ROSEVELT ON TRUSTS

President Says He Has Not Discovered a Patent Cure-All.

BETTER LAWS ARE NEEDED

Declared First Thing Wanted Is Publicity, Which Would Cure Many Evils-All Anti-Trust Laws Will Be Enforced.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 26.-The week's work for President Roosevelt in his trip through New England began in earnest yesterday afternoon, when he departed from the summer home of the junior senator of Massachusetts, Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, at Nahant, and, amid the enthusiasm of the greatest number of people he has faced since the Pittsburg visit on July 4, rode into Lynn under cavalry escort and spoke from a platform at City Hall. Then he was taken to Boston by special train, and on his arrival went to Symphony Hall, there addressing a great gathering of Boston business men. His speech here was devoted almost entirely to consideration of the trust question.

President Roosevelt's speech in part was as follows

"I wish to say that I have not come here to say that I have discovered a patent cure-all for the trusts. It is worse than useles for any of us to rail at or regret the great growth in industrial civilization of the last half century. There is but little use in regretting that things have not shaped themselves differently. The practical thing to do is to face the conditions as they are and see if we cannot get the best there is in them out of them. We are not going to get any complete or perfect solution for all of the evils which come to our minds when we think of the trusts by any single action on our part. A good many actions in a good many different ways will be required before we get many of those evils even partially remedied.

"I am inclined to think that much the greatest trouble in any immediate handling of the question of the trust comes from our system of government. Remember, I am not saying that even if we had all the power we could completely solve the trust question. Gentlemen, if what we read in the papers is true, they are speaking of a number of international trusts now. It would be very difficult for any set of laws, on our part, to deal completely with a problem which becomes international in its bearings, but a great deal can be done in various ways.

"Some time ago the attorney general took action against a certain trust. There has been considerable discussion as to whether the trust aimed at would not seek to get out from under the law by becoming a single corporation. I want laws to enable us to deal with it. no matter what shape it takes. I want to see the government able to get at it differently, so that the act government cannot be evaded by any thrning, within or without federal or state statutes. At present we have really no efficient control over a big corporation which does business in more than one state.

"The first thing we want is publicity, and I do not mean publicity as favored by some corporations. I want the knowledge given to the accredited representatives of the people of facts on which those representatives can, if they see fit, base their actions later. The publicity itself would cure many evils. As far as the anti-trust laws go they will be enforced. No suit will be undertaken for the sake of seeming to undertake it. Every suit that is undertaken will be begun because the great lawyer and upright man whom we are so fortunate as to have as attorney general, Mr. Knox, believes that there is a violation of the law which we can get at, and when the suit is undertaken it won't be compromised excepting on the basis that the government wins. Of course, gentlemen, no laws amount to anything unless they are administered honestly and fear-gro Who Shot Two Persons. Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 25 .- A sensational murder which may prove a double one and a more sensational escape and arrest has stirred up considerable excitement in the city. Leander Emith, colored, angered because Boyd Clinton was paying too much attention to his wife shot and instantly killed Clinton in the Hotel Canfield basement Scturday night and then shot his wife, who is dying in the City hospital.

After committing the deed he made his escape, stole a sail boat at the Inlet, and started on a sail for some remote point. A few miles at sea a quall struck his boat. It was capized. He was thrown into the ocean and the boat drifted from him. By heroic efforts he succeeded in crawling on the upturned craft and all night he drifted at the mercy of the waves. About 10 o'clock vesterday morning he was found by Samuel Moore, a local merchant, who was out in his private launch, nearly dead from exposure. The murderer told Mr. Moore a story about being on a fishing trip and that his boat had capsized. Mr. Moore took him to Somers Point and after he landed the negro thanked his rescuer, walked off and disappeared. A few minutes later Mayor E. A. Higbee, of Somers Point, received a telephone message from Atlantic City asking him to apprehend any strange colored man who may pass that way. The town marshall who happened to be on the wharf when the man landed, remarked the fact to the mayor. Higbee hitched up his buggy and after a five mile drive caught up with the murderer. He invited the man to ride with him, as the sun was hot and the day sultry. The man accepted. Highee drove him to the town jail and locked him up.

The murder was premeditated. Smith had early in the evening gone to the hotel to brain Clinton who was head waiter at the hotel which is located on Virginia avenue near the beach and was only stopped by timely interference. He sneaked back about 2 o'clock in the morning and slyly entering the servants quarters put a pistol to the head of Clinton and killed him instantly. His wife was washing behind a door. He shot her in the back and then fled.

"If I were sick and wanted to get well, I'd find out how some one else got well who had the same sort of sickness as mine."

That is the language of a philosopher. Every human being, black or white, bond or free, is constructed on the same plan. The organs of a rich man differ in no degree from those of a poor man. Even "the king is served from the field." The processes of nature by which life is originated and preserved are the same in the beggar as in the prince. What cures the "weak lungs" of the poorest will cure the weak lungs of the richest. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands of men and women, who "had bad cough, spit blood, and were short of breath." It has cured ninetyeight of every hundred persons who have given the medicine a fair and faithful trial.

If your sickness is like hers, Mrs. Jacobs' story will inter-

"I was very sick indeed," writes Mrs. Mollie Jacobs, of Felton, Kent Co., Delaware, "and our family doctor said I had consumption. I thought I must die soon for I felt so awful bad. Had a bad cough, spit blood, was very short of breath, had pains in my chest and right lung, and also had dyspepsia. Before I took your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' I was so weak I could not sweep a room, and now I can do a small washing, and I feel like a new person. I believe that the Lord and your medicine have saved my life. I was sick over two years. I took 13 bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of Dr. Pierce's Pellets."

Are you sick? Are your lungs "weak?" Have you obstinate lingering cough, with bleeding lungs, weakness and emaciation? Thousands in just your case have been cured by the use of DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It always helps. It almost always cures. Sick persons are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter absolutely without fee or charge. All correspondence is strictly private. Write and get a specialist's opinion on your case, free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
