Reformed church, Sunday evening. Rev. W. H. Groh, of Carlisle, attended the Reformed reunion at Centre Hall. He was pastor of the Boalsburg charge many years.

Miss Florida Duck, of Spring Mills, has been elected teacher of our grammar school. The foundry is closed down, and the hands are likely to go elsewhere to seek employment.

Mrs. Lucy Henny has returned from her visit to Pittsburg. The new store building of Geo. Benner is near completion and he expects to occupy it soon, and will then have a large storeroom.

The new dwelling of Dr. Lee will soon be under roof and takes the place of the shabby hut that once stood there. Some of our walks need looking after, else some one may be after damages for injuries sustained.

There is little sickness in our town or vicinity. ALL RUN DOWN.
