Fur seems to be in great demand and about a dozen of our young trappers are now in the muskrat business.

Sunday, March 8th, was a day long to be remembered in the home of Eml. H. Muger. Their five children and eighteen grandchildren all took dinner at the parental home.

James Musser, of Snow Shoe, was seen on our streets on Saturday and Sunday.

Thos. Huey and Will Kellerman, of Grays Church, passed through our town on Saturday.

O! boys, and girls, did you ever see a horse with the mumps? I did, and he is no colt either.

Mrs. George Campbell, of Thompson Summit, visited her parents at this place, Joseph Tressler's.

When a fellow goes to see his girl and breaks a lantern it is nothing more than right to get her another in place of it—be good to the widows and orphans.

On last Sunday two of our fine young men passed through our town in a two horse buggy; it takes a large team to haul Harry and Allen.

J. B. Roan has completed his new house and will move in it soon; on the 30th of this month he will have a public sale of his farm stock and implements; his son-in-law, John Kelley, will move in the farm house and farm the place.

Mrs. Samuel Kelly and Mary Huey, of Philipsburg, spent a week among friends at this place.

B. F. Blair, of Wilmerding, came home on Saturday to attend to some business and see his old friends; he looks well.

The roads about this place have been in terrible condition, but have mended some during the sunshine.

A social will be held in the M. E. church during the evening of April 11th. The social will be known as the "dollar" social i. e. a limited number will strive to earn a dollar, anyway but from present occupation and will be requested to state how earned on evening of sociable. There will also be refreshments served such as ice cream and cake.

A number of students expecting to attend the summer school at this place have been around hunting boarding places.

Tuesday evening of last week the "Twentieth Century Club" celebrated one of the greatest "balls" of the season at the home of John Meyers, of near this place. The turn-out was one of the largest yet, and the evening spent was pleasing to all. (Although to some that were not present it wasn't so pleasing.)

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Highvalley.

On last Monday news reached the valley that Henry Snyder died on last Sunday. Henry Snyder was well known in the valley as a root doctor.

The grain fields look well; if nothing gets over them, a good crop may be expected.

Black Charley is around again and had a long talk with the Coburn No. 2 scribe. He also mentions the Georgetown scribe; he said he was sorry to hear that the old man lost his grinder—poor management caused it.

Jack Emmer is on the sick list; sorry to hear as Jack is not used to lay idle, he is an every day worker.

The east end lumber company have made their estimate what brush and thistles were burned by the last year's fire; according to their estimate it will bustle the railroad company to settle.

In my next I will try and give you readers the particulars about a wedding that is billed for April 2, on the P. S. Stover farm, one mile east of Pine Creek Mills.

"Stop and listen," is what the Coburn No. 2 scribe said to his hero, I think the Highvalley scribe will now understand what poor management is; I told him that the bull frogs will not dance and spit kuttiefeck gravy in his face, under poor management; the Highvalley scribe acknowledged that poor management often leads a man into trouble.

Now comes the Georgetown scribe; he has made a wise statement as well as the No. 2 of Coburn; he said when a man takes a lot of boys and girls for bull frogs he should be taken at once to Danville; he said he met him with a bag of oats to keep the whip-poor-wills alive; now the Highvalley scribe wonders whether a little oats would be accepted by the Georgetown scribe to lay a new blanket over Nelley's hips; if so please address Coburn, box No. 2, and the scribe will see that a bag of clean oats is shipped to Kuttiefeck station, free of charge.

Yarnell.

Old winter is gone, and the birds are reminding us that spring is here again.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Confer spent Sunday at Fairview with Mr. Confer's brother George, who has been confined to his bed with rheumatism.

We are pleased to have J. Ed. Confer and family located among us again. He has moved on his farm at this place.

Frank is laid up from a sprained leg. A five gallon can of milk fell on it and caused the trouble. Mrs. G. E. Cori and Miss Hannah Royer are on the sick list.

—Leave your orders at Teaman's early and don't risk getting disappointed, we will fill our orders for cut flowers strictly in rotation, first orders receive best goods.

Coburn.

We hear so much about race suicide these days that we made efforts to find out how our town stands on the subject. Our population at present is 238. Seventy different families are having their homes in this town and the average number of children to each family is only 2, and Herr Blumle would find only 8 mothers entitled to receive medals according to his proposed bill.

Mrs. J. A. Miller is visiting her parents in Bellefonte this week.

Ambrose Weber and wife, of Rebersburg, spent Sunday with the latter's sister Mrs. J. W. Glasgow.

L. E. Bartges left Monday for St. Louis to seek employment on the exposition grounds.

Annie Shaffer spent Sunday in Aaronsburg.

Mrs. Reuben Harter is suffering from pleurisy.

We noticed several times that our brother scribe used the initials C. T. U. in his correspondence, but we could not understand their meaning, as there is no Christian Temperance Union in this place; until lately we discovered that the letters stand for the Coburn Toper's Union which had a meeting Saturday night. The members are mostly boys, yet we are informed that some are young men who ought to be with their wives and babies at that time of night.

The carpenters are building a warehouse at the rear of Krader's store room.

W. E. Meyer, of Philadelphia, arrived here Sunday morning to attend the funeral of his step-mother on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Ann, wife of P. S. Meyer, at Pine Creek Mills, died last Friday of pneumonia, being sick about two weeks. She was a loving wife and a kind and affectionate mother. She is survived by her husband and three children, Mrs. John Winkleblech, Bessie and Orvis at home, and several brothers and sisters. Funeral services took place on Sunday forenoon in the Reformed church at Aaronsburg, interment in the Reformed cemetery. Her age was 43 years.

Martha Ann, wife of Jacob Snyder of near Spring Mills, died Monday forenoon at the home of her son Frank at this place where she came about one month ago. She has been suffering from a complication of diseases all winter. Her age was 68 years. Burial took place today (Thursday) in Georges valley.

Zion.

The snow is all gone and bicycles are said to be running.

The farmers are all busy hauling manure at present.

This scribe made a mistake as Chas. Fisser is not an agent for bicycles or repairs, as stated in last week's issue.

Calvin Hoy who is employed at Renovo, spent Sunday with his parents.

Milton Bickle lost a good horse last week.

Chas. Rocky says his turn comes on Monday night.

Quite a number of young folks attended the opera last week.

Quite a creek is running by this town for the past month.

Wonder what Kyle and John's attention is at Bellefonte every Saturday night—an opera we suppose.

Edgar Lutz and Epley Gentzel were around dehorning cattle last week.

Sam'l Miller, of Bellefonte, was the guest of Harry Rocky over Sunday.

The wheat fields are looking very promising in this locality and old mother sun is pushing it steadily along.

Spring Mills.

Give your insurance to T. B. Jamison, after your losses they are ready to pay what they promised you.

C. A. Crape has started to dig out the foundation for the new postoffice.

If it takes eight men to adjust a small fire, how many will it take to adjust a big one.

Mrs. Gramley, daughter of Prof. Gramley, of Rebersburg, Sundayed at her uncle's, T. M. Gramley; Cland Haines, also of Rebersburg, Sundayed here.

Prof. Bitner, of Millersburg, spent a couple days with his mother.

Misses May Smith and Renna Shires, two of our accomplished young ladies, Sundayed at Centre Hall.

Rev. Koonitz preached his farewell sermon; his discourse was ably handled before a crowded house.

Woodward.

Two little strangers arrived in town last week, a little daughter at the home of Prof. Edgar Stover, and a young son at the home of J. B. Ard.

Howard Bowersox, who is employed by the telephone company at Kingston, is paying his family a short visit.

This is certainly elegant weather for this time of the year, but will it hold out until the first of July is not for us to tell, but I think we will be paid back for this nice weather.

Herbert H. Stover, the photographer, was in our midst, taking the resemblance of both pretty and ugly faces.

The Paltz Bros. are busy sawing on the Motz mill at this place.

Mrs. Marrian Beck, of Farmers Mills, sister of H. W. Snyder, was visiting among friends at this place since the burial of her brother.

The spelling bee at this place was well attended, on last Friday eve, but so many do not take part; some because they can't spell, some because they are ashamed, others may think it is for the little ones; it will not hurt any one to take a little practice.

Sober.

E. H. Grove purchased a fine horse at the sale of Wm. Whitmyer on Saturday.

Mrs. Andrew Zerby is on the sick list.

L. W. Vonada, wife and little daughter, spent Sunday at W. Vonada's.
