

THE RACKET.

G. R. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN.

Kid Gloves, will be the "smart thing" this winter. We handle reliable makes only. How good, not how cheap, is our rule in this important line. We have exclusive sale for Bellefonte of The Centemeri. Prices of this famous glove, $1.50 up. If U don't want to pay more than a $1 (and that's as low a price as a reliable kid glove is to be had) we offer U the "Clementina" and its grand good value for one dollar.

Pillow Sham Holders—A new one adjustable to wood or iron beds. 50 cents.

A car load of "Kuriosties," just in, too much to talk about. Kom and C.

Centre Hall.

Dr. Park's sale was well attended. On account of scarcity of cars he was unable to ship his goods yet. Going to lose him.

Mrs. Charley Meyer left Wednesday morning for Millersburg. She will prepare to move to Reedsville.

James Stahl and family spent Saturday with Claude at State College.

Dr. Lee is having the fixtures for the acetylene gas light put in his house this week.

Rev. James Boal, of Port Carbon, is visiting friends in town.

The apple crop in this valley is very large. Never has there been so much cider made as this year.

Potatoes also are very plenty. They can be bought for 30 cts per bushel.

Mrs. Will Shoop, of Scranton, is visiting here.

Curt Lingle, of near the Port, lost a cow by chocking on an apple.

Charley Meyer has obtained employment at Burnham, near Lewisburg.

A missionary from China, who has been lecturing in Millin and other counties, will be in Centre Hall on Sunday, October 26, and will lecture in the Presbyterian church in the evening, on "Chinese Life and Work; Escape from the Boxers."

Are we going to have an old-fashioned Indian summer?

We are sorry to hear that another family, that of Michael Condo, is likely to move to Pittsburg.

George W. Ocker, grain merchant at Centre Hall, but for the past two years in business in Lewisburg, has sold his grain house and coal yard to Messrs. Foreman & Smith, who at the time were lessees of it.

Axemann.

R. M. Kaup and wife spent Sunday afternoon at the former's brother, Geo. Miss Rose McCullough spent Sunday very pleasantly with her friend, Miss Julia Watson at State College.

Mrs. James Hamilton and Mrs. Wm. Dawson, of Bellefonte, were the guests of their friend, Mrs. B. Scanlon.

Frank Irvin Sundayed with his parents at Pleasant Gap.

Wonder why Frank H. is so "down hearted" since Saturday eve? Edna says she did not mean to leave him on such short notice, but John was the only one in this here town, for her. We extend our sympathy.

AXEMANN NO. 2.

Clyde Shutt and Herman Keen, of near Zibo, spent Sunday in our town.

Frank Beck and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Rock View.

Charles Garbrick and wife spent Sunday at home of his parents, near Koopsburg.

Quite a number of people from this place attended the funeral of Scott Tate, of Pleasant Gap, on Sunday.

A young dandy arrived at the home of Elmer Swartz on Sunday morning.

Miss Lillian Schnaars, of Keewading, returned home on Saturday after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Strunk, of this place.

Harry Harter and Frank Gross Sundayed with friends at Oak Grove.

Arthur Kline Sundayed with his parents at Oak Hall.

Oliver Strunk and wife Sundayed with friends at Pleasant Gap.

There was quite an excitement in our town Saturday night, at the home of Elias Breen, the carpenter. About 11 o'clock some one came to the front door but Willis and Bertha thought it was a robber, became very nervous and used all their strength to hold the door shut. They were nearly scared to death; they learned it was her brother, who just came home from the store. They are getting along very nicely since the excitement and are now trying to tell the people they knew all about who it was, but we know that nervousness comes from scare, so they can't "bluff" us.

Philipsburg.

Ed. Perks has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to again resume conducting his train.

J. E. Hedding, of Morrisdale, is off to Montana to look after the interests of the copper mining company organized about a year ago.

George Hamer, engineer for the Philipsburg Milling Co., has purchased the Oscar Adams property on Fourth street.

James Beatty, of Sington, who recently disappeared from his home, and who, it was feared, was in the mines on the lands of the D. H. Parker estate, which caved in last Thursday week, has turned up at Clearfield, where he is now employed.

West Brushvalley.

Preaching services were well attended in St. Paul's church last Sunday evening.

Herman Lambert visited friends in Madisonburg on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Homan, of Aronsburg, visited at the home of Wm. Homan last Sunday.

Clyde Duck transacted business in Millheim last Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. H. D. Hagan, of Farmers Mills, visited her parents here last Sunday.

N. A. Duck, of Clintondale, spent Sunday at home.

D. G. Orndorf shot and killed a chicken hawk which measured some 3 feet from tip to tip.

Is it possible, yes, it is verily so, that a bear was seen several times on Brush mountain for the past two months. One day last week in the evening while two men were cutting corn near said mountain, they were horrified at hearing low growls of bruin. One of the men mistook bruin for some sheep that had gone astray, and didn't pay particular attention to it. (By this time it was growing dark.) They heard it again, and again, and found out that it was far different from sheep. While the two men were some rods apart the one nearest to bruin got frightened (it made his hair stand on end) and took to his heels, ran up to the other man and said: "Wos der dihenker is well." And while they held a hasty consultation, they didn't want to leave the shocks there unattended. When at last they started homeward, but bruin slowly followed them. The two men halted, gathered stones and hurled stone after stone towards the direction where bruin was concealed under a shock. This made bruin growl more fiercely. They shrieked for help and rifle, but no help was nigh. While the two were planning what to do, lo, and behold, bruin made a "dashout" of the shock and into the corn, towards the mountain he went. The two men halted and said: "Mere geva battle." They gathered stones and when they were ready to blaze away, when, lo, and behold, H. A. Y. emerged out of the corn and said: "Boova schmissed net. Ich hobehich vynt fashrekha wells." The would-be expected bruin said afterwards that stones whistled past him like so many bullets. The two men finished their day's work and started homeward with their would-be expected bruin.

Potters Mills.

Joseph Parker, while working on Reighley's saw mill last week, was struck by a flying edging just below the eye and cut an ugly gash, which Dr. Robison of Centre Hall dressed and he is getting along alright at present.

Dady Strong died on Thursday night and was buried on Sunday at Spruce-town cemetery, Rev. Haven officiating.

Frank Herman and family were visiting at Cal. Vonada's, at Centre Hill, over Sunday.

Will Kepler, of Pine Grove, candidate for legislature, was through here last week and stopped off long enough to shake hands and pass the cigars around to the boys; he is alright; if elected will make a good official.

Sheriff Brumgard was through here last week looking for some birds to put in his coop.

Call Hashbarger is through here this week finishing the fall thrashing.

Husking corn is about the order of the day now.

J. E. Harshbarger, of Potters Mills, a short time ago went to Norristown, where he is taking a course in a business college.

POTTERS MILLS NO. 2.

Arthur Kline and Blanche Kaup, of Axe Mann, spent Sunday here.

Mrs. John Miller is visiting her brother W. H. Close.

Minnie Kline and Annie Kaup were on the sick list last week.

Thos. and Calvin Riley, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday here.

J. H. Williams and wife, of Centre Hall, spent Tuesday here.

Mrs. Ida Barton, of Pittsburg, is visiting at Anthony Knopp's.

School Reports.

Our correspondents will please note, that for want of space we will be unable to publish school reports. There are over 250 schools in the county and were only a small portion of them to report it would almost fill up our columns. We would like to oblige our friends in this direction, but it is impossible.

Linden Hall.

The Democratic meeting has been postponed indefinitely. No doubt the stump speakers are aware that "Old Harris is solid for Pattison anyhow."

Mrs. John Weibley returned on Thursday, from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. John Schreck, at Gram-plure, Pa.

We are glad to note that Henry Zeigler is again able to go out for a short drive.

Miss Sadie Lee, of Colyer, spent Monday in town.

Miss Blanche Daugherty, of Pine Glenn, spent last Tuesday in this place.

Mrs. Richardson is spending a few weeks with friends, at and near Coburn.

Mr. Meyer, of Millheim, called on some of his friends here Tuesday.

Roy Swabb, an expert machinist, of Erie, is spending a few days with his grand-parents, George Swabb's.

Mr. Musser and wife, of Madisonburg, spent Sunday with Henry Zeigler and family.

Miss Myrtle Garis, of Centre Hall, is again a resident of our town.

We are sorry to notice that James Swabb, one of our esteemed citizens, is sick.

The protracted meeting which was in progress at this place for several weeks, has closed.

We want to caution our citizens to be on their guard, as there is considerable petty thieving going on here. Two houses were entered within the past few days.

Will Catherman and John Raymond have some pet coons in their possession. Lee Brooks, also has one which he prizes very highly.

Cyrus Confer left on Monday morning for the Bear Meadows, where he has secured work.

The event of the week was the marriage of Joseph Parker, of State College, to Miss Luella Kerstetter, of this place.

J. T. Swartz and wife, of Iowa Falls, Iowa, are pleasant visitors at the home of Mrs. Tamson Keller.

Among those in Bellefonte from this place Saturday, were: Wash. Garbrick and son George, Mrs. F. E. Wieland, Howard and Charles Zeigler, and Geo. Gettig.

Jacob Zong and family spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Millheim.

Wm. Bartholomew, Centre Hall, Mr. Meyer, Millheim, Sam. Goss, Bellefonte, all life insurance agents, were writing policies for our people during the week. A sign that our community is in a healthy state.

Unionville.

Buckwheat cakes are ripe.

A butter and egg famine has struck our town.

The handsome man in Bellefonte was a business visitor on Saturday evening. His name is Charley Smith, Esq.

Quinter Underwood, of Pittsburg, was on arrival on the 9-7 o'clock train, Monday morning.

Eugene Hall has been "under the weather" for several weeks.

Miss Abbie Loughrey and Mrs. Bertha Alexander Loughrey, both of Philadelphia, are visiting friends in this section.

Mrs. Julia Emerick Peters, after spending three or four weeks at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Emerick, returned to her home at Pittsburg on Saturday last.

Roy Miles, of Pittsburg, is visiting friends at this place.

Miss Sallie Armagast, of Bellefonte, is greeting her many friends here about.

John L. Rich's sale of household goods was well attended and nearly every thing brought fairly good prices.

The happiest man in town just now is John Shadle. It's a girl.

Bennie Fredericks says marriage is a failure—with him.

Say, Charley, don't you think C. H. Bell, of Marble Rock, Iowa, was very fortunate in securing one of Domino's pupils for a wife? This fact, and the fact that both are readers of the Centre Democrat, will admit them into first class society anywhere.

Miss Bessie Stere, after several weeks' visit to her brother Harry at Bens Creek, returned home on Monday looking brighter than ever—if that is possible.

The Rev. Crittenden, of Bellefonte, came in from the ridges, on Saturday looking like a veritable Daniel Boone. He got no turkey but he succeeded in bagging several gray squirrels, one woodcock and a hornet's nest.

The following is a list of persons who were successful as turkey hunters during the first three days of the season: Ed. Musser 3 turkeys, 5 squirrels; Raymond VanValin 2 turkeys; A. B. Hall 2 turkeys, 9 squirrels; Wm. Keatley 1 turkey; Rev. Mumma 5 turkeys; Willie Buck 2 turkeys, 4 squirrels; Daniel Oliver 1 turkey; Wm. Brass 1 turkey; Oliver Underwood 1 turkey; George Brown 4 turkeys; John Resides 1 turkey; Atley Davison 2 turkeys; Boyd Stere 1 turkey; H. Lindemuth 1 turkey; Henry Parros; 2 turkeys; Wm. Fisher, Jr., 1 turkey; Arista Lucas' son 1 turkey; Dr. C. A. VanValin 1 turkey; Charley Holtworth 1 turkey; Joe Gill 0 turkey. The latter said he wouldn't shoot them only on the wing, so he sat on Joe Barton's store porch waiting for them to fly over town, but they didn't come his way. The hero of the day is Willie Buck; after he shot two turkeys, he handed his gun to Harry Lindemuth who then killed one. He is a magnanimous little fellow and feels justly proud in having beaten his father. Alfred Heaton helped him carry his victims home. There was a large number of small game shot but was not reported, and yet they say game is scarce.

Nothing so Good for Coughs and Colds.

Mr. J. N. Pekins, Druggist of Lawton, Okla., who has been in business eleven years, says of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that during all this time he has never had a bottle of this remedy returned as not having given satisfaction, proving conclusively that this preparation will do all that is claimed for it. There is nothing so good as this remedy for coughs, colds and croup. It is pleasant to take and as it contains no injurious substance may be given to a child with perfect confidence. For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

OUR HISTORICAL REVIEW.

Lamb's saddle-bags. The counsel who appeared for McKee were Foulke, Reed, J. Dunlop, S. Duncan, Wallace, T. Duncan, McCulloch, Thompson, Miles McCure, Kidd, Irwin, Allison, and Patterson. For Gallagher appeared Stewart, Waiker, Henderson, Rose, Huston, Hastings, Clark, Hall, Laird, Bonham, Gemmill, Barnside, Boggs, Orbison, Cadwalader, Canan, Smith, Carpenter, H. Dunlop, Dean, Hepburn, and Bellas. After exhausting all the tactics known to lawyers in attack and defense, the case was finally marked settled.

At the same sessions, upon the application of the grand jury, William Connelly was brought before the court for contempt in not attending upon them properly, and for locking them up in the county prison and detaining them there a long time.

Matthew Allison, Esq., John Dunlop, and Jacob Skillman were each fined six dollars for default after being duly summoned as grand jurors; the first two named, however, were heard on oath, and the fine remitted. James Dunlop, Esq., another grand juror, was excused from attendance.—Linn.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. DWIGHT TWILLIGER:—Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bagley, of Phillipsburg, died on Saturday afternoon near Ridgway. Her death was due to typhoid pneumonia. The deceased was aged about 35 years, and besides her husband leaves two small children.

WINFIELD SCOTT TATE:—a well known citizen, of Pleasant Gap, died at his home in that place, Thursday morning of cancer of the liver. He was aged 57 years and was a veteran of the civil war having served in the 148th Pennsylvania Volunteers. He is survived by a wife and ten children. Interment in the Lutheran cemetery last Sunday.

Mrs. SARAH IRVIN POTTER:—died Friday evening at the home of her son Geo. L. Potter, this place due to an unfortunate fall on the 5th. Mrs. Sarah Irvin Potter is the last of a distinguished family, born August 19, 1820, on a farm about one mile west of Centre Hall. Her father, John Irvin, was in his day and generation one of the largest land owners in Pennsylvania. Her mother's maiden name was Ann Watson. Her early life was spent at the home of her birth. In February, 1844, she was married to Wilson W. Potter and resided for several years at Centre Furnace. In 1864 they removed to Bellefonte. Her husband died in July, 1884, since which time her home has been with her son, George L. Potter on Linn street. She is survived by two sons, John I. Potter and George L. Potter. Mrs. Potter was a sister of the following prominent citizens of our county, all of whom departed this life years ago; Mrs. Eliza Curtin, Mrs. Susan Potter, Mrs. Moses Thompson, James Irvin, Mrs. Andrew Gregg, John Irvin and William Irvin, the latter at one time was consul to China. Interment in the Union cemetery Monday.

CURTIN P. STONERODE:—died at his home in Milesburg Monday morning at 2 o'clock from a complication of diseases directly due to wounds received in the service of his country. Deceased was born in Birmingham, Huntingdon county, March 25th, 1841, and was the son of John M. and Rachel Stonerode. His mother is now dead, but his father still survives at the advanced age of 83 years. At the outbreak of the Civil war the subject of this obituary was among the first to answer to the call of his country for assistance and has a record to be proud of. He participated in twenty-two engagements, the most important being Weldew Railroad at Petersburg, Roanoke Island, Newbern, N. C., Camden, N. C., Elizabeth City, N. C., two days at Bull Run, Shenfield, South Mountain, Antietam and Vicksburg. For fourteen years he was connected with the Bellefonte & Snow Shoe Railroad and for the past twenty-four years has been agent for the P. R. R. at Milesburg. He was secretary of the Veteran Employees Association of the Pennsylvania Railroad. He was a member of the George L. Potter Post of Milesburg and the Union Veteran Legion. He was a consistent Christian and a member of the Presbyterian church. Surviving him are his wife, whose maiden name was Annie Dixon, and the following children; Boyd H., of Coraopolis, Pa.; Mrs. Dr. J. W. Lyon, of Jackson, Mich.; Gertrude, of Mansfield, Mass., Blanche and lane at home. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Theodore, D. K. and F. D. of Altoona; Mrs. Martha Struble, of Altoona; Mrs. Lizzie Sprinkle, of Postoria; Mrs. Ida Parks, of Sharpsburg. Interment at Milesburg Wednesday morning.

Mrs. CATHERINE WELSH:—died yesterday morning at the residence of Jerry Donovan at Axemann, after an illness extending over a period of three months. She was believed to be over ninety years old, she was the widow of James Welsh, who died more than thirty-five years ago. She had no relatives except two nephews, John and Thomas Birchall, who reside at Altoona. She was a member of St. John's Catholic church of Bellefonte.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

The county chairman announces the following public meetings to be held throughout the county, during October:

Thursday, 23rd—Bellefonte.

Friday, 24th—Ripka's.

Saturday, 25th—Potters Mills.

Monday, 27th—Sandy Ridge, Mann's School House, (Curtin.)

Tuesday, 28th—Woodward, South Phillipsburg.

Wednesday, 29th—Snow Shoe, Millheim.

Prominent speakers will be in attendance at these meetings. The public is invited to attend and hear the issues of the campaign presented.

Pa. R. R. Excursions to New Orleans.

On account of the meeting of the American Bankers' Association, at New Orleans, La., November 11 to 13, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to New Orleans and return, Nov. 8 to 10, good to return within eleven days, including date of sale, at reduced rates. By depositing tickets with Joint Agent at New Orleans on or before November 15, and the payment of a fee of 50 cents, an extension of the return limit to November 30 may be obtained.

For specific information regarding rates and routes, apply to nearest ticket agent.

Some fellows are content to work for a salary, while others work for a raise.

Don't Take Our Word For It Naturally We Are Prejudiced.

When we say we have the greatest line of COATS, SUITS and WRAPS ever shown in Bellefonte we want people to investigate the assertion; want you to see whether or not we are telling the truth. Only one way to do this—see the line and judge for yourself. If you can't see a dollar to two and a half
