THE RESULT IN CENTRE COUNTY

The Honors are Divided in Gains and Losses.

PATTISON CARRIES CENTRE

Democrats Elect Most of their County Ticket but Lose Treasurer and County Commissioner—a Large Vote Was Polled.

Tuesday was a fine election day, all that could be desired to induce voters in the country districts to come to the polls. The result shows that over 8600 votes were cast for the leading candidates on the state ticket. In 1901 only 5883 were out and in 1899 there were 8774. That a hard battle was fought is evident from the special effort made by both sides to make this a test of the relative strength of the two parties in the county. The result shows a handsome Democratic majority of 377 for Pattison and larger and smaller amounts for local candidates whose vote was influenced by personal and local conditions. In this contest all the factions in the republican party were united. The great assistance they received from Dresser and Patton, the two millionaires, enabled them to employ special men to travel the county for weeks organizing, assisting candidates, and which on election day secured them scores of votes. When fortified in this manner, with all the munitions of political warfare, which is more persuasive to the floating vote than argument or fact, it shows that the Democracy of Centre county were up against a mighty stiff proposition and came out of the contest with colors flying. The points were against them from the start and they fought like tigers to the finish, and as a result are victors against great odds. The summary published elsewhere, at a glance, shows the result—Democrats won the principal offices in Centre county except County Treasurer and one Commissioner, and that loss is due more to personal differences and petty spite work inside our own ranks than to strength of the opposition. These are things that are to be deplored, but can not be avoided as the principles of the Democracy are not responsible for the shortcomings of individuals or work of traitors in the party.

BOODLE CAMPAIGN.
The battle is fought and the result can not be changed. It may appear weak and silly to put up a wall over the loss of part of the ticket. Squealing over split milk don't pay. But there is one fact notorious, had our opponents not been supplied with the unlimited amount of boodle things would have been different. As it is we have cause to rejoice with every democratic voter and every active party worker who contributed time and effort during the campaign, and especially on Tuesday, was on hand to assist in getting the vote out, for the noble stand made and results achieved.
