105 KILLED IN STAMPEDE!

Awful Crush of Humanity at Convention of Colored Baptists.

CHURCH STREWN WITH DEAD

Audience, Mistaking Cry of Fight For Fire, Made a Rush For the Door, and People Were Trampled Upon Like Cattle.

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 20 .- In an awful crush of humanity caused by a stampede in the Shiloh Colored Baptist church last night, 105 persons were killed and as many more seriously injured. The disaster occurred at 9 o'clock, just as Booker T. Washington had concluded his address to the National Convention of Colored Baptists, and for three hours the scenes around the church were indescribable. Dead bodies were strewn in every direction, and the ambulance service of the city was utterly unable to move them until after 1 o'clock this morning. The injured were attended to first, and meanwhile dozens of dead bodies were arranged in rows on the ground outside the house of worship awaiting removal to the various undertaking establishments, while more than a score were laid out on the benches inside.

Shiloh Church is the largest house of worship for negroes in Birmingham, and the pastor says there were at least 2,000 persons in the edifice when the stampede began. Instructions had been issued to allow no one else to enter after the building had been filled, but the negroes forced their way inside the church, and were standing in every aisle. Booker T. Washington had fust concluded his address, when Judge Billou, a negro lawyer from Baltimore, engaged in a dispute with the choir leader concerning an unoccupied seat. It is said a blow was struck. Some one in the choir cried "They're fighting." Mistaking the word, "fighting" for "fire," the congregation rose enmasse and started for the door. One of the ministers quickly mounted the rostrum and admonished the people to keep quiet. He repeated the word "quiet" several times and motioned to

The excited congregation mistook the word "quiet" for a second alarm of fire and again rushed for the door. Men and women crawled over benches and fought their way into the aisles, and those who had fallen were trampled upon like cattle. The ministers tried again to stop the stampede, but no power on earth could stay the struggling mass of humanity. The screams of the women and children added to the horror of the scene. Through mere fright many persons fainted, and as they fell to the floor were crushed to death.

The level of the floor of the church is about 15 feet from the ground, and long steps lead to the sidewalk from the lobby, just outside the main auditorium. Brick walls extend on each side of these steps for six or seven feet, and this proved a veritable death trap. Negroes who had reached the top of the steps were pushed violently forward, and many fell. Before they could move others fell upon them, and in a few moments persons were piled upon each other to a height of ten feet, where they struggled vainly to extricate themselves.

This wall of struggling humanity blocked the entrance, and the weight of 1,500 persons in the body of the church was pushed against it. More than 20 persons lying on the steps underneath the heap of bodies died from suffoca-

The dead bodies were quickly moved. and the crowd outside finding an outlet, poured out. Scores of them lost their footing in their haste and rolled down the long steps to the pavement, suffering broken limbs and internal injuries. The sight which greeted those who had come to aid the fnjured was sickening. Down the aisles and along the outside of the pews the dead bodies of men and women were strewn, and the maimed and crippled uttered the most heartrending cries. The work of removing the bodies was begun at once. The wails of the relatives of the dead, who had waited on the outside, could be heard for several blocks.

Most of the dead are women, and the physicians say that in many cases they fainted and died from suffocation. A remarkable feature of the calamity is that little or no blood was seen on any of the victims. They were either crushed or died from suffocation.

Killed His Father.

Woonsocket, R. I., Sept. 22.-Because he desired to protect his mother from violent treatment at the hands of her husband, and fearing also that his own life was in danger, William C. Bonin, aged 20 years, shot and killed his father, John B. Bonin. aged 42 years, yesterday afternoon. The tragedy occurred at the factory boarding house of which his father was proprietor at Slatersville, North Smithfield. There were present at the time also five small children of the family. After the shooting young Bonin went to his room, put on his best clothes and waited until the officer, who had been called by his mother, came for

Attempt to Wreck Czar's Train. London, Sept. 23.-In a dispatch from St. Petersburg the correspondent there of the Daily Express reports an attempt to derail the train upon which the Czar traveled from Kursk. Rails were removed on the two routes which the Czar might travel; in one instance the plot was discovered, and in the other the train was wrecked. The Czar reached St. Petersburg in DETROIT VISIT ENDED

President Participated In and Reviewed Military Parade.

Detroit, Sept. 23 .- President Roose velt's two days' visit to Detroit came to an end last evening at the conclusion of a banquet tendered him in Light Guard Armory by the Spanish War Veterans, the opening of whose third annual reunion he attended yesterday morning. It was a brilliant event. Nearly 800 men sat at tables on the floor of the big armory, and the galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity by brilliantly gowned women and their escorts. When the president rose to begin his address. which was the first of the evening, he received an ovation. He eulogized the veterans of the Spanish war for their deeds, and declared that we have no apologies to make for the war in Cuba or in the Philippines. As a result of the latter, he said, we will give the Filipinos life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness such as they never knew under a cruel oligarchy operating through the Society of the Katipunan.

Yesterday afternoon President Roosevelt participated in and afterward reviewed the military parade. Never were such crowds seen in the streets, and never was a man given a greater popular ovation in this city than the president received yesterday afternoon.

The different bodies were formed into company column after the president had driven past and when the signal was given the review began. In the first division was the Twentyfirst Regiment, Essen Fusiliers, from Windsor, Ont. For the first time, a president of the United States reviewed a regiment of British soldiers. The red coats and white helmets of the Canadians were in sharp contrast to the sober blue of the United States troops as they swung past at a smart pace, their splendid band playing "The British Grenadiers." They received an especially cordial salute from the president, and throughout the afternoon the "redcoats" were cheered to the echo by the crowds.

JEALOUS LOVER'S REVENGE Johnstown Man Shot Young Lady and

Then Killed Himself. Johnstown, Pa., Sept. 22.-David M. Goughner, a well-known young man, shot and seriously wounded Miss Leorena Winnebrenner, aged 17 years, near her home in Conemaugh, near this city, Saturday night, and then sent a bullet into his own heart, dying instantly. Jealousy and a desire for revenge are given as the causes for the act. Miss Winnebrenner, accompanied by a friend named Edward Kaylor, were walking along a street. Goughner passed them, evidently in a hurry. When a few feet ahead he suddenly turned and without warning commenced firing. The first shot struck Miss Winnebrenner just below the ed to run, Goughner fired again, the bullet striking her in the left side, making only a slight wound. A third shot grazed her left wrist.

Kaylor ran when the fusillade began and escaped injury. He says Goughner fired two shots at him. After emptying the revolver, Goughner reloaded it, and, placing the muzzle directly over his heart, fired the shot which killed him instantly. At the Memorial Hospital it was said that while Miss Winnebrenner's condition is extremely serious, she may

TWENTY-FIVE MOROS KILLED Captain Pershing's Force Also Captured Seven Forts.

Manila, Sept. 23.-Up to Sunday the force commanded by Captain John J. Pershing, of the Fifteenth Infantry, operating against the Moros in the Island of Mindanao, had met with slight resistance in the Macin country and had captured seven forts, killed 25 and wounded 20 Moros. There were no American casualties, Captain Pershing's courier reached Brigadier General Samuel S. Sumner at Camp Vicars yesterday. The captain reported that he first moved on Goanan, where the troops took three forts. They then pushed on to Baynbao and captured two forts. From there the column proceeded to Sanir and captured two more forts. From Pantnan to Sanir, in the country dominated by the Sultans of Cali and Butig and the two Sultans of Macin, the column was frequently fired upon.

General Sumner has forwarded additional rations to Captain Pershing. so as to permit him to keep in the field if Macin offers serious resistance.

Steered Airship Over London. London, Sept. 20 .- Stanley Spencer, a well known English aeronaut, yesterday successfully accomplished a remarkable flight over London in an airship of his own invention. It is estimated that his ship travelled nearly 30 miles. He started from the Crystal Palace and descended near Harrow. The route taken by Spencer was over Streatham, Clapham Common and the smoky south side of the metropolis, across the Thames, over the populous Chelsea district across Kensington and Earl's Court, out to Harrow and then safely past the Forest buildings. He executed an easy descent at the little village of Eastcote.

Cholera Raging In Philippines. Murderer of Mrs. Pulitzer Identified By a Brooklyn Man.

IS SAID TO HAVE CONFESSED

Fugitive at First Denied His Identity, But Later Admitted He Was William H. Young-Trunk's Gruesome Con-

Derby, Conn., Sept. 23. - William Hooper Young, for whom the police of New York have been searching in Anna Nelson Pulitzer, whose body was found in the Morris Canal at Jersey City last Tursday, has been found, and is also said to have made a confession regarding the killing of Mrs. Pulitzer. In the guise of a tramp, he had been wandering about the country for several days, when he was arrested Sunday evening by the Derby police on suspicion. Although his description corresponded closely with that sent out by the New York officers, the prisoner at first denied any connection with the murder, and even when he was confronted with a man who was formerly a fellow workman he still denied his identity. But last evening, upon the arrival of a man with whom he was intimately acquainted, the prisoner acknowledged that he is William Hooper Young. He licothe. O. consented to go back to New York without requisition papers.

It was to Max Levy, a physical culture instructor of Brooklyn, and Detective Sergeant Edward Hughes, of his identity.

"Hello, Hooper," exclaimed Levy, as soon as the prisoner appeared. There was no response and no sign of recogbreast bone and took a downward nition from the suspected man, but course. As the girl turned and start- when Levy again saluted him, he said calmly: "I don't know you."

"Of course you know me," said Levy. and, placing his hand on the shoulder of the prisoner, he spoke in a low tone for several minutes. The prisoner said: "You should be sure of your identification. This is a terrible crome for which I am held."

The officer told the prisoner formally the reason for his arrest and the nature of the crime of which he is suspected. The prisoner then for the first time admitted that he was William Hooper Young. He talked with the officer regarding his return to New York, and expressed a willingness to go back at once without requisition papers. During the interview with the officers which followed he is said to have made a confession regarding the crime. The exact nature of this confession was not made public. It was said that Young had spoken of an accomplice, but one of the officers when questioned about this replied: "If you say simply that a confession has been made you will tell the whole story."

From another apparently reliable source, however, came the information that Young did say that he had an accomplice.

Trunk's Ghastly Contents.

New York, Sept. 23. - When the trunk of William Hooper Young. which was found by the Chicago police and sent here, was opened police headquarters yesterday, there were found in it these articles: A sword shaped stiletto with a blade eight inches long and an ivory handle four inches long, the half dozen mixed cakes which the woman left her apartments to buy, her set of false teeth with one tooth missing, her skirts and under clothing; a switch of light colored hair, a pair of gloves, the missing bed clothing from Young's apartments, two men's opera hats, a pair of blue and white corsets, the woman's garters, her drawers, her hat, three pairs of men's shoes, all well worn, Young's trousers, coat, vest and undershirt, some red pepper, a broken comb, hair pin and a newspaper clipping of September 10.

As soon as the lid of the trunk was lifted, it could be seen that the inside of the receptacle was covered with blood. The knife or stilletto was about the first article lifted out. The blade was covered with blood its whole length. After that each article of clothing was lifted out and carefully examined. The woman's skirts, underclothes, a couple of handkerchiefs and several small pieces of rags were found to be saturated with blood, as was the bed clothing from Young's room. The man's undershirt was also covered with blood stains. Captain Titus says that every article that is missing from the Young apartments was in the trunk.

"Will you be kind enough to tell me, please, why you always buy your Shoes at Mingle's?

"Certainly, my dear Mrs. Brown, I will tell you why I do it : In the first place, I am sure of the quality of the Shoes I buy at Mingle's.

Then I am positively certain that I can get there more stylish shoes than I have ever been able to buy anywhere else.

Besides, it's a great comfort to get a Shoe that is stylish, and that fits the foot nicely, without cramping the toes.

Then again, I can buy shoes there in all kinds of leather, in all sizes, and in all widths, and I know they are made as well as Shoes can be made, and just think of it! I pay only from $2,00 to $2,00 per pair.

MRS. BROWN

"Well, well; I'll go to Mingle's, myself, for my next pair of Shoes.
