Unionville

Paul Shipley has gone to Grassflat to work at the carpenter trade.

Miss Bernice Irvin, one of the brightest and most popular young ladies of Julian, did some fancy shopping here on Monday.

When you buy a cord of wood of Jesse Hall you get 128 cubic feet of good wood every time.

Miss Fred Smith returned home from Pansutaaway where she had entered the high school intending to stay all winter with her sister, Mrs. Ballock, but she says Unionville is the only apple on the tree.

A. E. Hampton candidate for county commissioner was favoring in the neck-woods, last week, looking after his interests. He left a very favorable impression on all with whom he met.

Seventeen car loads of cabbage passed through here on Sunday.

Betsy and Carrie Hall were compelled to dance a jig on the bake oven because their younger sister Polly beat them in a matrimonial race.

One of our young store clerks, whose initials are Charles Orest, has developed into a first class somnambulist. A few nights ago he dreamed he was wading in mud, and got his shoes soiled. He got up in his sleep and got five or six pair of old shoes and had them in his bed room the next morning, but he did not know how they got there until the dream of the night soaked into his pate.

One night last week about 12 o'clock the large waterwheel in Buck and Wagner's mill suddenly stopped. Upon investigation Mr. Wagner discovered that the wheel was clogged by eels. He and Raymond Comley, in cleaning the great wheel of the cause of stoppage, took out a bushel of eels many of which were badly bruised and crushed and some were cut in pieces. The night following he caught seven large ones in a box he had contrived for the purpose.

The famous Al. Roberts, of Bellefonte, was in town on Tuesday with his "grip". In addition to selling his famous diphtheria cure, he is taking orders for hard coal in ten pound lots at ten cents per pound. The samples he carried were fine.

Spring Mills.

Misses Mattie and Annie Long, of Centre Hall, spent Saturday at the home of Robert McClellan.

Mr. Brown, of Lewisburg, bought up a car load of sheep here which he will have shipped in Lewisburg.

Pleasant Gap.

Monday Wm. Noll left for Philadelphia to bring James Knoffsinger home from the hospital.

Quite a lot of shipping from the station at this place is being done. If this keeps up a freight office will be required.

Wm. Felding left this week for Brooklyn, N. Y., where he is employed by the Brooklyn Traction Co.

For modesty some of the Oak Hall girls take the cake, as some of those attending services here Saturday evening were too modest to sit on a Morris chair "because it has arms."

Eva and Minnie Showers, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at this place.

The sock social held in the M. E. church Saturday eve was a success.

Mr. Archey, of Bellefonte, was a caller in our town Saturday eve. He also contributed very liberally to the social. O yes, we are all going to vote for you.

Harrah for Pattison—don't let them bluff you at the fair.

Beech Creek.

Mrs. John Bickel, years ago a resident of this place, has arrived here from Oklahoma to visit relatives.

One of Liverman DeHaas' buggies was upset and somewhat damaged by a collision with another conveyance near Eagleville Saturday afternoon.

VARIETY OF LOCAL NEWS

Gathered from Centre and Adjoining Counties.

SHORT AND TO THE POINT

Events that Have Transpired Recently and Worthy of Mention—Items of Interest for All—Doing of Neighbors.

Burdine Butler, of Howard, is bragging of a fine new baby girl at his home.

Will H. Keller, son of P. F. Keller, of Centre Hall, has a clerical position in the Union Depot, Pittsburg.

A marriage license has been issued in Allegheny to James K. Ford, of Blair county, and Lilla Bathurst, of Centre county.

Burchard Musser, of Spring Mills, has gone to Osceola Mills where he expects to secure employment in a large machine shop.

Coke and coal mixed is said to work well for domestic use. The coke burns up the smoke that is thrown off when soft coal is used alone.

Corl Miller Smull, infant child of C. H. and Ellen Smull, of Rebersburg, died Wednesday morning, 24. Interment in the Union cemetery, Rebersburg.

Anthran Benser, while at work bolting in a stove mill at Hecla Park last Friday, his left hand came in contact with the circular saw, several fingers being cut off.

George Bloom, of near State College, and Abner W. Nearhood, of Centre Hall, are home from Northampton, Mass., where they are ward officers in a State asylum.

George Berryhill, of Eagleville, caught a tubful of eels in Marsh Creek Wednesday night of last week. The heavy rain started the eels down stream and his fish basket proved very successful.

The Phillipsburg Rod and Gun club will hold a two day's shoot in that place on Oct. 9th and 10th. Five hundred live birds will be offered to the contestants and a big shooting is promised.

W. C. Patterson, of State College, has been appointed by Governor Stone one of the delegates to the Farmer' National Congress to be held in Macon, Georgia, during the week of October.

Miss Mabel Sankey, of Potters Mills, has been selected principal of the Veron, Kansas, schools. Asher Sankey, her brother, resides in the town, whom she had been visiting the last summer.

Landlord Runkle, of Centre Hall, has in possession a Porto Rico dog, which was sent him from that far off island. dog is a medium size, white slightly long haired, pretty and of a friendly disposition.

Frank Kunes, wife and two children arrived at Beech Creek this week, from Marlin, Texas, and have taken up their abode in the house on the farm of S. H. Kunes and W. D. Clark, known as the McCalmont farm.

State College borough has authorized its committee on fire, water and light to purchase eleven street lamps, at $12.00 each, from the search Light Manufacturing Company, Chicago, to be used in lighting the streets of that town.

The Millheim Journal says last Saturday H. M. Walker finished threshing the grain crop of W. P. Catherman, who occupies the Mensch farm, near Millheim. The yield was 3,000 bushels. Nearly 1,300 bushels were threshed in one day.

The Centre county grain fields have a promising appearance. The wheat sown this fall, under the influence of the late rains, look green. In Buffalo valley, Union county, we also notice the same promising appearance of the wheat fields.

Apple picking is now going on in all the orchards over the county. The fruit generally is fine and plentiful. Hand-picked apples are bringing from 25 to 35 cents per bushel, as to quality. Many are being shipped to Chicago, where the crop is a failure.

While P. C. Bradford and others, of Linden Hall, were out con hunting last week they treed what they supposed to be a coon, but when Philip climbed the tree to shake it down it proved to be a large catamount which jumped into the crowd and escaped.

A wreck occurred Monday afternoon on the Snow Shoe branch of the P. R. R. near Gum Stump. Sixteen cars filled with coal were piled up, and a great deal of damage done. William Stanley of Milesburg, one of the brakemen, had his left leg badly fractured and knee cap broken.

Harry Myers, aged 12 years, was instantly killed Tuesday at noon at the Ophir coal mines near Phillipsburg. He was thrown from the back of a mule he was riding. His foot caught in a trace chain and he was dragged some distance. When picked up he was dead, his neck having been broken.

"Some Pumpkins," this is the phrase that applies to a monster sweet pumpkin, now on exhibition at the fair, by Lewis Mensch, of Aaronsburg, and raised on his farm. The critter is a beautiful one, smooth and bright and of the proportions of a large sized half-barrel. There are pies enough in it to make an entire camp meeting feel happy.

The potato rot is still a subject of complaint in a few localities. The danger, however, is mainly passed. Geo. B. Haines, of Rebersburg, out of some fifty bushels, saved about seven bushels from the rot. A similar result was the fate of about fifty bushels of the tubers that Jasper Brungard, of the same town had raised, the rot having affected all to about half dozen bushels.

In traveling over the county, one will meet corn fields that have stocks about four feet high but not an ear of corn on any stock in the field. This corn was planted late, and did not get any rains when needed to force ears. Adjoining such earless corn fields are often fields with an excellent crop of corn—being planted earlier than the foregoing, the rains that set in during August had the effect to bring on the ears. The contrast is readily noticeable.

The date of the dedication of the new Methodist Episcopal church at Hannah has been changed from October 11 to October 19. Rev. Edward J. Gray, D. D., present of Williamsport Dickinson seminary, and Rev. D. S. Monroe, D. D., pastor at Shamokin, are expected to be present. E. S. Latschaw will retire from the Port Matilda charge and seek a milder climate in the western part of North Carolina on account of his health.
