

BELLEFONTE AND VICINITY

The Local Happenings Condensed in Short Paragraphs

EVENTS WORTHY OF MENTION

What Has Transpired at the County Seat—Movements of our People—Personal and Social Events—Local Items Always Desired

—Thermometer Tuesday night registered 5 below 0. —Monday night's heavy snow fall, was general over the state. —Mac Gramley, Rebersburg's live industrial citizen, was a caller. —Mrs. D. Wagner spent last week visiting friends at Centre Hall and Centre Hill. —Perry Alters, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever for some time, is convalescent. —Mr. and Mrs. Abram Valentine, who have been visiting friends in Crafton, Pa., are home again. —Miss Mary Hunter Linn departed Thursday for a three weeks' visit to friends at Bryn Mawr. —The fruit trees covered with ice several days this week, what will the fruit crop be? Wait and see. —Have you ever tried to work those puzzles on Page 6. We always give answers the following week. —Bellefonte Lodge F. and A. M. will celebrate the semi-centennial of the Lodge next Saturday night, Feb. 21. —Mrs. C. M. Garman returned home last Thursday evening from an extended visit to friends in West Hoboken, N. J. —DeLann Stewart's new home on Linn street is nearing completion, the house will be ready for occupancy by the first of April. —Monday night's snow gave the shovel brigade of Bellefonte all the work it could wish. It's an ill snow that don't fall to some one's good. —Denmas Thompson and George W. Ryer's glorious play, "The Two Sisters" will be at the opera house next Wednesday evening, February 25th. —The fifth entertainment of the Star Course will be given in Petrikin Hall, Tuesday evening, Feb. 24th. Signor Patricolo is one of the most noted pianists in the musical world. —Among the honorary pallbearers at Judge Simonton's funeral, were Superior Court Judge, James A. Beaver, and Hon. Austin O. Farst, of the Centre County Court, Bellefonte. —While at work on his saw mill, John Haagen, near Mill Hall, came in contact with a circular saw and had two fingers cut off his right hand. The unfortunate man left at once for his home in Howard. —Harry McManaway, of Millheim, made us a rush call, and is the pleasant fellow to meet. Harry will move his family to Wolf's Store in a few weeks where he contemplates starting in the mercantile business. We wish him abundant success. —All trains were late on Tuesday on account of the deep snow Monday night. The train from Lewisburg was three hours late, and the train east on same road found it difficult to get through. The Lock Haven, Tyrone, and Mill Hall trains, all, were late. —Thirteen persons joined the Methodist Episcopal church on Sabbath morning, 8, and six who were taken into membership the week previous. Dr. W. P. Shrinser had been conducting a revival meeting for several weeks and it had good fruit for the past five weeks. —Mrs. Lewis Bolopue and children are at the home of A. V. Smith, on Thomas street, awaiting the arrival of Mr. Bolopue, who is bringing their furniture and other things from Guthrie, Oklahoma. He lately purchased a farm near Howard and is moving back. —It is quite a relief to have a pure, wholesome play like "The Two Sisters" come along—a play in which the amusement features, moral and the dramatic construction are superlatively the best, and never for a single instant can possibly give the slightest offence. At the opera house next Wednesday evening. —If your paper contains no "Annual Statement" this week it is because the present republican board did not supply us with the required amount. You are entitled to it, because you pay your taxes and should know how the money is spent. If you don't get a statement this week, telephone to the Commissioners office for one. —At the residence of Mrs. Catherine Hamilton, in Bush Addition, Wednesday afternoon 4th, when Mrs. Hamilton's daughter, Elizabeth, was given in marriage to Thomas W. Romick, of Niles, Ohio. The ceremony was performed by Dr. William Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, and took in the presence of seventy-five invited guests. —Telephone and telegraph wires on Monday morning were encased in an envelope of ice near quarter of an inch in thickness, and trees showed the same covering on all their branches, which remained all day. Nature does some fine work, and its work is done upon a principle that has never been improved upon and never will be—unlike the works of man.

—It pays a farmer to place his sale announcement in this paper. —Wm. Kerrin and Chas. Fleming, of Moshannon, were pleasant callers. —Several public sales have again been added to the register in the Democrat. —Mr. and Mrs. Frank McParlane, of Boalsburg, spent Sunday at the Hastings home. —Melvin Clarke, of Williamsport, spent Sunday in Bellefonte at the home of his uncle, U. H. Reamer. —R. F. Hunter arrived home on Saturday from Joplin, Mo., where he was looking after the zinc operations. —Gregg Post No. 95 G. A. R., will hold an entertainment on Washington's Birthday in the Post Room next Monday. —David Haines on Sunday morning in passing through his back yard slipped and fell and broke two of his ribs. The injury is considered serious. —In the absence of Miss Mary Bradley, Fred Weaver presided at the organ Sunday in the Episcopal church, and did it in a very creditable manner. —The Patricolo grand concert, Petrikin Hall, Tuesday evening, promises to be something of unusual merit. It is highly endorsed by leading papers. —During the past week Shem Spigelmeier, of Jersey Shore, has been buying up cloverseed among the farmers in this section. He reports it not very plenty. —Hiram A. Long, who is conducting a general store at Nittany, at the old Shaffer stand, paid us a call Monday. He reports business good in that valley. —Henry Potter, of near Linden Hall, and one of Harris township's substantial and most respected citizens, transacted business at the county seat a few days ago. —Rev. Ralph Illingsworth, of Arizona, was in town on Monday. He has been east on business for several weeks, and is visiting his father-in-law, H. M. Snyder, in Ferguson twp. —Miss Rebecca Cole left Sunday afternoon for Lewisburg, called there by the serious condition of her brother Frank W. Cole, who is threatened with the loss of the sight of an eye. —I. J. Lucas, connected with the rolling mills at Howard, was in to see us on Saturday and advanced his label. He reports a new industry contemplated for that community in the shape of a brick works. —C. M. Bowersox, of Dunlop, Iowa, formerly of Rebersburg, paid us a short call on Saturday. He is in the mercantile business at that place and is prospering. He thinks Iowa the best state west of the Mississippi. —Mrs. J. L. Seibert is entertaining her brother, Newton A. Bolich and his daughter. Mr. Bolich resides in Deming, New Mexico, where he is engaged in the dry goods business, it has been 18 years since he and Mrs. Seibert have seen each other. —Alex. Archey, of Bellefonte, Register of Centre county, was a prominent visitor to Lewisburg on Tuesday on legal business pertaining to his office. He is serving his second term in office, and was re-elected last fall by the democrats. —Lewisburg Journal —Prof. J. Angel, the well known eye specialist, of Williamsport will be at the Larimer building, opposite court house, Bellefonte, Monday, and Tuesday, Feb. 23-24. Every person that the professor has helped and gave relief in this county, knows that very few can equal him. —Archibald Allison is resting very comfortably at his home on Allegheny street. The fractured knee is causing him no pain, but he must remain in bed. With a good appetite, a telephone at his bed and ample time to entertain friends he is trying to make the best of his misfortune. —The following transacted business in town on Saturday and favored our sanctum with a call: Henry Heaton, of Yarnell; John Hoy, Jr., of Hablesburg; Adam Reish, Zion; Ed. Gephart, Zion; Ira Benner, State College; W. E. Grove, State College; Milton Riekle, Zion; Floyd Bowersox, Spring Mills; Geo. Markel, Linden Hall; E. H. Marshall, State College; G. H. In addition ice cream and cake will be served. Tickets for the supper will be 25 cents. —W. A. Lvon has received a postal card from Col. J. L. Spangler, dated Nassau, Bahama Islands, which reads, Feb. 11th, 1903, "Regular June weather, thermometer 70 degrees. Tomorrow we go fishing. It is delightful." —William C. Rowe, son of Recorder J. C. Rowe, is now one of the assistants in the Recorder's office and manipulates the machine like a veteran. If he keeps on developing speed, it will be necessary, when working, to keep a bucket of cracked ice handy to cool the bearings. —Miss Ida M. Lanier has resigned her position in Gabels department store at Altoona, and left for St. Louis, to take charge of the millinery department in the large establishment of Rosenthal-Sloan Millinery Co. —A lot of howling, low-grade, barn stormers presented a bum show at the opera house on Monday evening, entitled "A Jolly American Tramp." What they lacked in ability as actors they endeavored to make good by howling. The amusement feature was disgusting—a lot of cheap gags trying to be funny, being fallacies, would ring in a lot of smut to cheer up the galleries. It was the worst thing perpetrated on us for a long time. —Mr. Spigelmeier has sold another portion of the Racket store to Mr. Irvin. By the recent sale Mr. Spigelmeier retains the china store and a half interest in rooms adjoining containing notions. Mr. Irvin secured the other half and the entire room next along with the variety department and annex on second floor. Willard Hall, who conducts the news stand, in the china department, expects to move to Erie, Pa., after April 1st, to engage in the brokerage business.

A dispatch from Beech Creek says the stranger who visited the site of the Revel mansion on "Scout's mountain last week left drop a few hints which have fairly dazzled the few surviving old residents of this place who knew Revel. It appears that the queer old Englishman, who never told his business to anybody, was not penniless when he left, but, on the contrary, was obliged to leave a great amount of gold buried beneath his house, which it would not have been safe to take along. He died before he had a chance to return for the gold.
For over 50 years its existence was not known of even by Mrs. Revel or her daughter. A paper found recently among the old man's effects told of the treasure and contained a diagram which indicated how to reach it. The man who came here armed with this diagram was, it is believed, the grandson of General Revel. He stayed at the hotel in Beech Creek but did not register. It was only when he was aboard an outbound train that his exultation overcame him, and, exhibiting a heavy satchel, he remarked that in it was the Revel fortune which had been buried for 50 years.
Investigation has shown that the man did visit the place by day light, and a big expanse of upturned clod, together with the mouldering sides of what once was an iron box, tells of his search. —Express.
Houtzdale Undermined.
Judge Martin Bell, of Blair county, specially presided on Tuesday in a Clearfield county case, granted an injunction restraining the firm of Wertz & Kephart, coal operators, from running under the town of Houtzdale, Clearfield county. It was alleged by the municipal authorities that the foundations of the town were being weakened and the personal safety of the inhabitants endangered by the mining operations.
