

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County.

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Milesburg.

John H. Roush and wife, of Lindsay, Ohio, returned home on Thursday of last week, after a brief visit with his wife's aunt, Mrs. Mary Campbell; this is his first visit in 46 years to the burg.

Frank Smith left for Wampun, 41 miles west of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Alfred Smith and son Clair left on Saturday last for Columbus, Ohio, to visit her son Alvin and family, of that place.

Ed. Cullins and family arrived in the burg on Thursday last; from Portage, to visit his wife's parents, Wesley Crain and wife.

Miss Verna Crain arrived home from a several week's visit to Portage and other places of importance.

Geo. Orris and family are visiting his father and sisters of this place.

James McMullen and wife and A. A. Kohlbecker will visit the Soldiers National Encampment at Washington, D. C.

C. P. Stonerode is living in a critical condition at this writing.

John Baylet drove to Julian, on Saturday night to visit his invalid mother of that place.

Mrs. Fulton has returned home from a pleasant two week's visit her son John and family of Phillipsburg.

Frank Hall returned to Jersey City on Monday, after a pleasant visit with his parents John Hall and wife.

The W. C. T. U. festival, on Saturday night, held in the firemen's room, for the benefit of the cemetery fence did not pan out as was anticipated rec'ts of evening $44.

Spring Mills.

Harry Miller recently moved his family to Renovo where he accepted a position in the car shops.

J. Frank Rearick, agent for the celebrated Sober & Porter gas machine, is kept busy in filling orders at present.

Samuel Condo and family visited the gentleman's parents at Rebersburg.

Dr. H. S. Braught is kept busy day and night attending to the sick.

C. P. Long's "Rummage Sale" on Saturday was largely attended from all sections; it took ten clerks to wait on the trade.

Bright Bitner is cutting quite a swell down the creek of late.

Mrs. Lydia Neese, who had a very delicate operation performed on Tuesday of last week, by Drs. Braught, Musser, Frank and Hayes, is getting along nicely. The operation consisted in the removal of a calculus from the hepatic duct.

Miss Anna Beebeheimer, from Potters Mills, who was attending school here is off on an extended vacation.

D. W. Zeigler, who had severe siege of typhoid fever for the last five weeks, we are glad to note, is on the mend.

Yarnell.

The rain last week pleased the people. Geo. Quiek, of Runville, spent Sunday at this place.

Mrs. James Croft, of Pittsburg, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Alfred Poorman and Mrs. Geo. Walker are on the sick list.

Nelson Confer returned to DuBois, after spending a few days here.

We hear that Alfred Poorman expects move to Snow Shoe in the near future.

We hear that the Prosserville scribe started out for cart load of items last week and while telling a gentleman about making apple butter, the cart disappeared and what became of the items? Who can tell?

Wanted, very badly, by a member of the anti-poke-four-nose-into-other-people's-business society, a person at a salary of $500 a year, with a periodical increase to $1,000, to mind their own business and let other people's business alone.

Ask Ellis if Hezekiah beat his time.

J. L. Croft's sale was well attended.

Ira Confer purchased a fine organ last week.

Mingoville.

Most of our citizens expect to attend the county fair.

A few of the farmers have commenced husking corn.

Dave Stiney and family arrived home last week from a visit among friends at Lewistown.

Quails are very scarce on the Nittany Rod and Gun Club preserve.

Miss Lulu McMullen is visiting relatives at Reading.

Harry Johnstonbaugh, of Bellefonte, was a caller here, Saturday.

Marion, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Alters, is ill.

Harvey Workman, of Bellefonte, Sundayed at the home of his parents.

Perry Alters will leave for Blairsville this week, where he has accepted a position. We wish him success.

ANY CHURCH or parsonage or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martines Paints whenever they paint.

NOTE—This has been our custom for twenty-seven years; any building not satisfactorily painted, will be repainted at our expense; about one gallon of Linseed Oil to be added to every gallon of the paint to make ready for use; it's mixed in two minutes, and cost of the paint thereby made less in price than any other. Yearly product over one million gallons.

Longman & Martines, Sole Agents.—J. W. Glasgow, Coburn, Pa.

Martha.

Quite a number of our people are attending the Centre county fair this week. It is said that Fritz and Snooks are taking exhibits and expect to draw first premiums.

Harry Pennington, of Scotia, visited friends here last week.

J. Q. Miles and family entertained some of their Milesburg friends on Sunday.

There was quite a scare in town last week. Mrs. Robison thought her house was on fire, but when she came to investigate she found it was one of her neighbors taking his evening smoke.

Rev. Houck, pastor of the Baptist church, of this place, will deliver his farewell address, Sunday, Oct. 12.

Miss Patience Williams, of this place, and Robert Neil, of Buffalo Run, were married by Rev. Houck at the Baptist parsonage in Milesburg, last Wednesday. They expect to begin housekeeping in the vicinity of Pittsburg. They have the scribe's best wishes.

Mrs. Rachel Gingery and Mrs. Annie Stevens started, Sept. 30th, to visit friends in Huntingdon county. They anticipate a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Nancy Eberts met with a painful accident a few days ago. She injured one of her hands on a barbed wire; it soon became so swollen and painful that a physician had to be called.

Wilson William is also on the sick list. The family connection of Geo. Clark, of Halfmoon; had a very pleasant reunion picnic at the old home on Saturday, the 27th; the entire family being present as follows: Geo. Clark, Sr., and wife, of Halfmoon; Geo. Jr., and family, of Warriorsburg; J. E. Clark and family, of Waddle; J. O. Clark and family, of Houserville; Frank Pennington and family, College; Mrs. Geo. Gummo and family, Buffalo Run; Charles Hartscock and family, Buffalo Run; H. K. Mattern and family, of Julian; W. S. Williams and wife, of Martha; Misses Jennie and Grace Clark, Halfmoon; Miss Sallie Hartscock, of Buffalo Run; also County Auditor W. H. Tibbens and wife, of Houserville, who was the only representative of democracy in the entire company; nevertheless his presence just made it the right flavor. Mr. Tibbin's is an all-round good fellow; in all there were over forty guests present, filling two large tables, which were weighted down with refreshments and such as could be wished for by the most craving appetite.

Filmore.

On Saturday evening J. Harris Hoy was called to our town to see one of his horses that took sick. It recovered.

Rev. Eslinger delivered a fine Harvest Home sermon on Sunday; small turnout on account of rain.

At this writing J. W. Blair is conducting the post office at this place. We hope he will not get excited and take the empty sack to the train, and leave the mail in the office Sunday, as our former postmaster did on Saturday evening.

A large number of our people attended the Fair this week.

William Sowers started in to fire on Monday, at the Mattern ore bank.

On Saturday evening there was a great excitement in Bellefonte and Filmore when the news spread that "Sorley" ran off. They say that George could no more hold her than he could a locomotive. It made things lively on Water street. A little boy ran ahead and told the people to get out of the road as there was a runaway coming. As George is a fine horseman he got her under control and no harm was done, only people waited her coming.

L. H. Masser attended the Lewisburg Fair on Thursday and had a pleasant time till Saturday, when he arrived home and was informed his wife and little daughter was not there. He ordered the hostler to change horses and he started for Bellefonte, from there to Zion and there he had a pleasant meeting, it was all a misunderstanding. They came home Sunday evening.

It appears they cannot stop violating the game law.

Port Matilda.

Died, at Port Matilda, September 22nd, 1902, of a complication of diseases incident to old age, Christopher Ellenberger, aged 79 years, 5 months and 26 days; the deceased was a noble hearted christian man as well as a brave soldier of the civil war, being a member of Co. E, 45 Regt. Pa. Vol. Infantry. Interment was made in the Presbyterian cemetery, in Port Matilda. His wife survives him.

Died, near Mount Pleasant, Sept. 26, John T. Sharer, aged 17 years; the deceased was an interesting young man, kind and obliging to all—the fifth son of Christian and Eve Sharer; he having enjoyed good health throughout life until a few days prior to his death when he was attacked with typhoid fever, resulting as above. Interment was made in Mount Pleasant cemetery.

H. M. Stere, wife and daughter, of Myra, Pa., on returning home from Unionville, where they were visiting friends, stopped off at Port Matilda as the guests of merchant Allison McKinney.

An attempt was made a few nights since to burglarize the store of A. W. Reese. While boring in the ware house door to effect an entrance the noise attracted the attention of Clifford, son of the above, who discharged his gun heavily loaded with buck shot in direction of the noise, it being quite dark; an investigation in the morning showed a narrow escape of the burglar.

Mrs. Lidia Reese, of East Tyrone, visited friends near this place.

John Resides, Charles Kenedy, and a number from Sandy Ridge, attended the funeral of John T. Sharer.

No Substitute Offered.

Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still stands that ninety-nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when the best remedy for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know it is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is for sale by Green's Pharmacy.

THE WEE-LITTLES AT VIENNA ARSENAL.

FIND THE AUSTRIAN GUARD.

Oak Hall.

Mrs. Sue Hanner, of Phillipsburg, is visiting her aged sister, Mrs. Wm. Kaup. Miss Edith Houser and brother, of Houserville, were callers in town, on Sunday.

Mrs. Amanda Walker, of Boalsburg, was a recent visitor in town.

Wm. Felding, of Linden Hall, passed through town on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Henrietta Dale and daughter, Miss Anna, called on friends at Linden Hall, on Saturday evening.

Miss Edith Korman is learning the art of dressmaking with Miss Anna Kaup.

Mr. Johnson and children returned to their Southern home after spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin.

B. F. Homan is making some improvements about his spacious farm residence.

Wm. Fry, Jr., who has been employed at Sunny Hillside for almost three years has accepted a position at Greensburg.

E. B. Peters purchased some fine apples from S. H. Bailey at Boalsburg, last week.

Rev. A. A. Black, of Boalsburg, was a caller in town, Monday.

Houserville.

Misses Ellice and Kate Rumberger, of Phillipsburg, are visiting here.

Mrs. Susan Zimmerman, of Nittany, and Mrs. Geo. Homan, of White Hall, visited Geo. Scholl last Saturday.

Mrs. John Wirts and Ellen Shuey are on the sick list.

The welcome rain has at last arrived to cheer the farmers.

Daniel Houser is exhibiting some of his fancy stock at this week.

Bess Tressler, of P. S. C. is visiting in this vicinity.

Olive Tressler looks very downhearted since William's farewell visit prior to going west.

Belle Wagner gave a reception to her friend from the south side Saturday evening.

G. S. Keller spent several days in Union county last week.

All are cordially invited to attend the services in the Reformed church, Saturday evening, Sunday afternoon and evening.

Wolf's Store.

A refreshing rain set in last Thursday and continued until Sunday. Elk creek was bank full; wells and cisterns were filled and grain fields are beginning to look green.

W. F. Stover and family spent last Sunday in Penns valley with Mr. Stover's father, who, we are told, is seriously ill with typhoid fever.

C. J. Greninger and family spent last Sunday at Loganton visiting friends.

Mrs. Louisa Morris will sell her personal property on Oct. 11, and in the future live with her children. Allen Gilbert bought the farm and will take possession on Oct. 14.

Potters Mills.

Lots of rain at present.

Mrs. Calvin Rhul was visiting at Lewisburg a few days last week.

There are some parties shooting squirrels already, and they should be brought to justice.

There was a party at Dashemers last Thursday night; lots of young folks were there.

George Michael was down to Millheim over Sunday.

Daddy Strong is still in a critical condition with no hopes of his recovery.

Bessie Long, of Millheim, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Michael.

Penn Cave.

Rain, rain, plenty of rain and mud. Chestnuts are ripe and the crop seems to be pretty large.

The public sale at Madisonburg on Saturday was not well represented from this vicinity.

The Duck-Wert thrasher Co. is again in this vicinity threshing out the remaining crops.

A. Bartges and wife, of Aaronsburg, were visiting friends in this vicinity over Sunday.

National Encampment.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend the National Encampment, Union Veteran Legion, at Chicago, Ill., October 8 to 11, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Chicago and return, from all stations on its lines, on October 5, 6, and 7, good to return October 16, inclusive, at rate of single fare for the round trip, plus $1.00.

Coburn.

The evaporating plant is running full time with twelve females and four males employed. Last week these employees gave daily concerts for the town, but as the songs in their memory's book are exhausted it seems rather quiet this week.

On Saturday evening the scribe of High valley and W. C. Sheesley had a "rally around the cabbage" in the post-office.

Randall and Stuart Harter, of Lewisburg, spent a few days at home.

Irvin Musser visited Daniel Krader's over Sunday.

Last Saturday a certain young gentleman came all the way from Mackeyville to the winter mountain east of this place to see his best girl and on account of the inclement weather (which was all to his favor) he did not need to start for home until Monday.

Last Thursday Mrs. T. G. Hosterman and Mrs. Kreider Stover and George S. Stover went to Collins, West Virginia, where Messrs. Hosterman and Stover are engaged in lumbering.

George Meyers had been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Tammie Rishel at Farmers Mills, a few days last week.

Those on the sick list are Mrs. John Bowersox, Mrs. Mary Meyer and A. Jackson Stover; Mr. Stover is down with pneumonia and was in a very critical condition on Saturday, but has improved somewhat.

Mrs. Levi Stover will sell household goods at her home in "Frogtown" on Saturday, Oct. 11.

One day last week a boy baby was born to Wm. West and wife at Drum station.

Geo. Romig and Geo. Rishel and their families, of Millifung, are enjoying the fresh country air in their cozy tents on the forks between Pine and Elk creeks near what is known as Blue Rock, and expects to be with us about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett and son, Randall, were visiting friends in Millifung several days last week.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 28th, two of our young people experienced the happiest event of their life. It was twenty minutes before nine when Rev. F. W. Brown, pastor of the Reformed church, arrived at the home of J. O. Bower and found there ready to be united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Miss Jennie K. Corman and John H. Vonada. No time was lost and before ten minutes had passed they were pronounced man and wife and Rev. Brown called for the next couple of which two were present and all that was lacking were the necessary papers; witnessing the happy event were: J. O. Bower and wife, W. W. Grove and wife, T. A. Hosterman and wife, Jerry Corman and Miss Carrie Musser, Prof. Irvin Meyer, Miss Annie Corman, Miss Arfa Corman and Lizzie Vonada. When the midnight hour arrived those of the boys who were not yet as fortunate as John, gathered about the house and gave them an old time serenading.

Highvalley.

Chestnuts are plenty and a fair price; ten cents a quart is better than peaches at one dollar per bushel.

The peach trees planted last spring are not doing so well, on account of too dry in the fore part of the summer.

Jess Snyder's buckwheat is still in the fields and so is Samuel Alters.

Ingleby was once a great lumber point; five or six years ago Ingleby took the lead. Kulp had four teams hauling props; W. H. Castor had three teams hauling saw lumber; Billmeyer & Co. had a tram road and were bringing from ten to fifteen thousand feet a day; W. E. Smith had four teams hauling prop timber, there was not an hour in a day but what a team was coming or going and the siding always full of prop and lumber cars, today it is a lonely and lonesome place and never will be anything unless some mineral will be discovered and that is doubtful.

A peach tree on the old Rider farm, 60 years old which bore every year. This year the tree had one-half bushel. And everybody knew as George Washington Rider brought the seed from Berks county, raised it from a peach stone.

Charley Eisenhuth came home, he was working at Seanon, Somerset county, and will vote for Pattison.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Beyer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Aaronsburg.

Mrs. D. K. Lenker and daughter, Luc, were called to Lemont owing to the illness of James Lenker.

Mrs. Clarence Miller, of Penn Hall, spent a few days with her grandmother Bower, Edna Edmunds accompanied her home and expects to attend school at Penn Hall.

Mrs. Maggie Mingle spent one day last week with her mother-in-law at the residence of E. G. Mingle.

Mrs. Elizabeth Zullick, of Tyrone, is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles, on North 2nd St.

Samuel Beaver and daughter, Mrs. Geo. Stover, attended the funeral of Mrs. Neighdigs on Friday at State College.

Wm. Jamison, of Lock Haven, made a business trip to our burg, tarried with his aunts, the Kline sisters while here.

Mrs. Mary Condo and niece, Nelie Mingle, attended the funeral of Mrs. Kerstetter at Loganton, on Wednesday.

Wm. Guisewitz, wife and daughter, spent a few days last week with friends in Lewisburg.

Col. D. K. Heckman and his estimable wife, of Loganton, spent a few days with the Kline sisters and others.

Mrs. Matilda Weaver took a very sudden sick spell on Sunday; at this writing he is resting easier.

Fred Limbert and wife were to West Brushvalley one day last week to assist their nieces in making peach butter.

Mrs. Clyman Stover and children spent a few days last week with her husband at Oak Grove.

Sallie Bowersox is spending the week in Bellefonte as a guest of her cousin, Delphia Stover.

W. H. Phillips made a business trip of a few days at Oak Grove.

Rockview.

We have had plenty of rain in the past week. That's what the people wished for. A great many people had to haul water.

Mrs. Woomer, from State College, and daughter Bertha, spent a few days with the former's parents, Ezra Smith's.

A. B. S. Fleck spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. J. F. Hoy.

Victor Brungart and Geo. Fleck spent Sunday at Tusseyville.

Mrs. G. W. Smith had been on the sick list but is some better.

There was quite a serious accident happened to William, a son of Andrew Breen; he was at Rock mill and they were handing him bags of bran from the upper story, and by mishap, there was one fell down on his head and knocked him unconscious, he is improving some.

Daisy Framton, of Punxsutawney, and Miss Lonny Fishburn visited at the home of J. F. Hoy Sunday.

There must be some attraction at Spring Creek, as some of the Pleasant Gap sports are seen going down there quite frequently. How about it D. H.?

While Miss Prudence Swartz was returning home from town on Saturday evening, two young men came driving along; one had the nerve to get out of buggy and try to catch her horse; but smart as she was she used the buggy whip and got away from them.

Roland.

J. C. Barnhart is all smiles since a new boy came to their house.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Long, of Howard, visited at Mrs. Long's parents, J. C. Barger.

Their is talk of a wedding in the near future.

Harry Lutz, our new miller, sports a dandy new horse and buggy; now he can take his best girl out driving.

Mrs. Samuel Bryan's eye is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Howdeshell visited her daughter, Mrs. Emm Dehass, over Sunday.

Capt. Heuy and our miller think of going into the perfume business; they tried to capture a polecat and, oh, my! the perfume.

Roland Bryan and Mr. Cartright, Mrs. Bryan's father, are visiting Mr. Cartright's son, at Bellwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bryan made a flying trip to Bellefonte one day last week.

Ferguson.

Mr. Emanuel Fye, of Pine Grove, is laid up from injuries received from a vicious bull Monday morning of last week. Several of his ribs were cracked.

Emanuel Shuey, after many years in Illinois, is back and seeing farms in Ferguson twp., with a view of making a purchase.

J. H. Millers' team became frightened and upset the carriage into a washout by the roadside doing considerable damage to the rig and giving the occupants a good shaking up.

W. D. Walker & Bros., who have been engaged in the milling business on the Hamilton tract of timber land in the Barrens, have moved their mill to West Virginia to engage in the same business on the Thompson Land and Coal Company's tract.

Boalsburg.

Charles Moffit, of Pittsburg, is at present visiting