

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT Happenings of a Week Over Centre County.

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE What has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Coburn.

On Thursday Mrs Ephraim Bartholomew received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Alice Sloat, of Harrisburg.

J. W. Glasgow, one of our leading merchants, and son Fern went to Philadelphia on Friday, to buy a supply of winter stock, and visit his brother and sisters.

Sunday was a very pleasant day and the people seemed to have taken advantage of it. Those who came to share the hospitality of our town were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Luse, of Fiedler, Luther Bower and children, of Aaronsburg; N. B. Schaeffer and family, of Centre Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer, of Penn Hall.

A. J. Stover, Mrs John Bowersox and Mrs. Mary Meyer, all of whom had been sick, are now able to be up and about.

The bears seen by the boys last week is believed to have been nothing more than two large black hogs belonging to Emanuel Vonada.

Since last Thursday our hand leader, Calvin N. Meyer, is the happiest man in town. It's all on account of a little boy.

Mrs. Ruth Platt is visiting friends near Penn's Furnace this week.

Mrs. Hefflinger and Miss Alma Vonada spent a few days in Bellefonte the guests of J. F. Garthoff.

On Monday Mrs. Lizzie Sheesley started for West Virginia where her husband is engaged in the lumber business.

Mrs. Robb, of Bellefonte, visited her daughter Mrs. John A. Miller a few days this week.

Mrs. Clara Shaffer spent a few days at Linden Hall with her brother W. H. Kerstetter.

Mrs. Agnes Whitman, of State College, is staying at her former home here this week.

After this week Vonada's cider press will be in operation only on Tuesday.

High Valley.

Corn husking is the go at present. Dr. Snyder is not the only one that has the corn that ears in the ground.

The hunting season is here and the game was notified to leave the valley.

The only thing needed in the valley is hay and a few hogs; otherwise the valley has no ill to mention—a few overcoats would come handy.

Dr. Snyder started a cobbler shop; Jess was the first customer to call with three pair of shoes. The Dr. looked at them and said, "this is a stunner; I don't believe that Coburn has thread enough to sew the patch on one pair."

Miss Katie Bilymer, who had her home with her mother in Somerset, is here with her grand-parents, Henry Eisenhuth's; she intends to remain for some time.

On Wednesday the scribe was surprised to see Mrs Matilda Weaver and Mrs. Mealey Bower and her sister, all these ladies from Coburn, paid a visit to the scribe's home.

A rumor came to High valley that a young man started to hunt on the 15th and when he got as far as the mountain, he was surprised to meet two bears; one he shot and shipped him the same day. The young b. ar killer lives at Coburn.

A chicken hawk was killed on the mountain between Coburn and High valley, that measured over two feet; I was told that Andrew Vonada shot it, and laid it on side of the road; Emil Eisenhuth passed it with a load of corn and took it to J. W. Meyer who was well pleased.

Wolfs Store.

Last Sunday was a beautiful day. Cyrus Zeigler and wife and C. J. Greninger and family, all spent last Sunday visiting friends in Sugar valley.

We wish to remind the editor of the Democrat, that in mentioning all the good times in the Democrat, page 5, column 1 last issue, that he forgot the best of all viz, butchering. Now Charley, if you will make a special effort and come to Brush valley from Nov. 15, to Dec. 15, we will convince you that our people feast better and enjoy themselves better than at any other time in the year. Come and we can convince you. Bring Andy along.

Allen Gilbert moved on his farm last Tuesday, recently bought from Mrs. Louisa Morris.

C. J. Greninger made a flying trip to Coburn one day last week. Clate is a hustler and an excellent miller by trade.

H. M. Walker was bulking clover seed for E. G. Hosterman last Saturday.

Geo. Wolford and wife, from Rebersburg, Sundayed in our midst last Sunday.

Our people are all busy husking corn. The crop is a poor one and the ears nearly all soft.

Georges Valley.

Fine weather, about like Indian summer, and farmers are suited for their work.

Mrs. Hannah, widow of Jonathan Moore, died at Yeagertown and was buried at Tusseyville. She was twice married, her first husband being Peter Stuffer. She was the mother of Mrs. Wm. Colyer. Age was 77 years.

John Hosterman and Morgan Harter, are improving from their illness.

Orris Jamison, of Freeport, Illinois, after an absence of eight years, is visiting his parental home.

Constable Frank, up the valley, will move on the Mrs. Bartholomew farm.

Port Matilda.

The members of the U. B. church at Black Oak held an oyster and ice cream festival in Golden Eagle Hall in this place, on Saturday evening last, for the benefit of the building fund to liquidate a small repairing debt on the new chapel recently erected at the above place.

The M. E. church at Hannah was dedicated on Sabbath, Oct. 19, several eminent divines from abroad were present assisting Rev. Latschaw, pastor of above church, on the occasion; the congregation was unusually large and contributed generally, liquidating the building debt.

A fine reception was tendered Miss Cora Marks on Sabbath last, at the home of her father J. C. Marks, in honor of a special visit home from her duties in Clearfield.

William Reese, who resided on his farm near this place, has resigned his farming duties and removed to Sandy Ridge to engage in mining coal.

Ben Bros have nearly completed a fine residence for William Rhodes, in Reese Hollow; when finished will be a neat as well as a comfortable structure.

Levi and Budd Cowher, from Sandy Ridge, visited at the home of their father, Jos. Cowher a few days since.

James Reese, who has resided at Philipsburg for some time past, has removed to his former home on the farm of C. Reese, his father, in Reese Hollow.

Mrs. Nora B. Cling, who has been a resident of Reese Hollow for a short time, has removed to Sandy Ridge.

R. D. Ardery, we are sorry to note, is very ill with typhoid fever; and Ellis, his son, came home from Huston township, where he is teaching school, very sick, it is hoped that it is not the fever.

Miss Nora Osman is visiting her sisters, the Mrs. Baers at Curwensville.

Woodward.

The opening of the hunting season saw nearly all our nimrods shoulder their guns and start to the woods for small game. It seems that squirrels and birds are rather scarce, for one does not hear of so many hunting stories as last fall.

Mrs. Emma Eisenwine moved to Yeagertown, where her son is employed in the shops.

Protracted meeting is still in progress with a number of conversions and others following; keep the good work a moving.

The family of Samuel William departed for Monaca, to which place they sent their household effects a few days previous. They expect to make the mentioned place their future home.

Chas. Guisewitz, of Yeagertown, spent several days in this place, helping to get ready to move.

Clayton Boob moved to Mingorville; Benj. Cohen moved into the house vacated by the former; Ed. Stover moved into the Musser house.

Quite a number of people are continually moving away from our quiet village and still the houses are nearly all rented; some are going while others are coming.

Many of the P. O. S. of A. went to Coburn for the purpose of reorganizing the camp there.

Mrs. Tammie Meyer, of Coburn, was the guest of her parents, Mrs. James Weaver's.

Milesburg.

William Taylor, of South Dakota, after a pleasant visit with his brother, Thomas Taylor and family, returned home.

T. P. Rynder and wife, and Mrs. Mary Ann Lee, of Erie, after a brief visit to the burg, returned home.

Mrs. Joseph Baird with her son Samuel, Sundayed with her son, Frank Baird and family, of Philipsburg.

Samuel Baird shot a wild turkey weighing 12 lbs.

Samuel Haupt shot a raccoon weighing 25 lbs.

Harry Lambert shot a ruffed grouse and other small game, since the hunting season came in.

J. Zimmerman, of Kansas, is visiting his sister, Mrs. W. B. Thomas.

Rev. Houck and wife are visiting in Clearfield county.

Rev. Crouch is again able to be out; he filled an appointment on Sunday at Howard for his presiding elder.

Dr. S. M. Huff is very busy attending the sick at this writing.

Yarnell.

Mrs. Wm. Confer, of Clearfield, is visiting here.

Lizzie Martin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday here.

A new newsbag has been erected at this place; it travels at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

Has the Prosserville scribe moved into a place that he can't see out or what is the matter?

Protracted meeting began at Pleasant valley on Sunday; all attend.

James Lucas, of Snow Shoe, spent Sunday with Bert Kesling.

Jacob McCloskey, of Prosserville, was a pleasant caller in our town.

Alfred Poorman and family moved to Snow Shoe; they will be greatly missed as they were kind neighbors.

Frances says the gray horse can travel better than the "mewie" any time. She seems to know how Pownell's horse can travel.

Blair, were you making up lost time that you drove so fast Sunday morning?

Harris Twp.

Frank McFarlane is a frequent visitor to Bellefonte to see a "friend."

Tresslers steam thrasher, in one day, last week, thrashed 1050 bushels of wheat and oats on the farm of Mr. Mothersbaugh.

Boalsburgers have met a hitch from the Auditor, in the bequest of $500 made the Lutheran and Reformed Cemetery by the Misses Margaret and Nancy Sparr on account some quibble over stipulations to be carried out.

David Keller and wife have passed 60 years of wedded life, and are still well preserved.

Farm work is well on under the favorable weather and wheat fields look promising.

THE WEE-LITTLES IN THE TYROL.

FIND THE PEASANT WOMAN.

Aaronsburg.

Frank Guisewitz and family, of Fiedler, were the guests of Mrs. Guisewitz and Mrs. Katie Weaver, over Sunday.

Miss Sarah Haffley went to Lemont on Monday; she paid a visit to her parents and many friends who were glad to see her.

Rev. J. Kerlin and wife, of Swissvale, Mrs. Maggie Stephenson and children, of Lock Haven, Mrs. D. O. Shoemaker and son Herbert all spent a few days with Mrs. M. J. Deshler, on Main street. Julia Kremer is again housed in with a severe attack of rheumatism.

Pierce Bright has been working in Lycoming county and while there had his nose broken, he came here to his brother-in-law, E. T. Bower, on Saturday with a very painful face.

William Harter, of Hartleton, spent one day last week with his aged mother at the residence of Lewis Mench.

The Reformed congregation celebrated the Holy Communion on Sunday forenoon; Rev. J. Kerlin preached a very able sermon and assisted Rev. F. W. Brown, the pastor, throughout the entire services.

Mrs. Wance, of Lock Haven, spent a few days with her brother in the burg. Jacob Feidler and Beckie Musser and Will Hosterman and family, all of Fiedler, Sundayed with friends in town.

Dr. D. K. Musser, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his mother on Main street.

Nittany.

Fred Bartley and wife were guests of their son John and family over Sunday.

Frank Bartley and family, of Rote, spent Sunday here.

Clara Weaver and her mother, of Hubersburg, were guests of Jno. Minick and family over Sunday.

Mrs. W. F. Rossman and children, of Clintondale, were guests of friends here over Sunday.

Mrs. Alf. Babb and children, of Zion, visited here over Sunday, and also attended the surprise party at A. A. Pletcher's Saturday evening.

John Rossman, Sr., of Penn Cave, was the guest of G. W. Toibertson Monday.

Mrs. Hannah Shaffer, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. L. Reish, of Clinton county, were the guests of Mrs. Chas. McClintic on Saturday.

Harry Harter and Dan Meihl are busy bulking clover seed for the farmers through the valley.

On last Friday evening 26 of our young people gathered at the hospitable home of O. V. Yarnell to celebrate the 16th birthday of their son Harry; they were treated to a very nice supper and lots of fun.

Saturday evening the married people of this community gathered at the home of A. A. Pletcher's and took them by surprise, there were 30 in all, cigars, peanuts, taffy and lots of fun was the program. We all join in thanking the family for the nice time they gave us.

Runville.

The farmers are busy raising potatoes, while some are husking corn.

Wm. Watson and sister, of Snow Shoe, Sundayed at James Lucas's.

Warren Wood and Miss Mattie Faxon, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with Misses Myrtle and Sadie Friel at this place.

Edward Lucas, of Wingate, spent a few days this week at his parental home in this place.

Misses Bessie and Mabel Poorman spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. Laura Snyder, at Wingate.

Howard Wells and wife, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday with Mrs. Wells' parents, W. T. Shirik and wife, of this place.

Rev. G. A. sparks has started a revival meeting at Pleasant Valley. We wish him abundant success.

—It is only two weeks until election takes place. It is time to talk with your neighbor about getting to the polls.

OF PUBLIC INTEREST.

To Know the Cure for any Form of Nervousness Needs but to Read the following.

Mrs. J. H. Curry of No. 1399 Pennsylvania Ave., Tyrone, Pa., says: "I have been troubled a good deal with nervousness in the past and never had anything do me more good than Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. They relieved the high tension of the nerves, having a quieting and soothing effect. I also rested very much better after their use. I have no hesitation in recommending them to others."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50¢ a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package. For sale at Krumbine's Drug Store.

Martha.

On Wednesday morning, Oct. 15th, the air was almost alive with powder and shot; fortunately there was no one shot, but Gordon Ginery was "kicked" by his gun.

It seems as though democrats were the lucky people, and so they will be on Nov. 4th. Now there's George Harpster shot three wild turkeys. George is a stiff democrat. Joe Williams was hunting all day and didn't as much as get an empty gun. Joe is a republican. Paul Williams shot three fine black squirrels; Joseph Shaver got a broken gun; Gordon Ginery shot two squirrels and three pheasants; G. G. Pink killed five squirrels; Roy Morrison four black squirrels; Chester Cronister killed a 15 pound turkey. There were many other successful hunters whom we cannot name.

David Ginery took a load of apples and potatoes to Tyrone this week.

George Steel, the unfortunate victim of the Gypsy riot at Port Matilda, is able to be about again.

Roger Williams has accepted a position as fireman on the Bald Eagle Valley R. R. and started for Tyrone last Monday morning. Roger is an industrious young man, graduated from the Sugar Grove school in 1900. We hope he will reach the top of the ladder without any mishaps.

Col. Watson's little daughter Ella, died of scarlet fever, and two more of the family are very ill with the same disease. They are under the skillful treatment of Dr. W. U. Irwin.

The Misses Ida and Margaret Williams visited friends near Julian, Sunday.

Thompson Henry was very unfortunate in shooting the end off the first finger of his left hand on Saturday. He had the finger amputated by Dr. Thompson of Stormstown.

Miss Maggie Miles met with quite a painful accident on Sunday evening, while going to the barn she slipped and sprained her ankle.

Thomas Gill, of Vinegar Hill, is now employed by J. Q. Miles.

David Ginery spent a week with his brother Curtis, at the Lewistown Fair.

Mrs. Katharine Williams was a pleasant caller at the Sugar Grove school Friday afternoon. Come again—patrons are always welcome.

R. K. Everts has a new buggy and whip. The last article he uses too freely for the comfort of his horse.

Dallas Cronister has been very successful in capturing wild game this season.

T. B. Apple and family, of Panksta-tawney, returned home on Monday after spending a few days with friends at this place.

Mrs. Lizzie Reed, of Clearfield, paid her friends here a short visit this week.

Mr. Kyler, of Woodward, Pa., is visiting his brother, our efficient station agent and telegrapher.

Dale school, has been on the sick list for a few days with cold.

R. D. Ardery is some better of the fever at this writing, but his son Ellis, is very low.

Mrs. Wilson Williams is spending a few days with her son A. C. Williams, at Hannah.

Claud Peters, of Martinsburg, was the guest of John McKelvey last week.

Joe Williams is now "breaking" a pair of young horses. He is going to have a fine driving team, as Joe knows how to train them.

Ferguson Twp.

George Rossman, of Fairbrook, turned his two Virginia hounds loose to have a run. They had it, but when they returned home that evening their heads were swelled to enormous size because they had attacked a hedge-hog that had presented them with a few of his compliments. Veterinarian Fry was called to their relief and after etherizing the dogs had no trouble in extracting the pain causing quills.

Mrs. S. E. Young, of Bellefonte, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Fry, who is suffering with a broken nose, caused by a fall. She was carrying a bucket of water when she fell and struck her nose on the edge of the bucket.

Walter Weaver is in the Altoona hospital suffering with typhoid fever.

Fred Meyer, of Rock Springs, had the misfortune of losing four head of cattle one night last week. The straw stack in his barn yard blew over and buried three head of young cattle and broke the back of his best cow, which had to be killed.

Miss Flossie Goss, of Armstrong county, is visiting her cousins, the Kreps family here.

Mrs. Alice Buckwalter, of Lancaster, is visiting her parental home at Fairbrook.

The first day of the hunting season proved the scarcity of game in this section at least.

Elmer Bowersox, who has been among Centre and Union county relatives returned to his soldier duties at Porto Rico.

Elmer C. Ross, of Lemont, has been bustling around this section past ten days shipping handpicked apples to a western market. Thus far some fifteen car loads have been shipped out of Pennsylvally.

While carrying a bucket of water on a double quick to extinguish the flames on a traction engine John Sausserman has a sore jaw, caused by a wire clothes line in which he collided with his mouth loosing several teeth and cutting his mouth that required several stitches from Dr. Woods.

Rebersburg.

D. D. Royer sold one of his fine horses last week.

Clayton Weber, who is in the service of the railroad company at Ronova, was home over Sunday.

Henry Royer, from Scottdale, was visiting friends and relatives of this place during Sunday.

Titus Gramley and daughter, Orpha, from Spring Mills, were the pleasant callers on friends and relatives during Sunday.

Mrs. Louisa Morris, from near Wolfe's Store, has made her home with her son J. C. Morris. This is relieving her son of a great burden of care.

When some people die they are missed, but this community could do very well without the howling boys who nightly visit our quiet little town. We think it could easily be stopped if some of our influential citizens would get on their ear about it.

Mr. Zeigler, the organ agent, from Spring Mills, placed a fine organ in the home of Scott Stover, of South Rebersburg.

Chas. Mallory, who had been to Connecticut Paradise, has come to stay. It's not all pay and no work.

Mrs. Wm. Tourbot, from Connecticut, daughter of C. O. Mallory, is under the parental roof.

The people of the Lutheran church were favored with a very able sermon on Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Harmon. His theme was based on the text found in Heb. xi. 30: "By faith the walls of Jerico fell down."

Bruce Morris, one of our promising youths, who is teaching in Haines twp., was home on Sunday.

Our farmers are beginning to husk corn.

T. J. Ocker is remodeling his buggy shed.

Mr. Wolf, from Booneville, the hustling fruit agent, was in town on Monday taking orders.

Fillmore.

We have had some very fine fall weather of late, and the farmers have all got their fall grain out now; apples almost all put away, and are pretty well on with their corn husking; a great deal of soft corn is reported. The farmers are asking sixcts per bushel for green corn out of the field, and very hard to get at that price. Potatoes are selling at 46cts; apples at 40cts, we have a very fine quality this year.

The first day of the hunting season closed very windy, but no blowing has been heard about how many squirrels hunters got; some got as high as 6 squirrels and a ground-hog, others not so many, a red squirrel and some nothing.

Boys, what do you think, Grey was out hunting on Saturday and got 2 nice gray squirrels, and how do you think he got them? He had a gun, but do you think he shot them? He was as proud as a boy with his first boots.

O. W. Dunlay has improved his residence by a new roof on it.

We have met some very generous candidates of late; they have contributed to our phone for one year more; we will be connected with the different parts of the U. S. thanking all that have given to it, for their kindness.

Our prosperous farmer, W. W. Wiltmer has taken a little visit among friends for a rest.

O. Boys, if you cannot understand what is wrong with J. C. Rocky, since Tuesday, just ask him and he will say, "a boy came to my house and came to stay, a helper in the shop."

Howard.

Mrs. Will Weber is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. DeHass spent last week in Pittsburg.

Charles Strak is among the sick at his home.

Howard is well supplied with livery stables. It has three now.

Roy Leathers has also been on the sick list, and Miss Alice Riddle is some better, her sister Evelyn is not improving.

Rob Goss moved into John Thompson's house.

Wood choppers are in great demand.

The new home of Abe Weber is being completed and they expect to have a house warming about Christmas.

John Bierley departed, on last Tuesday, for Pittsburg, where he has secured employment.

John A. Thompson moved to Snow Shoe, where he will be engaged in the butcher business.

About every person in Howard who could carry a gun was out on the mountain hunting last week.

Ed. Mitchell, of Kansas, is visiting with friends in this section.

Colyer.

J. H. Ishler and Wm. Moyer spent several days in Nittany valley last week.

Geo. Getzel and wife, of Spring Mills, spent Sunday with J. H. Moyer's.

Squire J. S. Housman assisted Rev. O. L. Buck in holding a revival meeting at Woodward.

Mrs. Bancey, of Howard, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Annie Kreiter.

Howard Shadow went to Yeagertown last week to work in the ax factory.

Harry Floray and wife spent Wednesday last in Millheim with the latter's parents.

Mr. Maize and wife returned home from the West.

Frank Armag