

THE RACKET

R. G. SPIGELMYER. E. P. IRVIN
EMBROIDERIES.

An entire new line of embroidery and insertings to match, just in. They are the choice patterns from one of the famous manufacturers of St. Gall, Switzerland, and are well worth your time to look through the lot. Nothing like 'em in Bellefonte.

WHITE GOODS

Are putting in an appearance early this season. U will find the newest of weaves and latest fancies at The Racket.

KID GLOVES.

Exclusive sale for the well known "Centemeri"—price $1.50 up—aside from this our "Clementina" is the best value for $1.00 to be had. Stick a pin here.

THE RACKET.

Correspondents' Department

Continued from page 7.

Millheim.

W. F. Smith is again using a cane, lumbago is the cause of it.
Harry Schlegel is here for another car load of horses.
Miss Minnie Hosterman, of Millinburg, is visiting in town.
H. E. Duck and wife visited friends at Rock Springs and took in the farmer's institute at that place last week.
The thunder storm last Thursday brought on warm weather and has taken sleighing away.
The ground hog saw its shadow, and that means six weeks more of winter.
There is an oats buyer here paying 30 cents per bushel.
T. R. Duck, of Harrisburg, is visiting at D. L. Zebby's.
Marcella Sankey, of Potters Mills, was in town Sunday.
Misses Sadie and Jess Hatter entertained a small company Saturday evening.
Miss Sallie Snook is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Lavina Grieb, at Hylersville.
H. T. Frank is enjoying a trip to the western part of the state.
Shem Spigelmyer, of Antis Fort, was here buying up clover seed last week.
Rev. Ralph Ilingsworth, of Phoenix, Arizona, formerly pastor of the M. E. church here, preached to a large and attentive audience Sunday evening.
Mrs. Benj. Gentzel, of Bellefonte, is visiting at Jno. P. Condo's.
—Men's snag proof rubber boots, $2.50. Yeager & Davis.

Pine Glenn.

Burton Beightol is on the sick list.
Jefferson Askey spent Sunday with his parents at this place.
Boston Daugherty is spending this week in Bellefonte as a juror from Burnside.
Mrs. Frank Wagner is spending a few days in Woodward.
A pleasant evening was spent last Saturday by Rev. T. S. Paus and family with 23 of his congregation from Pine Glenn, who alighted from their sleighs a little before 8 o'clock entering the parsonage with their arms full for the table and larder and their hearts full of good cheer. The evening was spent in social intercourse, piano and vocal music and a delicious luncheon.
—Men's $3 Driving shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

Kipple.

Well well here is Kipple.
Sleighing is all the go at present.
There is a new store in our town, give him a call.
W. H. Bathurst was seen in our town on Sunday.
A very pleasant sled load went to Hollidaysburg, Tuesday afternoon, all report a fine time.
The new M. E. church is about completed.
Miss Annie Bathurst visited her sister Mrs. Lida Varner a few days last week.
The weather is not as cold as it has been; indeed we are very glad as coal is very hard to get.
—Men's heavy all soled $1.50, now $1. Yeager & Davis.

Potters Mills.

Miss Sarah McClenathan has gone to Philadelphia to visit her brother Harry.
The service in the school house was well attended; Dr. Schuyler delivered a very able sermon.
Miss Caroline McCloskey is at Tusseyville this week.
Miss Grace Alexander, of Burnham, Millin county, sister of Dr. H. S. Alexander, is shaking hands with her many friends of this place.
Mrs. James Armstrong is slowly recovering from her fall.

Romola.

Miss Maud Brickley was very agreeably surprised by a large number of her pupils who came in a sleighing party to her home on Friday evening 24. They were entertained by various amusements, music, etc., and then everyone organized themselves into a taffy party for a while; Maud displayed her skill along the line of taffy, and it turned out beautifully and everyone reported having a nice time. The writer is requested to invite them all back soon again.
—Men's $1.75 shoes all solid quilted bottom, $1.25. Yeager & Davis.

Unionville.

Potter Alexander, son of the late ex-sheriff Geo. Alexander, whose home is now at Homestead, and his wife are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Frances Ammerman.
Mrs. Geo. Shipley, who has been critically ill for several weeks with heart and lung trouble is slowly convalescing.
Charles McEwen was off duty on last Saturday on account of a severe cold that "caught" him.
Miss Ella Murray, the accomplished daughter of Supt. Charles Murray, of Julian, transacted business in town on last Friday, between trains.
Chas. G. Hall is taking out timber preparatory to building a large bank barn on his farm the coming summer.
A valuable horse belonging to Elmer E. White, died of colic a few days ago.
Will Rosensteel, of Braddock, was a pleasant visitor at the home of his cousin T. E. Griest, for several days last week.
Ex-commissioner Thos. W. Fisher had three large pieces of meat stolen from his smoke house on last Friday night. "Two bad."

Harry, the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Biddle, met with a coasting accident on last Wednesday, that came very near costing him his life. He was coasting down the steep alley between the residence of J. H. Shipley and Squire B. W. Shipley, on a long double coaster, he lying on his breast and guiding it with his hand, but it came with such tremendous speed that he was unable to control it and he ran against a hitching post at the corner of the burned store and whirled around as if trying to wrap himself around it backward with such force that he was unconscious for some minutes. His companions thinking he was killed, ran for his father, who had the lad taken home and at once sent for Dr. Russell who, upon examination, found no bones broken. The boy was very ill for several days but is now out of danger.
Prof. Hubbard, principal of our grammar school, is a strict disciplinarian, always counseling punctuality on the part of his pupils; on last Saturday, he was compelled to take a dose of his own medicine. He had anticipated a most happy meeting with his only daughter and child at Beech Creek, having secured some valuable presents for her, but as he emerged from the hotel with his well filled grip in hand he heard the long, ominous toot of the engine that brought the early passenger train to the station. He was simply "rooted to the spot."

The Prof. never says bad words but his mortification can better be conjectured than described. His watch was 5 minutes slow.
James Murray and Ira Davis, Jr., two of Julian's most popular young men, are frequent visitors to our town of late, but just where the particular magnets that draws them hither, are located, we will not reveal at present. Don't forget to take your purchases home with you next time.
On last Friday as A. J. Griest was about to close his store, he slipped on the freshly oiled floor and fell heavily on his back and head was rendered unconscious for quite a while; being alone he lay there until the shock had partially passed off he then scrambled up as best he could, managed to put out the lights and got home in safety. He still feels the effect of his fall but it is hoped he will soon be "himself again."

Romola.

G. D. Glosner and wife, of Jacksonsville, attended church on Sunday.
David Wessel, wife and their two sons, Geo. and James, spent Sunday among friends in this place.
R. Toner Robb attended the Institute at Eagleville on Saturday.
Miss Alta Robb is suffering from a beal jaw which is caused by a rye end.
Dr. W. L. Kurtz was seen on our street on Monday.
Frank Daley made a flying trip to Bellefonte one day last week; Frank there must be some attraction there.
Harry Yearick, of Nittany, spent Sunday with his best girl at this place. Come again Harry.
We wonder why Rilla was all smiles on Friday—can you tell, Ward?
J. H. Blumenthaw, of Altoona, gave our up-to-date merchant, E. B. Robb, a call on Monday.
Allen McCloskey was seen on our streets on Monday.
J. M. Robb, our up-to-date liveryman, was in town on Monday with his fine team of gray.
The farmers made good use of the snow hauling lime stone and coal.
—Men's $2 Calf skin dress shoes, now $1.50. Yeager & Davis.

Philipsburg.

The Journal says the electric railroad, which now seems to be more of a possibility than ever, affords an opportunity in Philipsburg's future prosperity that no one can afford to overlook.
Mary Jane Blair, widow of H. P. Blair, has been granted a pension from the 28th of April, 1902, at $5 per month.
On and after Sunday next there will be a train each way on the T. & C. R. R. The one from Tyrone will be at 9:45, same as week days, returning at 7:48 in evening, with no early Monday morning train.
Local institute will be held here Saturday, Feb. 7.
An effort will likely be made to have the next session of the County Teachers' Institute held in this place.
Mrs. James Ginnick, of Philipsburg, died Monday morning aged 48 years.
—Men's first quality rolled edge rubber boots $2.50. Yeager & Davis.

Loganton.

The Old Fellows of Loganton will celebrate their 30th anniversary February 28.
Levi Conser, of Loganton borough claims to be the oldest school teacher living in Sugar valley. His age is 84 years. Probably he is the oldest in the county. He first taught in 1842, before the free school system was adopted, in the building now occupied by the Loganton postoffice.
—Snap proof Mishauka Red Ball Band rubber boots, $2.50. Yeager & Davis.

Pleasant Gap.

The fog was greater than the shadow—ground hog journal.
Miss Bessie Sharp, of Bellefonte, visited her friend Miss Mame Bell, of this place during the week.
Protracted meeting is now in progress at the M. E. church and will continue during the week.
Election day three weeks from last Tuesday; let every voter be on board as this is the most important election for the citizen.
The grain about this section looks very favorable, and no doubt yield large, providing not injured by too much cold.
Clayton Duck, the democratic nominee for register, assessor, is up and a-doing.
Rev. Shriver, of Bellefonte, will fill the pulpit at the M. E. church, two weeks from last Sunday.
Harry Bilger, Esch Stine, Brad Spicher and James Bilger, will spend part of the week in McBrides Gap, at Bilger's winter resort.
Sunday evening a sporty sport, of Lemont, drove to this town to capture a couple lasses, he finally ran across a couple strays. Assisting them into his wagon without unjoining a hair, they drove toward Bellefonte, with the ropes in the hands of one of the lasses. They drove the skate to Bellefonte as fast as the animal could throw its stilt, when getting back the beast was all foam, and when he started for home, he found to his great surprise that the thing wouldn't move; how he managed to get the outfit home is still a mystery, but the last report heard was a pair of fits going toward Lemont, he left his signature, H. W., with one of the lasses.

Lemont.

Miss Ruth Bottorf, of Bucknell Seminary spent Sabbath at home.
Peter Payne Williams spent Sabbath evening at the home of Mrs. Lena Wasson.
Rob. Evey has boarded up the open space between his store and the hardware store and now intruders will have to turn some other direction.
John I. Thompson is still on the sick list.
John C. Eiters and family who moved to Altoona last week, are now spending their vacation in Lemont.
Miss Adams, of Philipsburg, is visiting at the home of Curtis Jones.
John Mitchell, Janet McFarland, Maud Mitchell and Derrick Snowden spent a few days in Snow Shoe last week.
There was a party at the home of William Glenn on Wednesday night. All present report that there is lots of sleighing down towards Rock yet.
There was also a turkey supper at Samuel Glenn's the same evening given in honor of Company D.
Josephine Tressler, of Buffalo Run, is studying telegraphy at our local office in the P. R. R. station.

Georgetown.

Since the recent high water, many of our people are trying their luck catching fish.
Daniel Auman who has been working near Jersey Shore, has been called home on account of the illness of his wife.
O. H. Jamison who had a severe attack of grip is out again.
The Wingard hunting party have gone to Poe valley to hunt for bear.
The High valley scribe had the misfortune of losing a valuable horse one day last week.
There will be a pill factory established in the near future which will give employment to many competent persons.
We owe the High valley scribe an apology. The writer was informed last week that he failed to receive the nomination for town clerk, but later found out he was nominated, in which case he will be elected. He has arranged to move his office from High valley to 2nd floor of the Calby building, room 9. He thinks it more convenient to have his office at Coburn than in High valley.
—Men's $1.50 good all-soled working shoes, now $1. Yeager & Davis.

Coburn.

Supt. C. L. Gramley visited our schools last week.
C. H. Meyer and wife spent Sunday with the latter's mother at Pine Creek Mills.
Mrs. Robb, of Bellefonte, is visiting her daughter Mrs. J. A. Miller. The stork visited John's home and left a little girl.
Dr. Fisher, of Zion, made a short call here last Thursday.
C. W. Wolfe and wife, of Aaronsburg, spent Tuesday in our town.
Mrs. W. L. Hoserman and two sons are visiting at the home of N. F. Braucht at McElhattan.
W. J. Rote, Mabel Korman and Katie Keen are on the sick list.
Coburn is suffering from the coal famine. Many families are without coal and have only wood for fuel. One of our churches has closed Sunday school because the coal are all used.
—Little gent's shoes $1.25, now $1. Yeager & Davis.

Madisonburg.

Lloyd Miller is busy buying calves, he pays good prices too.
Herbert Swartz, of Nittany valley was over in our burg to see his lady friend.
Most of our farmers have harvested their ice which was from 6 to 10 inches in thickness.
Just think you can get the Centre Democrat one year with all the news from the central part of the Keystone state for only $1. Now is the time to hand in your subscription.
Norman Hazel was corresponding with one of West Branch valley's young ladies last Saturday evening. How about it, Elsie?
Charles Wise of west Branch valley had quite an accident while here last Saturday evening. He lost his way home and arrived at a certain residence southeast of town.
—Boys' $1.50 shoes, now $1. Yeager & Davis.

Nittany.

Will Mauck and wife are spending a week at Wilkesbarre.
Mr. Martin has just received the sad news of her cousin, Blanche McKee's death at Lewisport, she having been struck by a train while in the bus.
Miss Oda Gansalus spent a few days with Miss Verge Allison, lately. They seemed to enjoy themselves very much Saturday evening.
Messrs. John Beck and John Hoy are loading a car of wheat at this station.
The college freshmen who passed through here Monday afternoon on their way to Williamsport to their annual banquet, whooped things up quite lively.
Miss Cora Grubb is home on a visit.
Miss Verdine Long is in our burg for a few days.
Lost: A valuable bugle; the finder will be amply rewarded, by calling on Miss Mame Holmes, Number 11, Main street.
E. Goddard, of State, spent Sunday in our town.
Walter Agar, of Lock Haven, went by here Monday afternoon enroute to Millin county to buy horses, so he said.
Miss Nellie Stover and sister Myrtle spent Sunday with friends at Salona.
James Rathmell, of Huhlersburg, had business in our town Tuesday.
The young ladies from here who attended the Normal seem to be great favorites with the trolley conductor.
Miss Virgie Robb, of Bellefonte, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Billet.
Mrs. Geo. Tolbert, who has been on the sick list, is improving.
—Men's $1.50 dress shoes, now $1. Yeager & Davis.

Howard.

The Reikhard troupe entertained the people of Howard on last Wednesday and Thursday evenings, by the best of music and elocution. It was as fine an entertainment as we have ever heard. They realized a nice sum which went to the Y. M. C. A., of Blanchard.
The members of the Junior League held a box social Friday evening in the Sons of Temperance hall, it was a success.
Another period of cold weather, for the ground hog surely saw his shadow.
H. W. Gross returned home on Friday from Philadelphia, where he had an operation performed in the hospital. We trust he many soon be around and enjoy his usual good health.
Miss Mabel Sechrist, of Lock Haven, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Williams.
Ogle Stutzman and sister returned to their home in Williamsport after a visit among friends in this place.
Saturday evening the ladies of the Christian held their usual social and realized a nice sum.
The Evangelical revival is proving a success. A very able sermon was delivered on Sunday by the presiding elder.
—Men's Walk Over $4 Enamel shoes, good, heavy shoes, now $3.25.

Rockview.

Hurrah for six more weeks more winter!
Mrs. Watson has returned to her home in Snow Shoe.
Thos. K. Hoy has been very sick the last few days.
Robt. Miller and family spent a day with the former's parents at Linden Hall.
Misses Daisy Brooks, from Linden Hall, and Ida Fleck, from Tyrone, spent Sunday at J. F. Hoy's.
Wanted—a young man with a horse and buggy and with stamps enough to secure tickets for the opera.
Harry Swartz was visiting with friends in Brush and Penosvalleys.
Frank Swartz and family, from Zion, spent Sunday with his brother, Harry.
There was a sleighing party from Bellefonte last Tuesday evening, at the home of G. W. Smith.
—Men's $2.50 shoes, now $1.90. Yeager & Davis.

R. R. Accidents During Three Months.

A statement prepared by the interstate commerce commission shows that during the three months ended September 30, 1902, there were 263 persons killed and 2,613 injured in train accidents. Other kinds of accidents, including those sustained by employes, while at work and by passengers in getting on or off the cars, etc., bring the total number of casualties up to 12,007, the killed numbering 845 and the injured 11,162. During the three months covered by the statement, the traffic of a large majority of the railways has been heavier than ever before, necessitating the employment of new men for service in train and yard work. The total number of collisions and derailments were 2,448, of which 1,444 were collisions and 1,014 derailments, of which fifty-one collisions and ninety-two derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines and roadways by these accidents amounted to $2,198,530.
—No take prices, but just as advertised, at Mingle's.

Proposed State Pension Law No. 60.

A great many old soldiers will be disappointed to learn that the bill pensioning Civil war veterans who are not provided for by act of Congress was killed in the House committee on pensions and gratuities at Harrisburg, the committee voting a negative recommendation on it after a long debate.
This fact will be communicated to the House. The bill was designed to care for Pennsylvania's nine-month volunteers, and carried with it an appropriation of $250,000. It was estimated it would require $100,000 a year to maintain this pension system. Representative John Francis, of Allegheny, offered the measure.
—Men's $3 shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

ADJOINING COUNTIES.

Pennsylvania Grit has certainly attained a marvelous circulation. The total circulation for 1902 was 7,682,965. a weekly average of 147,760.
Richard the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lingle died at its parents' home at Patton on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, aged about eight months.
Buildings in New Barnham, near Lewisport, is progressing as rapidly as the weather will permit. We hear that a hundred or more homes will be built there in the spring.
The new Lutheran church at Oak Grove was dedicated on Sunday with appropriate services. In the evening the pastor, Rev. J. A. Zimmerman, was installed. This is the first church erected in this new railroad town.
Matt Savage, editor of the Public Spirit, after a hard fight received the Democratic nomination for Mayor of Clearfield. He has been doing some good work for that community in securing new industries and would make a good Mayor.
Henry T. Jarret, Register and Recorder of Clinton county, died very suddenly last Thursday evening while sitting in Rinn's tailor shop at Lock Haven talking to friends. Death was due to heart disease. He was born at Allentown in 1842 was a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and was serving his second term as Register and Recorder of Clinton county.
A company is being organized at Huntingdon for the purpose of generating electricity for lighting, manufacturing and other purposes. They propose to construct a dam in the narrows below Spruce Creek, where the river is hemmed in by the mountains, and will conduct the water along the side of the mountain to Petersburg, where the works will be erected. The fall will be about eighty feet, giving a force of 2000 horse power. The cost of the plant is estimated, at $500,000.

Not a Felony to Steal Coal.

The grand jury of Wyoming county decided that the theft of coal at this time is not a felony. The agent of the D. L. and W. railroad at Nicholson, Pa., swore out a warrant against Ulisses Grant Myers, of that borough, charging him with the larceny of coal from the company to the value of twenty dollars. The grand jury weighed the matter carefully and decided that it is not a felony to steal coal from the plaintiff company at this time. Not only was the bill against Myers dismissed, but the costs were placed upon the coal company.
—Men's $3 Patent Colt and Enamel shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

For Hospitals.

The report of the state board of charities on the amount of the state aid recommended for each institution will soon be presented to the legislature. Among the recommendations are the following: Huntingdon reformatory, $183,955; Philipsburg hospital, $22,600; Clearfield hospital, $2,000; Conemaugh Valley hospital, Johnstown, $30,000; Williamsport hospital, $25,000; Altoona hospital $25,000; DuBois hospital $4,000; Lock Haven hospital, $10,000; Girls' Training School, Williamsport, $4,000; Williamsport Home for the Friendless, $12,000; Florence Crittendon home, Williamsport, $2,500.

W. C. T. U. Star Course.

The following is the list of entertainments, comprising the Star Course, to be given in Petriken Hall, under the direction of the W. C. T. U. this season:
Patriotic Co., Concert, Feb. 24
Cott Novelty Co., Mar. 3
Course Tickets, $1.25; single admission, 50 cents; reserved seats 15 cents.

—Men's $5 Cordovan shoes, now $3.50. Yeager & Davis.

The Eureka Mfg. Co., of East St. Louis, Ill., want a man with rig to introduce Poultry Mixture in this county. They guarantee $3.50 a day to a good worker and they furnish back reference of their reliability. Send stamp for full particulars. EUREKA MFG. CO., Box 99, East St. Louis, Ill.

—Men's $4.50 Enamel shoes, now $3.30. Yeager & Davis.

My Lungs

"An attack of la grippe left me with a bad cough. My friends said I had consumption. I then tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and it cured me promptly."
A. K. Randles, Nokomis, Ill.

You forgot to buy a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral when your cold first came on, so you let it run along. Even now, with all your hard coughing, it will not disappoint you. There's a record of sixty years to fall back on.

These shoes: $14.50. All dealers.

—Men's $3 Patent Colt and Enamel shoes, now $2.25. Yeager & Davis.

This week we are closing our annual Inventory.

Watch this space in next week's paper for the greatest bargains ever advertised.

All odds and ends must be closed out before our Spring Stock arrives.

THE GLOBE

Katz & Co. Bellefonte