

CORRESPONDENTS' DEPARTMENT

Happenings of a Week Over Centre County

THE PEOPLE'S POPULAR PAGE

What Has Transpired in the Various Localities—Compiled by a Corps of Alert and Able Writers—Is Your Section Represented?

Martha.

Mrs. Susie Gates and two children have returned home from Galeton, Pa.

Meshech Williams, whose health has been failing during the past few weeks, went to Buffalo, N. Y., for medical treatment.

June Robison and Maggie Miles have been visiting at Port Matilda.

Rev. Lathrop held communion services in the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Lulu Cronister, editor of the "Black Oak Bulletin," has employed Jos. Williams as collector.

They say that when Charley Meyer goes to Philipsburg with Harry that he goes on out to Curwensville to see Miss Smay.

Gordon Gingery and Carlos Steele have returned from Retort.

Some of our boys expect to visit the "wild and woolly west" next spring.

Eddie, the next time you go over on the mountain, be sure that the foot log across the Bald Eagle has not been washed away.

Sunday evening while Abednego Williams and his wife were on their way to church their horse became unmanageable, ran into a snow drift, upset, throwing them out on the snow; fortunately they escaped without serious injury.

Mrs. Jennie Isenberg, of Altoona, visited her parents J. D. Wagner and wife here.

Mrs. Maggie Oberly is visiting her sister at Spring Mills.

Myra Cronister has been on the sick list.

Mrs. A. C. Williams and children, of Hannah, spent Thursday with Wilson Williams and wife.

Mollie Gingery narrowly escaped having a runaway Saturday; while driving down grade the harness broke letting the sleigh run into the horse. This frightened the horse and it tried to run away, but a neighbor happened to be near and assisted her.

Mrs. Maggie Williams has had an attack of grip.

The protracted meeting held in the M. E. church of Port Matilda, is attended by some of our Martha boys but some of them forget to come home until daylight. Now Chester we hope this will not occur again.

Joseph Shaver went to Coburn to visit his father who is seriously ill.

Walker.

Jas. Beck is somewhat improved the past several days.

Josiah Hoy is able to be out again after several months severe illness.

Mrs. Reeder, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Moore, of Flemington, visited their uncle Jas. Beck, who has been very sick the past two months.

W. Long and family, of Oak Grove, visited their father Josiah Hoy.

Mrs. Fisher and her daughter Mrs. Grieb, visited her brother-in-law Jas. Beck.

Communion services were held in the United Ev. church on Sunday morning.

Mrs. Joe B. Strunk and children, of Parvin, spent Saturday and Sunday with her sick father.

Josiah Hoy expects to move to Jack-sonville in the spring he is already moving some of his goods.

Theo. B. Hoy, of Montandon, was seen in our community on Sunday wending his way in the direction of Howard.

Henry Antis and wife and J. H. Orndorf were callers at the home of Jas. Beck's.

Perce Kling and family, of Altoona, visited his parents, Joel Kling's.

W. W. Orndorf and wife visited their uncle W. P. Lucas, of Howard.

Boalsburg.

A social, which was very largely attended, was held at the home of Jno. Strouse about two miles east of town. Cake and ice cream were served.

Miss Ella Bottorf, of Lemont, spent a few days with relatives in town.

Two loads of Boalsburg people spent last Thursday evening at the home of Andrew Lytle and report a pleasant time.

Chas. Fisher spent a few days in town recently.

L. Mothersbaugh went to Huntingdon last Friday.

Mr. Bidwell, a Bellefonte coach-trimmer, is engaged in the shops of J. M. Wieland during the present week.

Services will be held in the Reformed church this week, commencing Wednesday evening. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. Kerchner, of Centre Hill.

ALL WALKS IN LIFE.

A Comfort to the Aged, to the Young and Middle Aged, a Cure, a Nerve Medicine Never Equalled.

Mr. William Holliday, of No. 209 5th Ave. Altoona, Pa., says: "I can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to those who like my self have passed the meridian of life and need a nerve tonic to steady the nerves and stop the oncoming shakiness of nerves that age brings. I got a box and they did all I could ask or expect—gave me strength and steadiness as hence my willingness to recommend them."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50¢ a box or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D. are on every package.

For sale at Krumline's Drug Store.

Several new sales will be found added to the Democrat's register.

Nittany.

There has been a great deal of sickness through here in the last month; those on the sick list at present are, Mrs. Y. K. Robb, Tomy Williams, and his mother, and the infant daughter of W. M. Gates; all are on the way of recovery. Dr. S. S. McCormick being the attending physician.

The snow is about all gone, the fields are about bare; there is heavy vapor hanging over the valley.

Miss Lillie McCaleb has gone to Pittsburg, where she expects to stay the rest of the winter.

We are sorry to say that H. C. Rossman who has been in the Lock Haven hospital the last two weeks, is not improving any at this writing.

Mrs. W. M. Rossman and Miss Lottie Butler, of Howard, were the guests of G. W. Tolbert and wife and Mrs. R. A. Rossman, for part of last week.

Miss Minnie Winkelman's pleasant face was greeted on our streets for a few days last week, but she was called away on Sunday again.

Mrs. Fannie Emerick is at Salona taking care of Mrs. Sam Emerick, who is critically ill, husband having died last week.

There will be preaching in the E. V. church next Sunday evening, and every night the following week.

W. M. Showers is starting his sawmill this week; there are quite a number of logs in his yard already and more coming in every day.

A sled load of Nittany people drove over to Howard last Wednesday evening to the hospitable home of A. A. Pletchers they report a very pleasant time.

There will be a lot of movings around this place this spring.

W. M. Zerby's tenant house, out into the Gap, in what is known as the mill house.

Geo. Young has bought the house formerly owned by Mrs. Ira Obie, and also the lot adjoining it, owned by Geo. Gates, and will move in the house at the school house.

Band practice every Tuesday and Friday night, when there is no dance.

Miss Annie Minick is living across the ridge with Miss Jennie Hunt.

Fillmore.

There was no preaching at the M. E. church Sunday as the pastor was called to preach the funeral sermon of Mrs. Nancy Bodie, at Hunters Park.

C. E. Lutz sold a fine horse to Frank Harris last week.

Thursday morning J. B. Rockey's straw stack fell over and killed 5 young cattle for him, among them a fine short horn bull.

B. W. Way and wife passed through town Sunday.

On Saturday eve a sled load of our young folks went up to W. D. Marshall's and had a taffy pulling; Eva knows how to get the candy; she ate onions and the boys fed her candy.

Girls, we will not tell the boys how you get out of the sled, only you should have the seat fastened down—not safe to get out that way.

A surprise—The friends and neighbors gathered at C. E. Lutz's Monday evening and gave Charles a surprise; it was his 32nd birthday. About 50 were there and all enjoyed themselves by talking and playing games till 1 o'clock and then gave Charles their wishes for many more such birthdays and departed for home.

Mrs. John Lutz a former resident of this place will sell her household furniture on the 28th of Feb. in Ferguson township, 3 miles west State College on the David Shuey farm.

Oak Hall.

Elsie Peters and Martha Klingler visited in Ferguson township last week.

Mrs. Harry Kaup and son, of Allegheny, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Kaup.

Miss Anna M. Dale attended Farmers Institute at Rock Springs on Friday and Saturday.

Edward Sellers and family spent Sunday at Centre Hill.

Mrs. James Kustenberg is numbered among the sick.

Clifford Close and Maurice Klingler left for Renovo on Monday morning.

C. H. Kline and wife spent Sunday with their daughter Mrs. David Glasgow at Tusseyville.

Clement Dale, Esq., of Bellefonte, transacted business in town on Friday.

E. K. Smith and family spent Sunday out of town.

Mr. Parker and wife passed through town on Sunday.

Zion.

"Pat" Royer returned home Monday after a short visit in Jersey Shore.

The Ev. church of this place will hold an oyster supper on Saturday night Feb. 8. Come one, come all.

Roy, next time be careful so that you don't fall in the box.

Preaching services are being held in the Lutheran church every night this week except Saturday.

Last Tuesday night a sledding party composed of 33 young people from Ake-mann spent the evening at the home of Foster Shearer, everybody wet but all had a nice time.

Red-headed Bill must have some attraction in Bellefonte as we notice him going up that way quite often. How about it Billy?

Georges valley.

James and Thomas Lingle, of Jersey Shore, visited their parents last week.

Ammon Vonada sold a good horse to J. K. Confer.

The "squire Reifsnnyder farm near Millheim, will be tenanted by W. R. Young, and Kelley Harshbarger will move on the farm vacated by Mr. Young in Georges valley.

Alfred Lingle has gone to Uniontown, to try braking on the railroad.

Greene Decker is taking out timber with which he will build a large shed to his barn.

To cure a cough or cold in one day take Krumline's Compound Syrup of Tar. 25 cents.

THE WEE-LITTLES AT THE DOCKS.

FIND TWO OTHER TOURISTS.

Coburn.

J. B. Rishel is the possessor of a fine and well mated black team, which he will sell if the right price is offered.

B. says she likes to go to church—especially if continued up to the small hours. Yes, Ma, I was to the party.

It was reported that Wm. C. Sheasley, formerly of this place, had his legs torn off, on a large saw mill which he operates in West Virginia, but much to the relief of his friends, we find that he is very much alive and enjoying good health.

The Coburn orchestra gave Al Barges and family a pleasant call one evening last week, and royally entertained them with choice selections of music.

Jno. Miller, one of our highly esteemed friends, is the happiest man in town. It's a little girl.

Coey Winkleblich resigned his position in the manufacture of M paddles; he is now prospecting for gold in the High valley region.

Betting is the most popular thing in our little town at present, especially with some of our young sports; when they have no money they bet their shoes. How about it Charles?

Conrad Decker and family, returned home Friday from a visit to his mother, now residing at Tusseyville.

It is very probable that Wm. L. Hosterman will have to build an addition to his house, as his house was built for the average man only. For lumber call on Warren before purchasing elsewhere.

Thomas, the fisherman, and Leslie the crack marksman, have entered into partnership in the fishing business, and think they will do a flourishing business when fully established; as yet they are short two of the required number, a first class book-keeper and a 5 year's experienced packer.

S. R. King and wife and W. L. Hosterman and wife, were the guests of W. J. Kerstetter on Wednesday; they report having spent a pleasant evening.

We are glad to say that boy don't need to stop off any more before going to Coburn. Good.

M. A. Miller is very joyful since dear K. came home how is it Miller?

Orvis Meyer enjoyed himself very much by joining a sledding party which departed for Brush valley on Monday evening last week.

Miss Ada Keen is on the sick list at the Harter Bros' lumber camp.

E. J. Vonada's were welcome guests of Lewis Stover on Sunday last.

We were very glad for the arrival of our dear old steel worker, W. H. Bressler, who returned home to stay, on last Saturday evening accompanied by John Musser, from Woodward.

H. G. Miller and wife made a visit to Mrs. Miller's parents a short distance from Millheim.

Julian.

Another wedding is expected in the near future.

M. B. Beightel, who is employed at the Retort brick works, was home Sunday.

The barn of Harrison Harbridge was burned to the ground on last Saturday night, with about two tons of hay; it is not known how the fire originated; it was fully covered by insurance.

Miss Jessie Anderson, of Williamsport, is visiting relatives here; now Arthur is all right.

Irvin Beightel is agent for a large medicine firm in New York.

I wonder where Wm. R. was going on Sunday eve, as he boarded the 5:12 train for Martha.

Edward Marshall spent a few days here.

Well, Alice, how did you find all the people at John stown? hope you had a good time.

Aaronsburg.

Cort Carner and Regina Hubler, of Hublersburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Charles.

Mrs. Catherine Bell, of Huntingdon, is the guest of her aged father, H. H. Weaver.

Mrs. Sarah J. Lenzell has gone to Clearfield to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Ida Tomlinson.

Miss Lisle Acker has gone to State College to stay an indefinite time.

Miss Lottie Keister has returned to her home after having spent a few months with friends in Philadelphia.

Clyde Boob, who has been visiting friends in the west, has come home to spend the remainder of the winter.

Among those who attended Mrs. Lizzie Meyer's funeral are Dr. H. Horv, of Altoona; Mrs. Wm. Jamison, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Musser and J. C. Meyer and wife, of Bellefonte; Mr. Smith and wife, of Loganton.

Highvalley.

Great excitement in the valley, the Aaronsburg gold and silver mining company took charge of Sam' Alters' gold mine.

On Friday morning, as the scribe went to feed his stock, he found one of his horses had died during the night.

Charley Eisenhuth, one of our staunch democrats, called to see the scribe on Saturday; Charley is none of those cheap jacks, it takes something to buy him let me tell you Sibus.

The East end lumber company cut a pine tree south east of Inleby that cut twenty five feet of inch boards and the limbs two loads of pulp wood—who can beat it?

Charley Snyder, a son of Dr. Snyder, was a welcome visitor at the scribe's home on Wednesday.

J. T. Eisenhuth and lady were welcome visitors at Emi Eisenhuth's on Sunday.

Henry Eisenhuth made a flying trip to Millheim.

The Coburn scribe wears a brass cap and leather pantaloons since he took up his charter.

A queer thing happened at the caucus election; the Georgetown scribe met the Highvalley scribe and took in some of his natural gas, and at the close of the election he took a bottle of gas and the two did not work together, and after the vote was counted his memory was entirely gone, so he could not tell who was town clerk.

Coal is scarce and wood is high, and a good demand it seemed would bring a better price now—as Jack did on election day, ves Jack is very dull on market as close as the election is.

Ferguson Twp.

William Bloom and wife are mourning the death of their two year old daughter Susie, who died Thursday evening 15, of scarlet fever; and interment took place in the Pine Hill burying ground. Four of their children were sick with the same disease but they are all improving.

John Leech is suffering with partial paralysis. He was taken to the Roaring Springs sanitarium.

A large sledding party invaded the home of W. S. Ward, where music and refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, candies furnished princely entertainment.

Of the sick—Mrs. Thos. Frank is slowly recovering from bronchial trouble. F. W. Gardner is better. Mrs. C. D. Miller is growing weaker.

Henry Meyers sold his farm at Fairbrook. It is better known as the Robert Meek farm. The price paid was $1,700. Jacob Houser, of Houserville, is the buyer.

J. H. Musser is closing out his stock of goods at Rock Springs with the intention of closing his store and moving to Moss Creek, Blair county. It is intimated that C. B. Hess may open a store at that point.

Potter Twp.

J. W. Mitterling, the cattle dealer of Tusseyville, will move to Centre Hill next spring and will occupy the George Odenkir property.

Wm. L. Royer, of McConnell, Ill., a son of Samuel Royer, deceased, who moved west near 30 years ago, is back visiting his friends, accompanied by his married daughter. Mr. Royer has engaged in farming in the west.

EVERY CHURCH or institution supported by voluntary contribution will be given a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Pure Paints whenever they paint.

NOTE:—Have done so for twenty-seven years. Tens of millions of gallons. Painted nearly two million houses under guarantee to repaint if not satisfactory. The paint wears for periods up to eighteen years. Lined oil must be added to the paint, (done in two minutes). Actual cost then about $1.25 a gallon. Samples free. Sold by our agents, G. R. Spigelmeier, Bellefonte; J. W. Glasgow, Coburn.

Colyer.

Public roads have been in a terrible condition.

Tuesday evening J. H. Moyer entertained a sled load of Tusseyville and Colyer's young people, namely: Misses Nannie Meiss, Annie and Mary Mitterling, Mary Sower and Bettie Fleisher; Chas. Mitterling, Loyd Smith, Wm. Fleisher and Claud Wert.

Wednesday evening another sled load went to the home of A. B. Lee, namely: John Spangler and wife, Emma Swartz, Effie Ishler, Blanche Housman and Katie Boal, Messrs. J. J. Jordan, Jonas Boal, Ralph and Wm. Kirkert.

Mrs. Levi Stump gave a quilting party to a number of her friends Thursday evening.

Rev. O. L. Buck, of Rebersburg, held communion services in the Zion Evan. church Sunday evening, the weather was very disagreeable yet the church was filled, and all listened to a royal sermon delivered by Rev. Buck who is one of the best preachers in the county.

A J. Weaver, wife and daughter Millie and Mrs. Francis Colyer were guests at the home of Squire J. S. Housman on Sunday; also Rev. Buck and Mr. Showers, of Rebersburg.

Jacob Lee and wife of Boalsburg, visited at A. B. Lee's last week.

C. D. Peece, a prosperous and well to do young man of Oregon, formerly of this place, sent in a two year's subscription for the "Centre Democrat." That proves how the Colyer items are appreciated.

Fred Brown has a beautiful phonograph which proves very interesting to his friends.

J. H. Moyer is getting up in the world. Who else can afford to pay a dime for a hostler at A. J. Weaver's blacksmith shop? say Henry where was your sleigh when you wanted it?

Daring last week, while "Collie" was brooding over the "Girl Famine" he concluded to change his vocation and to water snake fishing.

David Glasgow killed a large raccoon; one of his $20 dogs died.

Frank Lingle wears a broad smile. It's a girl.

One of Geo. Bitner's cows broke her back by falling on the ice.

Roy Miller returned home from Virginia last week.

Milesburg.

John Venatta and daughter, of Elmira, are guests of John A. Whiteman and family.

Irvin Armstrong, of Mill Hill, made a brief visit to his mother and sister, Mrs. Graymyre.

Theodore Catherman and Miss Mac Shope were married recently by W. B. Graymyre, Esq.

Harry Peters and Miss Josephine Crain were lately married by Rev. Richard Wharton.

Mrs. Mary Jane Armstrong, of Mill Hill, is now making her home with her daughter Mrs. Graymyre.

Edward H. Baird and Miss Blanche Campbell were married on the 28th of January, in Williamsport, by Rev. Geo. E. King, arriving home from that city; on Thursday evening a grand reception was awaiting them at the home of the bride, being the eldest daughter of W. R. Campbell and wife being the eldest son of Joseph Baird and wife; 40 persons partook of the refreshments; presents were given, such as silver-ware, dishes etc., too numerous to mention.

Pine Creek Mills.

Quite a few of our young folks were out enjoying themselves at a party at James Weaver's at Aaronsburg Tuesday evening last; it was kind of wet boys, wasn't it?

Fred Stover is home from the Harter Bros' lumber job up Philips Creek on account of a bad cold.

John Winkleblich was the welcome guest of P. S. Meyers last week.

As the case is, lime burning is no go at present; Mr. Harter came to the conclusion to use his lime kiln for a smoke house, in order to prepare his meats; there is nothing slow about Bill.

M. A. Miller made a flying trip to Aaronsburg Saturday.

Wm. Bressler and family were guests of — Breon last Sunday accompanied by Frank Miller of Millheim.

Martha.

The mountain-dale teacher, having resigned, Jackson Cronister is taking his place.

Miss Mattie Williams has adopted Naller, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Heaton.

J. D. Wagner, who has been ill for the past few months, is improving very slowly.

Pawnee took his love a sleigh ride the other evening and she must of been driving, for when they returned home the sleigh was tied together with ropes.

The scholars of Black Oak school, in order to make themselves known, will publish a weekly paper known as the Black Oak Bulletin.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.