FIRE INS. CO. ELECTION.

The annual meeting and election of welve directors for the Farmers' Mut. Fire Ins. Co. of Centre Co. was held at The Local Happenings Condensed Runkel's hotel, Centre Hall, on Monday Gathered From Centre and Adlast. The attendance was fair and more than the usual number of votes were cast, notwithstanding the cold and storm. After accepting a number of the financial statement was read to the meeting and is one of the most favorable in the history of this company, which has presented a good report each year since its existence. The statement will be found in next week's issue of the Democrat and none should fail to read it.

At the election held ten of the twelve former board of directors were re-elected by a practically unanimous vote. Two new directors were chosen, John B. Goheen in place of the new county commissioner Bailey, of Ferguson, and Jas. B. Strohm in place of W. B. Mingle. The following are the directors elected -Monday night mercury was down to for the ensuing year :

Resolved: That in view of the addition of several town-hips to the territory of the F. M. F. Ins. Co. of Centre Co. and to meet the desire of citizens of said twps. we deem it expedient, for the best interests of the company, that the office of the same be centrally located, and chosen for this purpose, the same being central in the territory as now constitu ted and as presenting greater convenitory in general.

COAL THIEF IN JAIL.

The coal famine makes Bellefonters scramble lively for fuel at times. Although we are living on the yery edge of the great bituminous fields of Snow Shoe, even here the product of those mines -Mrs. Julia A. Walsh and her daugh- becomes rare. Monday morning we had a severe spell of weather. A strong gale Philipsburg, where the latter expects to was blowing while the mercury went be under the musical instruction of Miss down by jumps. The first he spied was a car load on the Penna. R. R. tracks and without any further permission or aegotiations men and teams were ordered to pillage the contents. By the time the railroad company detected these coal thieves, almost half of the carload was swiped. Soon an engine came along and hauled the car away to the round house. The man who directed this coal raid name is Capt. Taylor; he is manager of voters as sheriff of Centre county, last Feb. 6-7. November. Taylor got the coal, and is enjoying jail life, too.

"Domino" on a Rampage.

At frequent intervals during the past year our famous scribe at Unionville, familiarly known, as "Domino," has broken loose in an original line of comment that has attracted attention over the county. This week, along with the blizzard, came another spasm that will be found in the correspondents' depart ment. This effusion will again raise the query as to how all that nonsense could originate in one's cranium. Don't worry, it is easy with him-he is built that way. He is like Mt.
