CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County.

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What has Transpired in the Various Localities-Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers-Is Your Section Represented?

Julian.

We wonder what has become of our town scribes', we wish they would write as so many take the Centre Democrat that like to get the news from this place. I wonder if I can get a wild turkey before the season is out; but, ah me, I am so unlucky.

We wonder why some doctor does not locate at Julian, we need one, as five miles to Unionville, or seven mile to Port Matilda, is too far to go get a physi-

We wonder if the Lemont parsnip thinks he is smart; he evidently thinks he is; we wish he would crawl in a hole and pull the hole in after him for the

We wonder why people will persist in calling our beautiful town "Juley Ann"; when I was a little boy our teacher called it Julian, with the accent on the first Loyd Myers, who has been so ill with typhoid fever, in West Virginia, came home last week, accompanied by his sis-Vincent Stevens has sold his farm east of town and will move in Walt Tallhelm's house. We are soory to hear that Calvin Williams tell out of a wagon and was hurt very badly. Wonder if Domino has had any snitz and knep lately; we like them, think they are fine. Aaron Myers and son's are putting up a nice dwelling house on railroad avenue.

Clayton Barr, of Pittsburg, visited relatives at this place last week; he is looking well.

Nittany.

W. M. Kecht and family, of Parvin, were seen on our streets, on Sunday

E. L. Probst and family, of Lockport, were the guests of Mrs. Fannie Emerick, on Sunday.

Mrs. W. M. Garbrick is on the sick list. We hope for her speedy recovery. W. M. Snavely shot a big wild turkey on Friday.

Mrs. Chas. Emerick and son were at Shore visiting friends over Sunday.

Mrs. H. K. Bartly and children, of Rote, were the guests of her father, John Minick, over Sunday. Sheard Rossman moved in the house vacated by Mr. Bartly; Harry Kessinger will move in the house vacated by Mr.

Don't forget the chicken and waffle supper at the home of Mrs. Fannie Emerick on next Saturday evening, 20th; they will also serve ice cream and cake : all are invited to come.

The Misses Pearl and Esta Winkleman and Vinie Emerick, were to Rote, on Sunday visiting friends.

There will be preaching in the Ev. church on next Sunday morning at ten Consecration meeting on Sunday evening-members be sure to be there.

Ferguson Twp.

The Krape farm was bid up to $31 50 per acre, but not knocked off at that. Luther Keller Dale reports a little girl, a new arrival.

John G. Tyson has rented the old Judge McWilliam's farm near Penna. Furnace.

Jacob Shuey last week one day open ed the butchering season by slaughtering four hogs, eight months old that averag-

Geo. N. Keichline will quit farming next spring, and move into his new purchase, the Isaac Merryman property in Ferguson. John Dreibelbis will oc-

John Geist and John Leech, our Shertdan Troop boys, have returned from the strike region, and say they had an excelleut time. John Geist purchased two young goats while he was away.

While chopping wood on Monday, John Harpster cut an ugly gash in his

Miles Harpster is confined to the house with an attack of rheumatism.

The busiest man around these parts, is veterniary doctor Fry, of Pine Grove.

Centre Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wagner, and daughter Helen, of Kipple, visited friends here recently. Also, Samuel Wagner, of Kipple, called on friends.

Our old friend Jos. Gilliland, of New Bloomfield, was presented with a cane of many pieces by the Bank hunting club; the cane is an ingenious piece of mechanism from the hands of comrade Rev. Rhoads

J. A. Fortney and George Williams, of Boalsburg, completed the new dwelling house of Samuel Durst, of Earlystown.

NERVOUS EXHAUSTION.

An Every day History, High Strung, Nervous, Excitable, Constant Headaches, No Kest at Night, Heart Weak, Appetite Poor, Loss of Weignt, Strength all Gone. READ THE FOLLOWING:

Miss Barbara Brock, Caldwell, Pa., 12 miles out of Lock Haven, Pa., says: "I have been extremely nervous for a long time-any unusual would upset me. I simply had no appe tite at all | and felt weak and tired. My head ached a great deal and at night I was troubled so much with sleeplessness. I got some of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills and they did me a wonderful lot of good-my appetite returned-the headaches left me and I felt well and strong in every way after using the Pills." Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at | 9e a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalc, N.Y. See that portrait and sig nature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every

For sale at Krumrine's Drug Store.

Milesburg.

Charles Austin and family, of Alletheny, returned home after a several days' visit with his invalid father.

Wm. Coldwell, of Sheridanville, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas.

Wm. McMullen and wife, of Clifton Springs, is visiting his brother Henry, and his many friends of this place. Miss Florence Rhone, of Centre Hall, is visiting Col. James F. Weaver and family. James Lucas, Boggs township's tax collector, while attending James Flick's sale on Saturday dropped dead; another proof, "in the midst of life we are in death.'

Harry Witeman has opened a bakery and confectmery, also carries tobacco, cigars, oysters, with a variety of goods to suit the trade, on Market street, one door below the post office; your patronage is solicited.

Postmaster A. T. Boggs left on Saturday for a week's deer hunt.

Enoch Hugg, of Philipsburg, visited his daughter, Mrs. Mary Smith on Water

Charles Price and wife wishes to thank their friends for votes given them, for the watch and pig at the Micro medicine entertainment.

The Micro Medicine Co. gave a series of entertainments in the American Mechanics' Hall, commencing on Nov. 19th, closing on the night of the 26th, selling their micro medicines with good results; the entertainments were up-to-date and proved to be a grand success in every respect; gave contests of various kinds viz: Doughnut, coat, nail driving by the females, pie eating, shoe lacing, watch and pig. The doughnut eating between several boys with their hands tied behind their back, a doughnut for each contestant, was dangling between the ceiling and floor, boy catch when you can, the prize was given to the first one that ate his lunch first, 25 cts. worth of soap, the winner, Geo. Weiland. The coat race, one sleeve was turned inside out, blind folded, winner, George Wieland; pie eating race, pie cut, and placed on a board on two chairs, with their hands in their pockets and on their knees, winner Fred Heaton. The watch contest for the most popular lady within the distance of three miles of the burg-the burg included; quite a number of ladies were voted for in this contest; Mrs. Charles Price of the burg, having the highest number of votes was declared the winner, the watch being the standard movement, retails at $20, so said, with a guarantee of 20 years good time keeper; the votes stood, Miss Sue McLaughlin 1622, Mrs. Charles Price, 2396. Boys' shoe race: after taking off their shoes setting them side by side on the stage, were ordered to the rear of the room, the shoes then taken up and thrown into a barrel after getting orders to run, get their shoes and lace up each eyelet, the first done was to whistle; the winner, Joe Green, prize, 25cts, worth of soap. Next in order the pig contest; the homeliest man in the room to receive the highest votes; Chas.

Port Matilda.

catch his pig and take it home.

Price, according to count, proved to be that man, was called forth to the stage,

The material for fencing in the Black Oak cemetery has been secured through we would say to those having friends intered there as well as all others interested in a respectable resting place for the dead, to come forward with a christian spirit and assist both financially and physically to enclose the sacred spot respectably.

George Kelley is dangerously ill at his home near this place, with a complication of diseases.

A. Y. Williams fell from a ladder a few days since, while working over head repairing spouting in his gristmill, sustaining painfull injuries.

C. Reese has nearly completed another large pit in his extensive lime burning operations. John C. Marks is prospecting for coal on his land near this place. S. R. Pringle is working his bank, prop, paper wood and R. R. tie job on a larger scale than ever; a rare chance for wood choppers and tie makers. James T. Marks is able to be around again after a severe attack of kidney trouble.

Mrs. Annie Osman is visiting her daughters the Mrs. Baer's, residing in Curwensville.

The Port Matilda gun club spent several days on the Allegheney mountain this week.

Jame Reese, of Reese Hollow, comnenced opperation on a tract of lumber land, he lately purchased near Olivia to cut paper wood and make R. R. ties.

R. A. Pattou has permanently located in Port Matilda and offers his service to those needing a first class auctioneer. Liveryman George Woodring is busily engaged in conveying hunters from dif-ferent points to the Alleghaney mountain where they are camping during the hunting season.

Loveville.

Mrs. James Woods, of Julian. Mrs. Dallas Lykens, of Dungarvin, C. L. Chronister and wife, W. B. Chronister and wife spent Sunday at the home of Jacob Chronister at Centre Line, all of which are relatives, all report a good

The farmers are about done harvesting their corn and are preparing for the blithe "old winter."

Miss Mary Chronister, of Centre Line, spent Saturday with Mrs. W. B. Chronis-

The nimrods are still traversing the brush some with game, others with node at all; rabbits being the principal mark some bring in as high as five in

The Children's Favorite.

One of the greatest difficulties encountered when children are ill, is the objection they have to taking medicine. The remedy must be pleasant or the patience of the parent is exhausted before it is successfully administered. Mr. G. G. Wagner, of Spring Grove, P., overcomes this aunovance by using Chamberlaiu's Cough Remedy. He says his little boy always asks for it whenever he catches This remedy has become the children's favorite, as it is pleasant to take and it always cures and cures to Daniel Immel, of Spring Mills, 130 quickly. For sale by Greén's Pharmacy. acres at $10.75 per acre.

THE WEELITTLES AT THE SULTAN'S MOSQUE.

FIND THE GRAND VIZIER.

Millheim.

Sam'l Gingerich and wife, of Linden Hall, visited at E. E. Houtz's over Sun-

Marcellus Sankey and sister Edith were visitors at W. H. Smith's Sunday. Jacob Raymond moved from Pine Creek to C. C. Presler's farm south of

The Jno. P. Condo farm in Gregg township was struck down at assignee's sale to Linn Korman at $52 per acre. The property in town was bid to $1250. the sale of which was adjourned.

Robert Young, of Potters Mills, visited his sister Mrs. Peter Breon, several days. The venerable Sam'l Frank, of Rebersburg, was in town on Saturday, Rev. Z. Yearick, Reformed minister of Shenandoah, at one time pastor of the Aaronsburg charge, was called here as witness in the case of C. W. Goodlander estate and the Citizens National Bank, Fort Scott, Kan., vs. Mrs. H. T. Haines. He having performed the marriage ceremony of H. T. Haines and Laura Ettlinger, of Woodward, Pa., on Jan. 22, 1885, which marriage was denied by the attorneys for the plaintiffs, and also by some of their witnesses whose memory had to be refreshed by the preacher's record, this must have been willful perjury or reckless swearing.

Mrs. Elmer Noll, of Lewisburg, spent several days in town.

Mrs. G. R. Stover, of Coburn, and Miss Grace Kreamer, of Conneaut, O, were visitors in town Friday.

James Luse and wife returned to their home at Williamsport, Friday.

Mrs. M I. Jamison, of Altoona, stopped in town a few days last week, she was called east by the death of her brother-in law, John King, at Laurelton.

E. E. Knarr, employed by the W. T. & T. Co. spent Sunday with his family. Wm. Fleisher, of Tusseyville, visited Charles McCiellan.

Mrs. Jennie Swanger left last week for Athens, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. John McIntire. Thomas Harter spent a day last week hunting in this vicinity. R S. Stover is preparing for the holiday season by getting in a nice supply of

J. H. Reifsnyder and wife spent Sunday at Geo. Armbruster's at Farmer's

J. C. Smith, of State College, and R. J. Smith, of Altoona, were in town over

Penn Hall X Roads.

Something new-sausage. H. E. Bickle is sawing staves for Mr. Wolf, of Woodward.

Rev. S. E. Kooutz preached an able sermon in the U. E. church.

Sam'l Reeder and Annie Mesmer, of Colyer, were to see the latter's father on Sunday

Harry, the son of W. C. Hubler, of Lock Hayen, is staying with his sister, Mrs. I. B. Showers, to attend school at this place.

N. W. Zerby left last week to work on Kulp's lumber job, but is back hale and hearty; he reports work dull, and he has struck work on S. P. Granby's sawmill. Geo. Sheesley had his engine brought back from his cider press, and is now busily engaged sawing shingles.

That young gentleman from our place who regularly travels to Brush valley, must belong to a secret order over theres being he makes his trip early in the evening and late in the morning. How Gregg.

The Shamokin Lutheran congregation honored its pastor, Rev. W. E. Fischer, D. D., by forwarding $100 to the building committee of the Lutheran church at Spring Mills with which to purchase a window to be dedicated to their pastor. Dr. Fischer organized the Spring Mills congregation and the tribute is a fitting

Mrs. Henry Haugh is seriously ill. The hunting club returned on Saturday from the Big Flat. They killed a large buck.

M. B. Duck will quit farming and be come a resident of Spring Mills. Carpenter Hagen will build the new dwelling and outbuildings for Jacob Mus-ser, who bought the Michael Tibbens farm, near Penn Cave.

The farm of Wm, Weaver, dec'd, sold

Coburn.

Thanksgiving :- Eph. is thankful that he has a supply of wood for this winter and some fat hens yet. Harry, Cal, John and Cloy, are thankful that the past year gave to each of them a loving companion. Irvin and Orvis are very grateful that they are permitted to spend one night in a week with so much pleas-Jerry is indeed thankful that he has a good supply of suits, because when on his way to see his best girl on Saturday evening, he slipped and fell into the mud and was obliged to go home and change clothes, after which he again started for his destination successfully. We are thankful that the Centre Democrat has such an able scribe in High Mrs. Lizzie Stover, of Sunbury, is visitng friends in this community at present.

Mrs. Adam Bowersox, of Seanor, was also a visitor here last week. Mrs J. Wilbur Kooney, of Montandon, pent a few days with her mother-in law, Mrs. James Kooney. Miss Grace Kreamer, of-, daughter of former ticket agent at this station, W. H. Kreamer, visited at the home of G. R. Stover, last week.

John Glasgow, formerly a Penns valley youth, now a well-to-do business man, of Philadelphia, visited his brother, lames this week.

Mrs. Agnes Whitman, of State Colege, came home on Monday and will spend Thanksgiving in our town. The Reformed Sunday school will have a Christmas entertainment, on Christmas eve.

Mrs. Adam Yearick, of Lamar, visited ary society seem to have had other im- with her husband at Pittsburg; they will, and goods brought a fair price; the sale her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Gutelius, last portant business last Thursday evening and were unable to attend the meeting. A society can not live long if only two or three are willing to take an active part. Let everybody come and take part and the meeting will surely be interesting to Miss Beulah Stover, daughter of Lewis Stover, is sick with pneumonta hope she will soon recover.

Discovered in High valley some fifty years ago-natural gas. It has been flowing constantly ever since, but because it lacks the proper elements to make it useful it has not received much attention. You can get all you want by calling on the High valley scribe, and more than you want by letting him call on you.

If we should need any grease and slobber next summer, we will send our order to the High valley scribe he seems to be well supplied with the stuff.

Boalsburg.

A union Thanksgiving service was held in the Reformed church, Rev. Stonecypher of the Lutheran church delivered the sermon.

Jonn Kennedy, of Centre Hall, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Claire, and Miss Carrie Lingle, of Cherokee, Iowa, visited friends and relatives in this section.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Lutheran church will bold their annual Missionary rally in their church on Thanksgiving evening.

Martha Everhart, of the Branch, was recent visitor in town.

Henry Homan, one of College township's prosperous farmers, was in town, Tuesday.

Mrs. McCrae, of Pittsburg, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Bailey. Albert Allen, of this place, made a fiving visit to Penna. Furnace, Thursday.

Prosserville. William Hoover, of Howard, moved nto our town on Nov. 20. Three cases of diptheria: the victims are Blanch and Catharine Saylor, also Mary Welch; at the time of writing they are all getting along nicely.

Death visited our little town on Nov. 20, and took away little William S. Hunter, second son of Boyd and Sarah Hunter; age 6 years, to months and 13 days. Membranous croup was the cause; parents have the sympathy of all their neighbors in their bereavement.

A Druggist's Advice.

Mr. C. L. Thompson, a druggist of Danville, Ind., gives the following whole-some advice to his customers: "If you should ever need a remedy for croup or whooping cough, get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It absolutely has no equal for the prevention and cure of croup, and if taken in time and according to directions, it is a most excellent remedy for whooping cough and all throat and lung troubles. I would re-commend that a bottle of this medicine commend that a bottle of this medicine be kept in the home at all times, especially where there are children in the family." For sale by Green's Pharmacy.

Aaronsburg.

Clark Weaver and family and Irvin Weaver's, of Salona, spent a few days with Mr. Weaver's parents on Main St. Mrs. Jacob Bower returned from a few days' stay with her son John at Northumberland. H. C. Verdy and family, of Shamokin, visited Mrs. Yerdy's parents, H. K.

Mrs. Minnie Adams and children, of State College, are the welcome guests of Em, Cronmiller's. Miss Tammie Stover has returned home after having spent a few months at State College

Mrs. Evalyn Musser and Sara Kline spent a few days with relatives at Logan-

Mrs. Steece, son and family, of New Berlin, spent a few days at the residence of Jacob Wyles. Mrs. Stickler and son of Union county, were guests of Lewis Mensch's a few days last week. Misses Nora Guisewite and Ardena Harman took Mrs. Newton Stover's two little girls to Woomelsdorf orphan school on Friday. Miss Margaret Foster is visiting at the residence of Mrs. F. J. Foster. Miss Katherine Frank wishes to announce to the public that she will sell a lot of untrimmed hats at cost. Now is the time to strike a grand bargain.

was a very welcome caller among her friends on Saturday. We have been informed of a very quiet wedding in our town on Sunday evening, the contracting parties being Franklin Burd and Clara Keister.

Miss Cordelia Acker, of Potters Mills,

Colyer.

We wish it corrected that communion service will be held in the Zion Ev. church on this Sunday the 30th; preach ing also on Saturday evening; Rev. Saylor, of Bethlehem, will assist Rev. Fenstamaker.

Protracted meeting at Boals Gap, is well attended, conducted by Rev. A. J.

Mrs. Sallie Horner left on Monday for Moshannon, where her sister, Mrs. Barger, is very ill. Mrs. David Fye, Mrs. A. J. Weaver, Sunday. Harry Flory and wife took dinner at Squire J. C. Houseman's, on Monday and left on Wednesday for Millheim and today, Thursday, they start for Altoona, and son Harry, visited at Lemont, over

Miss Besssie Cooney, the charming daughter of G. M. Cooney, entertained her gentleman friend from a distance, over Sunday. Among those who were entertained at where he has secured employment.

the home of J. H. Moyer on Sunday were Emanuel Smith and family, Michael Smith and family, from Potters Mills. Mrs. Chas. Fraizer and family, Mrs. Wm. Commings and daughter, Reuben Colver and son, from this place; Mrs. Tambert, from Williamsport, were guests at Squire Houseman's on Thurs-

Mrs. Thomas Farner and daughter arrived on Monday at the home of Wm. James Coldren. Some members of the Excelsior Liter- C. Farner, after spending the summer in a short time, start housekeeping in amounted to $1350. Philadelphia, where Thomas will have a change in his rout as mail agent, also a promotion, which means that he is going step by step to the highest standard; that is the result of a high ambition and a strong determination.

> P. B. Jordan and wife, of this place, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Weaver and son, of Spring Mills, John H. Glasgow and bright little son, Charlie, and his sister Mrs. Chas. H. Hambly, from Philadelphia, were all guests at the hospitable home of Squire J S. Housman, on Sunday. Mr. Glasgow and son and Mrs. Hambly also spent Sunday evening very pleasantly at the same place; they will return to their beautiful home in the city again this week; in former years they were both numbered among the young class of people of this place, but industrious as they were, with a high ambition and a desire for a more bright and interesting life, they made Philadelphia their home, where they found the choice of their life and are now both married and permanently located, wealth having crowned their effort; their life is now where joy and happiness reign supreme.

That young man from Shamokin (who is dead bound for a wife) made his sec ond appearance at this place on Saturday, but this time he took another; we hope he was more successful this time than the first. Ed, when you propose to the second girl at Colver, don't say that you depend on father to send you the potatoes, etc.

Lemont.

There will be a Thanksgiving social at Mrs. Geo. Martz's on the evening of that day.

Arthur Wasson, we notice, has returned from his extended visit in Europe. Hamill Bathgate banqueted with his class, the Juniors of State on Friday night, at the Hotel Bolton, Harrisburg. Irvin and Wayne Thompson were among the fellows who left this place on Saturday morning to see the State vs. Dickinson game at Carissie. There were 300 students from State who left this town last week for the purpose of seeing this big game. Geo. Williams gave a "stinker" on Friday evening.

If you can't get there in time on Thursday evening for "Jim's" wedding, why just come anyway and you'll be in time for the serenading. Isn't that true, Mr. Schreck, Jr. ?

There was a wild-goose chase in town one day last week, but notwithstanding the close aim, there was no game secured. Martin Williams secured a couple of turkeys but outside of these there has been no official shooting going on, this

"Take back your turkey," for geese are a good deal better. What to do Until the Doctor Arrives.

'One of my children was taken with cramp colic and suffered severely," sa s S B. Elzee, of Monett, Mo. I tele phoned for a doctor, then gave a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diar

JUDGE GLANGY

Of Hornellsville, N.Y., Hands Down an Important Decision

Judge James H. Clancy of Hornellsville, N. Y., and one of the most prominent members of the bar in that historic town, decided recently that as against Blood and Liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was worthy of the highest praise. He says :

"I have used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and strongly recommend it for its good effect in my case for liver trouble and blood disorder. It built me right up and I improved greatly in health.

Geo, H. Tifft of 878 River street, Troy. N. Y., suffered from liver trouble and his blood was all out of order and after using "Favorite Remedy," has this to say:

"For any one suffering from that run down or tired out feeling, caused by blood or liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best medicine you can buy. I have used it and I know." The one sure cure for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite It matters not how sick you are, how long you have suffered, or how many physicians have failed to help you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you if a cure is possible. It is for sale by all druggists in the Now 50 Cont Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose.

Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail.
Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rondout, N.Y. Dr. David Kennedy's Golden Plasters strengthen Muscles, remove pain anywhere. Eccach.

Potters Mills.

Miss Acker, the accomplished and successful school mistress of the primary room, made a business trip to Coburn,

Saturday. Claton McKinney has again returned after a few weeks hunt in the mountain; as usual had the good luck to take a deer hide back with him. William Fulty will move back to Mifflin county in the near future. James Moyer and daughter, Mrs.

Anna Bartges, took supper at Mike

Smith's, Sunday.

with two bears Saturday.

Miss Alice Decker and Miss Anna McClenathan took a trip to Rebersburg, Mrs Beiblehimer and daughter Anna were shopping in Bellefonte, Saturday.

The Regular hunting party came out

Georges Valley. Robert Coldren and wife, from Potters Mills, visited at A. F. Vonada's, Sunday. Miss Lola Heckman was at Ezra Harter's on Sunday to see her best friend,

George Rishel's sale was well attended

The Rishel farm owned by John Condo, was sold on the 20th for $52.50 per acre to Mr. Corman, from Coburn. Georges valley can boast of a female always religious. Adam Auman, from Rebersburg, was over ploughing on the Gentzel farm whither he expects to move in the evangelist, although her subjects are not

Loss of Flesh

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread nd butter, take Scott's mulsion. When you have cen living on a milk diet and vant something a little more nourishing, take Scott's mulsion.

To get fat you must eat at. Scott's Emulsion is a reat fattener, a great trength giver.

Those who have lost flesh ant to increase all body ssues, not only fat. Scott's mulsion increases them all, flesh, blood nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, weak children, for all no need flesh, Scott's mulcion is a rich and comiertable food, and a natural Scott's Emulsion for bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

We will send you a free sample.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, CHEMISTS, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1; all druggists.