

THE RACKET

G. R. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN.

CANDY DEPT.

Do you know that we sell Fine, Fresh, Pure Candy at 10 cents a pound, quality the same as usually sold at 20 to 25 cts. and that we sell Chocolates at 20 cts per pound, same goods usually sold at 40c. Weekly shipments to us direct from factory.

BIG BOX OF COTTON BLANKETS, nicest goods we have ever had and the prices wont frighten U.

KITCHEN DEPT.

is in good trim now, 1001 Useful things at Racket Prices—If U need a Hatchet, say, we Sell Jenkin's "Howard" Steel Hatchet for 25cts. OIL HEATERS, are here too.

THE RACKET.

Correspondents' Department

(Continued from page 7)

Unionville.

Herbert Finch, of Sandy Ridge, spent Sunday with his mother, on Walnut street.

Mary Jane Fisher was a delegate to the W. C. T. U. convention, which was held at Bellefonte last week, and reports having had an enjoyable time.

Wm. P. Fisher has already stored in his fruit house 2000 bushels hand picked apples and will have, when all are stored, about 6000 bushels. The apples are said to be unusually fine.

From 12 to 25 car loads of cabbage have been passing through town in a westerly direction daily, for the last two weeks.

Dr. Russell has in his yard a fine lemon tree containing at present, 14 lemons of various sizes, the largest of which is the only one that is ripening yet and measures over four inches in length.

T. E. Griest has in his yard a large pear tree well laden with fine large pears and not a leaf on the tree, presenting a unique appearance.

Tomer Calhoun is learning the milling trade.

W. Comley is laid up for repairs, having been knocked out by an abcess on his back.

After spending three weeks with friends hereabouts, Wm. McEwen left for his place of business, in Virginia.

The Free Methodists, have purchased, and are now in possession of the brick church that was built by the Evangelical congregation a few years ago.

From 2000 to 3000 gallons of cider are made in a day at the Fisher cider plant, on Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

There is a large pile of crushed stone near the Buck and Wagner mill. We would suggest that our coal dealer, Henry Baron, buy the heap, paint the stones black and sell the same for anthracite coal as we can get none from the mines.

T. E. Griest is off on a three weeks visit to New Castle, Pa., and other points westward.

A. J. Griest's fall and winter goods are ripe and are being pulled in great quantities. Everybody come quick before they are all gone.

John H. Cadwallader, of Braddock, writes: "Send me the Centre Democrat quick. I have missed two numbers of it and have lost my appetite. Send it real quick!"

Rock View.

Rock View is neither dead nor sleeping but is wide awake as ever.

Rev. Wagner, wife and children, from Glasgow, are visiting with the latter's parents, H. K. Hoy's.

Mr. Zettle and family spent Sunday at the home of George Breon, near Bellefonte.

J. F. Hoy and wife spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Shuey near Shiloh.

W. H. Swartz and wife visited with friends at Clintondale.

Mrs. Cramer and her niece, Miss Bertha Stover, spent Sunday with Mrs. Stover, near Bellefonte.

Our town was well represented at the grangers picnic last Thursday.

Mrs. W. H. Swartz raised a sweet pumpkin stalk that yielded thirty pumpkins. Is there any person in Centre county who can beat that?

Preaching at Axe Mann next Sunday night.

M. Weaver and H. Hoy you would better take a day off to pick stones before you go down to Spring Creek with your new buggies, for Mary and Gertrude haven't time.

Instead of Miss Alma Stein teaching our grammar school, Victor Brungard from Rebersburg, is now teaching.

West Brushvalley.

Quite a large number of people from this section attended picnic at grange park.

The Madisonburg drygoods box hand turned out to play some charming pieces of music for a young couple in town. The whole band consisted of about eight "Jack Rabbits," two drygoods boxes, and a cow bell. The music was echoed from mountain to mountain.

Listen, Unionville scribbles, what the Filmore scribble had to say concerning you in last week's issue.

Milton Fair.

On account of the Milton Driving Park Association Fair at Milton, Pa., September 30 to October 3, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell round-trip tickets to Milton and return from Bellefonte, Lock Haven, and intermediate stations, on the above dates, good to return until October 4, inclusive, at reduced rates (minimum rate, 25 cents).

-Dayton Railroad shoes—Mingie's.

Pleasant Gap.

Don't forget the sociable Sat. eve. Messrs Joseph Hoover and Winfred Noll returned from Portage, Saturday, to visit their respective homes at this place.

R. P. Barnes, who had an operation performed at Williamsport, is improving slowly and is expected home soon. James Knoffsinger, who went to Philadelphia to have an operation performed, will return home this week. Doctors could not benefit him any.

Ree Florey, four years old, son of Wm. Florey, of this place, died of diphtheria Tuesday of last week. He was very intelligent for his age, and was a favorite with all who knew him.

The chestnut trees about this place are bending over with choice chestnuts. They are somewhat early this year.

A party of would-be hunters started on a coon hunt the other evening, going through a corn field of Mr. Noll they discovered where they thought coons were working on the corn; sitting down to await the arrival of the coons, they soon became sound asleep. When awaking, they found a couple of Mr. Noll's mules staring them in the face.

A sack sociable will be held in the M. E. church, Saturday evening; any one not having received a small sack, can get same at door. The proceeds will go for the benefit of the parsonage.

W. S. Tate has been very ill for some time and is not improving very rapidly.

Two more cases of diphtheria here. James Carl of this place, was called to Linden Hall, Tuesday, his mother at that place being very low.

A couple of "Pawnee Bill Jr's", of this place, left for the show on Saturday well armed. They returned all safe and sound but reported things "kinder slow."

Geo. Noll went to Winburn to work at carpentering for Kerstetter brothers.

Daniel and Emanuel Houser are erecting a shingle mill on the mountain, on land of Loneberger.

Axemann.

Quite a large number of our people attended the grange encampment at Centre Hall last week.

Edward E. Mease has again returned to Pittsburg after a week's visit with his friend, Miss Mary Kote and other friends.

Arthur Kline and Blanche Kaup spent Sunday evening at Oak Hall.

Cal. Gfrerer is again papa, another boy to chop wood for him.

Mrs. Shutt, of Houserville, spent Saturday at the home of her son, Wm.

The schools re-opened last week with instructors as follows: grammar school, Prof. Wm. Ott, of Bellefonte; primary, Miss Rebek Jodon, of this place.

Axemann was well represented in Bellefonte on Saturday to see the "injuns."

Lillian Schnars, of Kekaydin, is at present visiting her sister.

Noah Breon and son Elmer, of Oak Grove, spent Sunday in town.

There seems to be a great attraction in our town for some of Pleasant Gap's "sports."

Grace Gingerich, formerly of this place, but late of Unionville, died Tuesday of typhoid fever.

Oak Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Kinter, of Harrisburg, spent several days with P. S. Dale and family recently.

Arthur Kline and Blanche Kaup, of Axemann, spent Sunday evening in town.

Annie Kline left on Friday for Altoona.

Mrs. Wieland has been entertaining her friend, Miss Moyer, M. D., for the past few weeks.

Issac Tresslar was able to spend Sunday with his son J. J. Tresslar at Boalsburg.

Irvin Johnson is able to be out again after a siege of malaria fever.

Harry Burns, brother and family spent Sunday out of town.

Clayton Eiters and wife attended the show in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Miss Mary Tresslar, of Rock Springs, visited here last week.

Centre Hall.

Albert Nearhood came home last week for a short vacation. He has been working in a hospital in Harris Plains, N. J.

Jewet Gorham and wife left for their home in Elbridge, N. Y. Mrs. Gorham spent the summer here.

Asher Stahl is home from Pittsburg. He is threatened with typhoid fever.

Dr. Park's left last week for Nelson, Tioga county. He expects to locate there in a few weeks.

Miss Sallie Brungard, of Bellefonte, spent several days with her aunt, Mrs. Alexander.

Rev. Kerschner is spending his vacation with friends in the eastern part of the state.

Mrs. Geo. Floray and daughter, Gertrude will occupy the house formerly occupied by Isaac Shaver.

The brick work of Mr. Colyer's new house will soon be completed.

Pine Creek.

Joseph Hassinger and wife and Miss Angeline Eisenbuth of Rankletown, were visitors at Daniel Eisenbuth's, Sunday.

Quite a number of our people attended grange picnic.

Some of our people talk about going to the fair at Bellefonte.

Alfred Long and family and Benj. Stover of Fiedler, visited in this section on Sunday.

Orvis Meyer travels west quite often, but we need not wonder why.

Potters Mills No. 2.

The sick about the town are Miss Bertha Armstrong, Miss Lizzie Poust, and Daddy Strong, who is very poorly.

Mrs. Heckman, of Centre Hall, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Reish.

Mrs. Nettie Smith and daughter, Ray, spent Sunday with her sister Nora Moyer.

A burned child may dread the fire, but lots of widowers marry again.

Linden Hall.

J. A. Long and wife, of Centre Hall, visited here beginning of this week.

Miss Mame Swabb, of Pine Grove, is spending a few days at her grandparents.

Miss Annie Corl, of Pleasant Gap, is spending a few days with her grandfather, Robt. Corl, Sr.

Charles Bitner, of Potters Bank, was noticed on our streets, Monday.

Mr. Catherman entertained his mother and sister, of Snyder county, during this week.

Lizzie Rupp, of Altoona, spent a few days visiting relatives here.

Grace Yearick, of Nitany, visited here beginning of the week.

John Rossman, of Farmers Mills, visited his brother-in-law, Henry Zeigler, last week.

"Ike" Tressler and "Bill" Swabb, two former residents here, but now of Rock Springs, were callers in town last week.

Mrs. J. H. Ross, after spending several weeks with friends and relatives in the west, returned on Monday of last week well pleased with her trip.

Mrs. John Schreck, of Brislin, has been entertained for several days at the home of John Weibly.

Mrs. Emeline Fehl, of Rebersburg, spent several days of last week in this community.

Mrs. Robt. Corl, Sr., is very ill and but slight hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Hon. W. F. Felding, who for some time has had charge of the principal trolley lines in Brooklyn, N. Y., and is one of the popular young men of that place, returned home last week. Mr. Felding is a very popular young man, and therefore society is all a bustle since his arrival.

Some of our people were left on Wednesday night at the grangers picnic by missing the train and had to put in the night on the ground. Did they swear? Well!

Miss Jane Zabler, of Spring Mills, visited Henry Zeigler, and family last week.

Wm. Raymond and son, Roy, spent Sunday with the former's brother James at Pleasant Gap.

Will Kerstetter and family spent Saturday and Sunday at State College.

George Miller has his new house about ready for occupancy.

Henry Zeigler, who has been very ill with heart trouble is slowly improving and is much better.

Don't forget the village camp meeting to be held in the new church at this place beginning this (Thursday) evening and continuing over Sunday; services every night in the week and all day on Sunday; among ministers from a distance will be Revs. Koonz, Shortess, Crumbling, Shultz, together with the pastor in charge, Rev. J. P. Shultz.

Rebersburg.

Farmers are about all done sowing.

A heavy frost last week put all the corn in condition to be cut.

On Wednesday morning our community was saddened by the news of the untimely death of Carl Miller Smull, son of C. H. and Ella Smull, of this place. Interment took place on Friday.

Henry Gilbert, formerly from this place, now from Washington, D. C., is visiting his parents.

Sam'l Bierly sold his horse last week to Elry Krape from Clintondale.

Making cider and boiling apples-butter is all the go.

The thieving party going their round at night and especially when people are attending services, robbing neighbors of pears, plums, peaches, and grapes, may profit by an advice to keep within the limits of the law or have their anatomies well perforated with bird shot. The parties are also known. Boys beware.

Harvest Home was beautifully and appropriately observed by the Luthereans on Sunday.

Vaccination is in order just now, and many have been vaccinated.

Ed. Bierly went to Boston last week where he will attend the theological seminary.

That obliging belle at the P. O. has again returned home from a visit to Scottsdale. We are all glad to see her.

Will Meet in Bellefonte.

Miss Susan Carpenter Frazer, of Lancaster, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, recently announced that next session of the state body will be held in Bellefonte, on Oct. 8th, 9th and 10th. Ex-Governor and Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings will tender a reception to the delegates in honor of Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks, of Washington, D. C., wife of Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana. She is president general of the order.

Once Wealthy Now Poor.

Edwards, who built Wilkesbarre's first hotel, and whose wealth was at one time estimated at $1,000,000, Monday applied at the rooms of the United Charity organization in that city for something to eat and clothes to wear. He is 95 years of age and says he is penniless.

In his old age the man was made an easy victim of sharpers, who got him to go into all kinds of schemes, none of which paid, but were the means of impoverishing him. The old man will receive good care for the rest of his days.

Hon. James A. Beaver as Juror.

Ex-Governor and Superior Court Judge James A. Beaver is to serve in Pittsburg as a juror for the special term of the United States district court to be held Tuesday, Oct. 7. Judge Beaver returned his summons Wednesday morning, saying he would be on hand when court opened. Once before ex-Governor Beaver served on a jury in the United States court at Pittsburg.

—"Side Tracked" at the opera house tonight. It is considered a good play.

VARIETY OF LOCAL NEWS

Gathered from Centre and Adjoining Counties.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events that Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doing of Neighbors.

After an absence of twenty years Oscar Long, of Texas, is now visiting his old home at Coburn.

We now print regularly 3500 hundred copies of the Centre Democrat each week. By January it will be even larger.

Dr. W. E. Park will move from Centre Hall to Nelson, Tioga county, about October 15. He is there now making arrangements.

Last week J. C. Auman threshed 105 bushels of oats from a four-horse load of sheaves on the farm of Jerry Brungart in Miles township.

Frederick, the three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malone, of Snow Shoe, died Saturday at the home of his parents. Interment in the Curtin cemetery, Sunday.

On Monday evening Nevin Royer, the 9-year-old-son of Seymour Royer, who lives with Frank Houseman, in Millheim, while playing with other children accidentally felled and broke his right arm.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Milesburg will hold an ice cream festival on Saturday evening, Sept. 27, in the Public Hall. The proceeds of which will be devoted to the purpose of building a new fence and otherwise improving the Milesburg cemetery.

Col. James F. Weaver, a veteran of the civil war and also a veteran democrat, was chairman of the great gathering on democratic day at the grange picnic and in a neat opening address introduced Ex-governor Pattison.

Last week Claude B. Hess, of Ferguson township, Centre county, took his son Joseph to Philadelphia where he was operated on for appendicitis. Mr. Hess returned home satisfied that the boy would come around all right.

Miss Sadie Robb, daughter of the late John Robb and Mr. Schenck, son of David Schenck of near Howard, were married Wednesday evening, 17th, at the home of bride's mother by Rev. Geo. F. Boggs, pastor of the Methodist church.

The grange picnic manager's would minister greatly to the pleasure and comfort of all on the park if they would have at least the main avenue sprinkled to lay the dust which is always created during that week. Very little expense in this direction would do it and be appreciated by the crowds present. Why the neglect?

Contractor Bilger now has the iron bridge over Spring Creek, at the Nail Works, ready to swing. It is the structure that was carried away by the flood last spring and left high and dry near "the turn". Bilgers men have taken it apart, straightened out the twisted irons, welded some broken ones and replaced it on the old abutments.

Two brothers, John Sankey, of Millersburg, and James Sankey, of Harrisburg, accompanied by their nephew, William A. Wolfe, of Beatrice, Neb., arrived in Millheim on Monday evening of last week. They came to visit the old John Sankey homestead in this place and also to show their nephew, who had never been here before, the place where his mother was born. They visited the graves of their father and mother and also the grave of their brother, Samuel Sankey, (who was one of the old California '49) who lies buried in the cemetery at Aaronsburg. They drove all over the town hunting up places that would remind them of their boyhood days spent in this place and when they took with them several bricks from the old homestead as relics.—Journal.

IN ADJOINING COUNTIES.

The farmers' institutes in Millin county will be held in Lewistown February 6 and 7 and at Milroy February 9.

Forest Edger, son of E. J. and Elvra Yearick, died on night of 13, aged 13 weeks. Interment on Tuesday afternoon at, in the cemetery at Hablersburg.

Ira Gunsallus, of Beech Creek, while at Mill Hill, became involved in a quarrel with William Hendricks. The former was badly used up, he having been kicked and otherwise maltreated.

The Lutheran Synod of Central Penn., meets in Lock Haven, Wednesday evening the 24th and will be in session about one week. The Synod is composed of 50 ministers and the same number of laymen and has a communicant membership of 11,000.

A. E. Patton, Republican candidate for State Senator from this district, is reported to be lying ill with grip at his home in Curwensville. While here attending the Granger picnic he was complaining of being indisposed.

A civil engineer having charge of a branch of the Pennsylvania railroad in Westmoreland county has discovered that Big Bold Knob, in the Allegheny mountains, is the highest point in the state. The elevation at that point is 3,000 feet above the sea level.

Bernhart Mader and Jacob Bauman, farmers of Woodward township, Clinton county, have each lost a valuable horse recently from some disease that resulted fatally in a very short time after the animals became ill. The horses were in apparent good health a few hours before they were attacked by the disease.

Ira Gunsallus, living near Eagleville, who was severely injured in an altercation in one of the hotels at Mill Hill, Wednesday morning, 17th, is still confined to his bed and under the care of Dr. H. H. Mothersbaugh. He was frightfully injured about the eyes and nose, and being a man over sixty years of age, was for a time in a critical condition. He was returning from Salona with a load of lime and had been in the hotel only a few minutes when the trouble occurred. He was brought home by Liveryman Harvey's conveyance and his sons went to Mill Hill and drove the team and wagon to that place.

Mrs. Eliza Gulich, near Clearfield, was fatally burned a few days ago. Her granddaughter, Mrs. Doshia Murray, had gone to the lawn leaving her baby in charge of the old lady. She took the baby, laid it over in its carriage and went to stir the fire in the stove. Lifting the lid she probed the burning coals, and in a stooped position, her apron or the front of her dress, caught fire. While badly burned the shock was too much for one of her age, and she died.

The deceased was born in Half Moon, Pennsylvania, 1820, hence at the time of her death she was 82 years, 7 months and 7 days old. She is survived by five children.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat furnished a complete history of all that pertains to this subject, covering the "away back" and the program for Oct. 8, next.

The next interesting event will be the dedication of the marker for the grave of Rev. Martin, the earliest Presbyterian minister at the site of the first church of the Huntingdon Presbytery, near Penn Hall. This interesting ceremony takes place Wednesday, October 8. It will be a pleasurable occasion for Presbyterians, and all others, a general invitation being extended. Several weeks ago the Centre Democrat