G. R. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN.

Dress Linings

Last week we sold more Dress Linings than we ever before sold in any one week. Why? Because we have one of the largest and most complete lines of Linings since we have been in business. The prices are the lowest, at which we ever know equal qualities offered. If you require real good Linings within the next six months, it will surely pay you to see this stock of Linings. Don't put it off, but come in to-day.

A STAY THAT STAYS A STAY

Doubleless you will want to get some WARREN'S "FEATHERBONE" at the same time. This Dress Stiffening is the best you can use. It makes the dress fit better and more comfortably than anything you can get. "Featherbone" comes in 12 and 36-yard coils, and you can buy in any quantity and in 50 cent pieces. You know it is made of genuine quills that gives it a flexibility, lightness and durability that is simply unequalled. You'll find "Featherbone" in our Notion Department.

Dalles Marshall and wife came down the Moon on Sunday and attended Free Methodist meeting.

Miss Lucas, of Tyrone, is visiting at the home of C. H. Kephart's.

It is high time for the Free Methodist or Salvationists to hold a meeting in our midst; we have a member of the M. E. church also of the League lying very low for some time, and will any of the members come and say how often they have been to see this poor man—not one lent a helping hand; it is high time to a thinking point; he is getting better now and now they come, "O, I'm so glad to see you around again." My God help them.

Northwest of the residence of Wm. P. Fisher stands the pretty residence of Irvin Calhoun. Notwithstanding it is somewhat secluded, we venture the assertion that there is not a more beautiful lawn in Centre county than that which adorns this home. The yard contains a profusion of rare and beautiful plants and flowers all laid out in tasteful designs, which must be seen to be fully appreciated. Some of the plants are as follows: "Musa Cavendishii;" last year this plant had leaves, which by actual measurement, were 8 ft long. Another large leafy plant named "Musa Anceuta" a native of Africa, also growing wild, another, Musa Orinoco, a native of Brazil. Then there are three banana trees, though small are of luxuriant growth; then there are Junco century plants, palms, India rubber trees and other plants and flowers too numerous to mention. If some of our multi-millionaires could see this grand sight, his fortune would be made.

Linden Hall.

Robert Karstetter, working at Johnstown at the carpenter trade, is home with his family for a short time.

The Christian Endeavor rally Sunday evening in the Lutheran church was participated in by the three Loganton societies.

County Committee Meeting.

The Democratic County Committee will meet in the Arbitration room in the Court House, Bellefonte, Pa., on Monday afternoon, August 25th, 1902, at 11 o'clock sharp. The purpose of the meeting is the selection of a candidate for a Coroner and to arrange for the coming campaign. We would urge that every member of the committee be present in person, or if this is not possible, see that a regularly constituted substitute will be there in his stead.

JOHN J. BOWER, Chairman.

S. D. Gettig, secretary.

J. M. HUBLER—much respected citizen of Pine Hall, aged 70 years, died Saturday of typhoid fever. He is survived by his wife, four daughters and three sons. Two of the family, Addie and John are both at the point of death with typhoid fever.

MRS. ABRAHAM SWITZER—Died Thursday afternoon, 14th, at her home at Coleville of tuberculosis. She was about 48 years of age and is survived by her husband and several children. The funeral took place Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

MRS. SARAH BRICKER—wife of J. Brickner, formerly of Salona, died on the Clemson farm near Buffalo Run on Sunday. Her husband and two children survive.

Mrs. Bricker submitted to an operation for cancer in the Lock Haven hospital, some time ago. When near Salona they resided on the Furst farm.

GEORGE W. WILSON—Who had reached the advanced age of 79, dropped dead on the streets of Curwensville, on Tuesday night, 12th, from the effects of heart disease. Mr. Wilson was the father of Mrs. Jacob Smith, of Spring street, and spent much of his time at her home here. He was originally from the vicinity of Unionville. Emiger, of Curwensville; William, Mrs. Francis Jones and Mrs. Terzie Cadwalader, of Phillipsburg, Mrs. Hannah Smith, of this place, and Mrs. Ette Kaup, of Lamar survive. Interment was made at Unionville.

E. B. HOGUE—The well known hardware merchant of Jersey Shore junction, died unexpectedly in bed early the morning of 14. Mr. Hogue retired as usual. Later when Mrs. Hogue went to bed Mr. Hogue complained of a pain in his head. Neither thought that it was serious and shortly after Mrs. Hogue fell asleep. About 1:30 o'clock she awakened, when she found her husband dead. Dr. Hayes was sent for, but he could do nothing for the man. Mr. Hogue was about 54 years old. He was well known throughout Nittany valley. When the Central railroad was built, he assisted in its construction, and afterwards was conductor of the freight train on that road. Before taking up his residence in Jersey Shore junction he resided in Bellefonte. His remains were taken to Watsonstown Saturday for interment.

CLYDE IRVIN COXEY—After an illness extending over the period of twelve months, died Wednesday morning, 14th, at his home in Altoona, the cause of death being an affection of the lungs.

Deceased was aged 33 years and 20 days and was born at Oak Hall. He was an employe of the Penn'a Railroad company and had been a resident of Altoona for the past ten years. Besides his wife
