Coroner-H. S. BRAUCHT, of Gregg. EDITORIAL.

Auditors J. H. BECK, Walker. W. H. TIBBENS, College.

WHEN Wm. C. Heinle was elected State Senator he was a poor man; he came home a poor man.

Ir was through the effort of Senator Heinle that an appropriation of $10,000 was secured for the Soldiers monument. Senator Heinle proved himself a friend of the soldiers.

DEMOCRATS of Centre, you have a duty to perform next Tuesday, at the polls. Do not fail to be at your posts, many honest republicans will be with you, some openly and some on the quiet.

WETZEL and Kepler will truly represent the people in the legislature. Vote for them on Tuesday. Their opponents, Schoonover and Strohm, are the pledged creatures of the trusts and the Quay Vore for one of Centre county's best and most worthy citizens, for Sheriff, a soldier, a patriot, and manly in his every intercourse with fellow man. That man is Capt. Hugh. S. Taylor-not a blemish on his record.

REMEMBER next Tuesday, election day, when a battle of ballots is to be fought against the beet, coal, implement, and other trusts, Workingmen turn out. and attest which side you are on- the side of the oppressors of the people, or for enriching the rich at your expense | cle, Ex-Judge Pennypacker has not reand impoverishing yourselves.

DR. H. S. BRAUCHT, nominee for Coroner, is a fit person for the place. He hails from an old and respected family, early settlers of Pennsvalley. The Doctor is a most agreeable gentleman and is | tiously put on the collar of Quayism, deserving every vote that will be cast next Tuesday. His record is clean and his standing is No. 1 wherever he is known.

FOR County Treasurer, vote for honest and capable W. J. Carlin, of Miles, who bears as his best recommendation the almost unanimous choice and support of the large township of Miles. He is a self-made man, and by his own energy has raised himself in the esteem of all who know him. He understands German, which is an important matter in the office for which he has been nominated, and in this his opponent, Mr. Foster, is deficient.

Or Senator Wm. C. Heinle we have spoken so fully that it is needless for us to refer to his honest life and unbesmirched record. The friend of the common people, kind deed in his every action, has been tried and never found wanting. Vote for him for Senator next Tuesday. His opponent is Mr. Patton, a coal lord, to whom you are paying heavy tribute in every bucket of coal you put into your stoves and ranges. He is tariff-protected and would vote in the senate to forge still harder chains around of Pennypacker's dismal failure on the the common people.

EVERY voter of Centre county knows who A. G. Archey is, the present Register. He has discharged the duties of that office with such signal fidelity in the past three years, that has won for him the good will of all who have had business in that office. Mr. Archey is from the people and one of the people, and has never been guilty of a mean action. His work as Register has received commendation from all. Vote for Mr. Archey, next Tuesday-keep a good man when you know you have him.

LET every honest citizen of Centre county go to the polls on Tuesday, next, and register his vote against the worst plundering machine that ever disgraced a state. No man can conscientiously vote otherwise. Democrats don't fail to vote on Tuesday, scores and scores of honest republicans in every county in the state will vote with you to blot out robbery, bribery, and fraud in public affairs. Tuesday next is the day for every patriotic citizen to prove that he has the courage to stand up for the Right, and rebuke Quayism.

IS HE FIT TO BE GOVERNOR? As the Quay machine candidate for governor, Ex-Judge Pennypacker has been the hardest riddle to solve ever presented to the voters of the Keystone state. It was early discovered that he had cut some queer capers, in a literary-political way, while a judge; but the day he left the bench he tumbled into the ring and ever since his extraordinary performances have amazed, amused and disgusted by turn the onlookers. Former friends have anxiously asked the meaning of it all.

Meanwhile the ex-judge has waddled around the political tent utterly unconscious of the effect of his self-revelation. He has sometimes tried to crack jokes, but his hearers couldn't see the point. Upon one ludicrous occasion he had to explain where the laugh ought to come in, but the effort was a dismal He tried to flirt with the women and said he was better looking than his pictures in the newspapers. They didn't agree with him. Ordinarily his personal demeanor has been that of a man conducting his own funeral. The icicles drop off him and give reception committeemen a chill. He stood straight up one night and after abusing his dignified and manly opponent, cried out, in querelous tones: "Why not try another?" The answer everywhere heard was, "Well, if we swapped Bob Pattison for you, we'd be dreadfully cheated, sure enough." The other members of the Quay aggregation have talked about everything but their candidate, but he has to flock by himself, between stumping stations.

The "Pennsylvania Dutch" were expected to enthuse over their vote-seeking kinsman, but they have repudiated the relationship. The soldier racket couldn't be worked, for the candidate was only on the edge of the great conflict. When he posed as the friend of the workingmen, some inquisitive people looked into the record and quickly discovered how he was in the habit of tumbling helpless labor plaintiffs out of court, when they sued for damages. He awkwardly made love to the farmers, but the men of the soil said it might be the hand of an amateur squash raiser, but it was the oily tongue of a political green-goods man. When he proudly talked of his illustrious ancestry, impertinent critics made side remarks about Darwin's evolution theory and asked what had become of the organ grinder and "the other member of the family."

In his forlorn swing around the circeived one good, hearty, encouraging welcome. The frost has been on the pumpkin every time, and nobody is to blame but the hapless creature himself. Before starting out he ostentaand the people took him at his word. Voters who want an odious and corrupt ring to remain in power, will vote for its candidate. Those who do not will turn him down, and his condemnation at the polls ought to be overwhelming. The honor, dignity and welfare of Pennsylvania imperatively

Over 100,000 Democratic and Republican voters who were led off by Swallow, in 1898, are this year in line for Pattison. The issue between good and bad government is clearly drawn and every hour adds to the strength of the great reform movement of 1902.

Hensel knocked out the silly lie about the coal trust. The former attorney general promptly showed that the second Pattison administration did its whole duty with regard to this as in all other matters.

That big ball the Republicans were going to roll from Erie to the Delaware broke down at the start; typical stump from the beginning to the end.

Look to the legislature. Let there be active work in every district for candidates who will smite the machine and help to restore decent government at Harrisburg.

Boodle, the last refuge of political villians, is the only hope of the machine. Let the conspirators be overwhelmed by the honest voters of Pennsylvania.

When Guthrie presides in the senate at Harrisburg the political auctioneer will go out of business. Bribery will become a lost art.

They forced Elkin into the field to help their beaten candidate and their last state was worse than their first.

Remember that a full vote and fair count means a reform victory. Work fill the last howr of the campaign.

Get out the vote-every man within sach, next Tuesday, for Pattison and he redemption of Pennsylvania.

FOR THE HONOR OF PENNSYLVA-NIA.

Now for one good, strong, confident pull all together, and the cause of clean politics and honest government will surely triumph. The contest has been an inspiration to the upright citizenship of the state. The candidates of the Erie convention have conducted their battle on the highest grounds. They have never once descended to untenable positions or resorted to unworthy methods.

Their appeal has been to the intelligence and patriotism of the people; to their highest and best instincts. They have unselfishly put aside partisanship. They have welcomed every self-respecting ally. They have fearlessly met every issue. They have mightily stirred the public conscience. The heart of the commonwealth has been touched to its core. The sanctity of the fireside has been their theme; the preservation of public virtue and honor their motto.

Let there be a touching of elbews at the polls, a union of the patriotic sentiment of every community. Independent Republicans have been shamefully defrauded of their right to a separate place on the ballot; but they can strike directly and effectively at the common enemy by using either the Democratic or the Ballot Reform column. They will thus assert and vindicate their manhood by a heavier vote against Quayism than might have been cast under other circumstances. They now have a double duty to per form, and they should unite to overwhelm the machine and all its works.

Democrats who have upheld the standard of their faith through storm and sunshine should work as never before and see that every vote is brought out. There are more than 500,000 disciples of Jefferson in Pennsylvania, and every man should answer the roll call of duty next Tuesday. Upon them rests the chief responsibility. They have standard-bearers to be proud of. Let each county vie with its neighbor in rolling up majorities for Pattison, Guthrie and the whole ticket. Work hard for legislative canherein is essential. A reform gov ernor should be sustained by honest law-makers, to the end that the people may be well served. Push the battle till the last hour, and a great triumph, we are assured, is certain, more clearly and discreditably shown his utter unfitness for high public office than through his small, petty, selfish references to the settlement of the coal strike. With characteristic stupidity, he assails other men for not taking action in this matter, when he never opened his own mouth upon the subject. It would have been of no use, as his meddling political friends soon found out.

When the proper time came the power of public sentiment forced peace, in the name of humanity, No credit is due the terrified schemers who have read the handwriting on the wall. It was Quay hirelings in the legislature who killed the bill the passage of which might have prevented the conflict. The Quay machine has shown its selfish indifference to the interests of labor, and at this hour it is only desperately trying to deceive and use miners and other workingmen to save itself from utter destruction.

No amount of trickery or lying can hide the truth or mislead honest men. Governor Pattison's record, in the urgent recommendation and approval of wise and just labor legislation, exceeds that of all Republican executives for 20 years past. Nearly every enactment of importance on this subject bears his signature. The coal miners know how valuable have been his services, and upon many occasions they have so testified.

It is the same with other workers, as was suggestively shown at Reading, where the railway men came forward with offers of earnest support. Demagogic appeals to class prejudice, unmanly attempts to excite unjust hostility to honest representatives of the people, will not save the doomed Quay machine, and the weakling who defends it and serves it so slavishly will be swept from public sight.

The people must be taxed $30,000,000, the increased prices to pay for the coal strike. Charge it to the machine, which killed the miners bills in the last legislature.

Delamater was dignity, ability and courtesy, compared with Pennypacker's clownish foolishness; yet the Quay candidate of 1890 could not win.
